"I hate power," he continued, his rage growing. "I hate money. The only thing I wish now that I was never born. All I want is peace. I'm not worried about my image. If we could just stop it, stop this fighting. But if we don't, I don't know what's going to happen to 1,200 lives here."

The music had ended. The interview had ended. Except for Rep. Ryan, his aides, Mr. Lane, Mr. Garry and a representative of the Guyanese government, the rest of us were soon on our way back to Port Kaituma, where Mr. Jones had arranged for us to sleep on the floor of a discotheque.

It was the last place Don Harris and Robert Brown of NBC and Gregory Robinson, a photographer for the San Francisco Examiner, would sleep. They would die the next afternoon.

That night, we were sitting around having a drink when a local policeman came to the discotheque. He sought us out and told us some things, one of which was particularly interesting. He said he knew for sure that there was at least one gun in Jonestown, an automatic rifle, that had been registered with the Guyanese government.

'Bald-Faced Lie'

Don Harris asked Mr. Jones about the gun in an interview that he taped when we returned to Jonestown the next morning.

"A bald-faced lie!" Mr. Jones thundered. "I seems like we are defeated by lies."

Mr. Jones said he believed there was a conspiracy against him and against the People's Temple, a conspiracy that he blamed for a number of lawsuits that he said prevented him from returning to the United States.

"I wish somebody had shot me dead," he said again. "Now, we're substituting media's smear for assassination."

Suddenly, the word came that several families had decided to leave with Rep. Ryan. People were gathering. Tension, for the first time, was so apparent that it could be felt.

Circumstances were pressing in. Facts were beginning to overcome Mr. Jones's denials as fast as he could make them. Don Harris was throwing questions at Mr. Jones, hard questions that events were making even harder to answer.

"The more that leave, the less responsibility we have," Mr. Jones was saying after denying that any one wanted to leave the idyllic life Jonestown offered. "Who in the hell wants people?"

Mr. Harris returned to the question of guns at Jonestown.

'I'm Defeated'

"This is rubbish. I'm defeated," Mr. Jones said, clearly near the breaking point. "I might as well die. The guns have never been used to intimidate people. Anyone is free to come and go."

Alleged Leader In Abduction of Empain Caught

PARIS, Nov. 22 (AP) — Bernard Caillol, alleged ringleader of the gang that kidnapped Baron Edouard-Jean Empain, had him hooded and chained for nine weeks, was arrested here tonight.

The police said Caillol, 37, was picked up as he arrived at an apartment where another alleged ranking member of the gang, George Rantondini, was captured earlier today.

Rantondini had been arrested in Lisbon June 16 but later expelled. Caillol's brother, Alain, was arrested in a shoot-out with the police March 28 when they closed in on the ransom of 20 million francs (about $5 million) for the baron who was reportedly being handcuffed.

Alain agreed after police interrogation to telephone the ransom demand to relatives of Baron Empain,

Soldiers Fire On Protesters in Tehran Bazaar

TEHRAN, Nov. 22 (UPI) — Iran moved tanks into the streets of the capital for the first time in 11 days today after a demonstration in the bazaar during which troops opened fire.

One of the approximately 200 demonstrators in the bazaar was reported shot in the leg. Witnesses said the demonstrators were shouting slogans against Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi and the premier, Gen. Gholam Reza Azhari, and in favor of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, the exiled Iranian religious leader who has been demanding the shah's abdication.

In Parliament, Gen. Azhari won a 191-to-37 vote of confidence for his 16-day-old regime. There were six abstentions. In a speech, Gen. Azhari said some elements had infiltrated peaceful demonstrations with the aim of overthrowing the government and "even destroying the nation."

There were also reports today of clashes between demonstrators and troops in the northeast holy city of Mashhad and in Shiraz in the south.

"The only thing I feel is that every time they go, they lie. What I thought was keeping them here was the fear of the ghetto, alienation, the fear of industrialized society. I must have failed somehow.

"I want to hug them before they leave," he said as events were quickly moving beyond his control. More people wanted to go. "I will let them. But they will try to destroy us. They'll try. They always lie when they leave."

People were crying. Families were divided with some members wanting to go but others not, fearing they could not.

Al Simon packed up his three kids and wanted to leave. As we were walking back to the dump truck for the final trip to Port Kaituma airstrip, Mr. Simon's wife began screaming.

"No, no, no," she screamed. Someone whispered to her: "Don't worry, we're going to take care of everything."

Rep. Ryan returned to the pavilion to see about the custody problem. We went to the truck. A few minutes later, as we waited, we heard a commotion. The newsmen ran to the pavilion but were stopped by security men.

Mr. Harris was allowed in as our representative. He came back to say that someone had tried to kill Rep. Ryan.

Suddenly, the congressman emerged and walked toward the truck. His clothes were covered with blood. The other man had been cut by his own knife as Mr. Lane and others wrestled with him to save Rep. Ryan.

Rep. Ryan was alright. But the violence had started. It was about 3 p.m. Saturday. Within 3 1/2 hours, three gunmen would attack us as we tried to board chartered aircraft and then, in a final act of desperation, Mr. Jones would order the mass suicide his people had rehearsed many times before.

Stephan Jones, 19, who was in Georgetown when the suicides took place, said yesterday that his father had gone crazy and that Jonestown had reflected his paranoia. But Mr. Jones said his father's dream of a socialist society was valid, that it had proven that man can could work.

Asked if Jonestown had not been an experiment in fascism — with its armed guard and other means of preventing people from leaving — rather than an experiment in socialism, Mr. Jones replied: "My father was the fascist. Jonestown was, and still could be, beautiful."

Tunisia Seizes Two Sicilian Fishing Boats

MAZARA DEL VALLO, Sicily, Nov. 22 (AP) — Tunisian gunboats intercepted two Sicilian fishing boats and forced them into a Tunisian port, the captain of another fishing boat said today.

The captain told port authorities that he saw the Tunisian boats intercept the Michele Asaro, based here, with a crew of nine, and the Pistone, with 11 men aboard, 40 miles south of Lampedusa Island.

Tunisian maritime authorities said the boats were intercepted off the Tunisian coast and their captains charged with violating Tunisia's territorial waters.

Last week Tunisian authorities released five fishing boats and their Carter Cuts Back Exports of Arms To Countries Not Allied With U.S.

Places a Ceiling of $8.43 Billion on Current Total—Reduction Is the Second in Two Years

Reported by The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 — President Carter announced today that he had placed a ceiling of $8.43 billion on the total value of American arms that could be sold in the 1979 fiscal year to nations not allied with the United States. That figure represents a modest reduction from the previous total.

The ceiling, which does not apply to American arms exports to allied countries in Western Europe or to Japan, Australia and New Zealand, represents the second successive cut in two years ordered by the President. Both times he said the cut amounted to 5 percent.

Mr. Carter said the reduction in the ceiling for the 1979 fiscal year, which began Oct. 1, would be $333 million. But he arrived at that figure by using a bookkeeping method that took into account the impact of inflation. A simple comparison of fiscal 1978 and fiscal 1979 totals shows a decrease of only $117 million.

$8 Billion in Arms to Allies

With total arms sales to allies running about $3 billion, the total for both allies and others in the 1978 fiscal year, which ended last Sept. 30, was $13.2 billion. There is no ceiling on arms exports to NATO countries, Japan, Australia and New Zealand.

Administration officials said that estimate. Under law, however, the Administration must send plans for specific arms sales to Congress, which has 20 days in which it can disapprove them.

In a statement released by the White House today, Mr. Carter said he was "pleased to announce that this Government has kept its pledge to take the lead-ership in restraining arms sales."

At the same time he indicated that the Administration could not continue its policy of restraint indefinitely without other arms exporters following suit. Accordingly, he said the Administration was now making a "maximum effort" to achieve the cooperation of other major arms suppliers.

"My decision on American arms transfer levels for fiscal year 1980," he said, "will depend on the degree of cooperation we receive in the coming year from other nations, particularly in the area of specific achievements and evidence of concrete progress on arms transfer restraint."

Foreign Competitors Unconvinced

So far, the Administration has not succeeded in getting its major competitors in the arms trade, Britain, France and the Soviet Union, to join it in cutting back on sales. Early last year, Paris and London informed Washington that they would not

TESTIMONY OF CLARE BOUQUET BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE, COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS

FEBRUARY 20, 1980

I would like to express my gratitude to Congressman Royer and to the members of this subcommittee for giving me an opportunity to come here and for allowing me to speak to them on a subject which has, for some time, been very close to my heart. I believe I can speak for all the people who have been drawn close to each other in this tragedy when I say, "Please hear us!" I refer particularly to Beverly Oliver, who was asked to be here today, but is unable to leave the side of her husband, who became disabled by a stroke, suffered in the Pegasus Hotel in Georgetown, Guyana, on November 19, 1978. Beverly and Howard lost their two sons - their only children.

I want to especially thank Chairman Fascell for his kind words in his memorial address, delivered in Congress, in tribute to Leo Ryan. I quote from that address: "We pay tribute to a man who believed that every person was worth helping, and that every problem could, and should, be confronted." I implore all of you to confront the problem before us now, in the names of Leo Ryan, of my son Brian, and his wife, and of all the tragic victims of Jonestown.

It has been 15 months since that day when over 900 Americans died, in the jungle of Guyana. The shock and horror experienced by those of us who went to Guyana to attempt to see our family members and, if possible, bring them home, is still with us, and I think always will be.

Some segments of our society have dismissed them as a bunch of crazy fanatics, or a grotesque spectacle. But someone loved each one of them. They went to Guyana looking for some sort of promised land, and found themselves prisoners in hell.

The problem before us now, I believe, is discovering the real truth about what happened in Guyana. I think it has been over simplified, and it may take a very long time to unfold. However, I, for one, will not rest until I know for sure what really happened. I, personally, contributed 86 pages of testimony to the Staff Investigative Group of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. I know of several others who did the same thing; yet, our specific testimony is included only in a classified edition of the report, which has not been made available to any of us. All we received was a 37 page report, with only very general statements about our testimony. The report states on page 29, and I quote, "The U.S. Embassy in Guyana did not demonstrate adequate initiative, sensitive reaction to, and appreciation of progressively mounting indications of highly irregular and illegal activities in Jonestown."

On page 39 it says, "Absent in the Embassy's dealings with People's Temple were the vital elements of common sense and an honest and healthy skepticism" We are talking about the loss of 914 lives, including a United States Congressman; not a simple mistake! The frustration I personally feel and felt, and I am certain others parallel me in their attempts to get help is overwhelming. I turned to everyone I could think of in any position of authority, from the President right down to direct appeals to the embassy officials in Georgetown, Guyana, dating back to March 1978 - nine months before my son was finally killed. I, myself, mailed copies of the affidavits of Yolanda Crawford and Debbie Layton Blakey, both of whom escaped from Jonestown, to Mr. Ellice, the U.S. Consul in Guyana. I asked in July 1978, for a team of inspectors to be sent into Jonestown to stay for several days, in order to accurately assess what was really true. I even sent a recent picture of my son and his wife, so that there would be no mistake about who the embassy officials were talking to, and so that they would know what they looked like before they left this country. I was told, in writing, by two consular officials, Mr. McCoy and Mr. Ellice, that a visit to Jonestown would occur about the end of August. No one actually went out there until November 7, one week before Leo Ryan's previously announced visit, along with the rest of us, to Guyana.

On Thursday, November 16, the day our group had an appointment with the ambassador, I called the embassy to inquire from Mr. Ellice why I had heard nothing since August. I was told by him that a visit had been made, and that a letter had been mailed to me at home. As we walked into the embassy, at 2:00, I was handed a letter regarding the November 7 visit to Jonestown, with Mr. Ellice's comment that evidently someone had "forgotten" to mail it.

In the State Department's own report on their performance in Guyana it states that quarterly visits had been set up to Jonestown, due to the allegations against the Temple. Why, then, did no one go out there for 6 months? I have heard it said that the trips were "delayed". What embassy business could possibly have been more urgent than a threat to the lives and well-being of over 900 Americans? The State Department points the finger at the embassy for, and I quote from the Foreign Affairs Report, "The lamentable breakdown in communications" and the embassy points back at the State Department. Where does the buck stop?

Who exactly is responsible? I think it's very commendable that the State Department is now implementing the recommendations of that Committee's report, by doing threat assessments before a Congressman visits a foreign country, by training consular officials in the psychological aspects of mind control, and so forth. But that won't help Leo or Brian or Maria Katsaris or any of the rest of them.

Finally, I would like to ask why, although I realize that the circumstances were somewhat different, were the lives of our hostages, including over 250 innocent children, not equally as important as those of the hostages in Iran? Why were they slaughtered without any help from anyone except one very brave Congressman? What will it take to put the puzzle together? When are we, in this country, going to start thinking about people as our number one priority, rather than oil. I'd rather get a horse, any day, than give up any of my children!

I ask this subcommittee to assist us in our pursuit of the whole truth of the story of Guyana.

Again, I wish to thank Congressman Royer and his able staff for their interest and assistance, and I thank this subcommittee in advance for the help which I feel sure they will not deny us.

Thank you.

I would like to express my appreciation to Chairman Fascell for convening these oversight hearings. I know that Leo Ryan had the highest personal regard for Mr. Fascell. He considered him to be his mentor on this committee and his friend.

I also want to thank Rep. Bill Royer for his role in pressing for these hearings. His efforts have earned him the respect of everyone who was touched by the tragedy in Guyana in November, 1978. It is an irony of fate that this subcommittee is one on which Leo Ryan served and worked closely with members who are here today.

The conduct of this open Congressional hearing can help to determine if our government withheld vital information from Rep. Leo Ryan, and if his death and the death of over 900 persons could have been averted.

Leo went to Guyana in a last ditch effort to determine the validity of serious charges made about Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple in Jonestown. Rep. Ryan had received detailed allegations that at least some of the more than 900 Americans there were being held against their will under brutal, inhuman circumstances. He would not have led a Congressional delegation there if the facts could have been determined any other way.

Rep. Royer's office has informed me that the purpose of these oversight hearings is "to determine what the State Department has done to implement the recommendations contained in the Foreign Affairs Committee staff report and the State Department report on the performance of the State Department in the Jonestown matter".

The recommendations appear to be useful and, if implemented properly, they should improve the quality of State Department performance overseas. One of the most difficult areas is that of review of exemption provisions under the Privacy Act and the Freedom of Information Act. It is clear that the Privacy Act was interpreted by the State Department to deny Representative Ryan access to pertinent information concerning Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple in Guyana.

It is also clear that the Freedom of Information Act was interpreted by State Department personnel in such a way as to provide complete access to Jim Jones about inquiries or actions concerning Jones and the Peoples Temple. Our experience in the Ryan office in that regard is detailed in the attached news story in the San Mateo Times of 12/6/78, "Somehow the Word Would Get to Peoples Temple" (Exhibit A). That free flow of information to Jones from the State Department, and the reasons for it, have never been properly addressed. Was it de-facto State Department policy or was it the work of a few key officials with close ties to Jim Jones?

A major issue that has escaped scrutiny is the emphasis placed by the State Department on promoting American Commercial interests overseas as its first priority, to the detriment of the problems of individual U.S. citizens abroad. That issue was raised by Rep. Paul McCloskey in an interview published in the San Mateo Times on 12/8/78, "McCloskey Slams State Department (Exhibit B).

The following is an excerpt from that news story:

> "A congressional investigation of the Jonestown massacre is likely to show that the U.S. State Department was more concerned with promoting exportation of natural resources from Guyana than exposing injustices within Peoples Temple or protecting Americans visiting that country, Rep. Paul McCloskey told The Times Thursday.

The Republican congressman from Menlo Park who had worked with his slain colleague, Rep. Leo J. Ryan, for State Department intervention in the Jonestown commune, stated:

"I think an investigation will bring out that the Guyanese government had a relationship with (the Rev. Jim) Jones and that the U.S. Embassy (in Georgetown) knew about it, accepted it and didn't try to intrude.

"Based on my dealings with the State Department, I think it is apparent that the department was more concerned with getting along with the Guyanese...and promoting exports from that country than it was in protecting U.S. Citizens."

The most important mineral resources in Guyana are bauxite and manganese. Gold and diamonds also are mined. Bauxite is the principal source of aluminum.

McCloskey said it is the "inherent mission" of all U.S. embassies, as representatives of the president, to place more emphasis on maintaining > an amiable relationship with a host country and promoting exports than looking after the interests of citizens abroad.

> He said it is his hope that the investigation will result in an order by the House International Relations Committee that embassies take a "stronger position" on the well-being of Americans."

I find nothing in the State Department recommendations that remotely touches on this matter.

One of the State Department recommendations most pertinent to the Guyana tragedy was Item G (1) which stated:

> "G. The Department should strengthen its support for Congressional delegations travelling overseas. We endorse the current efforts of the Department to provide: (1) more definitive threat assessments in areas to be visited by Congressional groups;"

Threat assessments, to be effective, must necessarily include current intelligence data from the area involved. The question is whether the results of such intelligence data will be shared with Congressional delegations or withheld from them. The record shows that no such intelligence data was made available to Leo Ryan concerning Guyana. In fact, the State Department denied knowledge of any intelligence data concerning the Peoples Temple in Guyana in its report of 12/13/78 from Douglas Bennet, Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations, to Rep. Clement Zablocki, Chairman of the International Relations Committee. Question #8 from Chairman Zablocki asked:

"Were the activities of the Peoples' Temple Church investigated by the FBI and/or other U.S. Government agencies and, if so, were their findings made available to the Department of State?"

The State Department response was:

"The Department of Justice has informed the Department that it conducted no investigations of the Peoples' Temple prior to the death of Congressman Ryan. We have been informed that the Federal Communications Commission investigated use of amateur radio stations by the Peoples' Temple to determine whether that use violated the Federal Communications Act of 1934.

The Department is unaware of any other investigations that may have been conducted by other U.S. Government agencies of the Peoples' Temple or its activities other than the single report of the Customs investigation noted in our response to Question 7 above."

That response can be true only if you believe that U.S. government intelligence operations in Guyana were completely shielded from the State Department. Our government did have an intelligence presence in Guyana prior to Leo Ryan's trip there. I know that an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency witnessed his death. On the afternoon of November 18, 1978, I received two phone calls in California from Washington, D.C. The first was from the Carribbean Desk at the State Department. I had been in touch with them several times that day because of my concern over Leo's presence at Jonestown and the potential danger there.

The State Department caller told me that they had just received a report from the American Embassy in Georgetown of a shooting incident at the Port Kaituma airstrip. The report said that three people had been killed and fifteen wounded, and that Rep. Ryan may have been one of those killed.

Within fifteen minutes, I had a second phone call, this time from a member of the White House staff whom I know personally. He told me that five people had been killed, including Leo. When I said that his information differed from that which I just received from the State Department, he responded, "Joe, our information is correct. We have a CIA report from the scene".

The White House aide then asked my assistance in identifying the other four persons by describing their roles. Because of my familiarity with the mission, I was able to identify Don Harris and the TV newscaster, Bob Brown as the TV cameraman and Greg Robinson as the still photographer.

Since a CIA agent was present at the assassination of Congressman Ryan, it seems reasonable to assume that our government had received prior reports on the Peoples Temple.

Further confirmation of CIA activities in Guyana are contained in a San Mateo Times news story of 12/14/79, "CIA Agent Witnessed Jonestown Mass Suicide" (Exhibit C). I have been informed that House rules forbid specific charges against named individuals in open session, but I am ready to discuss such charges against more than one individual in Executive Session if this Committee chooses to hear them.

I believe that the tragic consequences of withholding intelligence data from Leo Ryan in Guyana should serve as a warning to all future Congressional delegations abroad. Unless the Congress insists on the inclusion of such data in State Department threat assessments, the ability of Congress to fulfill its fact-finding and investigative responsibilities will be at the mercy of the Executive Branch of the government.

It also appears that existing law may have been broken by the Central Intelligence Agency in failing to report to the appropriate Committees in Congress on its covert activities in Guyana. In December of 1974, as an amendment to the Foreign Aid Act, Congress approved a provision sponsored by Harold Hughes of Iowa in the Senate and by Leo Ryan of California in the House. This is what it said:

> "No funds appropriated under the authority of this or any other act may be expended by or on behalf of the CIA for operations in foreign countries, other than activities intended solely for obtaining necessary intelligence, unless and until the president finds that each such operation is important to the national security and reports, in a timely fashion, a description and scope of such operation to the appropriate committees of the Congress.'

The CIA did have an operation in Guyana, in addition to the obtaining of necessary intelligence. That operation was specifically designed to support the government of Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, and there are credible reports that it included covert support for Jim Jones as an ally of Forbes Burnham. Specifically, the Peoples' Temple provided funds to the Burnham group and also acted as a terrorist organization to intimidate the opponenents of the Burnham regime. And the Burnham government was cooperative with our commercial interests and with the policy of the U.S. State Department in promoting the exportation of natural resources from Guyana.

It seems almost certain now that our intelligence sources were aware that charges that American citizens were being held in bondage were true, and that they allowed that condition to continue in the interests of their mission. They also withheld that information from members of Congress, including Leo Ryan, and from desperate relatives who pleaded for government assistance for their loved ones. The Department of State consistently reassured such relatives that all was well at Jonestown. A typical example is the State Department response of 6/16/78 to Sherwin Harris of Lafayette, California (Exhibit D).

By the time that Leo Ryan led the Congressional delagation to Guyana in November, 1978, the difficult question posed for our government was whether or not it should admit to Ryan that:

1. A covert intelligence operation existed in Guyana that had not been reported to appropriate committees in Congress as required by law;

2. American citizens were being held in Jonestown against their will;
3. Our government was using Jim Jones as an ally of the Burnham government to maintain its control of Guyana.

Someone, or some group, made the decision to "stonewall" the Ryan delegation. That was a fatal mistake, although at the time it must have appeared that Leo's mission would fail since it was obvious that neither our government, the government of Guyana nor Jim Jones wanted him in Guyana, or especially in Jonestown. Under those circumstances, it appeared very unlikely that one lone Congressman would be able to "kick down the doors", to use one of Leo's pet phrases. On the other hand, it was likely that if Leo Ryan had been given intelligence data indicating that American citizens were being held against their will under brutal circumstances, he would have used that information with the appropriate committee in Congress to force our government to free those people. Leo would not have had to go to Guyana. And all those deaths would have been averted.

News accounts from Georgetown at the time of the Ryan mission there said that Leo was winning the media or public-opinion battle against Jim Jones. Before Leo's departure for Guyana, he and I discussed his plan to go up to the gates of Jonestown, in the presence of the media, and request permission to enter. If such permission were refused, Leo would then return to Congress with proof that Jonestown was a closed settlement. If he was allowed to enter, he intended to assess the situation there fairly, but to insist on talking alone to specific people and to personally escort any one out who wished to leave.

When it became obvious that Leo Ryan was going to Jonestown even without prior agreement by Jim Jones, our government had its last chance to disclose the true nature of the situation there to Leo. Someone decided at this juncture to take the chance that Jones would be able to put on a show that would convince the Ryan group that all was well in Jonestown. It seems incredible to me that our government, knowing what it did about the situation inside Jonestown and the potential for violence there, would take that chance. It is a terribly harsh question to ask, but is it possible that even the terrible tragedy that occurred was preferred over disclosure of our covert operation in Guyana?

In reviewing the adequacy of the recommendations from the State Department, the most significant omission is that of the presence of CIA personnel in key roles within the State Department. Their existence is known to our allies and to our potential enemies alike. It is a secret only from the American public. I believe that the CIA serves a vital and essential purpose in our national interest. I also understand that its personnel operate under orders from the National Security Agency and the President. Their work is often dangerous and they must be protected. It may be necessary under some circumstances for CIA personnel to use the cover of the State Department employees. However, such usage should be kept to an absolute minimum since it can obviously create radical mutations in policy and endanger the lives of American citizens abroad unless great care is taken.

If, as seems probable, our State Department policy towards the Peoples Temple and Guyana was dominated by the CIA operation there, the Department's laxness and indifference to petitions and complaints from refugees (or defectors) and from concerned relatives becomes more understandable. Some of the major petitions and affidavits which were ignored or "lost" included:

1. The Concerned Relatives' petition of May 10, 1978 to the Secretary of State; which included sworn notarized affidavits concerning the abuse of human rights by Jones.

2. The April 10, 1978 affidavit of Yolanda D.A. Crawford, a People's Temple defector, describing beatings and abuses in Jonestown.

3. The affidavits of May and June, 1978, by Debbie Blakey describing suicide rehearsals and other serious charges.

The State Department's response of June 26, 1978, to Ambassador Burke's telegram of June 6, 1978, was a clear rejection of Burke's request for permission to discuss the Jonestown situation with the Government of Guyana. It seems quite possible, in retrospect, that this rejection was influenced by intelligence agency considerations.

Some knowledgeable observers may argue that the deaths of Leo Ryan, the media members and over 900 American residents of Jonestown may be the price we had to pay to keep control of Guyana. Sort of a "that's war, folks; that's the way it is" attitude. But what if Guyana falls anyway, and soon? That spectre was raised in a news article from London and published in the San Francisco Chronicle on December 9, 1979, "Guyana May Be the Next to Fall" (Exhibit E).

That article detailed the desperate economic plight of the Guyanese people and their growing opposition, now estimated at 75 to 80 percent, to the Burnham government. It also discussed the use of violence by another U.S. based pseudo-religious group. This group, "The House of Israel", appears to be the strong-arm successor to the People's Temple in support of Burnham. If the tragedy at Jonestown was in fact allowed to happen to protect the secrecy of our intelligence operations in Guyana, the ultimate tragedy when Guyana falls will be that it was in vain.

I submit that our government policy in the under-developed countries in the Carribean is fatally flawed if it is based solely on the protection of U.S. commercial interests. We must be more supportive to the native economies in the Carribean if we are to maintain our sphere of influence against Cuba and Russia.

Grenada, a small island nation near Guyana, has already been taken into the Communist sphere of influence, despite our support for the government of Sir Eric Gairy, which fell in March, 1979. It is of interest to note that Gairy and Jim Jones were close enough for Gairy to visit Jones at the Peoples Temple in San Francisco prior to Jones' departure to Guyana. A photograph of the two together appears in a book "The Suicide Cult" written by an San Francisco Chronicle reporter, Ron Javers.

It has been reported that Jim Jones had planned to escape to Granada with a select group of supporters following the mass murders in Jonestown. Jones did not intend to die in Jonestown. No paraffin tests were ever made on his hands to determine if he had fired a gun. It is now known that more than one million dollars of Peoples' Temple money was deposited in a Grenada bank. It should also be noted here that the pathology report by the Guyanese coroner showed that a high percentage of the victims examined were injected in the back with the poison. The proof was the blisters on the backs at the point of injection. We also know that an undetermined number of the Jonestown residents showed up in Grenada following the Jonestown tragedy.

My reason for going beyond a discussion of the recommendations by the State Department is that the fault may be with Government policy rather than with the day-to-day conduct of State Department employees. When a tragedy of this magnitude occurs, we should do more, much more, than be content with a surface examination of individual conduct.

I realize that many of the matters I have discussed today are beyond the purview of this subcommittee, or of any standing committee of the Congress. For that reason, I ask now for the formation of a Special House Committee with full power to investigate all aspects of the Jonestown tragedy, including its impact on our foreign policy and our relations with neighboring nations in the Caribbean.

Some of the questions to be addressed by such a Select Committee would include the following:

1. Is it State Department policy to make protection of American commercial interests abroad its top priority at the expense of the safety of American citizens?

2. To what extent is the CIA used to promote and protect American commercial interests abroad, in addition to its normal functions of gathering intelligence? Does such protection result in the creation of animosity toward our country by citizens of these nations?

3. Did our government use Jones and the Peoples Temple to support the Burnham government? If so, was the purpose to protect the commercial export of raw materials such as bauxite and manganese?

4. Were members of our intelligence agencies serving in key positions in our Embassy in Guyana and in the State Department in Washington, D.C., and were they directed by our government to use those positions to control State Department conduct regarding complaints against the Peoples Temple?

5. Did our government knowingly acquiesce in the intolerable conditions of bondage at Jonestown in order to maintain control of the Guyanese government?

6. Was our government, through its intelligence operation, fully aware of the arms in Jonestown and the potential for violence there? If so, why did it fail to insist on armed protection by the Guyanese government for the Ryan mission? Was Leo Ryan set up for murder?

7. Did a member of the CIA, who was also a State Department official, go back into Jonestown after the killings at Port Kaituma and witness the mass murder/suicide scene there? If so, why?

8. Who killed Jim Jones and why?

9. Has the Administration used "National Security" as an excuse to cover up the monumental error of withholding vital information from Leo Ryan concerning Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple in Jonestown, an error that led directly to the tragedy?

I thank you for the opportunity to present this statement in an open hearing before this committee. My personal feelings about the tragic death of my good friend, Leo Ryan, are obvious. He is gone, but I believe that we should now proceed to examine fully the causes of this tragedy and to ensure that the errors leading to it are corrected for the good of our nation.

Ryan's Calls to State Department

'Somehow the Word Would Get to Peoples Temple'

By JOHN BORGAN
RICK SULLIVAN

Prior to the Nov. 18 suicide-murder of more than 900 persons in the Guyana settlement of the Rev. Jim Jones, the Peoples Temple possessed a sophisticated intelligence network which permitted the cult to obtain sensitive information rapidly from a number of government agencies, including the U.S. State Department.

According to Joe Holsinger, administrative aide to the late Rep. Leo Ryan, D-San Mateo, as soon as Ryan's office would make its inquiry of the State Department or provide data to that agency on Peoples Temple, letters would be forthcoming from cult members here in the Bay Area urging that Ryan desist in his efforts to probe the church's affairs.

"We began to think there might be a connection, where as soon as we would contact the State Department, somehow the word would get to Peoples Temple," said Holsinger.

"We called it a Patterson reaction," he said.

Did that odd circumstance indicate a possible leak inside the State Department itself before Ryan's journey to South America?

Said Holsinger, "I don't think I'd call it a leak. It could have been someone being pretty stupid. It could have been just incompetence. We figured that whoever was down there (in the U.S. embassy in Guyana) and viewing the reports, felt there was nothing wrong and that was part of the problem. We didn't know whether it was incompetence or what it was. But Leo was going down there to find out."

Holsinger's comments about the State Department's surprising lack of security involving information about Peoples Temple fit a general pattern which has come to light since the Nov. 18 deaths and the murders of Ryan and four other people at the Port Kaituma airport in Guyana.

Law enforcement officials in Los Angeles have revealed that Peoples Temple operatives in that city knew about the secret address of two cult defectors who have been cooperating with investigators there.

One deputy district attorney in Los Angeles expressed amazement at finding the confidential address at a real estate office listed to Peoples Temple. The address was found during a search of the office, a search which also turned up about 200 rounds of ammunition, bomb-making plans, and a dummy time-bomb.

"We were amazed to find that address there because we thought it was known only to law-enforcement," said Lee Cogan.

Additionally, the FBI has expressed a desire to question Tim Carter, 20, the former Burlingame man who was one of Jones' key assistants in Guyana.

Carter has said he came back to the Bay Area last month to infiltrate those connected with Ryan's trip in an attempt to gain information about the planned fact-finding mission to Jonestown.

Carter, along with Michael Carter, 20, his brother, and Michael Prokes, 21, are being kept under house arrest in Georgetown.

Deborah Layton Blakey, sister of Larry Layton who has been charged in the deaths of Ryan and five others at Port Kaituma, has stated that government officials in Guyana had been compromised by Jones.

A Temple defector, Mrs. Blakey has said she was part of a Temple delegation which made daily visits to the Russian embassy in Georgetown to negotiate the transfer of the settlement to the Soviet Union.

She has said that U.S. officials at the American embassy in Georgetown were "extremely close" to Jones. She has said that one of them, Richard McCoy, had told her not to take her assertions of oppression and possible arms stockpile to the press.

After the warning from McCoy, she has said, she got a letter that referred to her conversation with him which threatened her life if she took her complaints to the press. She has said the letter was apparently from Jones.

Holsinger said Ryan was aware that there were weapons inside Jonestown. "We knew there were armed guards around there," he said.

Holsinger said Ryan's office, which had been con-piling information on Peoples Temple for more than a year before the congressman's trip, had turned over to the State Department copies of virtually everything which had been turned up in the investigation here.

That included information on Jones' suicide ritual, reports of gun-running and other matters.

"It was not the State Department warning Lee of any danger," said Holsinger. "It was Lee warning the State Department. Only they didn't listen. We sent them copies of our reports. We sent them what we had. We asked for further investigation. But they apparently preferred to support and confirm their own field reports from Guyana. If they had sent their own investigators from Washington, they would have found enough to have prevented this tragedy." State Department officials have said they did try to warn Ryan of the existence of weapons in Jonestown.

One problem that Ryan's office had, said Holsinger, was that it was difficult to determine what to believe about all of the dire allegations being made about Jones, Peoples Temple, Jonestown, etc. in the months before Ryan's trip.

"We were starting to believe that there was a great deal of merit to what these people were saying," said Holsinger, referring to many of the relatives of Peoples Temple members here in the Bay Area. "We weren't sure how much was emotional. We weren't sure how far it went."

Holsinger said he personally advised Ryan to be extremely wary of the Jonestown venture. "I advised him that if the reports turned out to be even half true, the possibility for physical intimidation existed. I thought they might try to provoke a fight. When it came down to the matter of guns, or taking up protection, Lee pointed out, and I think rightly so, that Mark Lane was claiming around CIA invasion under the guise of some government agency to disrupt Jonestown. Lee said if we took any guns in there at all they'd use that to claim provocation and say we started it."

Although, said Holsinger, Ryan did not originally intend to take the media along with him, he was glad he did so as he prepared to leave for South America.

"Lee said they (the press) were the best protection he could have. They were better than guns. I found out later that the media felt kind of afraid but they felt that Lee was their best protection. We didn't understand the potential. We knew these people were possibly very psychotic or whatever. We were concerned. But Lee said you can't give in to fear. He said we've got to get the job done and no one else will do it."

In an interview with The Times, Holsinger addressed a range of other issues relating to Ryan's trip and Peoples Temple.

Here are the questions and Holsinger's responses:

Where did your office receive its first inquiry about Peoples Temple from a concerned person?

Lee came from Sam Houston of San Bruno. He was a wire service photographer. He told us his son, Robert, had been involved with Peoples Temple. According to his parents, he had planned to leave the temple. The next night, he was found dead. His two daughters had been taken to Guyana and the grandparents were worried.

When was the first time Ryan or someone in Ryan's office contacted the State Department about the Peoples Temple affair?

I'm not sure. There was a December 1977 letter to Secretary Vance on the (Tim) Stoen case. We probably first contacted the State Department in the summer of 1977. But I can't remember.

Did you or anyone else in the Ryan office contact the State Department either personally or on the phone? Or did you do it all by letter?

I talked personally with some people I don't want to identify. They said they were basing their opinions on the basis of reports from one or two field men. Richard McCoy was the principal one.

Are we correct in saying that the State Department did not mention danger per se in Jonestown?

No. What they said was ... if any trouble erupted, they were not in a position to provide any protection (for Ryan and his party).

What about the concept of inconvenient circumstances resulting from Lee's trip? Did the State Department ever allude to, even vaguely, the possibility of unfavorable international consequence?

That seemed to be a general thread. It wasn't that so much as they said this was an independent country. They felt they were guests in that country and that they had no powers in that country. The result of it (this attitude), in my opinion, were in the precursors of the Chile disaster. Our administration had a general policy of avoiding direct intervention in Latin and South American. Nobody knew enough to make this (Jonestown) the exception.

Did you ever get the impression that the State Department did not want you to go down there?

Yes.

Can you elaborate on that?

For example, when Lee asked that someone from the State Department's legal aid office go with him, they said everyone was too busy. The general impression was that this was something they weren't anxious to see happen. They were satisfied that things were benign. They almost seemed to indicate that this was some kind of a trouble-making sort of thing. They didn't seem concerned at all about the people who were down there.

What could the State Department have gained by not giving Ryan or Ryan's office a full briefing on everything they may have known?

I think they did as far as they knew. They gave him a briefing but the State Department file seemed to indicate that there was nothing wrong.

Has it occurred to you that the State Department actually withheld information it had on Jonestown because of a fear that Ryan might take that informa-

We have no such indication.

If not, how can it be explained that the CIA reported the ambush accurately to embassy officials at Georgetown within an hour of the event at the Port Kaituma airport and that the State Department transferred John Burke from a highly sensitive post in Thailand to remote Guyana last December?

My reaction is that if there was a CIA report, then one of Guyana crew members may have been their source. That's possible. I just don't know otherwise. As far as Burke is concerned, I know nothing about his career. I can't answer that question. I don't know.

At Ryan family spokesman George Carey's press conference on Nov. 18, he said the first word you got that there might be a problem was a State Department phone call to you in which the caller said there was an unconfirmed CIA report (on the ambush).

That's not what I said. I had two calls. I had been calling the State Department all day because I was nervous. I called at 3 o'clock California time. Then I got a call at 4 o'clock on this unconfirmed report. Fifteen minutes later, I got a call from someone in the White House. Rather than four people dead, the caller said five were dead and one of them was Leo Ryan. There were two separate calls. I do not recall having ever said anything about the CIA. That may have been an interpretation by someone else.

Was Ryan aware that even the act of leading people out of Jonestown, with or without journalists, could trigger a mass suicide?

No.

Was that discussed before the trip?

No. We had talked about that as sort of an act of faith, a tying together, a ritual he (Jones) went through for psychological effect. We never had any idea that it was more than a psychological trick.

Was Ryan or Ryan's office aware that Jones' health was apparently seriously impaired and that he was close to death?

We had heard those reports coming out. The concerned relatives told us it was a bunch of bogunsh.

Did the State Department ever suggest postponing the trip to see if Jones would die a natural death?

No. They never suggested that. I don't think anyone was really believing it. There was so much showmanship going on that you couldn't separate fact from fancy.

Did you and Leo ever discuss the possibility of the entire settlement moving en masse to the Soviet Union or Cuba or some other communist country?

That was Mark Lane's comment. We knew of the threat. We laughed at it. Well, not so much laughed, we kind of scorned it. We knew what treatment they would get there, after all of Jones' talk of freedom and this type of thing. He wouldn't like the kind of freedom he would find in Cuba or the Soviet Union.

Did Ryan ever mention the possibility that there might be some foreign involvement in what was happening in Jonestown late this year, particularly with the appearance of Mark Lane so suddenly?

It was really (Charles) Garry who introduced Mark Lane to Jones. They were long-time friends, according to Garry. I guess they felt they needed a little public relations help to fend off this growing pressure that Leo was mounting.

When you received Mark Lane's letter of Nov. 6, did you and Leo ever discuss it?

Oh, yes. We were together all the time. I was with him when he sat down and marked up Lane's letter and prepared his reply.

One of the first lines in Lane's letter bears on something we talked about earlier, about "further persecution of Peoples Temple might very well result in the creation of a most embarrassing situation for the U.S. government."?

Leo knew it was a public relations battle. He said he didn't think even Jones would back that. He said he (Lane) was threatening something that he really didn't mean to threaten.

Do you believe that it could have been an embarrassing situation for the U.S. government?

I don't think it would have been. I think it would have been a bizarre incident. I don't think Russia was ready to take them. I have my doubts whether Russia would have let them in.

How about Cuba?

Don't know. I don't know if they had any contact with Cuba. They have enough problems in those countries without this. I really think this was a ploy to push away the pressure. But I'm not certain about that. It's my opinion.

Did you and Ryan ever discuss, particularly when you were talking about danger inside Jonestown, the possibility that the CIA may have had a person inside Jonestown?

We never discussed that. We were never thinking in those terms at all.

Did the State Department ever raise that issue?

No. We hear so many spook stories we don't know what to believe.

Why do you think Ryan and his group were detained so long in Georgetown?

They were trying to stall. The embassy was asleep, if nothing worse.

What do you know about the dialogue between Ambassador Burke and Ryan during the period in Georgetown?

From what I understand, the ambassador simply didn't believe any of this.

Did the ambassador ever try to discourage Leo from going to Jonestown?

In effect, he was not getting any cooperation. He was being stymied. The State Department was disinclined to move.

Did you get the impression that the ambassador was trying to discourage Ryan or anyone else from going to Jonestown?

I don't know about that. I know he was discouraging Leo's efforts.

McCloskey Slams State Department

By RICK SULLIVAN

A congressional investigation of the Jonestown massacre is likely to show that the U.S. State Department was more concerned with promoting exportation of natural resources from Guyana than exposing injustices within Peoples Temple or protecting Americans visiting that country, Rep. Paul McCloskey told The Times Tuesday.

The Republican congressman from Menlo Park who had worked with his state colleague, Rep. Leo J. Ryan, for State Department intervention in the Jonestown commune, stated:

"I think an investigation will bring out that the Guyanese government had a relationship with (the Rev. Jim) Jones and that the U.S. Embassy (in Georgetown) knew about it, accepted it and didn't try to intrude.

"Based on my dealings with the State Department, I think it is apparent that the department was more concerned with getting along with the Guyanese . . . and promoting exports from that country than it was in protecting U.S. citizens."

The most important mineral resources in Guyana are bauxite and manganese. Gold and diamonds also are mined. Bauxite is the principal source of aluminum.

Joe Holsinger, Ryan's administrative aide, has told The Times the State Department implicitly discouraged the congressman's fact-finding mission to the Jonestown settlement.

"They (State Department officials) were satisfied that things were benign. They almost seemed to indicate that this (mission) was some kind of a trouble-making thing. They didn't seem concerned at all about the people down there," Holsinger has stated.

McCloskey said it is the "inherent mission" of all U.S. embassies, as representatives of the president, to place more emphasis on maintaining an amicable relationship with a host country and promoting exports than looking after the interests of citizens abroad.

He said it is his hope that the investigation will result in an order by the House International Relations Committee that embassies take a "stronger position" on the well-being of Americans.

The committee that has taken over Ryan's probe of Peoples Temple already has plunged into a far-reaching inquiry that is covering the past, present and future of the cult, including its members, its money and relations with U.S. and Guyanese officials.

The committee is chaired by Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis.

McCloskey said he has been advised by members of the committee that the investigation is centering on several key areas:

- Why the State Department did not take more vigorous action on the Jonestown commune.
- The relationship between the U.S. Embassy in Guyana and the cult.
- What the State Department knew or should have known about the violent conditions at Jonestown.
- The inadequacy of the information the State Department gave Ryan before his visit.
- Whether funds collected from church bank accounts scattered throughout the world should be used for reimbursement of federal expenses and those incurred by relatives of the more than 900 cultists who died Nov. 18 at the Jonestown camp.

Paul McCloskey

The congressman revealed that he and Ryan had tried for more than a year to move the State Department from its steadfast position of non-interference in Guyanese affairs and that he became just as frustrated as his colleague.

He said that he, like Ryan, received a barrage of mail from Peoples Temple supporters critical of his efforts whenever he made inquiries of the State Department.

His efforts alone, he said, "attracted" 700 letters, including 28 from residents of San Mateo County — two from Redwood City, one from San Mateo and seven from East Palo Alto.

Local residents who wrote McCloskey included Viola Kelly and Estie Rauch of Redwood City, Margaret Ellsey of San Mateo; and Pauline Thornton, Mary Murphy, Mary Lando, Bessie Lee Webster, Rosie Mae Jones, Dorothy Ellsey, Ida Dorsey, all of East Palo Alto.

McCloskey said that he plans to contact personally several of those letter writers next week to discuss generally, past affairs of the cult and specifically to determine if a of the cultists have received de threats.

The congressman said that he w drawn into the church controver more than a year ago when temp defectors Tim and Grace Stoen ha asked him for help in regaining th custody of their son who, they sai was being held by Jones in Guyana

McCloskey disclosed that h wrote a letter to the State Depart ment asking that it intervene in th matter, but was advised that Ryan also was looking into the case and, in fact, had planned a trip to Guyana in December of 1977.

That trip, according to McClos key, was postponed because of pressing congressional affairs.

McCloskey said that he continued to press for State Department action on the Stoen case, but was advised firmly in March of this year by Assistant Secretary of State Douglas Bennett that the case was being litigated in Guyana and that the State Department could not interfere with the procedure down there.

"I, the Congressman Ryan, kept insisting that the embassy (in Georgetown) had an obligation to look into the matter."

McCloskey said that Ryan had invited him to join the delegation to Jonestown, but he said he had to decline because arrangements already had been made for him to participate in a South African fact-finding mission.

"Clearly, as far as I was concerned, Jones had no right to hold the Stoen boy in Guyana and the State Department had an obligation to intervene on behalf of that child," said McCloskey.

"But it was clear that the government didn't want to ruffle the feathers in Guyana."

CIA agent witnessed Jonestown mass suicide

and
KAREN PITTMAN
Times Staff Writers

An agent of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency traveled to the Guyanese jungle colony of Jonestown immediately following the assassination of Rep. Leo J. Ryan and witnessed the murder/suicide ritual orchestrated by the cult leader, Jim Jones, The Times has learned.

Government sources have confirmed that a CIA agent assigned to the U.S. embassy in the Guyanese capital moved at the commune as Peoples Temple members collapsed and died of the lethal cyanide-laced drink concoction.

State Department officials acknowledge that a CIA agent was dispatched to Jonestown within minutes of the attacks enough. However, they still will not disclose how the agent got there, his specific assignment or his identity.

But The Times has learned that the FBI has a tape recording concocted from the agent-aircraft communications that apparently places Richard Dwyer, deputy chief of the U.S. embassy, inside Jonestown while more than 900 Americans died.

At issue in continued at the embassy, Dwyer reportedly was the CIA agent in charge of all intelligence activities in Guyana.

Dwyer took charge of the San Mateo congressman's fact-finding party upon their arrival in Georgetown, joined the party on Jonestown activities, arranged for planes to transport the group in and from the jungle colony, and escorted the group to the commune.

The deputy chief was at the Port Kaituma airstrip Nov. 18, 1979, when Peoples Temple assassins opened fire, killing Ryan, three newsmen and a temple defector. Dwyer was one of 10 persons injured in the attack. He was wounded slightly in the leg.

A source confirms that Dwyer left three who had survived the ambush sometime after the shooting, went back to Jonestown and then returned to the group.

Military investigator Joseph Mazur, who has been delving into Peoples Temple activities for three years, says the tape recordings held by the FBI contains a statement about Dwyer by Jones during the suicides.

Mazur quotes Jones on the tape as shouting repeatedly over the din and confusion of the ghastly death ritual, "Get Dwyer out of here! Get Dwyer out of here!"

Mazur is an expert in monitoring voices on tapes. He has served as a consultant in this field to various law enforcement agencies.

Mazur would not reveal under what conditions he listened to the tape.

FBI agents in San Francisco and George R. Berdes, staff consultant for the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and director of the investigation of the Ryan assassination, independently confirm that federal authorities have a tape on which Jones says, "Get Dwyer out of here."

Berdes, however, does not know the contents of the tape but showed that he learned in Jonestown after the massacre on both.

"Jones was obviously speaking he said "I was shot, you know."

Dwyer said that he had made arrangements with Jones to stay overnight at the compound after Ryan's party was to have left Nov. 18 in order to make the following day to Lake Peoples Temple airstrip to return to Georgetown.

He (Dwyer) apparently thought that I was still there (at the compound) when he made his statement."

The deputy embassy chief said he spent the night with the survivors at the Port Kaituma airstrip and did not leave until around 5 p.m. Nov. 19, when the wounded were transported to the Guyanese capital.

In his sworn statement to the investigative report provided to the 10-member Committee on Foreign Affairs last May, Hawkins makes no reference to the position of the tape on Dwyer. And he admits that his staff of investigators never questioned Dwyer about the tape's existence.

The FBI has not questioned Dwyer either. The deputy chief remains locked at the embassy in Guyana, and government officials there refuse to allow FBI agents into the country.

Hawkins says that at the time his investigators interviewed Dwyer, they were not aware of the existence of the tape. Later, when the tape was given to him, he says he listened to it and concluded that Jones was suicidal.

"We thought it (questioning Dwyer again) would be pointless," says Hawkins. "I think what happened was that Jones ordered someone else (as Dwyer (who had visited the commune several times before the massacre) the (Dwyer) was under extreme pressure. . . he only thought he was Dwyer."

FBI agents confirmed the same theory — that Jones was delusional and that Dwyer could not have been present at the camp.

Hawkins argues that there is "credible evidence" that Dwyer stayed with the survivors after the airstrip shooting and spent the night with them.

But outside witnesses, including Ryan's aide Jackie Speier, say not one accused Dwyer could not have somehow escaped to Jonestown.

Miss Speier, who was wounded in the attack, said that Dwyer's hysterics were not exhilarating, that he was able to walk with little difficulty and, in fact, left the group on several occasions.

Another survivor, who asked not to be named, recalls that Dwyer left "two or three times" after the airstrip shooting, using the would-be troops to make radio contact with the embassy.

"I would say," the survivor offers, "that Dwyer was gone more than he was there with us."

The survivor notes that there was a truck at Port Kaituma, but cannot remember if Dwyer used it. The Jonestown camp is approximately four miles from the airstrip.

Miss Speier also tells of several incidents which she claims raise questions about Dwyer and his role in Jonestown.

She explains that when embassy officials briefed the Ryan party on activities at the colony, a slide show was presented and conducted by Dwyer. The slide, she recalls, shows a smiling Dwyer in his uniform with his arms around Jim Jones and his wife, Marceline.

"It was like a family photo, and I remember thinking how strange it seemed that a prominent U.S. embassy official should be acting this way."

The former Ryan aide also says she will be unmoved at the disappearance of tape recorders and tapes belonging to her and Ryan.

Miss Speier says that Ryan and she taped and took notes of interviews they conducted with people members after they were allowed into the commune by Jones. The recorder, the tapes and the notes were placed in a briefcase, also containing $1,000 in cash and other documents.

When Ryan and his party departed Jonestown for the airstrip, the congressman, Miss Speier recalls, gave the briefcase to Dwyer.

Miss Speier says that when the briefcase was later returned to her, the tapes, the notes and the recorders were missing. The cash and other papers remained enclosed.

Dwyer confirms Miss Speier's account, claiming Ryan never gave him the briefcase, but that he picked it up off the airstrip after the ambush.

"I don't recall seeing any tapes in the case, but I think I remember seeing a small recorder — I'm not 100 percent sure.

"I suspect that someone got to the briefcase very quickly. The only time it was out of my sight is when I helped load the wounded on the plane," says Dwyer.

The deputy embassy chief said he gave the briefcase to Jim Schollaert, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, when he returned to Georgetown.

FBI agents, Miss Speier says, questioned her twice since she returned to the United States.

"All they wanted to know about was the tape recorders and the tapes."

The Justice Department will not confirm if they have located the tapes or if they have custody of them.

State Department sources acknowledge that a CIA agent did travel to Jonestown immediately following the airstrip assault, but they emphatically deny that the agent was Dwyer.

Department sources insisted say that an agent, whose they would not identify, was dispatched from inside the U.S. embassy in Georgetown to the jungle commune, but only after word was received from the airstrip that Ryan and others had been murdered.

That word came within minutes of the ambush, and sources claim it was one of the airplane pilots hired by embassy officials who radioed the information.

Statements linking U.S. embassy officials with the Peoples Temple were made as early as May 1978, when a temple defector took her story to government officials.

Debbie Blakey, who directed the temple commune, charged that embassy officials in Georgetown were "extremely close" to Jones. She said that the two embassy officers, Richard Dwyer, who is currently assigned to the Guyana desk at the State Department, warned her not to take her questions of oppression and possible mass suicide to Jonestown to the press.

A few days after that warning, she said, she received a letter, apparently from Jones, that referred to conversations with McCoy and threatened her life if she took complaints to the press.

Mrs. Blakey is the sister of exit member Larry Layton, the only person facing charges stemming from the airstrip massacre. Layton was recently ordered to stand trial in Guyana on murder and conspiracy charges.

Allegations of a close alliance between U.S. officials and temple members were also made by Mason, who made several trips to the jungle compound. His claims were based partly on reports of temple members.

He also says he took warnings to the embassy on the activities inside Jonestown, specifically that there were weapons in the camp.

Mason contends that Dwyer gave a copy of his (Mason's) report to temple members during a cocktail party at the temple's Georgetown home.

"I knew he did it because (temple member) Tim Carter called me from Georgetown and read me the report — my report to the consul general referring to the guns and a lot of other things," Mason reports.

Carter, a top Jones aide, escaped from the jungle massacre alive and is now living in Idaho.

Lafayette, California 94549

Dear Mr. Harris:

On behalf of Secretary Vance, I want to thank you for your communication concerning the situation at the People's Agricultural Temple in Guyana.

As part of the traditional and internationally sanctioned protection services, officers of the American Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, periodically visit the People's Agricultural Temple located at Jonestown, Guyana. These officers have been free to move about the grounds and speak privately to any individuals, including persons who were believed by their family and friends to be held there against their will. It is the opinion of these officers, reinforced by conversations with local officials who deal with the People's Temple, that it is improbable anyone is being held in bondage. In general, the people appear healthy, adequately fed and housed, and satisfied with their lives on what is a large farm. Many do hard, physical labor, but there is no evidence of persons being forced to work beyond their capacity or against their will.

Should you have a specific individual about whom you want information, please provide the name of the person and the person's date and place of birth to the Office of Special Consular Services, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520. During the next visit to the People's Temple by an officer of the American Embassy, that officer will attempt to speak privately with the individual in question, convey your concern, and report to you.

Sincerely,

Hodding Carter III

Dear Sir —

You have recently received information and facts concerning the activities of a "Rev" Jim Jones in Guyana South America —

My daughter Diane is one of those trapped at his Jungle encampment and is being subjected to a brutalizing program of mind control and repression designed to make her an active participant in his ~~programs~~ plans. I sincerely believe her life to be in danger as well as the lives of the over 1000 americans reportedly there —

Jones apparently espouses a program of marxism, ~~atheism~~ hatred of the United States, destruction of family ties & plans depending. He apparently has dropped all guise of being a ~~~~ religious organization and has emerged as a political force entity in Guyana and ultimately the Caribbean —

I am appealing to you as ~~Sec~~ Secretary of State to instruct our Embassy officials in Guyana to bring pressure to bear on Prime Minister Forbes Burnham so that he will act to cause Jones to halt ~~the~~ human rights abuses directed against my daughter and others and further to send my daughter and others like her home.

I am further requesting co-operation from the State Dept in seeing that mail we send our ~~brothers~~ family members ~~are~~ delivered directly into their hands and that they are free to read and respond in complete privacy and safety - If the mail could be sent by diplomatic pouch and delivered & read in the privacy of the ~~Embassy~~ U.S. Embassy then relatives here might stand a chance of counteracting Jones's ~~messy~~ vicious mind control tactics -

The situation is all the more dangerous and delicate in that Jones in a letter to Congressmen + Senators on March 14, 1978 threatened that they were "devoted to a decision that it is better even to die" than to suffer "bureaucratic hassles".

~~This ruthless man must be stopped—~~
~~He is for the reason that I believe the~~ Key man in this sad drama to be Forbes Burnham. ~~He~~ I have sent him a Letter Appeal—
I am beggging you to act at once in This matter, not only in our national interest but in the human rights interest and the interest of the heartbroken relatives who find themselves unwilling pawns in this bizarre game ~~Mrs~~ Jones has initiated— My daughter Leann must ~~come home again safely~~—

Sincerely Respectfully

STATEMENT OF HONORABLE BILL ROYER, REPRESENTATIVE FROM CALIFORNIA, BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS CONCERNING THE IMPLEMENTATION MEASURES UNDERTAKEN BY STATE DEPARTMENT AFTER THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE LEO J. RYAN AND THE TRAGEDY AT JONESTOWN

MARCH 4, 1980

MR. CHAIRMAN, MEMBERS OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE, THANK YOU FOR PERMITTING ME ONCE AGAIN TO SPEAK BEFORE YOU IN THIS, THE SECOND DAY OF HEARINGS ON THE IMPLEMENTATION MEASURES TAKEN BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOLLOWING THE REPORTS WHICH WERE ISSUED AFTER THE ASSASSINATION OF REPRESENTATIVE LEO RYAN AND THE JONESTOWN TRAGEDY.

I WOULD LIKE TO REQUEST, MR. CHAIRMAN, THAT I BE PERMITTED TO RESERVE A FEW MINUTES OF TIME FOR SOME SHORT CONCLUDING REMARKS, AFTER THE WITNESSES FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAVE TESTIFIED THIS AFTERNOON.

I WOULD BE TERRIBLY REMISS, MR. CHAIRMAN, IF I DID NOT COMMEND THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR THE CANDID AND FORTHRIGHT MANNER IN WHICH THEY TREATED MY INQUIRIES SINCE I HAVE COME BACK HERE TO WASHINGTON TO FILL THE SEAT OF THE LATE LEO RYAN. I WOULD PARTICULARLY LIKE TO COMMEND UNDER SECRETARY NIMETZ, HIS STAFF ASSISTANT PAUL BUNGE AND GUYANA DESK OFFICER RICHARD McCOY FOR THEIR PERSONAL COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE. WHILE I MAY HAVE SERIOUS DISAGREEMENT WITH THE METHODS OF OPERATION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, I CERTAINLY CAN FIND NO FAULT WITH THE LEVEL OF COOPERATION AND CANDOR DISPLAYED TO ME BY THE OFFICERS OF STATE WITH WHOM I HAVE DEALT HERE IN WASHINGTON.

LET ME ALSO CANDIDLY SAY THAT MY VIEWS ON THE PART THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT PLAYED IN THIS ENTIRE UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR HAVE ALTERED APPRECIABLY IN THE MONTHS THAT I HAVE ADDRESSED MYSELF TO THIS MATTER. HOW I VIEW THEIR ROLE, OF COURSE, AFFECTS MY PERCEPTION OF THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE MEASURES THAT THEY HAVE TAKEN TO IMPLEMENT THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE STAFF REPORT AND THE CRIMMINS REPORT. LET ME STATE WHAT MY PERCEPTIONS ARE NOW, AND THEN I WILL COMMENT ON THE STEPS THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS TAKEN.

IN MY VIEW, THE GUYANA TRAGEDY IS TRACEABLE TO THE CREATION OF THAT COUNTRY AS AN INDEPENDENT NATION, OUT OF THE BRITISH COLONIAL SYSTEM. I BELIEVE THAT OUR GOVERNMENT WAS NOT UNHAPPY TO SEE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE BURNHAM GOVERNMENT IN GUYANA AS PERHAPS THE LESSER OF TWO EVILS. TO BE SURE, IT HAS BEEN APPARENTLY SOCIALISTIC AND AT TIMES HOSTILE. THERE WERE ALSO ALL OF THOSE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SERVICES PRESENT. BUT IT WASN'T AS BAD AS IT COULD HAVE BE IT WAS NOT, FOR EXAMPLE, ANOTHER CUBA. BECAUSE OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS, IT WAS VERY IMPORTANT FOR OUR GOVERNMENT TO MAINTAIN THE BURNHAM GOVERNMENT IN EXISTENCE IN GUYANA - HENCE THE STATUS QUO WAS TO BE PRESERVED. NOTHING SHOULD OCCUR WHICH WOULD EXACERBATE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND GUYANA. I BELIEVE, THEN, THAT AMBASSADOR BURKE'S DUTY WAS TO MAINTAIN A CONDITION OF LEVELNESS.

INTO THIS SITUATION SUDDENLY STEPPED THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. AFTER ESTABLISHING RAPPORT WITH THE BURNHAM GOVERNMENT, THE REVEREND JIM JONES PROCEEDED TO MOVE OVER 900 AMERICAN CITIZENS

INTO ONE OF THE MOST REMOTE AREAS OF GUYANA, IN DEEP JUNGLE, NEAR THE CONTESTED VENEZUELA BORDER. THIS CONCENTRATION OF APPARENTLY DISAFFECTED AMERICAN CITIZENS IN THIS AREA POSED, AT ONCE, A SINGULAR AND UNIQUE CONSULAR AND POLITICAL PROBLEM TO THE EMBASSY, ONE WHICH POTENTIALLY THREATENED THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES. THE PROBLEM WAS AGGRAVATED BY THE LACK OF COOPERATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA, WHICH MUST SHARE IN THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR WHAT FOLLOWED.

SEVERAL UNCOMFORTABLE THINGS BEGAN TO HAPPEN. THE GUYANESE POLICE TOLD OF FINDING AN AMERICAN WANDERING IN THE JUNGLE NEAR MATTHEWS RIDGE, TELLING OF BEATINGS AND FORCED LABOR IN JONESTOWN. FAMILIES BEGAN TO COMPLAIN THAT THEIR RELATIVES WERE BEING HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL, AND SUBJECTED TO PSYCHOLOGICAL MIND CONTROL. THE INCREDIBLE CHILD CUSTODY CASE INVOLVING BOTH NATURAL PARENTS OF JOHN STOEN TRYING TO WREST THE CHILD AWAY FROM THE REVEREND JIM JONES OCCURRED. THERE WERE THREATS OF MASS SUICIDE, IF THE CHILD WERE REMOVED FROM JONESTOWN. PARENTS VISITED GUYANA FROM AMERICA, AND WERE NOT ALLOWED TO SEE THEIR CHILDREN, OR WERE ALLOWED TO SEE THEM IN THE MOST PECULIAR, TENSION-LADEN CIRCUMSTANCES. PETITIONS WERE SENT BY CONCERNED RELATIVES. LETTERS WERE SENT BY UNITED STATES CONGRESSMEN. AFFIDAVITS WERE SENT FROM A DEFECTOR, DETAILING, IN THE MOST SPECIFIC MANNER, THE HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WHICH WERE OCCURRING, ON A DAILY BASIS, IN JONESTOWN.

AND YET, DURING THIS ENTIRE PERIOD OF TIME, ALL OFFICIAL RESPONSES BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO THE LETTERS, AFFIDAVITS AND PETITIONS WAS THAT THERE WERE NO DEMONSTRABLE HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, THAT EVERYTHING WAS JUST FINE. THIS WAS THE EMBASSY'S POSITION;

THIS WAS WASHINGTON'S POSITION. THERE WAS THE EXCHANGE OF CABLES IN JUNE; AN EXPRESSION BY AMBASSADOR BURKE OF CONCERN. THE REPLY, HOWEVER, WAS UNMISTAKABLE; MAINTAIN THE STATUS QUO.

IT IS CLEAR, THEN, MR. CHAIRMAN, THAT THERE EVOLVED EARLY ON AN OFFICIAL STATE DEPARTMENT POLICY TO EMBARGO THE JONESTOWN MATTER. THEY WERE TO DO NOTHING, TO SAY NOTHING, TO VOLUNTEER NOTHING - TO ANYONE, INCLUDING A UNITED STATES CONGRESSMAN, IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN THE CURRENT STATE OF RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GUYANA AND THE UNITED STATES. THE TESTIMONY OF ALL OF THE WITNESSES ON FEBRUARY 20, 1980, AS WELL AS MY OWN INVESTIGATION LEADS ME TO BELIEVE THIS TO BE THE CASE.

I REALIZE THAT THESE ARE HARSH WORDS. I REALIZE THAT THEY DO NOT SQUARE WITH THE PUBLISHED FINDINGS THAT THIS INCREDIBLE EPISODE WAS ENTIRELY THE RESULT OF A SERIES OF NEGLIGENT, NON-WILLFUL MISTAKES. I SAY THAT THERE WAS NO NEGLIGENCE. I SAY THAT IT WAS A COGNIZANT, DELIBERATE POLICY OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO EMBARGO ALL INFORMATION OF WRONGDOING AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN JONESTOWN AS BEING NECESSARY TO PROTECT OUR NATIONAL INTERESTS. IT ALSO APPEARS THAT THIS MAY HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THE ASSASSINATION OF REPRESENTATIVE LEO RYAN AND THE DEATH OF 900 AMERICANS IN JONESTOWN.

TO POINT THE FINGER AT THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS, IS TO RAISE A SMOKE SCREEN. TO BE SURE, ON ITS FACE, SOME PEOPLE MAY FIND RESTRAINING CONSIDERATIONS IN THESE ACTS. I INTEND TO PURSUE AMENDMENTS TO THESE ACTS WHICH WILL, HOPEFULLY, REMOVE THESE RESTRAINTS. BUT THE FACT IS, THESE ACTS DID NOT PREVENT MEANINGFUL COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN THE EMBASSY AND WASHINGTON. BOTH AMBASSADOR BURKE AND CONSULAR OFFICER McCOY HAD AMPLE OPPORTUNITIES TO ORALLY STATE ALL THE FACTS TO STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HERE IN WASHINGTON, AND TO THE RYAN PARTY, IN THE MOST GRAPHIC DETAIL POSSIBLE. IT IS CLEAR THAT AT LEAST AS TO THE RYAN PARTY, THEY DID NOT. SO ANY IMPLEMENTATION STEPS ADDRESSED TO THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT SHOULD BE TAKEN IN CONTEXT, MR. CHAIRMAN, WITH THE FACT THAT WHEN THE POLICY IS TO EMBARGO, IT DOESN'T MATTER WHAT THE LAW IS.

THERE IS NOTHING THAT WE WILL HEAR TODAY, MR. CHAIRMAN, THAT WILL PUT YOUR MIND AT EASE THAT GIVEN THE SAME FACTS, THE SAME RESULT AS OCCURRED IN JONESTOWN WILL NOT OCCUR AGAIN. INSTEAD, WE WILL HEAR OF PROCEDURES, OF MEETINGS, OF TRAINING CLASSES, OF MEMORANDA AND MONTHLY ASSESSMENTS. BUT WE WILL NOT HEAR OF COMMITMENT TO THE WELFARE OF AMERICANS RESIDING IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY - OR THAT OF A UNITED STATES CONGRESSMAN - WHERE THERE ARE COUNTERVAILING NATIONAL INTERESTS THAT MUST BE PROTECTED.

LET ME TURN NOW TO THE STEPS THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS TAKEN. THE PRINCIPAL DOCUMENT WHICH SETS FORTH WHAT STATE HAS DONE SINCE THE TRAGEDY IS THE LETTER OF NOVEMBER 21, 1979, FROM THEN COUNSELOR MATTHEW NIMETZ TO THE HONORABLE PETER W. RODINO, JR. CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY. THIS LETTER WAS WRITTEN IN RESPONSE TO CHAIRMAN RODINO'S INQUIRY, WHICH HE KINDLY

MADE AT MY REQUEST, AS TO THE CURRENT STATE OF IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS. CHAIRMAN ZABLOCKI OF THE FULL COMMITTEE HAD ALSO REQUESTED THIS INFORMATION.

I HAVE PREVIOUSLY PROVIDED THE MEMBERS OF THIS SUBCOMMITTEE WITH A COPY OF THAT LETTER. THE LETTER INDICATES THAT SUBSEQUENT TO THE CRIMMINS REPORT, THE STATE DEPARTMENT UNDERTOOK A PROGRAM OF ADVANCED TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES FOR CONSULAR OFFICIALS, WHICH INCLUDES AN INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGICAL MIND CONTROL TECHNIQUES AND EMPHASIZES CLOSER COORDINATION BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICERS AND THEIR POLITICAL COUNTERPARTS.

MY RESPONSE TO THIS STATEMENT IS THAT ALL OF THE TRAINING AND COORDINATION DOES NOT EXCUSE LACK OF COMMITMENT TO THE WELFARE OF AMERICAN CITIZENS AND TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. COORDINATION BETWEEN THE POLITICAL AND CONSULAR SECTIONS IS FINE, BUT YOU MUST REMEMBER, MR. CHAIRMAN, THAT ALL FUNCTIONS, CONSULAR AND POLITICAL, ARE UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE AMBASSADOR, AND IN A SMALL EMBASSY SUCH AS EXISTED IN GUYANA, WE MUST ASSUME THAT THE AMBASSADOR KNEW ALL OF WHAT WAS GOING ON. WHAT WE DON'T SEE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S LETTER IS A STATEMENT OF WHAT THE AMBASSADOR IS GOING TO DO, AFTER THE TRAINING, AFTER THE COORDINATION, WHEN THE LIVES OF AMERICANS AND THEIR CONGRESSMAN ARE THREATENED.

THE LETTER FURTHER INDICATES THAT PROCEDURES HAVE BEEN DEVISED TO PROVIDE FOR BETTER SECURITY FOR CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS, BY PROVIDING FOR THREAT ASSESSMENTS, PRIOR TO DEPARTURE. I RECALL, MR. CHAIRMAN, IF YOU WILL, JACKIE SPEIER'S TESTIMONY, THAT IN HER

OPINION, IF SUCH A THREAT ASSESSMENT HAD BEEN MADE FOR REPRESENTATIVE RYAN, IT PROBABLY WOULD HAVE BEEN THAT THERE WAS NO DANGER. I THINK I CONCUR. I BELIEVE THAT STATE WOULD HAVE DETERMINED THAT IT WAS IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST TO TELL REPRESENTATIVE RYAN THAT THERE WAS NO THREAT TO HIS LIFE IN GOING TO GUYANA. A THREAT ASSESSMENT, THEN, APPEARS TO BE A FINE MOVE, IF STATE WILL TELL YOU WHAT IT FINDS.

OTHER SECURITY MATTERS BOTHER ME. THE LETTER DOES NOT INDICATE, FOR INSTANCE, THAT STATE WILL, AS AN ORDINARY AND ROUTINE MATTER, TRANSMIT TO ALL LOCAL AND APPROPRIATE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES INFORMATION THEY RECEIVE OF CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR BY OR AGAINST AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDING ABROAD. NOR IS THERE ANY INDICATION THAT STATE WILL ROUTINELY ADVISE AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDING IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY WHAT THEIR LEGAL RIGHTS ARE IN THAT COUNTRY. THE HEARINGS THIS SUBCOMMITTEE HELD IN 1977 TOUCHED ON THESE SPECIFIC ISSUES, AND I AM DISAPPOINTED THAT THEY AGAIN ARE BEFORE YOU.

STATE'S LETTER ALSO REFERS TO THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS. I HAVE ALREADY SPOKEN OF MY VIEWS ON THIS MATTER. I WILL, NEVERTHELESS, CONTINUE TO PRESS FOR AMENDMENTS TO THESE ACTS WHICH WILL REMOVE EVERY IMPEDIMENT TO CANDID COMMUNICATION WITHIN THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

FINALLY, MR. CHAIRMAN, THE LETTER CALLS ATTENTION TO A CITIZENS EMERGENCY CENTER WHICH IS OR HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED, I PRESUME, IN COUNTRIES WITH LARGE AMERICAN POPULATIONS, TOURIST OR OTHERWISE. IN LIGHT OF THE CONCERNS I HAVE EXPRESSED TODAY, AND IN VIEW OF THE PECULIAR NATURE OF THE JONESTOWN EXPERIENCE, THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THESE CENTERS DOES NOT GIVE ME MUCH HOPE THAT THEY WILL PREVENT A RECURRENCE OF THE TRAGEDY.

IN CONCLUSION TO MY OPENING STATEMENT, MR. CHAIRMAN, I WOULD LIKE TO EMPHASIZE MY PERCEPTION OF THE PROBLEM: ALL OF THE TRAINING, PROCEDURES, COORDINATION AND ASSESSMENTS ARE MEANINGLESS IF THE STATE DEPARTMENT FINDS ITSELF IN THE AWKWARD SITUATION OF CHOOSING BETWEEN REVEALING MISTAKES, IF BY SO DOING, THEY MAY AFFECT A SENSITIVE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE HOST COUNTRY AND THE UNITED STATES, - OR DOING NOTHING, AND HOPING THAT THE PROBLEM WILL GO AWAY - THAT IT WILL CHOOSE THE LATTER COURSE, REGARDLESS OF THE FACT THAT AMERICAN LIVES - INCLUDING THE LIFE OF A MEMBER OF CONGRESS - MAY BE LOST BY SO DOING.

THE CONGRESS AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT MUST DEVISE A PROCEDURE WHEREBY THE LIVES OF AMERICANS LIVING ABROAD, THE LIVES OF CONGRESSMEN TRAVELING ABROAD, AND OUR NATIONAL INTERESTS MAY BE PROTECTED. IF NOTHING ELSE COMES OF THESE HEARINGS, THIS MUST.

THANK YOU, MR. CHAIRMAN, MY COLLEAGUES. I WOULD LIKE TO RESERVE THE BALANCE OF MY TIME FOR LATER IN THIS HEARING.

MR. CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE:

I AM PLEASED TO APPEAR BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE TODAY TO REPORT ON THE STEPS THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE HAS TAKEN IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE TRAGIC EVENTS WHICH OCCURRED IN JONESTOWN, GUYANA IN NOVEMBER, 1978. WITH ME TODAY IS MS. BARBARA WATSON, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR CONSULAR AFFAIRS, WHO HAS BEEN DIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR IMPLEMENTING MANY OF THE INITIATIVES THAT THE DEPARTMENT HAS UNDERTAKEN SINCE THE JONESTOWN EVENT TOOK PLACE. I AM ALSO ACCOMPANIED BY MR. GENE KRIZEK OF THE DEPARTMENT'S OFFICE OF CONGRESSIONAL AFFAIRS, AND BY MS. LUCY HUMMER OF THE LEGAL ADVISOR'S STAFF. ALL OF US WILL BE PREPARED TO ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS THAT THE COMMITTEE MAY HAVE.

THE MASS MURDERS AND SUICIDES THAT TOOK PLACE IN JONESTOWN SIXTEEN MONTHS AGO WERE, WITHOUT QUESTION, ONE OF THE MOST BIZARRE AND UNPRECEDENTED OCCURRENCES OF MODERN TIMES. IT IS ALMOST BEYOND COMPREHENSION TO IMAGINE THAT A BAND OF 900 AMERICANS COULD HAVE ENGAGED IN THIS RITUAL OF SELF-EXTINCTION. TRAGICALLY, CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND SOME MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA WHO HAD ACCOMPANIED HIM TO GUYANA ALSO LOST THEIR LIVES AS THIS FANTASTIC TRAGEDY UNFOLDED.

JONESTOWN WAS, TO A LARGE DEGREE, AN ABERRATION; AN EVENT THAT WAS SO HORRENDOUS THAT IT WOULD HAVE BEEN

DIFFICULT TO ANTICIPATE IN ITS FULL DIMENSIONS EVEN HAD THERE BEEN CLEAR-CUT EVIDENCE THAT JONES AND HIS FOLLOWERS WERE WILLING TO USE VIOLENT MEANS TO CARRY OUT THEIR DISTORTED PURPOSES. NO ONE CAN DENY, HOWEVER, THAT THE JONESTOWN INCIDENT HAS CAUSED IMMENSE PAIN AND SUFFERING FOR THE RELATIVES WHO HAD FAMILY MEMBERS IN THE PEOPLES TEMPLE COMMUNITY, AND FOR THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND THE REPORTERS WHO WERE KILLED AT PORT KAITUMA IN NOVEMBER, 1978.

DESPITE THE FACT THAT JONESTOWN HAS NOW BECOME SYNONYMOUS WITH A UNIQUE TYPE OF COLLECTIVE MADNESS, THE SCOPE OF THE INCIDENT MAKES IT IMPERATIVE THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT DO EVERYTHING IN ITS POWER TO ENSURE THAT A SIMILAR OCCURRENCE COULD NOT TAKE PLACE IN THE FUTURE. WITHIN THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WE HAVE INSTITUTED A NUMBER OF MEASURES DESIGNED TO IMPROVE OUR HANDLING OF UNUSUAL OR DIFFICULT CONSULAR CASES ABROAD AND WE HAVE ALSO INAUGURATED NEW PROGRAMS INTENDED TO PROVIDE BETTER SECURITY TO CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS TRAVELING OVERSEAS. WE HAVE ALSO INSTITUTED SOME CHANGES IN THE CONSULAR FIELD, BOTH WITH RESPECT TO INTERNAL ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS AND TO THE ADEQUACY OF CONSULAR TRAINING.

MY FIRST INVOLVEMENT WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ISSUE CAME AFTER THE JONESTOWN TRAGEDY HAD ALREADY TAKEN PLACE.

As Counselor of the Department of State, I had had no responsibility previously for policy oversight in the consular area or for the protection of Americans resident overseas. In December, 1978, however, Secretary Vance asked me to organize an effort within the Department to examine the chain of events which led to the Jonestown tragedy and prepare a set of recommendations based upon these findings.

Accordingly, I arranged for two consultants to be retained by the Department to conduct an exhaustive study of the performance of the Department of State and the American Embassy in Guyana in the People's Temple case. These men, both retired senior Foreign Service Officers, visited Guyana and spoke with nearly all the U.S. government officials who had been involved in handling People's Temple affairs until November 18, 1978. Their study was released to the public in May of last year, and copies were provided to the Congress. The findings and recommendations of that report, along with the conclusions of the report prepared by the staff of this Committee, formed the basis for the actions we have since taken to ensure that the Jonestown experience would not be repeated. For purposes of discussion, those actions can be divided into three principal categories: 1) Improvements in Congressional Delegation Security,

2) Impact of the Freedom of Information and Privacy Acts on Foreign Policy Operations, and 3) Enhancement of the Provision of Consular Services.

Improvements in Congressional Delegation Security

I will address first our actions to improve security of Congressional delegations. Individual Members of Congress and Congressional delegations annually conduct a large number of fact-finding missions to virtually all parts of the world. Most, but not all, of these visits are coordinated through the Department of State. The Department stands ready to provide logistics support, background information and briefings, and facilitate security arrangements for all Members of Congress and their staffs who may be traveling to a foreign country. We have always made it a standard practice to work closely with law enforcement authorities in other nations regarding any special security problems that may arise and we have also endeavored to alert Congressional delegations to any particular dangers that might pose some risk to the Members of a delegation or to its staff. In this regard, there have been a number of instances in the past when the Department has recommended that specific missions be cancelled because of the security situation in a nation to be visited. Members of Congress, of course, retain the absolute right, as a part of their oversight function, to travel anywhere in the world, regardless of the dangers that may exist.

FOLLOWING THE JONESTOWN INCIDENT, WE CONDUCTED A REVIEW OF THE SECURITY MEASURES AFFORDED TO CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS BY THE DEPARTMENT, AND WE CONCLUDED WE COULD DO MORE TO ENSURE THAT EACH DELEGATION IS GIVEN COMPLETE INFORMATION ON POSSIBLE SECURITY THREATS THAT COULD ARISE DURING THE COURSE OF AN OVERSEAS MISSION. ACCORDINGLY, WE HAVE NOW MADE IT A STANDARD PRACTICE TO REQUEST UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION IN THIS AREA FROM ALL OF OUR MISSIONS AND EMBASSIES AS A PART OF THE GENERAL SUPPORT THAT WE PROVIDE TO THE CONGRESS. THIS INFORMATION IS SHARED WITH MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WHO WILL BE TRAVELING OVERSEAS, AND THE CHAIRMAN OF EACH DELEGATION IS INVITED TO ATTEND A BRIEFING ON SECURITY MATTERS BEFORE HIS DELEGATION DEPARTS FROM THE UNITED STATES.

WE ALSO CONSIDERED A NUMBER OF OTHER STEPS THE DEPARTMENT COULD TAKE TO STRENGTHEN THE SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS FOR TRAVELING CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS. WE EVEN EXAMINED THE FEASIBILITY OF ESTABLISHING A PERMANENT SECURITY FORCE THAT COULD ACCOMPANY MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WHEN THEY TRAVEL ABROAD, BUT THE COST OF SUCH A SERVICE WOULD HAVE BEEN PROHIBITIVE. WE ARE, HOWEVER, PREPARED TO PROVIDE MOBILE COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT, AS APPROPRIATE, TO CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS THAT MAY BE VISITING REMOTE OR ISOLATED AREAS OF THE WORLD, AND WE HAVE ACTUALLY DONE SO ON AT LEAST ONE OCCASION.

THE DEPARTMENT IS CONCERNED THAT MEMBERS OF CONGRESS NOT COME TO HARM ONCE THEY HAVE LEFT THIS NATION'S BORDERS, AND WE SHALL CONTINUE TO TAKE WHATEVER ACTION WE CAN TO GUARANTEE THE PHYSICAL SECURITY OF CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS DURING THE TIME THEY ARE OVERSEAS.

A SECOND AREA OF OUR FOCUS HAS BEEN THE IMPACT OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS ON REPORTING FROM OUR EMBASSIES. ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL CONCLUSIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT'S EXAMINATION OF THE JONESTOWN INCIDENT WAS THE DISCOVERY THAT A NUMBER OF OFFICIALS IN OUR EMBASSY IN GUYANA FELT CONSTRAINED BY THE PRIVACY AND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACTS AS TO THE SORT OF INFORMATION THEY COULD COMPILE REGARDING THE ACTIVITIES OF AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDENT ABROAD. WE LAUNCHED AN EXTENSIVE EXAMINATION OF THE GENERAL IMPACT OF THESE TWO STATUTES ON FOREIGN SERVICE REPORTING TO DETERMINE WHETHER THESE APPREHENSIONS WERE WIDELY SHARED. WE CANVASSED KEY U.S. EMBASSIES AND THEIR CONSTITUENT POSTS IN ALL GEOGRAPHIC AREAS, AND WE MET WITH A VARIETY OF INTERESTED GROUPS IN WASHINGTON. OUR SURVEY CONFIRMED THAT MANY OFFICERS FEEL THEY ARE CONSTRAINED IN THEIR REPORTING BY THE CRIMINAL SANCTIONS IN THE PRIVACY ACT, BY THE RESTRICTION ON MAINTAINING RECORDS ON ACTIVITIES THAT MAY BE PROTECTED BY THE FIRST AMENDMENT, AND BY THE LACK OF AN EXEMPTION IN THE PRIVACY ACT FOR INTER- AND INTRA-AGENCY MEMORANDA. WE ALSO UNCOVERED A NUMBER OF ANOMALIES IN THE OPERATION OF THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT WHICH MAY HAVE MADE IT MORE DIFFICULT IN RECENT YEARS TO OBTAIN AND REPORT ACCURATELY INFORMATION DERIVED FROM FOREIGN SOURCES.

ON NOVEMBER 13, I WROTE TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OUTLINING THE RESULTS OF OUR STUDY AND PROPOSING CERTAIN LEGISLATIVE CHANGES TO THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT TO BE INCORPORATED IN AN OMNIBUS REVIEW THAT THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WAS THEN PREPARING. ON DECEMBER 12, I WROTE TO CHAIRMAN ZABLOCKI AND TO CONGRESSMAN PREYER, CHAIRMAN OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT INFORMATION AND INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS, REVIEWING THE FINDINGS OF OUR STUDY AS THEY RELATED TO BOTH STATUTES AND OFFERING TO DISCUSS OUR SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS IN GREATER DETAIL. I WOULD LIKE TO REITERATE OUR COMPLETE WILLINGNESS TO WORK CLOSELY WITH THE CONGRESS ON THIS MATTER.

IN SUMMARY, WE HAVE PROPOSED \ NUMBER OF MODIFICATIONS TO THE PROVISIONS OF BOTH ACTS THAT WOULD ELIMINATE CERTAIN UNDESIRABLE FEATURES AND TIGHTEN THE STATUTORY LANGUAGE OF OTHERS. WITH REGARD TO THE PRIVACY ACT, WE BELIEVE THAT THE CRIMINAL SANCTIONS CONTAINED IN THE STATUTE ARE UNNECESSARY AND SHOULD BE ELIMINATED. WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE LANGUAGE CONCERNING RECORD-KEEPING INVOLVING FIRST AMENDEMENT ACTIVITIE MADE MORE SPECIFIC. WE HAVE ALSO PROPOSED CERTAIN CHANGES DESIGNED BETTER TO PROTECT THE IDENTITIES OF CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE

AND WE WOULD LIKE TO HAVE GREATER DISCRETION IN NOTIFYING RELATIVES ABOUT DETENTION CASES THAN IS NOW PERMITTED BY THE ACT. WITH REGARD TO THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT, WE BELIEVE THAT CERTAIN CHANGES OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE NATURE WOULD BE DESIRABLE TO PREVENT ABUSES OF THE ACT BY FOREIGN NATIONALS, AND WE ALSO BELIEVE THAT CERTAIN SECTIONS COULD BE IMPROVED TO AFFORD GREATER PROTECTION FOR CONFIDENTIAL SOURCES AND SCIENTIFIC DATA. I WOULD BE HAPPY TO DISCUSS OUR FINDINGS IN GREATER DETAIL DURING THE QUESTION PERIOD, AND I AM ALSO WILLING TO PROVIDE COPIES OF MY LETTER TO CHAIRMAN ZABLOCKI TO THE MEMBERS OF THIS SUBCOMMITTEE.

THE DEPARTMENT RECOGNIZES THAT THE PROPER FUNCTIONING OF THE PRIVACY AND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACTS IS NOT DEPENDENT SOLELY UPON THE LANGUAGE CONTAINED IN THESE TWO STATUTES. CERTAINLY THE DEPARTMENT ITSELF HAS AN OBLIGATION TO ENSURE THAT ITS OFFICERS ARE ACCURATELY INFORMED ABOUT THE MEANING OF THESE LAWS AND THEIR PROPER INTERPRETATION. WE HAVE ALWAYS PROVIDED REGULAR GUIDANCE IN THIS AREA TO THE DEPARTMENT'S OFFICERS, BOTH IN THE FIELD AND IN WASHINGTON, AND WE HAVE RECENTLY SENT AN UPDATED LETTER OF INSTRUCTION ON THE PRIVACY AND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACTS TO ALL OUR POSTS WORLDWIDE. WE SHALL CONTINUE TO PROVIDE REGULAR GUIDANCE ON THIS ISSUE TO OUR EMBASSIES TO ENSURE THAT INDIVIDUAL OFFICERS ARE NOT INTERPRETING THE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS IN A MANNER THAT IS MORE RESTRICTIVE THAN THE LAW ACTUALLY PROVIDES.

OF COURSE, WHILE CERTAIN CHANGES TO THE PRIVACY AND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACTS MAY BE DESIRABLE FROM THE STANDPOINT OF EFFECTIVELY CONDUCTING OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS, WE SHOULD NOT LOSE SIGHT OF THE ORIGINAL PURPOSES OF THESE TWO STATUTES. BOTH LAWS HAVE MADE A MAJOR CONTRIBUTION TO STRENGTHENING THE PUBLIC'S RIGHT TO KNOW ABOUT THE OPERATIONS OF ITS GOVERNMENT. THE PRIVACY ACT HAS BEEN GENERALLY EFFECTIVE IN ENHANCING THE INDIVIDUAL'S RIGHT TO BE PROTECTED AGAINST UNWARRANTED GOVERNMENT RECORD-KEEPING. OUR CONCERN IS THAT BOTH OF THESE PURPOSES BE PRESERVED AND STRENGTHENED, BUT THAT THE OPERATION OF THESE LAWS NOT INHIBIT THE CONDUCT OF U.S. FOREIGN RELATIONS WHEN THERE IS NOT A CLEAR BENEFIT TO BE DERIVED IN TERMS OF INDIVIDUAL LIBERTIES. A BALANCE CAN BE STRUCK, AND THE CHANGES WE HAVE PROPOSED WILL FURTHER OUR FOREIGN POLICY GOALS WITHOUT DIMINISHING THE PUBLIC'S RIGHT TO KNOW AND THE PUBLIC'S RIGHT TO BE LEFT ALONE.

THE THIRD GENERAL AREA, WHICH WE REVIEWED AFTER THE JONESTOWN INCIDENT WAS THE PROVISION OF CONSULAR SERVICES. THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE HAS INSTITUTED A NUMBER OF ORGANIZATIONAL AND SUBSTANTIVE CHANGES DESIGNED TO SENSITIZE OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS TO THE POTENTIAL RAMIFICATIONS OF JONESTOWN-LIKE SITUATIONS. IN THIS REGARD, WE HAVE EXPANDED AND UPGRADED THE TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED TO THE CONSULAR CORPS AND WE HAVE ALSO PROVIDED SOME ORIENTATION TO THE PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF VARIOUS MIND CONTROL TECHNIQUES. THE BASIC CONSULAR COURSE, FOR EXAMPLE, INCLUDES A VIDEOTAPE LECTURE ON THE MANAGEMENT OF STRESS. WE HAVE ALSO EMPLOYED THE JONESTOWN INCIDENT AS AN ACTUAL CASE STUDY FOR USE IN SOME ADVANCED CONSULAR TRAINING EXERCISES, AND THE PROBLEMS OF DEALING WITH ORGANIZED AMERICAN COMMUNITIES OVERSEAS ARE REGULARLY DISCUSSED AT PERIODIC CONSULAR CONFERENCES AND AT THE FOREIGN SERVICE INSTITUTE. WE ARE ALSO EXAMINING THE POSSIBILITY OF MAKING FUNDS AVAILABLE FROM THE EMERGENCY MEDICAL AND DIETARY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR USE BY OUR POSTS IN ENLISTING THE SERVICES OF PSYCHIATRISTS TO DEAL WITH INDIVIDUALS OR GROUPS WHO MAY BE IN NEED OF SUCH ATTENTION.

WE HAVE GENERALLY ENDEAVORED TO HEIGHTEN THE AWARENESS OF OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS TO JONESTOWN SITUATIONS, AND WE HAVE ENCOURAGED CLOSER COOPERATION BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICERS IN THE FIELD AND THEIR POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC COUNTERPARTS. THE BUREAU OF CONSULAR AFFAIRS HAS BEEN REORGANIZED AND THE STAFF OF THE BUREAU HAS BEEN STRENGTHENED THROUGH THE CREATION OF THREE DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY POSITIONS. WE HAVE EXPANDED THE STAFF OF THE LEGAL ADVISOR'S OFFICE

Juan David Morgan, Esq.

Panama 1, PANAMA

Re: Identification, Immobilization and Possible Recovery of Peoples' Temple Assets in Panama

Dear Mr. Morgan:

This will record and confirm the several matters which we discussed during my visit to your office on December 27, 1978, and list the issues on which the Department of Justice seeks to solicit your advice.

1. You advised me that the general Panamanian banking law (Cabinet Decree No. 238 of July 2, 1970) does not appiy to numbered bank accounts, which are specifically governed by a separate Panamanian bank secrecy law (Law No. 18 of January 28, 1959), Article 5 of which provides -

> The information on coded current bank accounts referred to in the preceding article may be revealed by managers and other employees of banking institutions to investigating officers, judges and magistrates who hear criminal proceedings, and who shall hold the information in strict reserve in the event that such information is no [sic] conductive to clarifying the punishable facts [sic] under investigation.
> In cases in which public functionaries, whether of a judicial or administrative category, other than those mentioned in this article, request from banking institutions any information or the attachment or embargo of coded bank accounts, including probate proceedings, the bank shall not furnish the information, nor withold the funds > or securities deposited in coded accounts, and shall reply to the request stating that it is not possible to furnish any information, even in the cases where there exist the account or the funds or securities covered by the request. [Emphasis added.]

Considering these express provisions, you were of the opinion that there was no possibility under Panamanian law of immobilizing or identifying Peoples' Temple assets in numbered bank accounts either through ordinary civil remedies (e.g., by means of attachment, sequestration, ne exeat) or under Article 65 of Decree No. 238.

Absent a suitable civil remedy, your advice was that I should "denounce" a crime - or a possible crime - to the appropriate Panamanian authorities in accordance with Articles 2007-2008 of the Codigo Judicial of Panama.

2. In discussions held with us on December 27 and 28, the Minister of Justice (Mr. Ahumada), the Minister of Planning and Finance (Mr. Gonzalez), the Chairman of the National Banking Commission (Mr. de Diego) and the Attorney General (Mr. Miranda) concurred in your opinion that the United States Government could achieve its objectives of sequestering the Peoples' Temple assets in Panama only by filing a criminal "denunciation".

All parties agreeed that Panamanian bank secrecy laws would have to be scrupulously observed. The Panamanian officials stated that the Government of Panama is prepared to take all steps permitted by law to prevent its banking system from becoming a haven for money which may have been obtained by fraud or extortion. They further expressed the view that the Panamanian deposits of the Peoples' Temple presented an unprecedented situation.

3. On December 28, 1978, I appeared before Attorney General Miranda, and formally "denounced" several possible crimes which I believe may have been committed by the Peoples' Temple, its members or Panamanian subsidiaries of the Temple. In my statement, I adverted to the fact that the fruits of several possible crimes may have come to rest in numbered bank accounts in Panama, and that a potential of fraud or improper distribution of such funds existed unless they were to be immobilized (and identified) pending a proper judicial determination - either in Panama or elsewhere - of the rightful owners.

4. On December 28, 1978, you informed me that Attorney General Miranda had issued formal orders addressed to the Swiss Banking Corporation (SBC) and the Union Bank of Switzerland (UBS), directing them not to release Peoples' Temple assets pending further investigation of the matter by Panamanian authorities. As of the time of my departure from Panama, the two banks had not yet responded to the Attorney General's order. However, the Attorney General informed me that no one had ever challenged one of his orders during the ten years of his incumbency in office.

Furthermore, your Mr. Ferrer advised me that if the bank were to disburse funds on deposit in the accounts contrary to the Attorney General's Order - and assuming the validity of the order were to be ultimately sustained in the Supreme Court of Panama - the banks would be liable for all payments improperly made. Mr. Ferrer was of the opinion that it would be highly unlikely that the banks would take such a risk.

In addition, you informed me that it was your understanding that the banks had "frozen" the relevant accounts independently (and prior to the Attorney General's orders), and that you had no reason to believe that the banks would disburse any funds until the question of rightful ownership has been determined by the appropriate judicial authority (in the United States or elsewhere).

5. As regards Articles 2007 and 2008 of the Codigo Judicial, we agreed that under the unusual circumstances here it is imperative that we proceed in such a manner as to protect the interests not only of the United States and its nationals, but also of all other parties who might have claims against the Peoples' Temple funds in Panama - including the Government of Panama. The escheat provisions of Articles 102 and 103 of Cabinet Decree Number 238, provide as follows -

> Article (102) - Every bank must advise the Commission with regards to any assets, funds and securities held by it which remain inactive for five (5) years and which belong to persons whose whereabouts are unknown. The Commission, after ascertaining this fact, shall order its net value to be transferred to the National Treasury.

Article (103) - The State will be obliged to return to its owner the funds mentioned in the previous article, if they are claimed within ten (10) years after the date on which they have been transferred to the State, but the restitution will be made without charging interest.

6. With respect to a possible civil recovery action in Panama, we agreed that the filing of a civil suit would be premature, considering the institution of the criminal investigation in Panama and the possible criminal and civil actions which may be initiated in the United States. (You advised me that under Panamanian law, civil proceedings would, in any event, be stayed pending completion of any criminal investigation relating to the same matters.) We agreed that the least expensive and most productive approach would be to wait until the civil courts of the United States (e.g., the Superior Court of San Francisco, California, in which the American dissolution proceedings are now pending) have had an opportunity to pass on the question of the ownership of the accounts. Depending on the outcome of these proceedings, we may decide to seek recognition and enforcement of the American judgment(s) in the courts of Panama by means of an "exequatur". I will advise you promptly concerning the status of any civil actions which may be - or which have been - filed in the United States with respect to the Peoples' Temple.

7. Because this case draws into issue interests of the United States Government, it is necessary that you obtain the approval of my office in advance of any significant actions which you may take in the name of the United States in Panama. I have already included in my "denunciation" a power of attorney to your firm. If you require a more detailed power, please furnish me the Spanish language text thereof, and I will return it to you duly executed.

For the most part, we should be able to conduct our business by mail. However, if you need to telephone me, my number in Washington is: Area Code 202/724-7179 or 724-7342. If you need to reach me during non-business hours, my home number is: Area Code 703/379-7095.

Moreover, Mrs. Chester has informed me that the Embassy will be pleased to transmit to us by telex or telephone any information which you need to get to us promptly. In addition, the Embassy will "pouch" to us any other materials which you may want to transmit. I would be grateful to you if you would please keep the Embassy informed of all developments in this matter. The Embassy is aware that in strictly legal matters you will take your instructions directly from us.

I think it would be helpful and informative if you would maintain a file of Panamanian newspaper articles which deal with the Peoples' Temple, and, more particularly, with the activities of the United States in Panama with respect thereto. I would ask that you please send us copies of such articles from time to time for our information.

8. You informed me that you have confirmed that at least two - and possibly three - Peoples' Temple corporations have been formed in Panama (i.e., Asociacion Religiosa Pro San Pedro, S.A., and Asociacion Evangelica de las Americas, S.A.) and that most of the funds in the SBC and UBS were deposited in the names of the Asociacion Religiosa Pro San Pedro, S.A You have obtained, and have furnished to me, certified copies of the articles of incorporation for both corporations. You have agreed that we will probably be able to obtain additional information concerning these corporations from the Panamanian directors thereof.

You have further undertaken to furnish me samples of the contracts which depositors enter with Panamanian banks when they open numbered accounts, together with an explanation of the terms and conditions thereof and the withdrawal powers of the various persons and entities named therein (e.g., signatories, "holders", etc.). We are particularly interested in ascertaining what laws/internal bank regulations govern such matters and how the banks distribute the proceeds of numbered accounts when the possible beneficiaries either die (individuals) or are dissolved (corporations).

9. I have furnished you copies of the articles of incorporation of the two Peoples' Temple corporations in Guyana and the parent California corporation, together with a copy of the Dissolution petition filed by the Temple in the San Francisco Superior Court on December 4, 1978.

10. I would be grateful to you if you would please furnish me the following specific information at an early date:

a) Copies of the Attorney General's December 28, 1978 Orders to the UBS and the SBC, together with copies of the banks' replies thereto, if any.

b) A brief report concerning the creation, organization and current status of any Peoples' Temple corporations which may have been formed in Panama. Your report should include a precise description of the relationship between the Peoples' Temple of the Disciples of Christ in California and the Panamanian subsidiaries. We are particularly eager to learn of the results of any discussions which you may have with the Panamanian directors of San Pedro, i.e., Messrs. Tapia and Linares.

We have just been informed that the Peoples' Temple may have formed in Panama another corporation under the name "Asociacion E.D. - Charitivable - Internationala Empressa., S.R." Could you please check on this?

c). A brief report concerning the Peoples' Temple contracts with the UBS and SBC, to include a description of how the banks proceed when depositors, or beneficiaries either die or dissolve. Can we assist the banks in any way in this matter, as by furnishing death certificates?

d) Certified copies of any documents filed, or legal proceedings initiated in, the Panamanian courts relative to this matter.

e) A list of all Peoples' Temple accounts or safety deposit boxes in either the UBS or SBC, together with the particulars thereof, to the extent such information may now be available to you as the result of my "denunciation".

f) Copies of the results of any investigation carried out by the Attorney General (I understand from your M. Tejeira that in Panama such investigations may be "public records").

g) A brief legal opinion concerning whether we should consider initiating a civil claim in the name of the United States in the Panamanian courts at this time. (I have received conflicting advice from your firm with respect to whether the United States can join in the criminal proceedings as a "civilly injured" party.)

This opinion should be directed toward the civil claim of the United States Government for approximately U.S.$4-million which has been expended by the United States to date in repatriating to this country - at the request of the Guyanese Government - the remains of more than 900 Americans who died at Jonestown. In particular, we would welcome your views concerning such issues as -

(1) Whether such a claim is cognisable under Panamanian law?

(2) If so, what legal theory would be advanced, e.g., repayment for burial-related expenses; contract (i.e., restitution or unjust enrichment); discharge of an international obligation?

(3) When would be the appropriate time to bring such an action?

(4) In which court would such action be brought?

(5) What problems of proof might we encounter?

(6) How long might it take to obtain a judicial resolution?

(7) What would be the potential costs of such litigation?

h) Your suggestions concerning any supplemental information which I should transmit to you in further support of my "denunciation". (I have taken steps in California to obtain sworn statements from several individuals who allege that they have been defrauded by the Peoples' Temple.)

i) Your suggestions as to whether it would be helpful to cause an American court to dispatch a "Carta Rogatoria" addressed to the "appropriate judicial authorities in Panama" in connection with the criminal (i.e., Grand Jury) investigation which is being conducted in the United States, and if so, what information should be contained therein.

j) Your opinion as to whether the UBS and SBC could, with the consent of the Attorney General, release the funds to the custody of the United States court having jurisdiction in this country over the determination of rightful ownership. In this connection, I am enclosing a copy of the "Amended Petition for Judicial Supervision of Winding up the Affairs of Peoples' Temple, a California Non-Profit Charitable Corporati. , and the Distribution of its Assets", filed with the Superior Court of California on December 20, 1978.

k) Confirmation that under Panamanian corporation law, dissolution of a corporation may be ordered by a court for unlawful practices and for just cause upon demand of any stockholder (Law 9 of 1946, reenacting C. Com. 524, 531). Since under Article 14(c) of the articles of incorporation of San Pedro, all funds and assets of that corporation revert to the parent Peoples' Temple corporation in California upon dissolution, we wish to have your views as to the effect which a dissolution of San Pedro would have on the Panamanian assets under the unique circumstances here.

11. Finally, you agreed to represent the Government of the United States in this matter at your firm's normal hourly fee of $100. Although we did not discuss the billing procedure in detail, I assume that the $100 hourly figure pertains to senior partner time, and that a lesser rate will be charged for time of junior members of your firm.

In addition, I again wish to confirm that the Department of Justice may not enter into contingent-fee arrangements, or to pay legal fees based upon a percentage of the amount in issue. I suggest that your firm submit periodically (every three or six months) an itemized statement of fees and expenses, mailing it directly to:

Immobilization and ry of Peoples' Temple

De

This will record and confirm the several matters which we discussed during my visit to your office on December 27, 1978, and list the issues on which the Department of Justice seeks to solicit your advice.

1. You advised me that the general Panamanian banking law (Cabinet Decree No. 238 of July 2, 1970) does not apply to numbered bank accounts, which are specifically governed by a separate Panamanian bank secrecy law (Law No. 18 of January 28, 1959), Article 5 of which provides -

> The information on coded current bank accounts referred to in the preceding article may be revealed by managers and other employees of banking institutions to investigating officers, judges and magistrates who hear criminal proceedings, and who shall hold the information in strict reserve in the event that such information is no [sic] conductive to clarifying the punishable facts [sic] under investigation.
> In cases in which public functionaries, whether of a judicial or administrative category, other than those mentioned in this article, request from banking institutions any information or the attachment or embargo of coded bank accounts, including probate proceedings, the bank shall not furnish the information, nor withold the funds

> or securities deposited in coded accounts, and shall reply to the request stating that it is not possible to furnish any information, even in the cases where there exist the account or the funds or securities covered by the request. [Emphasis added.]

Considering these express provisions, you were of the opinion that there was no possibility under Panamanian law of immobilizing or identifying Peoples' Temple assets in numbered bank accounts either through ordinary civil remedies (e.g., by means of attachment, sequestration, ne exeat) or under Article 65 of Decree No. 238.

Absent a suitable civil remedy, your advice was that I should "denounce" a crime - or a possible crime - to the appropriate Panamanian authorities in accordance with Articles 2007-2008 of the Codigo Judicial of Panama.

2. In discussions held with us on December 27 and 28, the Minister of Justice (Mr. Ahumada), the Minister of Planning and Finance (Mr. Gonzalez), the Chairman of the National Banking Commission (Mr. de Diego) and the Attorney General (Mr. Miranda) concurred in your opinion that the United States Government could achieve its objectives of sequestering the Peoples' Temple assets in Panama only by filing a criminal "denunciation".

All parties agreed that Panamanian bank secrecy laws would have to be scrupulously observed. The Panamanian officials stated that the Government of Panama is prepared to take all steps permitted by law to prevent its banking system from becoming a haven for money which may have been obtained by fraud or extortion. They further expressed the view that the Panamanian deposits of the Peoples' Temple presented an unprecedented situation.

3. On December 28, 1978, I appeared before Attorney General Miranda, and formally "denounced" several possible crimes which I believe may have been committed by the Peoples' Temple, its members or Panamanian subsidiaries of the Temple. In my statement, I adverted to the fact that the fruits of several possible crimes may have come to rest in numbered bank accounts in Panama, and that a potential of fraud or improper distribution of such funds existed unless they were to be immobilized (and identified) pending a proper judicial determination - either in Panama or elsewhere - of the rightful owners.

4. On December 28, 1978, you informed me that Attorney General Miranda had issued formal orders addressed to the Swiss Banking Corporation (SBC) and the Union Bank of Switzerland (UBS), directing them not to release Peoples' Temple assets pending further investigation of the matter by Panamanian authorities. As of the time of my departure from Panama, the two banks had not yet responded to the Attorney General's order. However, the Attorney General informed me that no one had ever challenged one of his orders during the ten years of his incumbency in office.

Furthermore, your Mr. Ferrer advised me that if the bank were to disburse funds on deposit in the accounts contrary to the Attorney General's Order - and assuming the validity of the order were to be ultimately sustained in the Supreme Court of Panama - the banks would be liable for all payments improperly made. Mr. Ferrer was of the opinion that it would be highly unlikely that the banks would take such a risk.

In addition, you informed me that it was your understanding that the banks had "frozen" the relevant accounts independently (and prior to the Attorney General's orders), and that you had no reason to believe that the banks would disburse any funds until the question of rightful ownership has been determined by the appropriate judicial authority (in the United States or elsewhere).

5. As regards Articles 2007 and 2008 of the Codigo Judicial, we agreed that under the unusual circumstances here it is imperative that we proceed in such a manner as to protect the interests not only of the United States and its nationals, but also of all other parties who might have claims against the Peoples' Temple funds in Panama - including the Government of Panama. The escheat provisions of Articles 102 and 103 of Cabinet Decree Number 238, provide as follows -

> Article (102) - Every bank must advise the Commission with regards to any assets, funds and securities held by it which remain inactive for five (5) years and which belong to persons whose whereabouts are unknown. The Commission, after ascertaining this fact, shall order its net value to be transferred to the National Treasury.

Article (103) - The State will be obliged to return to its owner the funds mentioned in the previous article, if they are claimed within ten (10) years after the date on which they have been transferred to the State, but the restitution will be made without charging interest.

6. With respect to a possible civil recovery action in Panama, we agreed that the filing of a civil suit would be premature, considering the institution of the criminal investigation in Panama and the possible criminal and civil actions which may be initiated in the United States. (You advised me that under Panamanian law, civil proceedings would, in any event, be stayed pending completion of any criminal investigation relating to the same matters.) I will advise you promptly concerning the status of any civil actions which may be - or which have been - filed in the United States with respect to the Peoples' Temple.

7. Because this case drawn into issue interests of the United States Government, it is necessary that you obtain the approval of my office in advance of any significant actions which you may take in the name of the United States in Panama. Re: US v. Peoples Temple
Civil No. ~~C-79-0126 (N.D.Cal.)~~

Dear Mr. Bruen:

Enclosed are additional Department documents furnished in response to defendants demand for the production of documents in the captioned matter.

The package marked "A" consists of classified documents which the Department will seek to have declassified. Accordingly, it will be appreciated if the Department of Justice refrains from the documents delivered to defendant, until the Department of State can advise that declassification has been accomplished. See attached list.

The package marked "B" consists of documents the Department believes to be a part of the deliberative process and with reference to which a claim of governmental privilege should be asserted. Accordingly, the Department requests that the Department of Justice assert a governmental privilege with reference to each document and make no delivery thereof to the defendant. See attached list.

As requested there are also enclosed copies of Documents number 358 - United States Customs report referred to in the Crimmins - Carpenter report at page 3 and number 1718 - Peoples Temple - Draft Chronology.

Very truly yours,

D. R. Henderson, Jr.

Mr. Charles H. Chase
12 Orchard Drive
Corning, New York

Dear Mr. Chase,

I refer to your letter of November 20, 1978 to President Carter. A response to your letter was delayed since it had originally been sent to the Department of Justice for reply.

I hope the following information answers your questions.

1. Under our laws members of Congress are authorized by the appropriate officials of the Congress to travel in pursuit of their official responsibilities, such as oversight and investigation of operations of the U.S. Government abroad.

2. Protection of the interests of Americans overseas is indeed a responsibility of the Department of State, but Congress is responsible for oversight of the Department's activities in this regard. Congressman Ryan was a member of the Sub-committee on International Operations of the House International Relations Committee, which from time to time has held hearings on the protection of U.S. citizens' interests overseas and other consular matters. Official travel to foreign countries is ordinarily coordinated with the Department.

3. It is my understanding that Congressman Ryan's trip to Guyana was duly authorized by Congressional authorities. However, if you wish further information you should inquire further with the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives.

I carefully reviewed the other comments in your letter. Congressional travel is one of the aspects of our government operations that sets the United States apart from most other countries. It is part of our system of the separation of powers that is the hallmark of a democratic society.

If I can be of any further assistance or answer any further questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,

OF INV.

President Jimmy Carter
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

In an article about Congressman Ryan's Guyana investigation in today's local daily newspaper, The Leader, the United Press International states, "President Carter hailed Ryan for his attempts to investigate the People's Temple and the FBI said in San Francisco it had assigned agents to determine whether there had been a conspiracy or violation of U. S. statutes."

No other news I have heard or read about the incident offers an explanation about the authority under which Congressman Ryan acted nor is it suggested that any needed investigation was properly a matter for the Department of State. I'd appreciate receiving your responses to these questions about the matter:

1) Upon what authority does a congressman pursue concerns about Americans who choose to reside in another nation ?

2) Is not such concern a matter for the U. S. Department of State since it involves another sovereign nation ?

3) What public funds and material resources of goods and services supported Congressman Ryan's trip ? If used, by what authority are they available for such a purpose ?

I am not dispassionate in my interest. I object to a congressman's individual intervention in a matter involving another sovereign nation. Surely, we would not countenance other nationals who did not possess diplomatic status intervening with persons and groups who chose to live in this country. Congressmen are members of a corporate body whose authority is within that body and its legislative process. It is an executive responsibility to relate to concerns about American citizens in other nations, primarily through the Departmen of State. Public funds and the public trust are not vested in individual congressmen to pursue their own interests, whether or not they are noble, whether selfish or unselfish.

Irrespective of the conditions under which the Americans in the People's Temple were living, many of them as well as Congressman Ryan and many of his party are dead — unjustifiably dead. We have different procedures to care for such matters. To hail one who chose not to use them as a substitute for expressing sorrow over his death obscures the principle of the matter in inappropriate handling. Now is the time to place the incident in perspective to prevent a similar situation's occurrence in the future.

Sincerely,

Charles H. Chase

Dear Mr. Dyas:

I refer to your letter to Deputy Assistant Secretary John Bushnell, complaining about the decision to return the remains of the deceased members of the People's Temple to the United States. Mr. Bushnell asked me to respond to your letter.

I share your deep concern for the security of the United States. However, I am sure you understand that the decision made to return the dead Americans to the United States was made in the belief it did reflect the will of the majority of the American people. It has been a tradition of our government that it assist American citizens when necessary, regardless of their religious or political beliefs.

Naturally there was concern over expending funds in this situation because of its uniqueness, there being no statutory authentication. Thus a decision was made to return the bodies and then bill the People's Temple for the cost. This has been done by the Department of Justice in a civil suit in the U.S. District Court in San Francisco for 4.2 million dollars, the approximate amount the operation cost the government.

I appreciate your additional concern over recent events occurring abroad and urge you to continue to make your opinions known to the Department of State and other agencies of our government and your elected Congressional representatives.

Please accept my best wishes.

Speaking Out

The tragic mass suicides in Guyana, in which more than 900 members of the controversial Peoples Temple died, has cost the American taxpayers between $2 million and $6 million. Spokesmen for various government agencies say that's the cost of transporting the bodies by air from the malaria-ridden South American country where Cult leader Jim Jones and his sinister philosophy of mix of Christianity and Marxist socialism. We visited Hendersonville, Tennessee district to find out how people feel about Uncle Sam paying the expenses.

Dear Ms. Teska,

Mr. Bushnell has asked me to reply to your letter of February 26, 1979. I have read your letter very carefully to determine how I can be of assistance. As you can imagine we have voluminous files on the People's Temple. However, this information on file does not include any sociological analyses, it simply reflects the specific actions taken before and after the tragic events of November 18, 1978. As the former Consul in Georgetown until August, 1978 who had extensive contacts with the People's Temple in Guyana, I was able to draw certain conclusions from the mass suicide/murder at Jonestown that would be difficult to explain in a letter. I can understand the interest that your class would have in this subject, but I doubt you will find anywhere in government the type of information you seek. There are several books that have been written about Jonestown of varying accuracy and quality that may assist. You can also request under the Freedom of Information Act, for information that the Department of State presently has on file. Your request should be sent to the Department of State, Office of Public Affairs, Washington, D.C. 20520.

I hope the above information will assist you in your endeavor. Please accept my best wishes.

Dear Mr. Bushnell,

I am a student at Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas, and in one of my courses, Collective Behavior, we are studying the recent incident with the People's Temple. Since your department had direct contact with Guyana after the mass suicides, I would be very interested in any information or transcripts you may have concerning the incident. Also, if you have any other information on the People's Temple, Jim Jones, and other cults that would be of any aid to our study, I would also appreciate your help. We are trying to work up a sociological analysis of the Guyana incident, but first we must have the facts on the cult before and after the "mass suicide."

I appreciate any time and consideration you can give me for this study. If you could also let me know of anyone else I could contact who has any pertinent information on Jim Jones and the People's Temple, I would greatly appreciate your help.

Thank you very much for your efforts to help me with this project.

Mr. Louis S. Gurvich
Suite 1102-300 Poydras
New Orleans, La 70130

Dear Louis:

I have given your last two letters a great deal of thought. I re-read your letter of February 20, several times to put your comments in context with my thoughts about the Peoples Temple tragedy.

I understand your bitterness and disappointment about the perceived failure of the Department to act after Mrs. Blakey defected, but unfortunately apart from the statements she made that could be construed as self-serving in view of her alleged intimate involvement in Peoples Temple financial transactions, there was no substantiating evidence developed. Certainly, Mrs. Blakey's defection added an additional element to the allegations that had been made. Her charges were discussed informally by me with Guyanese Police Officials but, absent any corroborating evidence the Guyanese were not prepared to conduct a formal investigation of conditions at Jonestown. However, there were Guyanese Police Officials who were very suspicious of Jones and who were monitoring Temple activities. Nevertheless, these Officials could never develop the information that was needed by them to justify a detailed investigation that may have substantiated the claims made by Mrs. Blakey and others. Another element that had to be considered was trying to determine whether a person has been intimidated, coerced or otherwise influenced against his/her will. This is very difficult to prove especially when I could not get anyone at the farm to admit that any of the charges were true. I believe Congressman Ryan was successful in his efforts because of the size of his party and the time he spent at the camp. I normally spent about 5 to 7 hours at the farm during each visit. On my last trip to Jonestown our Ambassador instituted a policy of sending two officers on visits to Jonestown in an attempt to have a more in-depth view of what was occurring at the townsite.

Essentially, as I go over the horrible massacre of November 18 and the events that led up to it, I am convinced that there was no way to prevent it. This is not a cop out, but given the probability that had the Guyanese stationed police at the farm, Temple members would probably have been able to disarm them and then proceed to carry out their plans.

I have also thought about your comments regarding the removal operation. Our sole concern was to remove the bodies before they became a health hazard. There was not sufficient time for the type of investigation that would have been needed to determine to what extent members voluntarily committed suicide or were murdered. This may come out in the FBI investigation although I doubt it. Timothy and Michael Carter may be able to shed some light on this, but probably will not for fear of implicating themselves. I think most of us here were shocked and numbed by the numbers that died and I'm sure the military on the scene just wanted to get the job over with. I believe the lack of survivors makes it difficult to really get to the bottom of this entire sorry episode.

For what it's worth, I predicted here that the local Guyanese would steal everything not nailed down. We did get a Consular Officer in there as quickly as possible to protect what was left but in the final analysis it is up to the Guyanese to safeguard the personal property of the members.

Finally, please let me know if you still have not received the death certificate for your daughter. If I can shed any further light on this subject, or if you have any further questions, please let me know.

Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Mr. McCoy:

I do appreciate hearing from you, but I must confess I am bitterly disappointed at the failure of the Consulate in Guyana, the Department of Guyana Affairs, and the State Department in not being alerted by the impetus given by the defection of Debbie Layton Blakey to those fears that I and others had relayed to the Consulate a year before. I agree that it was a duty that would have been above and beyond the norm, but D. L. Blakey's deposition and explanation of what was happening, certainly called for action exceeding normal Consulate functions.

I am one of eight to ten people (Americans) who got into Jonestown after the murders. I stated on Wednesday, November 23rd, that the majority of the victims were not voluntary suicides. I had then and still have excellent reasons for so saying and photographic evidence to back it up. I doubt seriously if anyone, including the soldiers who removed the bodies, looked at as many bodies as closely as I did. Cameramen used zoom lens and stayed up-wind nor do I blame them. The stench and the sight were a nightmare. What is unbearable is that there are so terribly many unanswered questions that I am staggered by the apathy of the American government's handling of the Jonestown disaster. I am aware of some of the difficulties and sympathize, but only to a mild extent, in that just a little extra effort might have gone a long way.

As regards the apathy,

1. For example, bodies removed from the Assembly Hall could have been marked with an "A".

   The ones across the ditch could have been marked "B".

   Those on the other side of the runway between the Community Building and the Assembly Hall could have been marked with a "C", etc. because WHERE THE BODIES WERE LOCATED HAD A GREAT DEAL TO DO WITH THE "VOLUNTARY" NATURE OF THEIR DEATHS. For example, using my form with the "A's" and the "C's"; they appeared to have accepted their fate and were quite orderly. On the other hand, Section "B" across the ditch, Section "D" at the other end of the Assembly Hall from Jones and the open area between the ditch and the crops, were pandemonium. One simple letter, added to the numbers on the body bags, would have told many of us the nature of our loved one's death. This may seem irrelevant to the State Department, but it certainly isn't to a parent or any God-fearing person.

2. Who tagged the ankles of the bodies near the main Assembly area and those immediately adjacent to it? No one knew the names in Kaituma, yet I learned of my daughter's death in Kaituma from a partial casualty list which had been made up Sunday and Monday--by whom? Was it the Carter brothers? Prokes? or Clayton and Rhodes? The first three, hard core fanatics, would be the ones who "policed" the area. I do not believe Clayton or Rhodes did the identifying, though I could be mistaken. Might it have been others? (Roberts knows.) There were only 187 names on the partial casualty list. I cannot say whether or not a commensurate number were tagged, but I believe so. Personal identification was not my motivation except in the case of my daughter, but I do remember Pauline Groot, and Sara and Richard Troops, and some few others, (Chaikin and Touchette). Johnny Cobbs and Tim Jones probably are better aware than I of the location of many of the bodies.

3. Little if any notice has been paid to the plundering of Jonestown. Every building that I entered was in complete disarray (primarily housing areas). Nothing of value was left in the Pittman or Tubman house or in Cottages 31 through 54.

4. I still have not received the Death Certificate for my daughter.

5. Why weren't the odor removal chrystals used at the Dover Mortuary? When I met my daughter's body at the Airport, the stench was as bad as Jonestown itself.

6. I am aware that over half of the bodies are as yet unclaimed. That does not mean everyone in Jonestown was defective or unwanted or unloved or in any way different from a good portion of the youth of America today.

I don't really know what to think or what to believe. Certainly, each parent could have done more. You, of all people, know that I was far more concerned than the great majority of parents with children in Jonestown. I was the only parent to go to Jonestown AFTER CONGRESSMAN RYAN'S DEATH. On Monday night when I spoke to Douglas Ellis, your successor, he was of little or no help, but he did know who I was. He knew of the file we had established regarding my daughter and referred to it. He also told me to go home; that I would never get to Jonestown; which, kindly put, was as stupid and as facetious a remark, as I have ever heard.

I have been, in the course of my life, a gunnery expert, a veteran of World War II, President of a 300 man Detective Agency, as well as a person who has been in the Liberian jungles, to primitive areas in the jungles of Brazil, the Phillipine jungle and less dense jungle areas in Indonesia. I would scarcely be called inexperienced, and have seen countless dead bodies under the strangest of circumstances because of my wartime service and my lifetime occupation. Why else would you imagine that a Guyanese Police Chief would allow me to go to Jonestown and no one else? If he took the trouble to find me qualified to go, why couldn't the American Consulate at least help?

Richard, I do appreciate our talks and I do understand that it would have required probably a breach of regulations to go much further beyond the rather simple understanding that we had. I do feel, however, that both this Government and the Guyanese Government did a rather poor job from beginning to end in the handling of Jonestown.

I enclose some "shots" taken November 22, 1978 of Jonestown--pictures appropriately marked on the reverse.

Mr. Richard A. McCoy

Dear Dick:

Please find enclosed a copy of the suit brought by the People's Temple members still residing in Georgetown for recovery of control of PT assets in Guyana. Donald Fraser, an elderly gentleman whom you may know, is the solicitor; Rex McKay is once again the barrister. Terry Fortune has requested this document and a copy should probably also go to Jim Morgen in Justice. Unfortunately we are once again going through power outages and we are on our own generator which means that our Xerox machine is temporarily out of service.

The second document enclosed appears to be the PT lease. I am not really sure where we got this. I had thought we had gotten it from among the material that Terry Fortune had collected while he was down here. If he does not have a copy of it and I understand he does not, he should also have a copy for his files. I regret that our Xerox of a Xerox is barely legible, hence the poor quality of our copy.

As things stand, and without yet exploring the mysteries of the air schedules, I expect to travel directly from here to San Francisco for the May 30 meeting with the Grand Jury. I have some family business which needs attention in the mid-West so we expect to stop in at Chicago for a day or two on our way to Elizabeth's graduation June 8 in Massachusetts. From there probably down to St. Petersburg for a few days with grandparents and then on back to Georgetown. I don't intend to stop by Washington unless there is a particularly compelling reason to do so.

I would very much appreciate, however, the opportunity to look over the testimony I gave to the HFAC staff members before I testify in San Francisco. My testimony to them consisted of ten straight hours and I am concerned now (as I should have been then) that by the end of the day I had become more vague than necessary.

Elizabeth has just left to go back to school, absolutely delighted that she is accepted by Skidmore, which was her first choice. My delight was tempered somewhat by the fact that the acceptance was in the first sentance and a request for a deposit of $300 in the second sentence. I am kind of glad that I don't have two children both in college in the same year.

Best regards to your family.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Dwyer

Dear Mr. Hall:

Assistant Secretary Bennett has asked me as one who was deeply involved in the Jonestown tragedy to reply to your letter of March 29, 1979.

The factor that most determined the decision to return the bodies to the United States was the location where the events occurred. Jonestown was in a remote area in the northwestern district of Guyana, a poor underdeveloped country that does not have the resources to handle a tragedy as cataclysmic as that of November 18. When the scope of the disaster was learned, (a point to keep in mind is that with one exception all the deceased were American citizens) the Guyanese requested assistance in removing the bodies since they did not have the personnel and other resources needed to resolve such a problem.

Naturally, an immediate decision had to be made as to how to dispose of the remains of the Jonestown inhabitants since the bodies were rapidly decomposing in the tropical heat. As the Guyanese did not have sufficient personnel to cope with the massive task of identifying the remains and providing them with proper burial, the decision was made to return the bodies to the United States. This decision was made after a U.S. Air Force pathologist made an on-the-scene determination that the return of the bodies would not pose a health hazard.

Frankly, I do not see that any Government that purports to be responsive to its citizens could have acted differently. Moreover if the Justice Department's suit to recover the Governments expenses is successful, and there is no reason to assume otherwise at this time, then the cost to the taxpayer will be minimal.

I hope the above information clarifys this matter for you. If you have any further questions, please feel free to call me at area code 202 - 632-3449.

Dear Mr. Cosgrove,

I refer to your letter of March 30, 1979 relating to the sale of People's Temple equipment in Guyana.

At this time it is uncertain whether the equipment you are interested in will ever be sold. The ownership of this property is presently under litigation in the Courts of Guyana.

My only suggestion would be to write our Consul in Georgetown and ask him to notify you once the issue is settled and a sale is scheduled. However, you should be aware it may not be several years before all the claims are settled. For your information only one of the People's Temple boats was impounded by the Guyanese authorities. The other ship was at sea when the November 18 tragedy occurred and I am not sure of its present whereabouts.

I trust the above information clarify's this matter for you. Please accept my best wishes.

Please notify me as soon as a sale of People's Temple equipment in Guyana is scheduled. I would also like to know of any special terms and conditions of sale.

I am particularly interested in the boats owned by the Temple in Guyana.

GUYANA

Political Scene: A Cooperative Republic since 1970, Guyana has a mixed economy and maintains close ties with Cuba and the Eastern Bloc. At the request of the government of Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, the Parliament has again postponed elections.

U.S. Position: We continue to have normal, friendly relations with the Burnham government. We favor the continuation of the democratic process in Guyana and hope that elections can be held at an early date.

Jonestown Aftermath: There has been little progress in Guyanese investigation of the tragedy.

U.S. Position: We have raised this informally with Guyanese officials who explain that the delay has been due primarily to the crowded Court calendar and recent internal political developments. We will continue to remind the GOG of its promise to complete their inquiry. A Chief Justice is carrying out the investigation.

Judicial Proceedings: Two People's Temple members Richard Beikman and Larry Layton are being tried in Guyana for murder.

U.S. Position: The Guyanese judicial system is proceeding with the trials of the two Americans. We believe the GOG is to actively prosecuting both cases. The Department of Justice is cooperating with the Guyanese in the prosecution of Larry Layton through the transfer of information and assisting in the return of witnesses to Guyana to testify.

The House of Israel: Headed by an American citizen, David Hill aka Rabbi Washington, the House of Israel is accused of participating in political violence on behalf of the Guyanese Government and being linked with the death of a Roman Catholic priest.

Mr. Donald G. Lanning

Dear Mr. Lanning:

I refer to your letter of January 17, 1979 concerning some additional questions that you had concerning the Jonestown tragedy. Mr. Bushnell is currently out of the country and asked that I reply to your letter.

Frankly, I disagree with your contention that the Department's reply to Senator Cranston was designed to mislead the American public. The information given to Senator Cranston was a factual response to your initial inquiry. The entire Jonestown operation was covered extensively by all elements of the media in the United States and I believe at this time there are few people in this country that are unaware of this tragedy and how and why the Government reacted as it did.

Fortunately, a situation such as Jonestown only happens once in a generation and that is why decisions were made on an "ad hoc" basis. I am sure that you are now aware that the Department of Justice has filed suit in the U.S. District Court in San Francisco to recover 4.2 million dollars from the People's Temple to reimburse the Government for its expenses in this operation. If you wish additional information about this suit, I suggest you contact the Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington D.C.

The decision that was made to return the bodies has precedence. You may recall the air disaster that occurred several years ago in Tenerife in the Canary Islands when a Pan American Airliner collided with a KLM airliner on the runway and over 350 Americans were killed. Because of the magnitude of disaster our military returned the deceased to this country.

Dear Sir:

I recently wrote to Senator Cranston expressing my opinion that we tax payers should not bear the expense of returning the nearly 1000 absent members of the Republic of Nauru to Delaware. I suggested that a lien be placed against the properties (including cash and/or bank accounts) of the evacuees.

Senator Cranston's answer failed to address my specific suggestion, but it quoted from your Department's position statement regarding the Nauru Tragedy, indicating that the Dept of Justice is fully exploring possible legal remedies. He also enclosed a copy of that same position statement.

Though the entire Dept of State statement I could only see position's statement which mainly sides with a questioning citizen and pushes further question or make the question even "substantially less" as regards hard cash; and appeal to the purely humanitarian instinct — again hoping to preclude additional question.

Please advise me as to exactly what steps have been taken and what additional steps are actually going to be taken to assure that the religious dept, Peoples Temple have all or as much as possible of the "substantially less than $8 million" expense of the handling and transfer of the about at Jonestown.

I am not exactly heartless, but I feel there is a limit to the free money that the tax payers are willing to see thrown around. Since I started this incident to ask. question about, I really expect answers, not platitudes. I will continue to question unreasonable waste of my tax dollars as I become aware of them. I hope you shouldn't feel that I am concentrating on this one act.

Sincerely,
Donald Stokes Jr.

Re: United States v. People's Temple
Civil No. C-79-0126 (N.D. Cal.)

Dear Mr. Marks:

We enclose a copy of the Answer filed by the People's Temple. The range of issues raised by the pleadings is broad and includes events which preceded the tragedy in Jonestown. From the scope of the Answer, we anticipate that discovery will be attempted in many factual areas.

Very truly yours,

Re: United States v. Peoples Temple
Civil No. 79-0126SC (N.D. Cal.)

Dear Mr. Read:

We enclose two documents: (1) a Petition for Order Granting Receiver Authority to Compromise Claims of the United States; and, (2) an August 8, 1980 letter from Robert H. Fabian, the Receiver of Peoples Temple, to Jay Rini of the Department of State. The two enclosures relate to the settlement of this suit to recover the costs incident to removal of the bodies from Jonestown, Guyana after the tragedy. We have discussed the settlement over the past months with representatives of both L/CA and the Bureau of Consular Affairs.

The two enclosures propose a settlement of the claims of the United States in terms we believe we can recommend. We, however, of course, solicit the views of our client agencies with respect to proposed settlements. Please, therefore, let us know the recommendation of the Department of State as soon as possible. In requesting your recommendation, we recognize that portions of the proposed settlement, e.g., those portions relating to tax matters do not involve your Department and you need not be concerned with them.

If you need additional information from us, please contact James G. Bruen, Jr. of this office at 724-7453.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

ALICE DANIEL

RESOLUTION OF THE CONCERNED:

Many of us, the undersigned residents of Jonestown, Guyana, have been visited here by friends and relatives. However, we have not invited and do not care to see Congressman Ryan (promoter of military aid to the fascist regime of Chile), media representatives, members of a group of so-called "concerned relatives," or any other persons who may be connected with, or associated with, any of these persons.

Dated: This 7th day of November, 1978, Jonestown, Guyana.

REF: ARA/NC (DEVINE) MEMCONS OF MAY 21 AND MAY 29; GEORGETOWN 0931

1. IN RESPONSE TO DEPARTMENT AND EMBASSY CARACAS INTEREST, POST HAS DEVELOPED FOLLOWING INFORMATION ON TWO GROUPS OF U.S. CITIZENS, PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL MISSION AND SHALOM COOPERATIVE, WHICH HAVE SETTLED IN GUYANA NEAR VENEZUELAN BORDER.

2. PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL MISSION: THIS MULTI-RACIAL GROUP CONSISTS OF NINE AMERICANS WHO OPERATE AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT THREE MILES FROM PORT KAITUMA IN NORTHWEST DISTRICT OF GUYANA, APPROXIMATELY TWENTY-FIVE MILES FROM VENEZUELAN BORDER. LINKED WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE OF DISCIPLES OF CHRIST, CALIFORNIA BASED RELIGIOUS GROUP, PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL MISSION APPEARS WELL ORGANIZED AND FINANCED AND HAS LEASING ARRANGEMENT WITH GCG. THEY HAVE RECENTLY PURCHASED TRAWLER FROM U.S. SHRIMPING COMPANY AND EXPECT TO SUPPLEMENT AGRICULTURAL WORK WITH FISHING. MEMBERS OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ARE FAVORABLY KNOWN TO EMBASSY AND HAVE TOLD CONSULAR OFFICERS THAT THEY EXPECT ADDITIONAL TWENTY TO TWENTY-FIVE SETTLERS IN NEXT TWO MONTHS. THEY DECLINE TO SPECULATE ON EVENTUAL SIZE, BUT POINT OUT THAT SPONSORING CHURCHES IN CALIFORNIA HAVE APPROXIMAT TOTAL MEMBERSHIP OF 10,000, OF WHICH ONLY SMALL ELEMENT WOULD BE POTENTIAL SETTLERS HERE.

3. SHALOM COOPERATIVE: THIS GROUP, ALSO MULTI-RACIAL, IS LOCATED

APPROXIMATELY EIGHT MILES FROM PORT KAITUMA AND CONSISTS OF TWENTY-SIX AMERICANS. IN CONTRAST WITH FIRST GROUP, THEY ARE INEXPERIENCED, POORLY ORGANIZED, LACK FIRM LEASING ARRANGEMENT WITH GOG, AND RECENTLY HAVE EXHAUSTED THEIR FINANCIAL RESOURCES. COOPERATIVE APPEARS TO BE SPLITTING UP AND ONE MEMBER HAS ASKED FOR REPATRIATION TO U.S. (REFTEL)). IN RESPONSE TO QUESTION BY CONOFF, ONE GROUP MEMBER SAID THERE ARE NO RPT NO THIRD COUNTRY NATIONALS INVOLVED IN COOPERATIVE.

1. IN HOPE OF MAKING DEFINITIVE EVALUATION OF FRAGMENTARY REPORTS RECEIVED FROM DEPARTMENT AND EMBASSY CARACAS OF AMERICANS, CHINESE, KOREANS, CUBANS, PUERTO RICANS, VIETNAMESE ETC. LIVING IN AREA OF GUYANA VENEZUELAN BORDER DISPUTE, EMBOFFS MADE INFORMAL VISIT TO REMOTE AND ISOLATED MATTHEW'S RIDGE AREA WEEKEND JULY 13. FOLLOWING TOUR OF AREA AND DISCREET INQUIRIES AMONG LOCAL GOVT AND POLICE AUTHORITIES, EMBASSY CONFIRMS, AS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED (REFTEL) THE ONLY TWO GROUPS OF AMERICANS OR FOREIGNERS IN AREA ARE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL MISSION AND SHALOM COOPERATIVE. OTHER ACTIVITIES IN AREA ARE CONSTRUCTION OF NATIONAL SERVICE CAMP SITE AND SMALL SCALE GOVT AND PRIVATE FARMING.

2. PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL MISSION: AS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED, THIS MULTI-RACIAL GROUP CONSISTS OF NINE AMERICANS LIVING AT PORT KAITUMA, APPROXIMATELY THIRTY

MILES FROM MATTHEW'S RIDGE. THEY ARE ADVANCE PARTY FROM PROPLE'S TEMPLE OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST, CALIFORNIA-BASED CHURCH GROUP, WHICH PLANS TO ESTABLISH AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT AT SITE NOW BEING CLEARED THREE MILES FROM PORT KAITUMA. GROUP COORDINATOR EXPLAINED THAT CHURCH HAS MEMBERS OF SEVERAL RACIAL BACKGROUNDS, BUT THAT ONLY BLACKS AND WHITES ARE CURRENTLY IN GUYANA. NO RPT NO CUBANS. PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MISSION IS EXPECTED TO HAVE ROUGHLY FIFTY MEMBERS BY MIDDLE OF NEXT YEAR. THOSE MEMBERS ALREADY IN GUYANA APPEAR DEDICATED, WELL ORGANIZED, AND ADEQUATELY FINANCED. THEY ARE FAVORABLY KNOWN TO EMBASSY AND LOCAL GOVT AUTHORITIES AND THEY APPARENTLY HAVE BLESSING OF DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND AGRICULTURE PTOLEMY REID.

3. SHALOM COOPERATIVE: THIS MULTI-RACIAL GROUP OF APPROXIMATELY TWENTY-SIX AMERICANS HAS ATTEMPTED TO ESTABLISH AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE AT LOCATION ROUGHLY EIGHT MILES FROM PORT KAITUMA. COOP MEMBERS LIVE IN GEORGETOWN OR MATTHEW'S RIDGE AND APPARENTLY ALLOW LOCAL AMERINDIANS TO DO MOST OF WORK ON THEIR LAND. SHALOM COOPERATIVE SEEMS POORLY ORGANIZED AND LACKS FINANCIAL RESOURCES. TWO MEMBERS HAVE RECENTLY APPLIED AT EMBASSY FOR REPATRIATION. LOCAL POLICE AND GOVT OFFICIALS IN MATTHEW'S RIDGE AREA SPEAK LESS FAVORABLY OF THIS GROUP THAN PEOPLE'S TEMPLE GROUP BUT ADD THEY HAVE HAD NO PROBLEMS WITH THEM

4. OTHER ACTIVITY: EVERY PERSON QUESTIONED BY EMBOFFS ABOUT PRESENCE OF OTHER FOREIGNERS IN AREA ANSWERED THAT THERE ARE NO RPT NO OTHERS. ONLY OTHER ACTIVITY OUTSIDE OF SMALL SCALE PRIVATE AND GOVT FARMING IN MATTHEW'S RIDGE AREA IS BUILDING OF CAMP AT PAPAYA CREEK, THREE MILES FROM MATTHEW'S RIDGE, FOR NATIONAL SERVICE, GUYANA'S PARAMILITARY YOUTH CORPS. PAPAYA CREEK CAMP, EXPECTED TO BE READY BY MARCH 1975, WILL PROBABLY HOUSE FIVE HUNDRED VOLUNTEERS, WHO WILL LEARN MILITARY AND CIVILIAN SKILLS AND FARM.

CONSUL GAVE NAMES OF THREE LOCAL ATTORNEYS TO MAZOR AND EXPLAINED THAT FOR U.S. COURT ORDERS TO BE ACCEPTED IN GUYANA THEY MUST BE APPROVED BY GUYANESE COURTS FOR SERVICE. CONSUL ALSO SUGGESTED THAT PARENTS OF AFFECTED CHILDREN SHOULD CONTACT THE GUYANESE EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON TO PRESS THEIR COMPLAINTS IN ORDER TO PREVENT ANY CONFUSION ON THE LOCAL SCENE CONCERNING LEGAL GUARDIANSHIP. MAZOR ALSO ALLEGED TO HAVE KNOWLEDGE OF WARRANTS FOR THE ARREST OF THREE HIGHLY PLACED PERSONS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE WHO ARE CHARGED WITH FRAUD AND FORGERY. FURTHER THAT THE COURT WOULD BE SUBMITTING REQUESTS THROUGH THE DEPARTMENT TO THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA FOR EXTRADITION.

1. SUMMARY: PROBLEMS STEMMING FROM RECENT LARGE INFLUX OF MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE WHO HAVE IMMIGRATED TO GUYANA. CONSUL VISITED JONESTOWN ON AUGUST 28 AND SPENT SEVERAL HOURS TOURING SITE. CONSUL SAW JOHN STOEN, SUBJECT OF REFTEL C. HE CONFIRMED IDENTITY THROUGH PHOTO PROVIDED BY MOTHER'S ATTORNEY.

2. BISHOP JIM JONES TOLD CONSUL AND DURING CONVERSATION EXPRESSED HIS CONCERN ABOUT RECENT PRESS ATTACKS BY MAGAZINE "NEW WEST" WERE HAVING ON THE MEMBERS OF HIS ORGANIZATION. JONES BELIEVED THESE ATTACKS WERE THE PRIMARY REASON WHY MEMBERS RELATIVES IN THE US WERE INQUIRING ABOUT THEIR HEALTH AND WELL BEING. HE STATED THAT ALLEGATIONS BY FORMER MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE THAT PEOPLE WERE BEING HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL IN GUYANA WERE DELIBERATE LIES. HE POINTED OUT THE LACK OF ARMED GUARDS AND OPENESS OF THE SITE. SEVERAL TIMES WHEN JONES AND CONSUL CAME UPON A GROUP JONES INTRODUCED CONSUL AND WHEN ASKED MEMBERS OF THE GROUP IF THEY WERE HAPPY AND DESIRED TO STAY. NOT SURPRISINGLY, THEY ALL ANSWERED AFFIRMATIVELY.

AT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE EXPENSE.

4. CONSUL'S INITIAL IMPRESSION IS THAT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE HAS MADE SURPRISING PROGRESS IN 3 YEARS IN CLEARING SUB-TORRIDO JUNGLE AND ESTABLISHING A SETTLEMENT. THE COMMUNITY NOW CONSISTS OF SOME 800 PLUS INHABITANTS WHO IN KEEPING WITH SOCIALIST PHILOSOPHY OF ORGANIZATION LIVE

DORMITORY STYLE IN SMALL HOUSES AND EAT IN COMMUNAL DINING TENTS. THEY HAVE ESTABLISHED A CLINIC WITH A MEDICAL SCHOOL GRADUATE AND FULLY TRAINED NURSES AND LABORATORY TECHNICIANS. THERE IS GRADUATE AGRONOMIST WHO HAS SUPERVISED DET PLANTING OF CASSAVA, PINEAPPLE, EDDOES, BEANS ETC. DET ENTIRE ARRANGEMENT IS VERY SIMILAR TO AN ISRAELI KIBBUTZ. LOCAL GOG OFFICIALS WHILE SOMEWHAT CONCERNED ABOUT THE SUDDEN HEAVY INFLUX OF AMERICANS AT JONESTOWN WERE LOUD IN THEIR PRAISE AT THE PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY OF THE IMMIGRANTS.

6. CONSUL NOTICED RELATIVELY LARGE NUMBER OF CHILDREN FROM PRE-SCHOOL TO HIGH SCHOOL AGE. JONES DESCRIBED

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

CHILDREN AS FORMER WARDS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA. ALSO AT JONESTOWN WERE ABOUT 100 ELDERLY AMERICANS, INCLUDING ONE MAN REPUTED TO BE 122 YEARS OF AGE. PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBER EXPLAINED EACH "SENIOR CITIZEN" HAS SMALL TASK TO PERFORM AND THAT THE ELDERLY HAVE RESPONDED VERY WELL TO THIS "SENIOR CITIZEN'S PROGRAM" BECAUSE THEY ARE NOW WANTED AND USEFUL.

7. CONSUL COULD NOT DETERMINE FROM SHORT STAY WHETHER IT WAS SUBJECTED TO GIGANTIC "PUT ON" BY JONES OR HIS ADHERENTS TRULY ARE DEDICATED TO THEIR MISSION OF BUILDING A THRIVING, PRODUCTIVE AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY. ALL MEMBERS APPEARED CHEERFUL, FRIENDLY, AND LOOKED REASONABLY HEALTHY. CONSUL HAD LUNCH THAT WOULD PROBABLY NOT WIN ANY CULINARY PRIZE BUT WAS FILLING. HOWEVER, WHILE THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT TO DATE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE HAS ACHIEVED A GREAT DEAL, THERE IS ALSO NO DOUBT THAT JONES BELIEVES HE AND HIS GROUP ARE BEING THREATENED BY A CONSPIRACY OF "RIGHT WING FORCES" WHO ARE OUT TO DESTROY THE ORGANIZATION. ONLY JARRING NOTE DURING VISIT OCCURRED WHEN JONES ASKED CONSUL IF THE USG HAD REQUESTED THE GOG TO EXPEL THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IMMIGRANTS. JONES CLAIMED THAT HE HAD HEARD THAT SUCH A REQUEST HAD BEEN MADE. CONSUL EMPHATICALLY DENIED CHARGE AND STATED SUCH ACTION WAS INCONCEIVABLE. JONES SHOWED CONSUL NUMEROUS TESTIMONIALS FROM CALIFORNIA POLITICAL FIGURES SUCH AS LT. GOV. MERVYN DYMALLY OF CALIFORNIA AND THE MAYOR OF SAN FRANCISCO, CHURCH LEADERS FROM CALIFORNIA, AND OTHER COMMUNITY REPRESENTATIVES THAT HAD BEEN SENT TO PRIME MINISTER BURNHAM ON BEHALF OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE RECOMMENDING ORGANIZATION. ALL LETTERS APPEARED TO HAVE BEEN WRITTEN WITHIN THE PAST THREE MONTHS AND ALLUDED TO IMMIGRATION BY ORGANIZATION TO GUYANA. PRESUMABLY THIS FILM WILL BE UTILIZED BY PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO SHOW USG INTEREST IN PROJECT. MEMBER MAKING FILM INDICATED HE WAS PREPARING FILM AND MENTIONED THAT CONSUL WAS BELIEVED TO BE FIRST MEMBER OF USG TO VISIT COMMUNITY. FRANKLY IT WAS STRANGE TO HEAR A BACKGROUND OF SPIRITUAL MUSIC BEING SUNG BY MOSTLY BLACK ELDERLY PERSONS WHILE VISITING A COMMUNITY OF AMERICANS IN A REMOTE REGION OF GUYANA THAT CAN ONLY BE REACHED BY BOAT AFTER A 22 HOUR TRIP FROM GEORGETOWN OR BY A TWICE WEEKLY FLIGHT AND THEN A ONE HOUR TRIP BY LAND ROVER OVER A DIRT ROAD CARVED OUT OF THE WILDERNESS. ALL IN ALL, VISIT WAS BOTH INFORMATIVE AND INTERESTING.

BY THE INDIVIDUAL'S IMMEDIATE FAMILY. THE DEPARTMENT SHOULD UNDERSTAND THAT IT IS VERY UNLIKELY THAT A CONSULAR OFFICER WILL EVER HAVE DIRECT CONTACT WITH AN INDIVIDUAL UNLESS HE TRAVELS TO THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY. COMMUNITY IS TWO HUNDRED MILES FROM GEORGETOWN AND TRAVEL IS A COSTLY, TIME-CONSUMING COMBINATION OF AIR AND ROAD TRAVEL. AS WE INDICATED IN PARAGRAPH SEVEN GEORGETOWN 2097 ROUND TRIP TAKES THREE DAYS VIA SCHEDULED AIR TRANSPORTATION OR ONE DAY VIA CHARTERED PLANE WHICH COST APPROXIMATELY US$150 PER CHARTER. UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS BELIEVE THAT THEY SHOULD BE ABLE TO CONFIRM ENTRY OF INDIVIDULAS INTO THE COUNTRY AND GIVE GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE GROUP AND ITS FARM WITHOUT CONTRAVENING THE PROVISIONS OF THE PRIVACY ACT. IN THE CASE OF MARIA KATSARIS OUR CONSUL WAS ABLE TO MENTION TO [redacted] THAT E 86
HE HAD PERSONALLY MET [redacted] HE HAS FOUND E 86
THAT SUCH INFORMATION WHILE NOT THE SAME AS DIRECT CONTACT BETWEEN THE PARENT AND CHILD STILL HELPS TO ASSUAGE THE WORRY AND ANXIETY THAT RELATIVES HAVE ABOUT THEIR OFFSPRING ESPECIALLY AFTER HEARING ABOUT SERIOUS ALLEGATIONS AGAINST THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IN THE U.S.

1. POST HAS NO RECORD OF ANY PREVIOUS CORRESPONDENCE WITH EDWARDS' FAMILY ABROUTE POSSIBLY EDWARDS WAS THE SUBJECT OF A TELEPHONE CONVERSATION WITH A MEMBER OF THE CONSULAR STAFF. UNLESS DEPARTMENT BELIEVES EMERGENCY EXISTS WE STILL PLAN TO HAVE A CONSULAR OFFICER VISIT THE AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY NEXT MONTH. HOWEVER, DEPARTMENT MAY ADVISE [redacted] THAT CONSUL RECENTLY MET IN GEORGETOWN WITH THE SUB-DISTRICT OFFICER FROM PORT KAITUMA. THIS OFFICIAL VISITS JONESTOWN FAIRLY REGULARLY AND DOES NOT BELIEVE ANY MEMBER OF THE COMMUNITY IS BEING HELD AGAINST HIS WILL. FURTHERMORE CONSUL HAS DISCUSSED THIS MATTER BY PHONE WITH LOCAL POLICE OFFICIALS WHO HAVE VISITED TOWNSITE AND THEY REPORTED THAT ALL APPEARS TO BE NORMAL.

2. IT IS OBVIOUSLY IMPOSSIBLE FOR US TO DETERMINE WHETHER ANYONE IS BEING COERCED TO REMAIN AT JONESTOWN IN ABSENCE OF DIRECT CONTACT BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICER AND INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. ACCORDINGLY AN OFFICER WILL TRAVEL TO THE AREA EARLY NEXT MONTH FOR DISCUSSIONS WITH SEVERAL INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE BEEN THE SUBJECTS OF W/W INQUIRIES.

1. EMBASSY CAREFULLY REVIEWED REFTELS A AND B PERTAINING TO [illegible] FAMILY IN GUYANA. IN OUR JUDGMENT THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN REFTEL A DOES NOT GIVE CONSULAR OFFICER LEGAL AUTHORITY TO SEEK REMOVAL OF A 7 YEAR OLD GIRL FROM THE CUSTODY OF HER GRANDMOTHER. QUITE FRANKLY, WE WERE SURPRISED THAT DEPARTMENT WOULD INSTRUCT EMBASSY TO INTERVENE IN A CHILD CUSTODY MATTER AND SEEK GOG OFFICIAL ACTION IN HAVING CHILD TAKEN FROM HER GRANDMOTHER AND RETURNED TO US SOLELY ON BASIS OF A TELEPHONE REQUEST.
2. EMBASSY INFORMED APPROPRIATE GUYANESE AUTHORITIES OF [illegible] DESIRE TO REMOVE HER DAUGHTER [illegible] FROM CUSTODY OF GRANDMOTHER. HOWEVER AS EMBASSY AND DEPARTMENT ARE ALREADY AWARE FROM EXPERIENCE WITH THE STORK CASE DURING AUGUST THIS YEAR, UNDER GUYANESE LAW, ONLY THE GUYANESE COURTS HAVE AUTHORITY TO MAKE

3. GUYANESE AUTHORITIES WILL NOT REMOVE [illegible] FROM HER GRANDMOTHER WITHOUT A GUYANESE COURT ORDER EMPOWERING THEM TO DO SO. THEREFORE, UNLESS THE GRANDMOTHER CAN BE PERSUADED TO VOLUNTARILY RELINQUISH CUSTODY OF [illegible] THE ONLY LEGAL REMEDY WOULD BE FOR ONE OF [illegible] PARENTS TO COME TO GUYANA, ENGAGE A LOCAL LAWYER AND OBTAIN A RULING IN A GUYANESE COURT.

1. THE FOLLOWING REPORT IS FOR DEPARTMENT'S INFORMATION SHOULD THEY BE QUERIED BY THE PRESS OR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS CONCERNING OUR ASSISTANCE TO MRS. HUNTER.

2. ON MAY 25, 1978 THE MANAGER OF THE PEGASUS HOTEL AND A SENIOR GOG IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL CONTACTED OUR CONSUL AND REQUESTED HIS ASSISTANCE IN FACILITATING THE DEPARTURE OF MRS. HUNTER, AN AMERICAN CITIZEN, THEN RESIDING AT THE PEGASUS HOTEL WHO HAD BECOME ILL AND WAS UNDER A PHYSICIAN'S CARE. THE IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL ALSO INFORMED CONSUL THAT MRS. HUNTER'S VISA HAD EXPIRED AND SHE WAS REQUIRED TO DEPART GUYANA WHEN SHE WAS ABLE TO TRAVEL.

3. CONSUL MET WITH MRS. HUNTER LATER THAT SAME DAY AND SHE REQUESTED HIS ASSITANCE IN ARRANGING FUNDS TO BE SENT TO HER FROM THE UNITED STATES TO DEFRAY SOME UNANTICIPATED EXPENSES (REPORTED REFTEL). CONSUL ALSO ASSISTED IN ARRANGING FOR AIR RESERVATIONS WHICH ARE DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN AT THIS SEASON. DUE TO MRS. HUNTER'S EXPRESSION

OF CONCERN ABOUT HER DEPARTURE AND THE FACT THAT HER VISA HAD EXPIRED, CONSUL AND HOTEL MANAGER ACCOMPANIED MRS. HUNTER TO THE AIRPORT WHENCE SHE DEPARTED FOR THE UNTIED STATES ON MAY 28.

4. POST HAS RECEIVED A QUERY FROM A CALIFORNIA NEWSPAPER CONCERNING MRS. HUNTER. THE SANTA ROSA PRESS-DEMOCRAT CALLED THE EMBASSY PAO ON MAY 27 TO CHECK ON A "REPORT" THAT MRS. HUNTER WAS UNDER "GUYANESE PROTECTIVE CUSTODY" AT THE EMBASSY'S REQUEST. PAO RESPONDED THAT EMBASSY HAD NOT REPEAT NOT MADE ANY SUCH REQUEST.

5. PEGASUS HOTEL WAS PLAGUED BY SEVERAL UNEXPLAINED ROOM FIRES AND TELEPHONED BOMB THREATS DURING THE PERIOD THAT MRS. HUNTER WAS AT THE HOTEL AND POLICE OFFICERS WERE POSTED ON THE HOTEL PREMISES. WE DO NOT KNOW NOR HAVE WE BEEN INFORMED BY THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES THAT THESE INCIDENTS WERE CONNECTED WITH MRS. HUNTER'S STAY.

1. IN RESPONSE TO OUR OFFER OF ASSISTANCE, THE GUYANESE HAVE ASKED FOR TWO HELICOPTERS (EMBASSY GEORGETOWN IS OBTAINING SPECIFICS). COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT, A SMALL AIRPLANE, OUTBOARD MOTOR, SLEEPING BAGS, ETC., ARE ALSO SOUGHT FOR THE POLICE FORCES NOW ON THEIR WAY TO JONESTOWN. THE NATIONAL MILITARY COMMAND CENTER IS PROCESSING THESE REQUESTS, AND SUPPLIES ARE EXPECTED TO BEGIN MOVING TO GEORGETOWN SHORTLY.
2. AT AMBASSADOR BURKE'S REQUEST, A SECOND C-141 MEDEVAC FLIGHT IS NOW SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE IN GEORGETOWN SHORTLY AFTER DAYLIGHT ON NOVEMBER 20. THE FIRST MEDEVAC FLIGHT IS SCHEDULED TO LAND AT ANDREWS AIR FORCE BASE AT 9:02 PM THIS EVENING AND ASSISTANT SECRETARY WATSON AND OTHERS WILL MEET THE PLANE. EMBASSY GEORGETOWN REPORTS THAT THE FIVE BODIES FROM THE ATTACK NOVEMBER 18 AT PORT KAITUMA HAVE NOW BEEN RETURNED TO GEORGETOWN. THE INJURED WOMAN IN THE AIRCRAFT THAT ESCAPED FROM THE ATTACK AT PORT KAITUMA HAS NOW BEEN IDENTIFIED. SHE IS [redacted] WHO WE PRESUME IS ONE OF THE JONESTOWN (b)(6)

4. EMBASSY GEORGETOWN HAS HAD NO REPORT OF THE GUYANESE POLICE AND MILITARY EXPEDITION WHICH LEFT FOR JONESTOWN AT 1300 WASHINGTON TIME, PROBABLY OWING TO LACK OF ADEQUATE COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT AVAILABLE TO THE EXPEDITION.

4. IN TWO WELL-ATTENDED PRESS BRIEFINGS, DEPUTY DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN TOM RESTON PROVIDED VIRTUALLY ALL AVAILABLE FACTS EXCEPT THE NAMES OF THE WOUNDED BEING EVACUATED IN THE C-141. NOW THAT THE WOUNDED HAVE BEEN EVACUATED FROM GUYANA, THE PRESS IS ALSO BEGINNING TO FOCUS ON THE PEOPLES TEMPLE, AND IS PUSHING FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE GUYANESE POLICE AND MILITARY ON THEIR WAY TO JONESTOWN AND ABOUT WHAT IS GOING ON THERE.

1. EMBASSY LEARNED TODAY THAT WHAT ARE RUMORED TO BE TWO SHIPS BELONGING TO THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE GROUP IN GUYANA, THE "CUDJOE" AND THE "MARCELINE," ARE ACTUALLY THE SAME SHIP. IT IS A 72 FOOT FISHING TRAWLER OFFICIALLY REGISTERED AS THE "CUDJOE", BUT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS CALLED IT THE "MARCELINE" AFTER THE REV. JIM JONES' WIFE. APPARENTLY PEOPLE'S TEMPLE LOOKED INTO THE POSSIBILITY OF RE-REGISTERING THE SHIP UNDER THE NAME "MARCELINE" BUT DECIDED THE TROUBLE AND EXPENSE OF SUCH RE-REGISTRY MADE IT IMPRACTICAL.
2. EMBASSY HAS LEARNED THAT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE HAS ONLY ONE OTHER SHIP, THE "ALBATROSS," A 350 TON FREIGHTER, WHICH WAS IN TRINIDAD AT THE TIME OF THE MASS SUICIDE.
3. EMBASSY WAS ADVISED THE ABOVE BY [redacted] E B6

1. EMBASSY INPUTS TO ASSIST DEPARTMENT IN REPLYING TO QUESTIONS IN CONGRESSMAN ZABLOCKI'S LETTER OF NOVEMBER 21TO SECRETARY ARE AS FOLLOS (NUMBERS KEYED TO CHAIRMAN'S QUESTIONS):
(1) THE EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN WAS NOT OF THE OPINION THAT CONGRESSMAN LEO RYAN AND HIS PARTY WOULD BE IN PHYSICAL DANGER DURING A VISIT TO THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL MISSION AT JONESTOWN AS LONG AS PRIOR PERMISSION FOR THE VISIT HAD BEEN SECURED IN ADVANCE FROM THE PEOPLE TEMPLE. THIS POINT WAS MADE IN THE EMBASSY'S FIRST CABLE DEALING WITH THE PROSPECT OF A CODEL VISIT AND WAS REITERATED SEVERAL TIMES THEREAFTER BOTH IN WRITTEN FORMAND ORALLY TO THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS STAFF. IT WAS CLEARLY IMPLIED THAT SHOULD THE CONGRESSMAN ATTEMPT TO FORCE ENTRY INTO JONESTOWN, UNFORTUNATE CONSEQUENCESCOULD FOLLOW WHICH MIGHT BE LEGAL OR EVEN VIOLENT. AS HAS ALREADY BEEN MADE CLEAR THERE HAD BEEN SEVERAL VISITS TO JONESTOWN BY AMERICAN OFFICIALS GOING BACK FOR AT LEAST THE LAST TWO AND ONE/HALF YEARS. THESE VISITS HAD INVARIABLY BEEN PEACEFUL.FURTHERMORE, THE PEOPLES TEMPLE COMMUNITY HAD RECEIVED VISITS BY MANY
OTHER OUTSIDERS, SUCH AS GUYANA GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, FOREIGN DIPLOMATS,AND PRIVATE CITIZENS,WITHOUT REPORTED INCIDENT. FOR EXAMPLE, THE LT GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA IS KNOW TO HAVE VISITED THE TEMPLE ON AT LEAST ONE OCCASION, AS WELL AS CABINET MEMBERS FROM THE GOG AND THIRD COUNTRY DIPLOMATS.
(2) THE ADVICE GIVEN TO THE CODEL FROM THE FIRST MOMENT THAT THE EMBASSY WAS APPRISED OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN'S TRIP TO GUYANA FOR THE PURPOSE OF VISITING JONESTOWN WAS CANDID AND COMPLETE. IT WAS WELL-KNOW THAT THE PEOPLES TEMPLE WAS SENSITIVE TO CRITICISM WHICH HAD APPEARED IN CERTAIN QUARTERS WITHIN THE UNITED STATES REGARDING ITS ACTIVITIES. THE REACTION OF THE TEMPLE WAS CLEARLY EVIDENT IN MANY PUBLIC PRONOUNCEMENTS BY PEOPLES TEMPLE MEMBERS AND OTHER SPOKESMEN, MOST RECENTLY IN A PRESS CONFERENCE GIVEN BY ONE OF ITS

CONFIDENTIAL

LAWYERS, NO MARK LANE, ON A VISIT TO GEORGETOWN. THIS PRESS CONFERENCE WAS REPORTED ON FULLY TO THE DEPARTMENT BY CABLE FROM THE EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN WITH THE ADVICE THAT THESE REPORTS BE MADE DIRECTLY AVAILABLE TO CONGRESSMAN RYAN. IT WAS BECAUSE OF THIS GENERALLY WELL-KNOWN MOOD OR ATTITUDE TOWARD CRITICISM THAT THE EMBASSY WAS SO INSISTENT THAT THE CODEL OBTAIN DIRECTLY FROM THE PEOPLES TEMPLE AN AGREEMENT TO RECEIVE THE CONGRESSMAN BEFORE ATTEMPTING ANY TRIP TO JONESTOWN. INSOFAR AS THE PRESENCE OF WEAPONS WAS CONCERNED, THE EMBASSY HAD NO HARD EVIDENCE THAT THERE WERE EXCEPTIONAL STORES OF WEAPONS IN THE COMMUNITY. IT WAS, OF COURSE, KNOWN THAT THE COMMUNITY DID POSSESS A CERTAIN NUMBER OF FIREARMS, BUT THIS IS NOT UNCOMMON IN THE PARTICULAR PART OF GUYANA IN WHICH JONESTOWN IS LOCATED. THE NORTHWEST REGION OF

CONFIDENTIAL

GUYANA OFFERS MANY OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE HUNTING OF WILD GAME AND THE EMBASSY HAD BEEN TOLD BY THE PEOPLES TEMPLE THAT A PORTION OF THE COMMUNITY'S MEAT SUPPLY WAS OBTAINED BY HUNTING.

(3) THE EMBASSY DID NOT REQUEST THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA PROVIDE THE CODEL WITH SECURTY PROTECTION OR OTHER ASSISTANCE, NOR DID THE CODEL RAISE THE SUBJECT OF SECURITY PROTECTION. IT WAS FELT THAT AS LONG AS THE CODEL HAD THE PRIOR AGREEMENT OF THE JONESTOWN COMMUNITY TO A VISIT THERE WAS NO NEED FOR SUCH PROTECTION IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT SO MANY OTHER OUTSIDERS HAD PREVIOUSLY VISITED THE COMMUNITY WITHOUT INCIDENT. AS A MATTER OF COURSESY, THE GOVERNMENT WAS INFORMED OF THE CODEL VISIT WELL IN ADVANCE OF THE CONGRESSMAN'S ARRIVAL AND THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF GUYANA RECEIVED CONGRESSMAN RYAN FOR AN HOURLONG MEETING THE DAY AFTER HIS ARRIVAL IN GEORGETOWN. THE FOREIGN MINISTER WAS MOST CORDIAL IN HIS RECEPTION OF THE CONGRESSMAN, AND, IN FACT THE DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER IN GUYANA ASKED FOR AN APPOINTMENT WITH THE CONGRESSMAN PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE AND HAD ACTUALLY SCHEDULED AN APPOINTMENT WITH HIM FOR THE MORNING OF NOV 19. (THE CODEL'S ORIGINAL INTENTION WAS TO DEPART GUYANA ON THE AFTERNOON OF NOV 19). IN HIS MEETING WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTER CONGRESSMAN RYAN MADE BRIEF MENTION OF THE PURPOSE OF HIS VISIT, BUT MADE NO REQUEST FOR SECURITY AND, IN FACT, SPENT MOST OF THE HOUR WITH THE FOREIGN MINISTER DISCUSSING BILATERAL AND INTERNATIONAL ISSUES. FOR ITS PART, THE GOG SENT ALONG WITH THE CODEL ON ITS VISIT TO JONESTOWN AN OFFICIAL FROM ITS MINISTRY OF INFORAMTION (NEVILLE ANNIBOURNE) WHO WAS WITH THE CONGRESSMAN DURING HIS ENTIRE TIME IN THE

HAD SECURITY PROTECTION BEEN REQUESTED FROM THE GOJ

TO WHY PROTECTION WAS NEEDED TO ENABLE AN AMERICAN

IT SHOULD ALSO BE RECALLED THAT THE CODEL TRAVELED TO PORT KAITUMA FROM GEORGETOWN IN COMPANY WITH TWO AMERICAN LAWYERS WHO WERE LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES OF BISHOP JONES AND THE PEOPLES TEMPLE. IN FACT, THESE TWO ATTORNEYS WENT INTO JONESTOWN IN COMPANY WITH CONGRESSMAN RYAN IN ORDER TO NEGOTIATE THE TERMS OF ENTRY FOR THE PRESS AND "CONCERNED RELATIVES" GROUP ACCOMPANYING THE TO PORT KAITUMA.
THESE MEN, WHO HAD VISITED JONESTOWN IN THE PAST, WERE PRESENT AT JONESTOWN FOR THE ENTIRE PERIOD OF THE CODEL'S VISIT TO THE AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT. THEIR PRESENCE APPEARED TO PROVIDE YET AN ADDITIONAL GUARANTEE THAT THE VISIT BY CONGRESSMAN RYAN WOULD BE WITHOUT VIOLENCE.
(4) WELL IN ADVANCE OF THE CODEL'S ARRIVAL IN GEORGETOWN IT WAS EXPLAINED TO THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS STAFF THAT CATIONS BETWEEN GEORGETOWN AND PORT KAITUMA WERE PRIMITIVE AT BEST. IT WAS FURTHER EXPLAINED THAT THE ONLY COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN GEORGETOWN AND JONESTOWN WERE IN THE FORM OF AN AMATEUR RADIO LINK BETWEEN THE COMMUNITY AND ITS GEORGETOWN OFFICE. NO SPECIAL COMMUNICATIONS ARRANGEMENTS WERE MADE FOR THE RYAN DELEGATION NOR WERE THEY REQUESTED BY THE CODEL. HOWEVER, ON THE AFTERNOON OF FRIDAY, NOV 17, WHEN THE CODEL WAS ON ITS WAY INTO
CONFIDENTIAL
CONFIDENTIAL
JONESTOWN, THE CONSUL WENT TO THE GEORGETOWN OFFICE OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE AND USED THEIR SHORTWAVE FACILITIES TO CONFIRM THAT THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS PARTY HAD BEEN ADMITTED TO JONESTOWN AND THAT THINGS WERE "GOING WELL". THE EMBASSY WAS INFORMED THROUGH THIS CHANNEL THAT DUE TO ITS LATE ARRIVAL AT PORT
KAITUMA THE CODEL HAD ACCEPTED AN INVITATION TO STAY
OVERNIGHT AT JONESTOWN. DURING THESE TRANSMISSIONS
OVER THE SHORTWAVE LINK, OUR CONSUL SPOKE DIRECTLY WITH DCM DWYER WHO WAS ACCOMPANYING CODEL: THUS, THE MESSAGES WERE NOT PASSED THROUGH ANY PEOPLES TEMPLE INTERMEDIARY.
(7) THE EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN WAS NOT AWARE OF THE PRESENCE OF EXTENSIVE FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION IN

CONFIDENTIAL

JONESTOWN. AS STATED EARLIER, THE COMMUNITY WAS KNOWN TO HAVE A CERTAIN NUMBER OF FIREARMS AS WELL AS BOWS AND ARROWS WHICH THE COMMUNITY EXPLAINED WERE USED FOR HUNTING GAME IN THE REGION, A NOT UNCOMMON PRACTICE IN THAT PART OF GUYANA. ACCORDING TO THE GOG A TOTAL OF FOUR SEPARATE LICENSES HAD BEEN ISSUED TO MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY. IT NOW APPEARS THAT THERE MAY HAVE BEEN AS MANY AS THIRTY MORE WEAPONS WHICH WERE UNLICENSED, BUT THIS NUMBER WAS NOT KNOWN AT THE THE TIME OF THE CODEL VISIT. (IN THIS NATION WHICH HAS SO MUCH JUNGLE AND VIRGIN LAND MANY RESIDENTS POSSESS HUNTING GUNS.)

(9) AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDENT IN GUYANA ARE SUBJECT TO THE LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF THAT GOVERNMENT JUST AS ARE ALL PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDING ABROAD IN ANY SOVEREIGN NATION. IT WOULD BE BEYOND THE AUTHORITY OF THE EMBASSY TO INTRUDE ON OR ATTEMPT TO

CONFIDENTIAL

EXERCISE CONTROL OVER SUCH CITIZENS. ITS ONLY FUNCTION VIS-A-VIS INDIVIDUALS IN THIS CATEGORY INVOLVES THE PROVISION OF CONSULAR SERVICES AND APPROPRIATE PROTECTIONS WHEN CALLED UPON BY THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES.

(10) THE PEOPLES TEMPLE, AS IS WELL-KNOWN, HAS BEEN A SUBJECT OF CONTROVERSY WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AND MANY ARTICLES HAVE APPEARED IN THE PRESS BOTH FAVORABLE TO AND CRITICAL OF THE ORGANIZATION. ARTICLES IN THE LATTER CATEGORY OFTEN CONTAIN LETALLY UN-SUBSTANTIATED CHARGES AGAINST THE ORGANIZATION OF WHICH THE EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN WAS GENERALLY AWARE. THE EMBASSY HAS RECEIVED OVER A PERIOD OF TIME A LARGE AMOUNT OF CORRESPONDENCE FROM PRIVATE CITIZENS IN THE US WHICH HAS BEEN STRONGLY SUPPORTIVE OF, AND ON OTHER OCCASIONS HIGHLY CRITICAL OF, THE PEOPLES TEMPLE. THE EMBASSY DID NOT HAVE THE ABILITY TO CONDUCT ANY SORT OF INVESTIGATION OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE NOR WOULD IT HAVE BEEN APPROPRIATE OR EVEN LEGAL FOR THE EMBASSY TO ATTEMPT SUCH AN INVESTIGATION IN VIEW OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL SAFEGUARDS AVAILABLE TO AMERICAN CITIZENS. ALL OF THE INFORMATION ON THE PEOPLES TEMPLE AVAILABLE TO THE EMBASSY WAS OF COURSE AVAILABLE TO THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

DURING THE TWO DAYS HE WAS IN GEORGETOWN PRIOR TO HIS VISIT TO JONESTOWN, CONGRESSMAN RYAN REVEALED THAT HE HAD AN IN-DEPTH KNOWLEDGE OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE AND ITS ACTIVITIES IN THE US WHICH FAR EXCEEDED ANY SUCH KNOWLEDGE AVAILABLE TO THE EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN.

(11) INSOFAR AS IS KNOWN TO THE EMBASSY, THE GOG HAS NEVER RECEIVED ANY OFFICIAL REQUEST TO INVESTIGATE THE ACTIVITIES OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE CHURCH.

II. IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING THE EMBASSY HAS THE

(C) IN ITS REVIEW OF THE FILES ON PEOPLES TEMPLE, THE DEPARTMENT SHOULD TAKE PARTICULAR NOTE OF VARIOUS INTERVENTIONS BY ONE JOSEPH A MAZOR, A PROFESSIONAL PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR FROM SAN FRANCISCO. IN 1977 MAZOR HAD SEVERAL CONTACTS WITH THEN CONSUL MCCOY ON BEHALF OF CERTAIN CLIENTS IN CALIFORNIA WHO WERE CONCERNED ABOUT NEXT-OF-KIN AT JONESTOWN. MAZOR CAME TO GUYANA DURING SEPT OF THIS YEAR AND ACTUALLY PAID A VISIT TO JONESTOWN FROM SEPT 11 TO 13. ON HIS RETURN TO GEORGETOWN ENROUTE BACK TO THE US MAZOR MET WITH CONSUL ELLICE AND SHARED WITH HIM HIS IMPRESSIONS OF

JONESTOWN. THE MEMCON INTERVIEW RESULTING FROM THIS INTERVIEW WILL BE FORWARDED TO THE DEPARTMENT BY SEPTEL. THE MAZOR CASE WOULD APPEAR TO HAVE SOME SIGNIFICANCE BECAUSE OF MAZOR'S PROFESSIONA AND THE FACT THAT HE HAD REPRESENTED NEXT-OF-KIN IN CALIFORNAI WHO WERE QUITE CRITICAL OF THE TEMPLE AND ITS ACTIVITIES.
(D) IN RECORDING EMBASSY GEORGETOWN CONTACTS WITH THE PEOPLES TEMPLE IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT FORMER AMBASSADOR MAX KREBS PAID A VISIT TO JONETOWN IN OCTOBER OF 1975. (THE PRECISE DATE IS UNCERTAIN; HOWEVER, AMBASSADOR KREBS MAY BE ABLE TO REMEMBER IT IF THE DEPARTMENT WERE TO CONTACT HIM AT HIS RETIREMENT ADDRESS.) 3. CONSUL HAS BEEN IN TOUCH WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ORGANIZATION IN GEORGETOWN AND IS TREATING THIS INQUIRY AS NORMAL WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS PROBLEM. HE WAS TOLD BY MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IN GEORGETOWN THAT ENTIRE SCENARIO REGARDING MISS LOOMAN BEGAN WHEN SHE WAS INFORMED BY HER BROTHER THAT THEIR MOTHER WAS SERIOUSLY ILL AND IT WAS FOR THAT REASON SHE REQUESTED HIM TO SEND HER PLANE TICKET. WHEN SHE LATER LEARNED THAT HER MOTHER WAS NOT QUITE SO ILL SHE DECIDED

NOT TO GO TO THE INTERIOR. WHILE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS HERE HAVE BEEN REASONABLY COOPERATIVE IT WAS APPARENT THEY WOULD PREFER CONSUL TO HAVE ONLY TELEPHONE CONTACT. HOWEVER, HE HAS INSISTED THAT HE MUST SEE HER PERSONALLY TO VERIFY HER GOOD HEALTH AND WELL BEING AS IS TONE IN ALL SUCH CASES.

4. EMBASSY WOULD APPRECIATE IF DEPARTMENT CAN CONFIRM WHETHER INFORMATION ABOUT MOTHER IS CORRECT. CONSUL WILL TRAVEL TO JONESTOWN AS SOON AS TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE WHICH WILL PROBABLY BE ON AUGUST 19 OR 20. JONESTOWN IS LOCATED IN A REMOTE AREA IN N.W. 1. POST CONTINUES TO RECEIVE PRESS REPORTS AND LETTERS FROM TFF DE ABOUT ALLEGED MISCONDUCT OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ORGANIZATION
IN CALIFORNIA. CONSUL RECEIVED ON SEPTEMBER 1 LENGTHY LETTER WITH ATTACHMENTS AND A TELEPHONE CALL FROM PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR JOSEPH MAZOR REQUESTING EMBASSY CONDUCT WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS INVESTIGATION ON TWELVE MEMBERS OF TFF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. MAZOR ALSO STATED THAT HE HAD BEEN RETAINED BY PARENTS OF SEVEN CHILDREN PRESENTLY IN GUYANA TO ARRANGE FOR THEIR RETURN TO TFE UNITED STATES.
2. CONSUL INFORMED MAZOR THAT WHILE EMBASSY WIS ES TO BE RESPONSIVE TO REQUESTS FROM AMERICAN CITIZENS FOR ASSISTANCE HE COULD NOT CONDUCT SUCH INVESTIGATIONS WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION FROM THE DEPARTMENT. TO BE HELPFUL CONSUL AGREED TO CONFIRM ENTRY OF AMERICANS INTO GUYANA. ON TFE QUESTION OF THE RETURN OF THE CHILDREN TO THEIR PARENTS, SINCE A CUSTODY DISPUTE IS NOT AT ISSUE CONSUL SUGGESTED THAT IF PARENTS CAN AFFORD TRIP THEY SHOULD CONSIDER COMING TO GUYANA AND WITH THE HELP OF MAJOR'S

TO THE U.S. UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES EMBASSY WOULD BE PREPARED TO OFFER APPROPRIATE ASSISTANCE IF REQUESTED.
3. WHILE WE ARE AWARE OF SERIOUS ALLEGATIONS AGAINST JIM JONES AND PEOPLE'S TEMPLE CONCERNING WRONGFUL APPROPRIATION OF PROPERTY, FORGERY, AND BODILY ASSAULTS AGAINST MEMBERS THAT ARE EMANATING FROM THE PRESS IN CALIFORNIA, THE EMBASSY HAS BEEN VERY CAREFUL IN ITS CONTACTS WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO MAINTAIN OBJECTIVE FRIENDLY ATTITUDE. WE ARE CONCERNED THOUGH, THAT THESE PRESS REPORTS WILL CAUSE NUMEROUS REQUESTS FOR PERSONAL CONTACT WITH MEMBERS OF THE ORGANIZATION RESIDING AT JONESTOWN IN THE INTERIOR. WE WILL DO OUR BEST TO RESPOND TO THESE REQUESTS, HOWEVER, DEPARTMENT SHOULD BE AWARE THAT IT TAKES A MINIMUM OF TWO TO THREE DAYS TO COMPLETE

4. REGARDING MAZOR'S ALLEGATIONS PERTAINING TO CHILDREN, CONSUL SEEKS CONFIRMATION FROM MAZOR THAT PARENTS HAD INITIALLY PERMITTED CHILDREN TO COME TO GUYANA AND NOW WANTED THEM BACK. THIS IS CERTAINLY THE RIGHT OF THE PARENTS, BUT WE BELIEVE IT IS ALSO THEIR RESPONSIBILITY TO ARRANGE RETURN. FRANKLY, ENTIRE SITUATION SEEMS VERY STRANGE SINCE CHILDREN FOR MOST PART HAVE ONLY BEEN IN GUYANA NO MORE THAN FOUR MONTHS. SOMEONE HAD TO APPLY FOR PASSPORTS FOR THEM AND ALLOW THEM TO TRAVEL. A SEPARATE QUESTION PERTAINS TO THE CHILDREN WHO HAVE BEEN AWARDED TO JONES AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE

BY THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA. PRESUMABLY COURTS THERE AGREED TO THEIR REMOVAL FROM STATE JURISDICTION WHEN THEY WERE BROUGHT HERE. IF NOT, ARE THEN JONES AND PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IN VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LAW?

5. ACTION REQUESTED: SINCE ABOUT 130-150 CHILDREN ARE HERE WHO REPORTEDLY WERE FORMERLY CONSIDERED TO BE WARDS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, REQUEST DEPARTMENT CONTACT APPROPRIATE STATE OFFICIAL CONCERNING THIS QUESTION AND INFORM EMBASSY WHETHER THIS WILL BE AN ADDITIONAL PROBLEM. ALSO DEPARTMENT'S ADVICE AND GUIDANCE WOULD BE APPRECIATED REGARDING INFORMATION CONTAINED IN PARAGRAPHS 2, 3, AND 4. DEPARTMENT CAN DRAW ON REPEATS WHEN RESPONDING TO INQUIRIES. AND ALTHOUGH CONSUL IS OBVIOUSLY NOT IN A POSITION TO STATE CATEGORICALLY THAT NO ONE IS BEING HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL OR PHYSICALLY ABUSED, HE CAN STATE THAT MANY MEMBERS WERE AWARE OF HIS VISIT AND NO ONE INDICATED A DESIRE TO LEAVE.

IN THE DAY IN HIS TOWN. HAAS IS CONVINCED JONES IS DELIBERATELY EVADING PROCESS AND IS CONCERNED THAT HIS CLIENT WILL LOSE CUSTODY OF HER SON BY DEFAULT BECAUSE SHE DOES NOT HAVE THE FINANCIAL RESOURCES FOR A LENGTHY COURT DISPUTE. HAAS INDICATED JONES APPARENTLY CANNOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF LOCAL COURT IF HE IS NOT PERSONALLY SERVED PAPERS.

4. EMBASSY POSITION ON THIS CASE HAS BEEN TO PROVIDE SYMPATHETIC ASSISTANCE WHERE POSSIBLE TO ATTORNEY. CONSUL DECLINED TO ACCOMPANY HAAS TO INTERIOR ON SEPTEMBER 6. HE BELIEVED THAT THIS WAS A MATTER PRIMARILY INVOLVING GOG JUDICIAL AND OFFICIAL PRESENCE. HE DID COORDINATE HAAS' TRIP WITH GOG COMMISSIONER OF POLICE TO PROVIDE HAAS AND COURT MARSHALL WITH APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY AND OFFICIAL SUPPORT. 1. CASE HAS NOW ENTERED ITS POLITICAL ARENA. COURT ORDERS ISSUED BY ORDER OF SUPREME COURT JUDGE ON SEPT. 16 AS REPORTED IN PARA. 3 REFTEL HAVE NOT BEEN SIGNED. US ATTORNEY FAAS INFORMED CHARGE SEPT. 12 THAT ORDERS HAVE NOT BEEN SIGNED BY COURT OFFICIALS OWING TO SHORT INSTRUCTIONS FROM ITS CONFERENCE VOTE. CHARGE LEARNED FROM MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS SAME DAY THAT GOG DECIDED TO ALLOW JIM JONES TO APPEAR IN COURT VOLUNTARILY RATHER THAN BY SUBPOENA.

2. HOWEVER, AFTER SPECIAL DATE HAD LAPSED WITH NO ACTION FAAS HAD TOLD CHARGE ON SEPT. 15 TO REQUEST EMBASSY ASSISTANCE. DURING THIS MEETING FAAS INDICATED HE HAS BEEN PRESSURED BY THE US PRESS TO PUBLICIZE DETAILS OF CASE, BUT HAS NOT ACCEDED. HOWEVER, IF DUE PROCESS OF LAW WERE NOT FOLLOWED, HE WOULD HAVE THE ISSUE TO THE PRESS.

3. CHARGE HAS TAKEN UP MATTER WITH SEC FOREIGN MINISTER AND LATTER THE PRIME MINISTER ON SEPTEMBER 16 AND 19 TO DETERMINE REASON FOR CONTINUED DELAY IN CASE. CHARGE EXPRESSED CONCERN TO SOME MINISTERS OVER APPARENT HALTING OF THE PROCESS. CHARGE MAINTAINED THAT BY INTERVENING IN THIS CASE GOG WAS SETTING DANGEROUS PRECEDENT IN VIEW OF THE PROBABILITY OF SIMILAR FUTURE CASES.

4. EMBASSY HAS SENT THE MFA A NOTE ON SEPTEMBER 17 RECAPPING CASE AND EXPRESSING CONCERN OVER INTERVENTION OF GOG IN IMPENDING CASE. EMBASSY STATED IN NOTE THAT WHILE WE DEPT NOT TAKING SIDES IN THIS DISPUTE, WE WERE CONCERNED OVER THE APPARENT INTRUSION OF THE GOG IN A CASE THAT WAS SOLELY A MATTER FOR THE COURTS TO DECIDE. THE NOTE REMINDED THE MFA THAT ALL THE DISPUTANTS IN THIS CASE ARE AMERICAN CITIZENS AND THAT THE CASE INVOLVED THE ORDER BY COMPETENT US JUDICIAL AUTHORITY REGARDING CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN TO HIS PARENTS. NOTE CONCLUDED BY REQUESTING MFA TO MAKE APPROPRIATE REPRESENTATIONS TO PERMIT COURTS HERE TO RESOLVE MATTER QUICKLY AND FAIRLY.

5. HAAS HAS DRAFTED LETTER WHICH HE HAS SAID HE WILL SEND TO FOREIGN MINISTER SOLICITING HIS ASSISTANCE IN CONCLUDING MATTER. IN HIS LETTER, HAAS REFERS TO FOREIGN MINISTER'S INITIAL STATEMENTS TO HAAS THAT IF WANTED CASE EXPEDITIOUSLY CONCLUDED WITH CHILD BEING RETURNED TO MOTHER.

6. EMBASSY SCORES HIS REPRESENTATIONS TO HIGHEST LEVEL IN GOG WILL RESULT IN CASE BEING SPEEDILY CONCLUDED.

1. AT COURT HEARING THIS MORNING, SEPTEMBER 23, JONES' LOCAL ATTORNEY, SIR LIONEL LUCKHOO, MADE A MOTION TO ADD ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ORGANIZATION TO THE CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS. LUCKHOO INDICATED THAT MISS JOYCE SWEETMAN SHOULD BE INCLUDED IN THIS SUIT ON THE GROUNDS THAT SHE HAD BEEN GIVEN CUSTODY OF THE CHILD BY HIS MOTHER, GRACE STOEN. WAAS' LOCAL ATTORNEY ARGUED THAT BEFORE ANY CONSIDERATION CAN BE GIVEN TO ADDING NEW MEMBERS, JIM JONES MUST BRING THE CHILD INTO THE CUSTODY OF THE COURT AS REQUIRED BY THE SUMMONS ISSUED BY THE COURT ON SEPTEMBER 19. PRESIDING JUSTICE HAS WITHHELD HIS DECISION PENDING ADDITIONAL ARGUMENTS TO BE HEARD AT NEXT HEARING SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26. CONSUL PLANS TO ATTEND.

2. WAAS' LOCAL ATTORNEY INFORMED CONSUL HE WILL BE CONSULTING WITH WAAS ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24 TO BRING HIM UP TO DATE IN THE CASE.

3. ONE PROCEDURAL NOTE FOR DEPARTMENT'S INFORMATION. TO DATE ALL HEARINGS HAVE BEEN HELD IN JUDGE'S CHAMBERS WITH NO OBSERVERS PERMITTED. CONSUL WAS PERMITTED TO ENTER JUDGE'S CHAMBERS FOR SHORT PERIOD ON SEPTEMBER 16, BUT NOT TODAY. CONSUL HAS NOT MADE AN ISSUE OF THIS SINCE BOTH PARTIES ARE WELL REPRESENTED AND THE INCARCERATION OF AN AMERICAN CITIZEN IS NOT AT STAKE. HOWEVER, HE BELIEVES HIS PRESENCE OUTSIDE THE CHAMBER INDICATES USG INTEREST WHERE ALL RESPONDENTS ARE AMERICAN CITIZENS. CONSUL HAS BEEN ASSURED BY APPROPRIATE GOG JUDICIAL REPRESENTATIVES THAT THIS PROCEDURE IS NORMAL IN CHILD CUSTODY CASES.

4. PEOPLE'S TEMPLE HAS ADDED ANOTHER STRANGE NOTE. CONSUL WAS INFORMED BY FPOF LEVEL GYA OFFICIAL THAT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE REPRESENTATIVES IN GEORGETOWN WERE SPREADING WORD THAT "CIA IS ATTEMPTING TO ASSASSINATE PASTOR JONES." AS EVIDENCE OF THIS PLOT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IN JONESTOWN

1. PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ATTORNEY LIONEL LUCKHOO INFORMED CONSUL ON SEPTEMBER 30 THAT PROCEEDINGS HAVE BEEN COMPLETED ON MOTION REPORTED REFTEL. LUCKHOO EXPECTS THAT JUDGE WILL HEAR HIS CLOSING ARGUMENTS AND RENDER HIS DECISION LATE THIS WEEK.

2. LUCKHOO STATED HE EXPECTS THAT JUDGE WILL RULE IN HIS FAVOR. HE CLAIMED THAT HE HAS NEVER SEEN A CASE WITH SO MANY LEGAL DEFECTS. LUCKHOO CITED THE FOLLOWING AS REASONS. (A) THE LACK OF PERSONAL SERVICE ON JONES. JEFFREY HAAS' (MRS. STOEN'S U.S. ATTORNEY) AFFIDAVIT ATTESTING TO JONES' ATTEMPTS TO AVOID SERVICE WAS NOT SPECIFIC ENOUGH. THE AFFIDAVIT DID NOT IDENTIFY THE POLICE OFFICERS WHO PURPORTEDLY SAW JONES AT THE FARM EARLIER THE SAME DAY. THEREFORE, IT CANNOT BE PROVEN THAT JONES WAS TRYING TO AVOID SERVICE. (B) THE ORDER TO ARREST JOHN STOEN HAS NO BASIS OF LEGALITY UNDER GUYANESE LAW BECAUSE THIS IS NOT DONE IN GUYANA. (C) THE QUESTIONABLE ATTESTABILITY AND ENFORCEABILITY OF THE CALIFORNIA COURT

3. WHETHER LUCKHOO'S ARGUMENTS WILL CONVINCE THE JUDGE IS UNKNOWN AT THIS TIME. HE IS A FORMIDABLE OPPONENT WHO WILL NO DOUBT PRESENT HIS CASE EFFECTIVELY. LUCKHOO CONFIDED TO CONSUL THAT HE WAS CERTAIN HE WOULD WIN BECAUSE CASE HAS BEEN MISMANAGED BY JUDGE IN HIS HASTE TO RESOLVE MATTER QUICKLY.

1. BOTH ATTORNEYS INFORMED CONSUL THAT JUDGE ON OCTOBER 6 RULED AGAINST MOTION SUBMITTED BY GRACE STOEN'S LOCAL ATTORNEY, CLARENCE HUGHES, THAT JOHN STOEN BE BROUGHT BEFORE COURT AND JIM JONES BE ORDERED TO APPEAR FORTHWITH.

2. LIONEL LUCKHOO, JONES' LOCAL ATTORNEY, STATED JUDGE RULED IN HIS CLIENT'S FAVOR IN CANCELLING ALL PREVIOUS ORDERS BY THE COURT BECAUSE HE (LUCKHOO) WAS ABLE TO PRESENT A VALID UNREVOKED CUSTODY ORDER SIGNED BY GRACE STOEN GIVING CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN TO A MS. JOYCE TOUCHETTE. LUCKHOO EXPLAINED THAT BY PRESENTING THIS DOCUMENT HE WAS ABLE TO SHOW THE COURT THAT THE ORIGINAL COURT ORDER ISSUED IN CALIFORNIA AND SUBSEQUENT ORDERS EMANATING FROM PREVIOUS HEARINGS IN GUYANA SHOULD BE SET ASIDE BECAUSE MRS. STOEN HAD NOT MADE FULL DISCLOSURE OF ALL PERTINENT FACTS. LUCKHOO CLAIMED HE USED ARGUMENT THAT SUCH PRECEDENCE WAS ESTABLISHED IN U.S. AND CANADIAN COURTS WHEN A COURT MUST BE IN FULL POSSESSION OF ALL THE FACTS BEFORE A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS CAN BE ISSUED BY THE COURT.

3. LUCKHOO CONFIDED TO CONSUL THAT HE CANNOT UNDERSTAND HOW MRS. STOEN'S U.S. ATTORNEY, JEFFREY HAAS COULD HAVE EXPECTED TO GAIN CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN IN GUYANA. LUCKHOO MAINTAINED THAT BOTH MR. AND MRS. STOEN SIGNED THE CUSTODY ORDER TURNING OVER JOHN STOEN TO JOYCE TOUCHETTE AND THAT MRS. STOEN HAD APPARENTLY BROUGHT HER SON TO GUYANA AND AT ONE TIME APPLIED FOR IMMIGRANT STATUS HERE. SHE THEN LEFT HER SON IN MS. TOUCHETTE'S CUSTODY AND DEPARTED. FURTHERMORE, LUCKHOO BELIEVES MR. STOEN WOULD ALSO HAVE TO REVOKE THE CUSTODY ORDER FOR IT TO BE DEEMED NULL AND VOID BY THE COURT.

4. CLARENCE HUGHES, IN A SEPARATE CONVERSATION, SEPARATELY CONFIRMED THE ABOVE. HE INDICATED THIS MATTER WOULD TAKE A LONG TIME TO RESOLVE. HE INFORMED CONSUL THAT THE NEXT HEARING IS SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER

1. PARAGRAPH FOUR OF REFTEL REPORTED PROBLEM THAT STEVEN KATSARIS, FATHER OF MARIA KATSARIS HAS ENCOUNTERED IN ATTEMPTING TO SEE HIS DAUGHTER LAST SEPTEMBER, 1977. HOWEVER, THROUGH THE INTERCESSION OF MR. LAWRENCE MANN, CITIZENS AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, A MEETING WAS ARRANGED BETWEEN THE TWO IN GEORGETOWN ON NOVEMBER 15. CONSUL ALONG WITH AMBASSADOR MANN WAS PRESENT AT THE MEETING. AMBASSADOR MANN EXPLAINED TO CONSUL THAT HE HAD PRESSURED JIM HOWES, TITULAR HEAD OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO HAVE MARIA MEET WITH HER FATHER. MANN HAS SOMEWHAT MIXED FEELINGS ABOUT RECENT UNFAVORABLE PRESS ARTICLES ABOUT THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE THAT HAVE APPEARED IN THE U.S. AND KATSARIS' CONVERSATIONS WITH THE WHITE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE AND THE CALIFORNIA CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION ABOUT HIS DAUGHTER SO SEE HIS DAUGHTER WOULD SERIOUSLY AFFECT MARIA'S IMAGE IN THE U.S. BY [illegible] THIS MEETING

2. THE MEETING TOOK PLACE AT MANN'S RESIDENCE. ACCORDING TO THE AMBASSADOR THERE WAS SOME INITIAL PROBLEM OVER THE LOCATION OF THE MEETING. MARIA KATSARIS DEMANDED THAT IT BE HELD AT THE CHAMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE LOCAL ATTORNEY. APPARENTLY, SHE ALSO PRESSED TO MEET AT THE EMBASSY BECAUSE SHE THOUGHT HER FATHER WOULD ARRANGE TO HAVE HER ARRESTED. SHE WAS ACCOMPANIED TO THE MEETING BY A MEMBER OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE LAY FIRM AND TWO OTHER MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE.

TO BE APPREHENSIVE ABOUT THE EFFECT ALL THE PROBLEMS INVOLVING THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ARE HAVING ON GUYANA'S IMAGE

HE WAS RECENTLY CONTACTED BY A CALIFORNIA ATTORNEY WHO INFORMED HIM THERE ARE FOUR TO FIVE CHILD CUSTODY CASES
PRESENTLY PENDING BEFORE THE COURTS OF CALIFORNIA THAT WILL PRESUMABLY BE TRANSFERRED TO GUYANA BECAUSE THE CHILDREN ARE THERE. HE INDICATED THAT HE INTENDS TO VISIT GEORGETOWN BEFORE HE RETURNS TO THE U.S. AT THAT TIME HE INTENDS TO EMPHASIZE TO JONES THAT HIS ORGANIZATION MUST ABIDE BY THE LOCAL COURTS'S DECISIONS IN THESE CUSTODY MATTERS. ANY ATTEMPTS TO DO OTHERWISE WILL SERIOUSLY HURT

THAT HE JONES AND SOME OF HIS MEMBERS ARE PSYCHOLOGICALLY PREPARING OR OTHERWISE MISTREATING

ULTIMATE LOSER. HE IS UNHAPPY WITH PRESS REPORTS IN THE U.S. THAT INDICATE THE GOG IS QUOTE BEHIND THE PEOPLE'S

7. KATSARIS IN A LATER CONVERSATION WITH CONSUL CORROBORATED MANN'S FEARS. HE BELIEVES THAT HIS DAUGHTER WHILE PHYSICALLY HEALTHY HAS BEEN PSYCHOLOGICALLY TURNED AGAINST HIM BY THE ORGANIZATION. HE WAS VERY GRATEFUL TO AMBASSADOR MANN FOR HIS ASSISTANCE. KATSARIS DEPARTED GUYANA THE AFTERNOON OF NOVEMBER 13 SATISFIED AT

1. CONSUL CONTACTED CHIEF IMG IMMIGRATION OFFICER GEORGE ON NOV. 23 AS REQUESTED BY DEPARTMENT IN PARA TWO REFTEL. GEORGE STATED HIS OFFICE HAS ORDER FROM SUPREME COURT HERE THAT THE CHILD IS NOT PERMITTED TO LEAVE GUYANA UNTIL THE PRESENT CASE IS RESOLVED. UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES HIS OFFICE COULD NOT ENFORCE ANY NEW REQUEST BY THE PARENTS TO REVOKE JOHN'S VISA AND ORDER HIS IMMEDIATE DEPARTURE FROM GUYANA.

2. FYI: EMBASSY DOES NOT AGREE WITH ATTORNEY'S FEARS REGARDING FAIRNESS OF HEARINGS. HIS CLIENT IS VERY WELL REPRESENTED BY LOCAL ATTORNEY WHO WAS RECOMMENDED TO U.S. ATTORNEY BY SOLICITOR GENERAL OF GUYANA (THE SECOND RANKING CAREER LEGAL OFFICER OF THE GOG). FRANKLY, OUR OPINION IS THAT MRS. STOEN AND U.S. ATTORNEY HURT THEIR CASE BY NOT REVOKING CUSTODY ORDER EARLIER. THEIR FAILURE TO DO SO GREATLY STRENGTHENED CASE OF JOYCE TOLCHIN AND PEOPLE'S TEMPLE.

3. THE DEPARTMENT'S ATTENTION IS ALSO DRAWN TO STATEMENT REGARDING CHILD CUSTODY MATTERS BY GUYANA'S AMBASSADOR

SUBJECT: W/W CUSTODY CASE OF JOHN STOEN
REF: GEORGETOWN 3073

1. CONSUL HAS BEEN IN CONTACT WITH ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING BOTH SIDES. ATTORNEYS STATED THAT THE NEXT HEARING HAS BEEN DEFERRED UNTIL EARLY JANUARY, 1978 WHEN PURPORTEDLY GRACE AND TIMOTHY STOEN ACCOMPANIED BY THEIR U.S. ATTORNEY WILL BE COMING TO GUYANA.

2. NEITHER ATTORNEY WOULD SPECULATE ON THE OUTCOME OF THIS CASE BUT WITH THE VARIOUS CUSTODY AFFIDAVITS BOTH PRO AND CON IN THIS CASE IT DOES NOT PROMISE TO BE EASY FOR THE PARENTS. WE WILL CONTINUE TO MONITOR CASE AND KEEP DEPARTMENT INFORMED.

1. HEARING WAS HELD ON JAN 7 AS SCHEDULED. CONSUL APPEARED AT COURT BUT WAS NOT PERMITTED TO BE PRESENT IN JUDGE'S CHAMBERS WHERE HEARING TOOK PLACE. THIS IS NORMAL COURT PROCEDURE HERE SINCE HEARINGS ON CHILD CUSTODY CASES IN GUYANA ARE ALWAYS HELD IN THE JUDGE'S CHAMBERS WITH ONLY THE ATTORNEYS AND PARTICIPANTS PERMITTED ACCESS. AT CONCLUSION OF HEARING CONSUL HELD LENGTHY MEETING WITH MR. AND MRS. TIMOTHY STOEN AND THEIR US ATTORNEY, JEFF HAAS, TO DISCUSS CASE.

2. HAAS TOLD CONSUL HE IS NOW OPTIMISTIC THAT JUDGE WILL DECIDE IN FAVOR OF HIS CLIENTS. HE IS ALSO CONVINCED AT THIS TIME THAT GOG HAS NOT INFLUENCED JUDGE TO DECIDE AGAINST STOENS.

3. HAAS TOLD CONSUL THAT HEARING, PRIMARILY CENTERED AROUND ARGUMENT BY JONES' LOCAL ATTORNEY LIONEL LUCKHOO

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

THAT ORDER OF ARREST ORDERED BY COURT AGAINST JONES FOR EVADING PROCESS OF SERVICE, BE CANCELLED. LUCKHOO HAS ARGUED THAT THERE WAS A LACK OF DUE DILIGENCY IN THE PROCESS OF SERVICE. LUCKHOO ALSO ARGUED THAT JEFF HAAS HAD NO AUTHORITY TO REPRESENT INFANT STOEN AND FINALLY THAT COURT HAD NO JURISDICTION IN THIS CASE SINCE ALL OF DISPUTANTS ARE AMERICANS.

4. HAAS REPORTED THAT JUDGE RULED THAT COURT HAS JURISDICTION AND THAT HAAS HAD PROPER AUTHORITY. JUDGE DID NOT RULE ON WHETHER HE WOULD STAY THE ORIGINAL ARREST ORDER ISSUED AGAINST JONES. HAAS CONTINUED THAT STOEN'S LOCAL ATTORNEY WILL CONCLUDE ARGUMENTS ON TUESDAY, JAN 10. THAT JONES AND/OR JOYCE TOUCHETTE (THE CO-RESPONDENT WITH JONES) SHOULD PRODUCE JOHN STOEN FORTHWITH AND TURN HIM OVER TO COURT. JUDGE ALSO TOLD PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ATTORNEY (LUCKHOO) HIS CLIENTS SHOULD FILE AN AFFIDAVIT NOT LATER THAN TUESDAY, JAN 10 IF HE WANTS THE JUDGE TO ALSO CONSIDER THE MERITS OF JONES AND TOUCHETTE RETAINING GUARDIANSHIP OF CHILD. APPAR-PNTLI NEITHER JONES NOR TOUCHETTE HAS PRESENTED ARGUMENTS ON THEIR BEHALF FOR RETAINING CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN".

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

3. EAAS BELIEVES THAT BASED UPON THE JUDGE'S RULINGS JAN 7, SOME TIME SOON AFTER CONCLUDING ARGUMENTS JAN 13 JUDGE WILL RULE IN FAVOR OF STOENS. EAAS IS CONVICED THAT E/S CLIENTS HAVE PRESENTED SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE TO SHOW THAT THEY HAVE REVOKED PREVIOUS GUARDIANSHIP ORDER AND THAT UNLESS LUCKOO CAN PRESENT NEW EVIDENCE JUDGE SHOULD RULE TO RETURN CHILD TO STOENS.

4. ALTHOUGH EAAS NOW APPEARS SATISFIED THAT THE GOG

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE
LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

IS NOT INFLUENCING THE JUDGE, HE EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT GOG MIGHT NOT ENFORCE A POSSIBLE COURT RULING IN FAVOR OF STOENS. HOWEVER, MR. AND MRS. STOEN MET WITH MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS VIBERT MINGO ON JAN 6 AND RECEIVED HIS ASSURANCES THAT THE COURT'S RULING WOULD BE ENFORCED. MINGO'S MINISTRY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT.

5. COMMENT: EMBASSY IS SURPRISED AT EAAS' CRITICISM OF OUR EFFORTS AS REPORTED REF C. DURING HIS VISITS HE HAS ENJOYED READY ACCESS TO BOTH THE CONSUL AND CHARGE'. FURTHERMORE, HE WAS ASSISTED IN OBTAINING MEETINGS WITH HIGH LEVEL GOG OFFICIALS, UP TO AND INCLUDING THE FOREIGN MINISTER. EAAS, HOWEVER, HAS PERSISTENTLY WANTED THE EMBASSY TO TAKE THE STOENS' SIDE IN THE CASE. WE HAVE RESISTED THESE PRESSURES BECAUSE THE EMBASSY IS OBVIOUSLY NOT IN A POSITION TO JUDGE THE LEGAL MERITS OF EITHER SIDE. EMBASSY WILL CONTINUE TO MONITOR THIS PROCEEDING CLOSELY, PARTICULARLY AS IT INVOLVES SEVERAL AMERICAN CITIZENS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE ISSUE.

1. ARGUMENTS REPORTED PARA THREE REFTEL WERE CONCLUDED AT HEARING HELD JAN. 13. CONSUL TALKED WITH ATTORNEYS FROM BOTH SIDES. THEY INFORMED HIM THAT JUDGE HAS RESERVED HIS DECISION ON MOTIONS THAT ORDER OF ARREST AGAINST JIM JONES BE VOIDED AND MOTION BY STOEN'S ATTORNEY FOR ORDER OF HABEAS CORPUS BE ISSUED AGAINST JOYCE TOUCHETTE. NEITHER ATTORNEY KNEW HOW SOON JUDGE WOULD MAKE HIS DECISION KNOWN.

2. CLARENCE HUGHES, THE STOENS' LOCAL ATTORNEY, APPEARED OPTIMISTIC THAT JUDGE WOULD ISSUE ORDER OF HABEAS CORPUS AGAINST JOYCE TOUCHETTE TO APPEAR IN COURT WITH JOHN STOEN. IF SHE DOES NOT ACCEPT SERVICE THEN AFTER A SUITABLE PERIOD BY FELIPPES COURT WILL ORDER FOR ARREST. HUGHES THOUGHT THAT EVEN THOUGH CASE NOW APPEARS TO BE BACK TO SQUARE ONE THEY HAVE PROGRESSED IN PINNING DOWN RESPONSIBLE INDIVIDUAL (JOYCE TOUCHETTE) WHO IS PRESUMABLY JOHN STOEN'S GUARDIAN IN GUYANA. HUGHES HOPED CASE WOULD THEN PROCEED TO LOGICAL CONCLUSION OF RETURNING JOHN STOEN TO THE CUSTODY OF HIS PARENTS.

HE EMPHASIZED TO ALL PARTICIPANTS THAT HE WILL DECIDE THIS CASE SOLELY ON THE LAW AND THE FACTS PRESENTED IN COURT.

4. BOTH TIMOTHY STOEN AND HUGHES TOLD CONSUL THAT THEY ARE SATISFIED WITH THE PROGRESS MADE IN THE CASE. HUGHES IS CONVINCED THAT THE JUDGE WILL NOT ALLOW HIMSELF TO BE INFLUENCED AGAINST THE STOENS BY OUTSIDE INFLUENCES. TIMOTHY STOEN ALSO AGREED WITH HIS ATTORNEY THAT JUDGE APPEARS UNBIASED.

1. EMBASSY THIS MORNING, JANUARY 14, SENT THE FOLLOWING NOTE TO THE FOREIGN MINISTRY CONCERNING THE IMMIGRATION STATUS OF MR. AND MRS. TIMOTHY STOEN, WHO ARE IN GUYANA ATTEMPTING TO REGAIN CUSTODY OF THEIR CHILD, JOHN STOEN.
2. BEGIN TEXT:
— THE EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA PRESENTS ITS COMPLIMENTS TO THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THE REPUBLIC OF GUYANA AND WISHES TO EXPRESS ITS CONCERN ABOUT THE STATUS IN GUYANA OF MR. AND MRS. TIMOTHY STOEN.
—TIMOTHY AND GRACE STOEN CAME TO GUYANA JANUARY 5 FOR THE PURPOSE OF REGAINING CUSTODY OF THEIR CHILD, JOHN STOEN. THEY ARE SEEKING TO DO THIS UNDER DUE PROCESS OF THE GUYANESE LEGAL SYSTEM.
—THEY HAVE IN THEIR PASSPORTS PERMITS TO STAY IN GUYANA FOR A TWO WEEK PERRIOD ENDING JANUARY 19. THEY UNDERSTOOD AT THE TIME THEY WERE ISSUED THOSE PERMITS

THAT IF THE LITIGATION IN WHICH THEY WERE INVOLVED WAS NOT COMPLETED BY JANUARY 19 THEY COULD APPLY FOR AN EXTENSION OF THEIR STAY. ON JANUARY 13, HOWEVER, AN IMMIGRATION OFFICER CAME TO THEIR HOTEL AND INFORMED THEM THAT THEY WOULD HAVE TO LEAVE GUYANA ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 14. THEY WERE GIVEN NO REASON FOR THIS CURTAILMENT OF THEIR PERMISSION TO STAY IN GUYANA.
— THE EMBASSY BELIEVES IT TO BE A MATTER OF HUMANITARIAN CONCERN THAT THE STOENS BE PERMITTED TO REMAIN IN GUYANA UNTIL THE JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS THEY HAVE INITIATED TO REGAIN CUTODY OF THEIR SON HAVE BEEN COMPLETED AND DECISION BY THE COURT MADE PUBLIC. ACCORDINGLY, AS A MATTER OF URGENCY, THE EMBASSY WOULD APPRECIATE THAT THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS INQUIRE INTO THIS MATTER AND USE ITS GOOD OFFICES TO OBTAIN PERMISSION FOR THE STOENS TO REMAIN IN GUYANA FOR THE TIME NECESSRY TO COMPLETE THEIR LITIGATION.

1. A COMPLICATION HAS DEVELOPED IN THE STOEN CASE WITHIN THE LAST 24 HOURS. ALTHOUGH THE LITIGATION FOR THE CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED, AN IMMIGRATION OFFICER APPEARED AT THE HOTEL OF TIMOTEY AND GRACE STOEN DURING AFTERNOON OF JANUARY 13 AND TOLD THEM THEY MUST LEAVE GUYANA WITHIN 24 HOURS. OFFICER GAVE NO REASON FOR THE EXPULSION ORDER. CHIEF IMMIGRATION OFFICER, WHEN CALLED BY CONSUL, ALSO COULD GIVE NO REASON. HE STATED HE WAS ACTING UNDER THE ORDERS OF MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS, VIBERT MINGO.

2. EMBASSY CONTACTED FOREIGN MINISTER WILLS IMMEDIATELY TO EXPRESS CONCERN AND REQUEST HIM TO ASSIST IN HAVING THE EXPULSION ORDER LIFTED. THIS MORNING, JANUARY 14, EMBASSY SENT A DIPLOMATIC NOTE TO THE FOREIGN MINISTRY FORMALLY REQUESTING THAT THE STOE[illegible] BE PERMITTED TO REMAIN HEREUNTIL THE COURT CASE IS CONCLUDED (SEE REPTEL). FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIAL HAS SINCE

3. GRACE STOEN INFORMED CONSUL ON JANUARY 14 THAT HER US ATTORNEY, JEFFREY HAAS, WAS ENROUTE TO WASHINGTON FOR CONSULTATIONS WITH THE DEPARTMENT.

4. EMBASSY IS DEEPLY CONCERNED THAT GOG WOULD ISSUE AN EXPULSION ORDER FOR THE STOENS WHILE THE COURT CASE CONCERNING THE CUSTODY OF THEIR CHILD IS STILL IN PROGRESS. REF: A. STATE 006183 B. GEORGETOWN 0233
BEGIN SUMMARY: TWO VISITS TO THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY (JONESTOWN) IN NORTHWEST GUYANA, CONVERSATIONS ALONE WITH A NUMBER OF THE PERSONS LIVING THERE, AND INQUIRIES OF GOG LOCAL OFFICIALS WHO VISIT JONESTOWN FREQUENTLY, HAVE CONVINCED CONSUL THAT IT IS IMPROBABLE THAT ANYONE IS BEING HELD IN BONDAGE OR AGAINST THEIR WILL AT THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNITY. CONSUL HAS EITHERMET WITH OR PERSONALLY OBSERVED APPROXIMATELY 500-600 OF THE 800 PEOPLE RESIDING THERE. THEY APPEAR HEALTHY, ADEQUATELY FED AND SATISFIED WITH THEIR LIVES. SOME DO HARD MANUAL LABOR IN THE FIELDS SUCH AS IS NORMAL FOR FARMERS, BUT APPEAR TO BE WORKING VOLUNTARILY AND UNDER NO DURESS. END SUMMARY.
1. CONSUL HAS NOW VISITED TWICE THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY (JONESTOWN) IN NORTHWEST GUYANA. (MOST RECENT VISIT WAS ON JANUARY 11.) HE HAS TALKED WITH LOCAL GOG OFFICIALS WHO VISIT THE COMMUNITY FREQUENTLY. ON BOTH HIS VISITS THE CONSUL TALKED PRIVATELY
WITH NUMEROUS MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND VISITED VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COMMUNITY. THE RESULTS OF THE CONSUL'S VISIT HAVE BEEN REPORTED EXTENSIVELY AS THEY RELATE TO INDIVIDUAL CASES. THIS MESSAGE SUMMARIZES HIS GENERAL OBSERVATIONS AND IMPRESSIONS CONCERNING CONDITIONS AT THE COMMUNITY AND PARTICULARLY THE ALLEGATIONS THAT SOME MEMBERS ARE BEING HELD AT THE FARM AGAINST THEIR WILL.
2. THE CONSUL IS CONVINCED ON THE BASIS OF HIS PERSONAL OBSERVATIONS AND CONVERSATIONS WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS AND GOG OFFICIALS THAT IT IS IMPROBABLE THAT ANYONE IS BEING HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL IN JONESTOWN. AT NO TIME DURING HIS CONVERSATIONS WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS DID HE SENSE THAT INDIVIDUALS WERE FEARFUL, OR UNDER DURESS OR PRESSURE. THEY APPEARED ADEQUATELY FED AND EXPRESSED SATISFACTION WITH THEIR LIVES. SOME WERE ENGAGED IN HARD, PHYSICAL LABOR REPAIRING FARM EQUIPMENT AND CLEARING FIELDS, BUT THIS IS NORMAL WORK

UNCLASSIFIED

ON FARMS.

3. MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE APPEAR TO BE ADEQUATELY HOUSED IN SMALL DORMITORY STYLE HOUSES WITH A CAPACITY OF EIGHT TO TWELVE PERSONS. THE LIVING AREAS ARE ELECTRIFIED AND THERE ARE REFRIGERATION AND FREEZER FACILITIES FOR STORING AND PRESERVING PERISHABLE FOODSTUFFS. THE COMMUNITY IS NOT YET SELF-SUFFICIENT IN FOOD BUT THEY HAVE ESTABLISHED A SMALL CHICKEN HATCHERY AND HAVE RECENTLY ACQUIRED 15 HEAD OF CATTLE AND 2 HORSES. THE FARM ALSO HAS A PIGGERY AND A CASSAVA MILL. ON HIS LATEST VISIT CONSUL SAW NEW ADDITIONS TO THE SAWMILL AND THE CARPENTRY SHOP. THE ORGANIZATION HAD A MEDICAL CLINIC WITH AN AMERICAN M.D. WHO GRADUATED FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT IRVINE. THERE IS ALSO A MEDIC, SEVERAL NURSES AND A PHYSICAL THERAPIST. CONSUL WAS TOLD THAT THE CLINIC CAN DO BLOOD TESTS AND PERFORM EKG EXAMINATIONS. CONSUL WAS ALSO INFORMED THAT AN X-RAY MACHINE IS IN TRANSIT TO GEORGETOWN AND THAT THERE ARE COMPETENT X-RAY TECHNICIANS AT THE SITE.

4. CONSUL WAS LEFT TO POSSIBILITY THAT ATTEMPT MIGHT HAVE BEEN MADE TO STAGE A FAVORABLE SCENARIO FOR HIS VISIT. BUT GIVEN CONDITIONS AT THE COMMUNITY, DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT THIS COULD HAVE BEEN DONE. WORK AND LIFE APPEARED TO BE GOING ON IN A NORMAL FASHION. PERSONS WITH WHOM HE TALKED IN PRIVATE — SOME OF WHOM WERE MOST ALLEGEDLY HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL — APPEARED SPONTANEOUS AND FREE IN THEIR CONVERSATION AND RESPONSES TO CONSUL'S QUESTIONS. ALSO LOCAL GOG OFFICIALS WHO VISIT THE COMMUNITY FREQUENTLY AND OFTEN WITHOUT ADVANCE NOTICE TOLD CONSUL THAT THEY HAVE NEVER RECEIVED THE IMPRESSION THAT ANYTHING STRANGE WAS OCCURRING IN THE COMMUNITY. IN SHORT, THERE IS NO HARD EVIDENCE AVAILABLE TO SUPPORT THE NUMEROUS ALLEGATIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN MADE.

5. EMBASSY BELIEVES THAT THE DEPARTMENT SHOULD DRAW UPON THE ABOVE WHEN RESPONDING TO INQUIRIES FROM CONGRESS OR OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES IN THE U.S. ABOUT CONDITIONS AT JONESTOWN. WE BELIEVE THAT TO RETURN CONTINUALLY TO THE COMMUNITY TO QUOTE INVESTIGATE ALLEGATIONS OF AMERICANS HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL UNQUOTE COULD OPEN THE EMBASSY AND THE DEPARTMENT TO CHARGES OF HARASSMENT. ACCORDINGLY, UNLESS OTHERWISE DIRECTED, WE PLAN TO HAVE A CONSULAR OFFICER VISIT THE FARM QUARTERLY TO PERFORM ROUTINE CONSULAR SERVICES. AT THAT TIME THE CONSULAR OFFICER CAN ALSO FOLLOW UP ON ANY WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS INQUIRIES WITH MEMBERS AND RELAY FAMILY GREETINGS, ETC. BURKE

SUBSTANCE OF CABLE DOES NOT MERIT RECALLING A COMMUNICATOR AND DUTY OFFICER TO THE CHANCERY AT 18:49 P.M. TO SERVICE AND READ IT. THERE WAS NO POSSIBLE ACTION WHICH COULD HAVE BEEN TAKEN AT THAT HOUR. CABLE WARRANTS AT THE MOST ROUTINE HANDLING.

1. GOG ALREADY IS ACUTELY AWARE OF INTENSE US AND CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST IN THE JOHN STOEN CUSTODY CASE. IN CONVERSATIONS WITH FOREIGN MINISTER AND OTHER GOG OFFICIALS, THE AMBASSADOR AND OTHER EMBOFFS HAVE EXPRESSED THIS INTEREST. WE HAVE EMPHASIZED THAT IN THIS CIVIL DISPUTE BETWEEN TWO GROUPS OF AMERICANS, THE USG WILL NOT TAKE SIDES AS TO THE MERITS OF EITHER SIDE'S ARGUMENTS, AND THAT USG INTEREST IS CONFINED TO ASSURING THAT THE MATTER IS ADJUDICATED IN THE COURTS STRICTLY ON ITS MERITS WITHOUT OUTSIDE INTERFERENCE FROM ANY QUARTER.

2. DECISION OF EVEN A COURT HEARING ON CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN MAY NOT OCCUR FOR SOME TIME. THE ARREST ORDER AGAINST JONES OBTAINED BY THE STOENS' LAWYER IN SEPTEMBER IS WHAT THE COURT IS NOW CONSIDERING. KNOWLEDGEABLE GOG OFFICIALS AND DISINTERESTED LAWYERS HAVE DOUBTS THAT THE ARREST ORDER WAS SOUNDLY BASED IN LAW AND THEREFORE PROBABLY WILL NOT BE UPHELD. WHATEVER ITS OUTCOME, THE CUSTODY QUESTION ITSELF WILL BE SCHEDULED FOR A HEARING AFTER THIS SIDE ISSUE IS SETTLED.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

3. ON THE MATTER OF THE GOG ENFORCING ITS LAWS, THE EMBASSY BELIEVES IT WOULD BE IMPRUDENT TO MAKE A REPRESENTATION AT THIS TIME TO THE GOG TO COMMIT ITSELF TO THE ENFORCEMENT OF AN AS YET UNRENDERED DECISION IN FAVOR OF THE STOENS. GIVEN THE SITE-LIKE QUALITY OF THE GOG IT IS HIGHLY POSSIBLE THAT SUCH A DEMARCHE COULD BECOME KNOWN IN LEGAL CIRCLES AND POSSIBLY PREJUDICE THE CASE. UNTIL PROVEN OTHERWISE, WE SHOULD ASSUME THAT THE GOG WILL ENFORCE ANY DECISION OF THE COURT. AS REPORTED REF B, THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS PERSONALLY ASSURED TIM STOEN THAT A COURT ORDER ON THE CUSTODY OF JOHN STOEN WILL BE ENFORCED.

4. IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE, THE EMBASSY DOES NOT BELIEVE IT WOULD BE HELPFUL OR PROPER TO IMPLY TO THE GOG THAT WE DO NOT TRUST IT TO ADHERE TO DUE PROCESS OF LAW OR TO ENFORCE A COURT ORDER, WHEN ONE IS ISSUED. THE EMBASSY WILL REMAIN ALERT FOR ANY INDICATIONS THAT POLITICAL INFLUENCE IS BEING BROUGHT TO BEAR ON THIS CASE. IF IT

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

APPEARS THAT SUCH INFLUENCE IS BEING EXERCISED, THE EMBASSY WILL EXPRESS USG CONCERN.

3. IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT THE STOENS AND THEIR LAWYER ON THE ONE HAND AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ON THE OTHER ARE FACE ENDEAVORING TO ENTICE THE EMBASSY AND THE DEPARTMENT INTO TAKING THEIR SIDES IN THIS CASE. BY ATTEMPTING TO INFLUENCE THE GOG ON THIS CASE IN FAVOR OF THE STOENS THE EMBASSY WOULD BECOME VULNERABLE TO ACCUSTIONS FROM THE PEOPLES' TEMPLE THAT IT IS ATTEMPTING TO PREJUDGE A MATTER THAT IS STILL PENDING BEFORE U.S. COURTS HERE.

1. EMBASSY AT THIS TIME CANNOT SAY WITH ABSOLUTE ASSURANCE THAT JOEN STOEN IS IN GUYANA BUT WE BELIEVE HE IS. CONSUL SAW HIM IN JONESTOWN ON AUG. 30, 1977 AND THOUGHT HE SAW JOEN AGAIN ON JAN 11, 1978. WHEN DCM AND DESK OFFICER TUMMINIA VISITED JONESTOWN FEB 2 JOEN'S PRESENCE CAME UP AT ONE POINT DURING GENERAL CONVERSATION AND PEOPLE'S TEMPLE REPRESENTATIVES SUGGESTED THAT THEY MEET JOHN. HOWEVER, CONVERSATION WENT ON TO OTHER SUBJECTS AND MEETING NEVER ACTUALLY TOOK PLACE. NEVERTHELESS, INFERENCE WAS DRAWN THAT JOEN STOEN WAS IN JONESTOWN AT THAT TIME.
2. BASED ON THE ABOVE AND OTHER STRONG EMOTIONAL OVERTONES THAT CASE HAS DEVELOPED ON BOTH SIDES, IT IS HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS WHO ARE CONTESTING CUSTODY WOULD NOT KEEP JOEN NEAR THEM.

1. CONSUL DISCUSSED CASE WITH CLARENCE HUGHES, STOEN'S LOCAL ATTORNEY, ON FEB. 14. HUGHES ADVISED CONSUL THAT MONTE'S DELAY NOT RPT NOT UNUSUAL IN SUCH CASES. AS IN OTHER COUNTRIES, COURT CALENDARS HERE ARE EXTREMELY FULL AND IT IS NOT RPT NOT UNUSUAL FOR A JUDGE TO TAKE UP TO SEVERAL MONTHS BEFORE COMPLETING RESEARCH AND DRAFT OF HIS WRITTEN OPINION IN A PARTICULAR CASE. HUGHES REMAINS OPTIMISTIC JUDGE WILL RULE FAVORABLY ON HIS (HUGHES) MOTIONS.

2. SINCE STOEN'S ATTORNEY DOES NOT BELIEVE DELAY IS EXCESSIVE AND BECAUSE HE CONTINUES TO FEEL THAT PRESSING MAGISTRATE COULD BE COUNTER-PRODUCTIVE, EMBASSY BELIEVES AN OFFICIAL INQUIRY ON OUR PART RE DELAY WOULD BE INAPPROPRIATE AT THIS TIME. STILL OCCUPY THE GREATER AMOUNT OF THE

AND DEATH REPORTS, SEVERAL CHILD CUSTODY
DISPUTES AND RELATED WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS PROBLEMS CAUSED BY THE RECENT INFLUX OF APPROXIMATELY 1,000 AMERICAN MEMBERS OF
THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION HAVE CREATED A STRAIN ON AN ALREADY VERY BUSY SECTION. AT THE SAME TIME A DEEPENING ECONOMIC CRISIS IN GUYANA HAS PROVIDED IMPETUS TO THE SURGE IN REQUESTS FOR ALL TYPES OF VISAS AND HAS CAUSED A SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF MALAFIDE NIV'S. THIS PRESENT ECONOMIC SLUMP IS NOT EXPECTED TO RIGHT ITSELF

THE DEPARTMENT WILL NOTE THAT BECAUSE OF THE FACTORS MENTIONED ABOVE THE EMBASSY IS REQUEST-

2. JUSTIFICATION
THE CONSULAR WORKLOAD HERE HAS RISEN DRAMATIC-ALLY OVER THE PAST YEAR. IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICATIONS HAVE DOUBLED BETWEEN
SEPTEMBER 30, 1975 AND YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 1977
FROM 3,673 TO 7,454 AND WILL RISE ANOTHER
2,000 BY SEPTEMBER 30, 1978, WHICH WILL MEAN
A 256 PERCENT INCREASE IN FOUR YEARS. NON-IMMIGRANT VISA (NIV) APPLICATIONS DURING THE PAST THREE YEAR PERIOD HAS ALSO INCREASED BY ONE THIRD FROM 7,735 ON SEPTEMBER 30, 1975 TO 9,342 ON SEPTEMBER 30, 1977. AN ADDITIONAL INCREASE OF 700 APPLICATIONS IS EXPECTED THIS FISCAL YEAR TO PLACE OUR NIV CASE LOAD OVER 10,000
UNCLASSIFIED

BY SEPTEMBER 30, 1978. OUR SPECIAL CONSULAR SERVICES WORKLOAD HAS RISEN ABOUT 40 PERCENT [illegible] FISCAL YEARS AND BY THE END OF THIS FISCAL YEAR WILL HAVE DOUBLED (556 SCS CASES IN FY-78 CASES BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 30, 1977 AND SEPTEMBER 30, 1978). OUR PASSPORT AND CITIZENSHIP WORKLOAD IS ALSO UP AROUND 40 PERCENT FROM 266 CASES IN FY-78 TO 417 CASES BY THE END OF FY-79. THIS INCREASED WORKLOAD HAS BEEN ABSORBED PRIMARILY THROUGH [illegible] NEW FSN POSITIONS AUTHORIZED IN FY-78 BUT NO REPEAT NO ADDITIONAL AMERICAN PERSONNEL.

4A. IMMIGRANT VISAS

AND NEW CASES. AT PRESENT WE HAVE 3,115 APPLICANTS DOCUMENTARILY QUALIFIED WAITING FOR APPOINTMENTS. WE HAVE BEEN RECEIVING 206 TO 248 NEW CASES WEEKLY SINCE APRIL, 1977. IN ORDER TO REMAIN CURRENT, WE MUST PROCESS A MINIMUM OF AT LEAST 220 CASES WEEKLY. MOREOVER, THE VERY BAD LOCAL ECONOMIC SITUATION MENTIONED IN MORE DETAIL IN PARAGRAPH 2(D), WILL PROVIDE FURTHER STIMULUS FOR GUYANESE TO MIGRATE ABROAD. AT THE SAME TIME, BECAUSE OF OUR VERY HIGH IV REFUSAL RATE, ABOUT 30 PERCENT, IT HAS BEEN NECESSARY FOR THE CONSULAR SECTION TO SET ASIDE ONE DAY PER WEEK FOR OFFICERS TO SEE APPLICANTS WHO WERE PREVIOUSLY REFUSED, AND WISH TO DISCUSS THEIR CASE OR PRESENT ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS TO OVERCOME THEIR PREVIOUS REFUSALS. THIS HAS BEEN VERY USEFUL IN BOTH PROVIDING SERVICE TO APPLICANTS AND INSURING THAT A SPECIFIC TIME IS SET ASIDE TO PROCESS SUCH CASES. IT IS OUR JUDGEMENT THAT UNDER CONDITIONS PREVAILING HERE AN OFFICER CANNOT EFFICIENTLY INTERVIEW MORE THAN 30 APPLICANTS DAILY. OTHERWISE, THERE IS INSUFFICIENT TIME TO PERMIT THE OFFICER THE NECESSARY TIME FOR INTERVIEWING APPLICANTS AND CHECKING DOCUMENTS TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE APPLICANT IS QUALIFIED TO RECEIVE THE VISA. OUR IMMIGRANT VISA OFFICER MUST BE ALERT TO DETECT FRAUDULENT JOB OFFERS, AND NON-EXISTENT FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS, THE TWO MOST COMMON ATTEMPTS TO CIRCUMVENT OUR VISA LAWS. MOREOVER, THE PROBLEM OF DETERMINING

PARRA MICHAEL S

FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS IS EXACERBATED BY THE GUYANESE PROPENSITY TO HAVE ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN, AND SEVERAL DIFFERENT NAMES. SORTING OUT JUST WHO IS WHO IS A VERY TIME CONSUMING PROBLEM. ESSENTIALLY, WE HAVE BEEN COPING WITH THE INCREASED UTILIZATION OF FORM LETTERS, CROSS TRAINING OF LOCAL EMPLOYEES AND THE USE, SINCE JANUARY 1, 1978, OF AN ADDITIONAL EMBASSY OFFICER HALF DAYS TO ASSIST IN NIV INTERVIEWS. HOWEVER, AFTER MARCH 31, WE CAN NO LONGER COUNT ON THAT OFFICER EXCEPT IN EMERGENCIES BECAUSE OF OTHER DUTY COMMITMENTS. WITH THIS OFFICER'S HELP, WE ARE PRESENTLY CONDUCTING 60 DAILY IV INTERVIEWS TO CUT OUR BACKLOG OF PENDING CASES BUT HAVE ONLY REDUCED IT FROM ABOUT 3,600 TO 3,100 CASES. OBVIOUSLY, WITHOUT CONTINUOUS FULL TIME ASSISTANCE WE WILL HAVE A LARGER BACKLOG THAT WITHIN SIX MONTHS TO ONE YEAR COULD TOTAL AS MANY AS 5,000 CASES. FURTHERMORE, BECAUSE OF THE INCREASING COMPLEXITY AND NUMBERS OF NON-IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICATIONS, OUR NIV OFFICER HAS LESS AND LESS TIME TO ASSIST THE IV OFFICER TO REACH THE OPTIMUM NUMBER OF DAILY APPOINTMENTS (50) TO STAY CURRENT WITH OUR PRESENT WORKLOAD.

(B) NON-IMMIGRANT VISAS

AS MENTIONED ABOVE, WE HAVE HAD A CONSIDERABLE INCREASE IN NIV WORK OVER THE PAST TWO YEARS. THE FIGURES GIVEN WOULD NOT BE PARTICULARLY SIGNIFICANT FOR EXAMPLE IN LONDON BUT IN GEORGETOWN IT IS A LARGE INCREASE BECAUSE WE MUST INTERVIEW ALMOST EVERY APPLICANT. OUR NIV OFFICER MUST CONDUCT THOROUGH INTERVIEWS TO INSURE THAT ONLY THOSE BONA FIDE APPLICANTS

UNCLASSIFIED

RECEIVE VISAS. OUR NIV WORKLOAD HERE IS PRESENTLY EXACERBATED BY THE SERIOUS ECONOMIC CRISIS THAT GUYANA IS PRESENTLY UNDERGOING AND WHICH IS FAR FROM BOTTOMING OUT. HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT, SHORTAGES OF FOOD AND OTHER CONSUMER GOODS, AND THE LACK OF HOPE FOR BETTER CONDITIONS IN THE FUTURE ARE POWERFUL INCENTIVES FOR GUYANESE TO EMIGRATE. MANY ATTEMPT TO DO SO BY SEEKING TO ENTER THE UNITED STATES WITH NIV'S TO LOOK FOR EMPLOYMENT. THEREFORE, OUR NIV OFFICER MUST SPEND AN INORDINATE AMOUNT OF TIME WITH EACH APPLICANT REGARDLESS OF THEIR SOCIO-ECONOMIC STATUS. SINCE WE INTERVIEW ALL NIV APPLICANTS ON THE DAY THEY APPLY THERE IS NO WAY THAT WE CAN CONTROL THIS FLOW. THE ONLY ANSWER IS TO CUT BACK ON IV INTERVIEWS OR REQUEST AN OFFICER PART TIME FROM ANOTHER SECTION. HOWEVER, GIVEN THIS POST'S AUSTERE MANNING THIS IS NOT ALWAYS POSSIBLE AND IS AT BEST ONLY A TEMPORARY MEASURE AND NOT A SOLUTION.

UNCLASSIFIED

(C) SPECIAL CONSULAR SERVICES

THE CHIEF OF SECTION NORMALLY PERFORMS THIS FUNCTION. HERE AGAIN THIS UNIT HAS SHOWN A DRAMATIC INCREASE OVER THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS FROM 35[illegible] CASES IN FY-75 TO 56[illegible] CASES IN FY-77, A 40 PERCENT RISE WITH ANOTHER RISE ESTIMATED [illegible] FY-78 [illegible] 742 CASES WHICH COMES TO ALMOST A 100 PERCENT JUMP OVER THE PAST THREE YEARS. SINCE AUGUST, 1977 AN AMERICAN QUASI RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION HAS BROUGHT APPROXIMATELY 1,000 AMERICANS TO GUYANA TO SETTLE IN AN AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY CARVED OUT OF THE JUNGLE IN GUYANA'S REMOTE NORTHWEST DISTRICT. THIS MOVEMENT HAS CREATED A HEAVY INFLUX OF WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS INQUIRIES, NUMEROUS REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION, SEVERAL CHILD CUSTODY DISPUTES INCLUDING ONE VERY LENGTHY CHILD CUSTODY CASE (STILL UNRESOLVED) WITH HEAVY CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST, AND A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF TREASURY CHECKS AND

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

REQUESTS FOR ACTION BY THE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION. EMBASSY OFFICERS HAVE HAD TO VISIT THIS REMOTE COMMUNITY THREE TIMES IN RECENT MONTHS. HENCEFORTH, UNLESS REQUIRED BY EMERGENCIES TO VISIT THE COMMUNITY MORE OFTEN, A CONSULAR OFFICER IS REQUIRED TO VISIT IT AT LEAST QUARTERLY TO PERFORM STATUTORY CONSULAR SERVICES AND RESPOND TO INQUIRIES FROM RELATIVES IN THE UNITED STATES FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE HEALTH AND WELL BEING OF MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY. THE PRESENCE OF THIS GROUP WILL ALSO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF REPORTS OF BIRTH AND DEATH. APPROXIMATELY 200 SENIOR CITIZENS RANGING IN AGE FROM 60 TO 106 YEARS ARE AT THE COMMUNITY. FINALLY, WE HAVE HAD ONE ARREST CASE WHICH INITIALLY REQUIRED SEVERAL MAN [illegible] OF WORK DURING THE EARLY STAGES OF ARREST AND TRIAL AND OF COURSE STILL REQUIRES ONE VISIT PER MONTH WHICH NORMALLY OCCUPIES AN OFFICER FOR HALF A MAN DAY.

(D) PASSPORT AND CITIZENSHIP

AS A COROLLARY TO OUR INCREASED SCS ACTIVITY, PASSPORT AND CITIZENSHIP ACTIVITIES HAVE ALSO INCREASED. FOR EXAMPLE, WE ARE EXPERIENCING A LARGE NUMBER OF FIRST TIME APPLICANTS FOR PASSPORTS. ONE REASON IS THAT A U.S. OWNED COMPANY IN GUYANA, GEORGETOWN SEAFOODS, IS CUTTING BACK ITS OPERATIONS AND CONSEQUENTLY, MANY OF THE TRAWLER FISHERMEN HAVE BEEN ATTEMPTING TO DOCUMENT THEIR OFFSPRING (BOTH LEGITIMATE AND ILLEGITIMATE) AS AMERICAN CITIZENS PRIOR TO THEIR DEPARTURE. THIS REQUIRES PAINSTAKING AND THOROUGH INTERVIEWS WITH THE SEAMEN WHO ARE MOSTLY UNEDUCATED AND HAVE LITTLE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE TO PROVE THE LENGTH OF THEIR STAY IN THE UNITED STATES. IN FACT, IN SOME CASES THE SEAMEN THEMSELVES HAVE HAD DIFFICULTY IN PROVING THEIR OWN CLAIMS TO AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP, THUS NECESSITATING MUCH CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE DEPARTMENT AND OTHER STATE AND FEDERAL AGENCIES IN ORDER TO VERIFY THEIR CITIZENSHIP.

THE CHIEF OF SECTION IN GEORGETOWN IS PRESENTLY THE THIRD RANKING FSO IN THE EMBASSY. AS SUCH, IN THE PAST HE HAS BEEN CALLED UPON TO PERFORM SUCH DUTIES AS CHARGE (ON ONE OCCASION FOR THREE MONTHS), AND ACTING DCM. HE ALSO SITS IN ON ALL SUBSTANTIVE MEETINGS AS WELL AS THE WEEKLY COUNTRY TEAM MEETING. IN THE COURSE OF HIS DUTIES HE PROVIDES USEFUL POLITICAL REPORTS AND HAS HEAVY LIAISON RESPONSIBILITIES WITH HIGH RANKING GOG OFFICIALS, MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIARY, THE LEGAL PROFESSION, LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES, AS WELL AS POLITICAL AND LABOR FIGURES. IN SEEKING ALTERNATIVE SOLUTIONS TO COPE WITH OUR INCREASED WORKLOAD THE PRESENT THINLY-SPREAD STAFFING OF THIS EMBASSY MUST BE CONSIDERED. WE HAVE A TWO-MAN ADMINISTRATIVE SECTION, ONE JUNIOR ECONOMIC OFFICER (WITHOUT CONSULAR EXPERIENCE), ONE POLITICAL/LABOR JUNIOR ROTATIONAL OFFICER, THE DCM AND THE AMBASSADOR. GIVEN THIS STAFFING PATTERN AND IMPORTANT POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES, THE EMBASSY CANNOT SHIFT OFFICERS FROM OTHER SECTIONS TO THE CONSULAR SECTION FOR ANY LENGTH OF TIME. IF THE POST IS TO CONTINUE TO PROVIDE EFFICIENT, PROMPT, AND EFFECTIVE CONSULAR SERVICES THEN IT IS VITAL THAT A FOURTH OFFICER BE AUTHORIZED FOR THE CONSULAR SECTION. AS OUR MOST RECENT INSPECTION IN NOVEMBER, 1977 DISCLOSED, THE CONSULAR SECTION HAS PERFORMED

AT A VERY HIGH LEVEL OF EFFICIENCY IN PERFORMING ITS STATUTORY FUNCTIONS, DUE TO THE BROAD EXPERIENCY ANND DEDICATION OF THE CHIEF AS WELL AS THE FORTUNATE ASSIGNMENT OF CONSCIENTIOUS YOUNG OFFICERS. HOWEVER, IF WE ARE TO CONTINUE TO MAINTAIN THIS EFFECTIVENESS, WE MUST HAVE ANOTHER OFFICER. (WE NOTE THAT BY UTILIZING AN OFFICER FROM ANOTHER SECTION HALF DAYS FOR THREE MONTHS, THE CONSULAR SECTION HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO MAKE AN APPRECIATIVE DENT IN A SIGNIFICANT BACKLOG OF IV CASES). WE POINT OUT THAT THE SECTION HAS ABSORBED THE SHARP INCREASE IN ITS IV WORKLOAD WITHOUT HAVING ADDED ADDITIONAL OFFICERS DURING THE PAST FEW YEARS. HOWEVER, THERE IS A LIMIT TO THE WORKLOAD THAT THREE OFFICERS, HOWEVER EFFICIENT, CONSCIENTIOUS, AND HARD WORKING THEY MAY BE, CAN PERFORM ON A SUSTAINED BASIS AND THAT LIMIT HAS BEEN REACHED. WE NOW NEED AN ADDITIONAL CONSULAR POSITION

ATTORNEY GENERAL MOHAMED SEAHABUDDEEN, WHO IS NEWLY APPOINTED MINISTER OF JUSTICE, ASKED CONSUL TO RE-SCHEDULE FEB. 16 APPOINTMENT DUE TO PROTOCOLARY DUTIES RELATED TO HIS TAKING UP OF HIS NEW MINISTERIAL PORTFOLIO. THEY WILL NOW MEET EARLY NEXT WEEK. CONSUL INTENDS TO DISCUSS STOEN CASE ALONG LINES MENTIONED PARA THREE REFTEL B AT THAT TIME.

2. EMB HAS CONSIDERED PROPOSAL (REF A), AND WE HAVE DECIDED NOT TO SEEK AUTHORITY TO RETAIN A LOCAL ATTORNEY FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

(A) WE BELIEVE THAT IF A LAWYER WERE ENGAGED BY THE EMB FOR THE PURPOSE OFIMPROVIDING PROFESSIONAL COUNSEL ON THE STOEN CASE, THAT FACT WOULD IMMEDIATELY BECOME COMMON KNOWLEDGE IN THIS SMALL LEGAL COMMUNITY AND WOULD BE SUBJECT TO SPECULATION AND MISINTERPRETATION.

(B) IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT ONE OR BOTH PARTIES INVOLVED IN THIS PROCESS WOULD CONCLUDE THAT THE USG WAS CONSPIRING WITH THE OTHER SIDE.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE
LIMITED OFFICIAL USE
JUDICIARY AS AN EFFORT TO APPLY EMBASSY PRESSURE IN THIS CASE.

3. FROM THE OUTSET, IN OUR CONTACTS WITH THE STOENS, WITH THEIR LAWYER, WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND THEIR LEGAL COUNSEL, AS WELL AS WITH THE GOG, WE HAVE REPEATED TIME AFTER TIME THAT THE EMBASSY IS NOT CONCERNED WITH THE OUTCOME OF THIS CASE, AND THAT OUR PRINCIPAL CONCERN IS THAT THE MATTER BE DECIDED STRICTLY ON ITS LEGAL MERITS AND THAT THE RIGHTS OF ALL PARTIES BE RESPECTED AND GIVEN FAIR AND EQUAL CONSIDERATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH GUYANESE LAW. EMBASSY'S CONTINUED CONTACT WITH LAWYERS OF BOTH SIDES SEEMS APPROPRIATE AND NECESSARY IF EMBASSY IS EXPECTED TO MONITOR THIS PROCEEDING (PROVIDED THAT THEY AND THEIR CLIENTS CONTINUE AGREEABLE TO SUCH CONTACT.)

4. WE HAVE JUST SEEN REFTEL C AND FIND FIRST SENTENCE OF PARA 2 OF THAT REFERENCE INCONSISTENT. IN STATE 39314 WE WERE REQUESTED TO APPROACH THE GOG, PRESUMABLY THE

JUDICIAL BRANCH, TO DETERMINE WHEN A JUDGMENT WOULD BE RENDERED IN THIS MATTER. AS HAD BEEN REPORTED (GEORGETOWN 0147), JUDGE IN THE STORN CASE HAS SHOWN HIMSELF TO BE ACUTELY SENSITIVE TO WHAT HE VIEWED AS OUTSIDE PRESSURE IN THIS MATTER AND STORN'S LAWYER HAD EARLIER EXPRESSED TO US THE OPINION THAT AN ATTEMPT FROM WHATEVER QUARTER TO PRESS THE JUDGE IN THE RENDERING OF HIS OPINION COULD ADVERSELY AFFECT HIS CASE. ACCORDINGLY, WE FELT IT NOT ONLY APPROPRIATE, BUT EVEN ADVISABLE, TO CONTACT THE STORN'S COUNSEL TO DETERMINE HIS LATEST VIEW OF THE CASE AND WHETHER, IN HIS VIEW, IT WAS PROCEEDING IN A NORMAL ROUTINE MANNER.

5. AS OF NOW, NEITHER THE STORNS NOR THE PEOPLE'S

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

TEMPLE HAVE INDICATED TO US THEIR CONCERN THAT THE MATTER IS BEING EXCESSIVELY DELAYED NOR HAVE THEY INDICATED ANY DISSATISFACTION WITH THEIR LOCAL LEGAL COUNSEL. OUR FEELING IS, THEREFORE, THAT THIS POINT IS WORTH MAKING TO PARTIES UNINVOLVED LEGALLY IN THIS MATTER.

6. AS STATED IN PARA 1 ABOVE, CONSUL WILL BE MEETING WITH MINISTER OF JUSTICE DURING THE WEEK OF FEB. 19 TO ELICIT CERTAIN GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING GUYANESE STATUTE GOVERNING CUSTODY CASES. A REPORT ON THAT INTERVIEW WILL BE SUBMITTED PROMPTLY.

1. CONSUL MET TODAY (FEB 24) WITH MINISTER OF JUSTICE SHAHABUDDEEN TO DISCUSS IN GENERAL TERMS STOEN CASE. MINISTER SHAHABUDDEEN ADVISED CONSUL THAT GUYANESE COURT DECISIONS AWARDING CUSTODY GENERALLY FOLLOW AMERICAN LAW, I.E., LEGAL FATHER IS CONSIDERED TO HAVE CUSTODY WITH MOTHER HAVING SECONDARY CUSTODY RIGHTS. HOWEVER, COURT ALWAYS RESERVES RIGHT TO DECIDE CASE ON "WHAT IS BEST FOR THE CHILD".

2. SHAHABUDDEEN FURTHER INFORMED CONSUL THAT SINCE CHILD CUSTODY CASES ARE CIVIL DISPUTES, THERE IS NO LEGAL REQUIREMENT FOR HEARINGS TO BE SCHEDULED WITHIN A SPECIFIC PERIOD OF TIME. SOME CASES CAN BE RESOLVED QUICKLY AND OTHERS TAKE LONGER DEPENDING UPON THE SCOPE OF THE CASE. SHAHABUDDEEN STATED THAT WHEN A JUDGE IN GUYANA DECIDES TO GIVE HIS DECISION IN WRITING SUCH AN OPINION CAN TAKE AT LEAST FOUR MONTHS BEFORE HIS DECISION IS RELEASED. WHEN SHAHABUDDEEN ASKED WHEN THE LAST HEARING WAS HELD AND THE JUDGE'S DECISION ON HOW HE (THE JUDGE) PLANNED TO PROCEED FUR-THER, CONSUL REPLIED THE LAST HEARING WAS HELD ON JANUARY 10 AND THE JUDGE ANNOUNCED HE WOULD GIVE HIS OPINION IN WRITING. SHAHABUDDEEN THEN COMMENTED THAT THE DELAY TO DATE WOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED EXCESSIVE.

3. CONSUL SHOWED MINISTER SHAHABUDDEEN STATE TELEGRAM 036362 WHICH REPORTED THE HEAVY CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST IN THE STOEN CASE. CONSUL VERY CAREFULLY EXPLAINED TO THE MINISTER THAT HIS VISIT WAS SIMPLY FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES AND NOT TO INDICATE [illegible] CONCERN WITH GUYANESE JUDICIAL PROCESS IN THIS CASE. SHAHABUDDEEN REPLIED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD. THE MINISTER THEN REMARKED THAT HE BELIEVES HE WAS APPOINTED TO THE CABINET POSITION BY THE PRIME MINISTER BECAUSE OF HIS REPUTATION AS A "LEGAL TECHNICIAN" WHO WOULD DEFEND THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY FROM EXECUTIVE (READ GOVERNMENT) INTERFERENCE. HE EXPECTED TO MAINTAIN HIS REPUTATION WHILE HE WAS MINISTER. HE THEN TOLD CONSUL THAT HE (SHAHABUDDEEN) WAS AVAILABLE AT ANY TIME FOR ADVICE ON THIS MATTER OR ON ANY OTHER LEGAL QUESTION THAT MAY ARISE.

4. COMMENT: SHAHABUDDEEN HAS BEEN EASILY ACCESSIBLE AND HELPFUL TO EMBASSY. HE IS CONSIDERED HIGHLY COMPETENT AND PROBABLY WOULD RESIST POLITICAL PRESSURES TO INTERVENE ON THIS OR ANY OTHER CASE.

2. DEPARTMENT'S (PPT/LS) GENERAL POLICY WITH RESPECT TO ISSUANCE OF A PASSPORT TO A CHILD INVOLVED IN A CUSTODY DISPUTE IS AS FOLLOWS: A PASSPORT MAY BE ISSUED BASED ON AN APPLICATION BY EITHER PARENT, LEGAL GUARDIAN OR PERSON STANDING IN LOCO PARENTIS UNLESS THE POST HAS RECEIVED A COPY OF A CUSTODY ORDER FROM A LOCAL COURT AWARDING CUSTODY TO THE OBJECTING PARENT OR A COPY OF A COURT ORDER PROHIBITING THE DEPARTURE OF THE CHILD FROM THE COUNTRY.

A HIGH VOLUME OF TRAFFIC BETWEEN THE DEPT AND GEORGETOWN HAVING TO DO WITH WELFARE-WHEREABOUTS, SOCIAL SECURITY AND CHILD CUSTODY CASES. MANY OF THESE HAVE INVOLVED CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST. IF THERE IS NOW A MASS MOVE BY THE RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN TO BECOME NATURALIZED GUYANESE, THERE IS CERTAIN TO BE A QUICKENING OF INTEREST ABOUT THE COMMUNITY IN THE U.S. AT LEAST AMONG THE NOK OF THE JONESTOWN RESIDENTS AND OTHERS WHO HAVE BEEN FOLLOWING THE COMMUNITY'S PROGRESS.

CONSUL DETERMINED INFORMALLY THROUGH OFFICIAL CHANNELS THAT MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS HAS DISCRETIONARY POWER TO WAIVE MAJORITY AGE REQUIREMENT AS A PREREQUISITE FOR NATURALIZATION.

2. CONSUL ON MAY 10 MET WITH SEVERAL OF THE INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE APPLIED FOR GUYANESE NATIONALITY. THEY EXPLAINED THAT THEY APPLIED FOR GUYANESE CITIZENSHIP BECAUSE THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ORGANIZATION WISHES TO INCORPORATE ITSELF AS A LEGAL ENTITY IN GUYANA AND AS SUCH GUYANESE LAW REQUIRES THAT 51PCT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD MUST BE GUYANESE CITIZENS. CONSUL EXPLAINED THAT UNDER THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES THEIR ACT WOULD BE CONSIDERED BY HIM TO BE VOLUNTARY AND FOR ECONOMIC BENEFIT, THEREBY BRINGING THEM WITHIN THE PURVIEW OF SECTION 349(A)1 OR 2.

3. CONSUL SUGGESTED THAT INSTEAD OF AMERICAN MEMBERS

MR. LITTLE ASKED TO SPEAK TO THE AMBASSADOR. IN THE ABSENCE OF THE AMBASSADOR WHO WAS MEETING WITH THE ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER, DCM TOOK MR. LITTLE'S CALL.

4. MR. LITTLE INFORMED THE DCM THAT HE WISHED INFORMATION CONCERNING THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE'S OPERATIONS IN GUYANA. THE DCM SUGGESTED THAT HE SPEAK DIRECTLY WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE OFFICE IN GEORGETOWN. MR. LITTLE THEN SAID THAT HE HAD SPOKEN WITH DEPARTMENT OF STATE BY TELEPHONE, THAT HE HAD BEEN TOLD THAT EMBASSY REPRESENATIVES HAD VISITED THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNITY IN JONESTOWN ON THREE OCCASIONS, THAT HE WISHED TO KNOW WHAT THE SITUATION WAS THERE, AND THAT THIS WAS WHY HE WANTED TO SPEAK WITH THE CONSUL. DCM EXPLAINED TO MR. LITTLE THAT THE CONSULAR SECTION OF THE EMBASSY PROVIDED STANDARD CONSULAR SERVICES TO MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AS IT DID TO ALL AMERICANS IN GUYANA REQUIRING SUCH SERVICES. UNDER THE PRIVACY ACT, THE DCM CONTINUED, CONSULAR OFFICERS WERE CONSTRAINED FROM PROVIDING DETAILS OF ANY SUCH CONTACTS WITHOUT THE EXPRESS PERMISSION OF THOSE PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS DIRECTLY

SUBJECT: PEOPLES TEMPLE AND THE COMMUNITY OF JONESTOWN

1. DISCUSSION. AS THE DEPARTMENT IS AWARE CONSIDERABLE PUBLIC, PRESS AND CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST HAS BEEN FOCUSED OVER THE LAST YEAR, ON THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE SETTLEMENT AT JONESTOWN. LOCATED IN A REMOTE PART OF NORTHWEST GUYANA, THIS AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY CONSISTS OF A GROUP OF AMERICAN CITIZENS THOUGHT TO NUMBER IN EXCESS OF 1000 WHO HAVE IMMIGRATED TO GUYANA FROM VARIOUS PARTS OF THE U.S. THE PREPONDERANCE OF ATTENTION HAS TURNED AROUND THE QUESTION OF THE WELFARE AND WHEREABOUTS OF INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY RAISED BY THEIR NEXT OF KIN IN THE U.S., EITHER DIRECTLY OR BY USING THE INTERMEDIARY OF VARIOUS SENATORS AND CONGRESSMEN.

2. RESPONDING TO THIS INTEREST, THE EMBASSY HAS ESTABLISHED A PROCEDURE WHEREBY ONE OF THE CONSULAR OFFICERS VISITS JONESTOWN ON A QUARTERLY BASIS TO PERFORM ROUTINE CONSULAR FUNCTIONS AND TO COMMUNICATE WITH VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS WITHIN THE COMMUNITY WHO MAY HAVE BEEN THE SUBJECT OF SPECIFIC INQUIRIES. (IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT BECAUSE OF ITS REMOTE LOCATION, TRAVEL TO JONESTOWN FROM GEORGETOWN AND BACK REQUIRES SOME THREE TO FOUR DAYS USING THE UNCERTAIN COMMERCIAL TRANSPORT FACILITIES AVAILABLE. TRAVEL TO AND FROM THE SITE CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED IN ONE DAY BUT THIS REQUIRES THAT AN AIRCRAFT BE CHARTERED AND THAT GROUND TRANSPORT FROM THE NEAREST AIRSTRIP BE PROVIDED BY THE NEAREST GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE.) SO FAR THERE HAVE BEEN THREE SUCH VISITS AND THE PROCEDURE SEEMS TO BE FUNCTIONING SATISFACTORILY.

3. DURING THE CONSULAR VISITS IT HAS BEEN OBSERVED THAT THE LOCAL GUYANESE ADMINISTRATION EXERCISES LITTLE OR NO CONTROL OVER THE JONESTOWN COMMUNITY, AND THAT THE SETTLEMENT'S AUTONOMY SEEMS VIRTUALLY TOTAL. THIS IS DUE TO A VARIETY OF REASONS WHICH INCLUDE THE FACT THAT THE AREA IN QUESTION IS REMOTE AND THUS THE GOVERNMENT'S RATHER PRIMITIVE ADMINISTRATIVE MACHINERY IS ALREADY OVERSTRAINED BY ITS OBLIGATIONS TO THE GUYANESE CITIZENS LIVING IN THE REGION, AS WELL AS AN UNDERSTANDABLE DIS-

INTEREST ON THE PART OF THE LOCAL OFFICIALS TO BOTHER WITH AN APPARENTLY SELF-SUFFICIENT COMMUNITY OF NON-GUYANESE WHO OBVIOUSLY ARE NOT ACTIVELY SEEKING ANY EXTENSIVE CONTACT WITH THE GUYANESE ENVIRONMENT IN WHICH THEIR SETTLEMENT IS LOCATED.

4. WHAT WE HAVE, THEREFORE, IS A COMMUNITY OF AMERICAN CITIZENS EXISTING AS A SELF-CONTAINED AND SELF-GOVERNING UNIT IN A FOREIGN LAND AND WHICH, FOR ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES, IS FURNISHING TO THE RESIDENTS ALL OF THE COMMUNITY SERVICES SUCH AS CIVIL ADMINISTARTION, POLICE AND FIRE PROTECTION, EDUCATION, HEALTH CARE, ETC., NORMALLY PROVIDED BY A CENTRAL GOVERNMENT WITHIN ITS TERRITORY.

5. GIVEN THE NATURE OF MANY OF THE INQUIRIES, BOTH

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

PRIVATE AND CONGRESSIONAL, CONCERNING THE WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS OF VARIOUS MEMBERS OF THE RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN, AS WELL AS MANY OF THE ARTICLES APPEARING IN THE PRESS WHICH HAVE ALLEGED THAT INDIVIDUALS WERE BEING HELD IN THE COMMUNITY AGAINST THEIR WILL, THE LACK OF ANY OBJECTIVE ELECTED OR APPOINTED POLITICAL PRESENCE IN JONESTOWN RAISES A LEGAL QUESTION WHICH THIS MISSION IS NOT QUALIFIED TO ANSWER.

6. THE EMBASSY IS NOT, OF COURSE, IN A POSITION TO EXERCISE ANY CONTROL OVER PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS; HOWEVER, PRIVATE AMERICANS TRAVELING TO OR RESIDENT IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY ARE EXPECTED TO OBSERVE AND CONFORM TO THE LAWS OF THE HOST GOVERNMENT. CONVERSELY, CAN THE HOST GOVERNMENT BE OBLIGED TO EXTEND ITS GOVERNMENTAL CONTROL AND THE PROTECTION OF ITS LEGAL SYSTEM OVER AN INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP OF ALIENS RESIDING WITHIN ITS TERRITORY?

7. RECOMMENDATION: IT IS REQUESTED THAT THE OFFICE OF THE LEGAL ADVISER REVIEW THE SITUATION DESCRIBED ABOVE, AS WELL AS OTHER PERTINENT DATA CONCERNING THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND THE JONESTOWN COMMUNITY WHICH ARE AVAILABLE IN CA/SCS IN THE DEPARTMENT. IF, AFTER SUCH REVIEW, AND ASSUMING THAT THE ANSWER TO THE QUESTION POSED IN THE PRECEDING PARAGRAPH IS AFFIRMATIVE, IT IS REQUESTED THAT WE BE INSTRUCTED TO APPROACH THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA AT AN APPROPRIATE LEVEL TO DISCUSS THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNITY AND REQUEST THAT THE GOVERNMENT EXERCISE NORMAL ADMINISTRATIVE JURISDICTION OVER THE COMMUNITY, PARTICULARLY TO INSURE THAT ALL OF ITS RESIDENTS ARE INFORMED AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY ARE SUBJECT TO THE LAWS AND AUTHORITY OF THE GOG AND THAT THEY ENJOY THE PROTECTION OF THE GUYANESE LEGAL SYSTEM.

2. MCCOY COMPREHENSIVELY OUTLINED EMBASSY'S PAST EFFORTS IN COPING WITH THE PROBLEMS CAUSED BY THE TEMPLE'S MOVE TO GUYANA, AS WELL AS HIS PERSONAL IMPRESSIONS AND CONCERN BASED ON HIS THREE VISITS TO THE COMMUNITY. RYAN FOUND NO FAULT WITH THE EMBASSY'S HANDLING OF THE MATTER, BUT INDICATED THAT STRONGER MEASURES ARE NOW REQUIRED.

SUBJECT: US LAWYER MARK LANE VOWS TO FILE LAWSUIT AGAINST USG CONSPIRACY TO DESTROY PEOPLE'S TEMPLE

BEGIN SUMMARY: MARK LANE, WELL-KNOWN AMERICAN CRIMINAL LAWYER, AUTHOR AND DIRECTOR OF THE US-BASED CITIZENS COMMISSION OF INQUIRY (CCI) ALLEGED DURING A PRESS CONFERENCE IN GEORGETOWN ON SEPT 19 THAT THE USG IS CONSPIRING TO DESTORY BISHOP JONES, PEOPLE'S TEMPLE, AND JONESTOWN. LANE SAID THAT THE CCI WILL FILE CIVIL SUITS WITHIN NINETY DAYS FOR DAMAGES IN THE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AGAINST ATTORNEY GENERAL GRIFFIN BELL, THE CIA, FBI AND STATE DEPARTMENT, AND OTHER UNNAMED ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS. END SUMMARY.

1. ATTORNEY MARK LANE ARRIVED IN GUYANA ON SEPT 15 TO CONCLUDE AN INVESTIAGATION BEGUN BY AN ASSOCIATE, DONALD FREED, INTO ACCUSATIONS MADE IN THE US AGAINST PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. (COMMENT: THE CALIFORNIA-BASED PEOPLE'S TEMPLE, HEADED BY BISHOP JIM JONES, HAS ESTABLISHED JONESTOWN, AN AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE OF OVER 1,000 PERSONS, MOST OF WHOM ARE AMCITS, IN THE REMOTE NORTHWEST REGION OF GUYANA. EN COMMENT) LANE'S PRESS CONFERENCE, WHICH ALSO COVERED HIS THEORIES REGARDING THE ASSASSINATIONS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING, WAS NOT REPORTED ON IN THE GOVERNMENT-OWNED PRESS. HOWEVER, THE EMBASSY HAS ACQUIRED ONE UNPUBLIS ED REPORT OF THE PRESS CONFLRENCE WRITTEN BY A LOCAL JOURNALIST AND A SECOND REPORT CIRCULATED BY THE GEORGETOWN BASED NATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

2. THE NATIONAL NEWS SERVICE ITEM REPORTED THE PRESS CONFERENCE AS FOLLOWS:

"MASSIVE CONSPIRACY

OF THIS 83-THOUSAND SQUARE-MILE REPUBLIC. A STATEMENT TO THIS EFFECT WAS MADE AT A NEWS-CONFERENCE HERE TODAY (SEPTEMBER 19) BY MARK LANE THE AMERICAN LAWYER WHO IS MAINLY RESPONSIBLE FOR INVESTIGATIONS UNDERWAY BY THE US CONGRESS, INTO THE ASSASSINATIONS OF PRESIDENT JOHN KENNEDY IN NOVEMBER 1963, AND CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER DR MARTIN LUTHER KING IN APRIL 1968. GUYANA IS A NON-ALIGNED SOCIALIST STATE. MARK LANE IS A FORMER LAW PROFESSOR AT THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA IN WASHINGTON, D.C. THE FORMER NEW YORK STATE LEGISLATOR WAS A CAMPAIGN MANAGER FOR JOHN F. KENNEDY IN THE 1960 PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN. HE CAME TO GUYANA LAST WEEK TO INVESTIGATE ACCUSATIONS DIRECTED AGAINST PEOPLES TEMPLE ACTIVITIES IN THE NORTH WEST DISTRICT OF GUYANA. MARK LANE PRAISED ALL ACTIVITIES AT JONESTOWN (COUNTY OF ESSEQUIBO) WHERE SOME ONE THOUSAND "BRUTALISED AND OSTRACISED" FOREIGNERS

HAVE ESTABLISHED A HAPPY COMMUNITY. THE AMERICAN LAWYER CLAIMED THAT THE US GOVERNMENT IS INVOLVED IN A MASSIVE CONSPIRACY TO DESTROY THE PEOPLES TEMPLE CHURCH AND ITS FOUNDER BISHOP JIM JONES. THE NEWS MEDIA PLAYED AN ACTIVE PART IN THE CONSPIRACY. HE SAID NONE OF THE CHARGED AGAINST THE PEOPLES TEMPLE AND BISHOP JONES ARE ACCURATE OR TRUE. HE EMPHASISED: AT JONES TOWN, NO ONE HAS BEEN KIDNAPPED AND LOCKED UP--EVERYONE IS FREE AND HAPPY. MARK LANE TOLD THE NEWS CONFERENCE THAT MASSIVE ACTION WILL BE FILED AGAINST US ATTORNEY GENERAL GRIFFIN B. BELL, THE CIA, THE FBI AND SEVERAL OTHER ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS, CLAIMING DAMAGES RUNNING INTO MILLIONS AND MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. WRITS WILL BE FILED WITHIN 90 DAYS. MARK LANE EMPHASISED: THE PEOPLES TEMPLE CHURCH IS VICTIM OF A CONSPIRACY FOR THE PAST TWO YEAR, BECAUSE IT IS A POWERFUL POLITICAL FORCE FOR CHANGE WITHIN THE USA.

3. THE GOVERNMENT-OWNED GUYANA CHRONICLE OF SEPT 22 CARRIED A FOUR COLUMN STORY ON LANE'S VISIT TO GUYANA. ALTHOUGH ENTITLED "US CIVIL RIGHTS LAWYER PROBES CHARGES AGAINST PEOPLE'S TEMPLE." THE BULK OF THE ARTICLE DEALT WITH MR. LANE'S INVESTIGATIONS OF THE DEATHS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING. THE ARTICLE RETURNED TO THE SUBJECT OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND ALLEGATIONS MADE AGAINST IT IN THE US IN THE LAST TWO PARAGRAPHS. LANE IS REPORTED AS SAYING THAT HE FOUND THE CHARGES TO BE "WITHOUT FOUNDATION AND ENDS: "I HAVE CONCLUDED THAT THERE IS A CONSPIRACY TO DESTROY THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE, JONESTOWN AND JIM JONES. MY REPORT SHOULD BE COMPLETED IN THE US IN 60 TO 90 DAYS AND I HAVE MEANWHILE RECOMMENDED THAT CIVIL ACTION BE TAKEN AGAINST AGENCIES IN THE US.

1. IN ACCORDANCE WITH YOUR REQUEST PARA 3 REFTEL, FOLLOWING ARE MY THOUGHTS ON THE POTENTIAL PROBLEMS WHICH CAN ARISE IN CONNECTION WITH A VISIT BY CONGRESSMAN RYAN TO GUYANA TO INSPECT THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNITY AT JONESTOWN. ESSENTIALLY THEY BREAK DOWN INTO THREE CATEGORIES: PHYSICAL, POLITICAL AND LEGAL.

A. PHYSICAL

I ASSUME THAT FSO RICHARD MCCOY HAS ALREADY EXPLAINED THE PHYSICAL PROBLEMS OF GETTING FROM GEORGETOWN TO JONESTOWN TO CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS STAFFER. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS IMPORTANT THAT THE CONGRESSMAN FULLY UNDERSTAND THE MAGNITUDE OF THESE DIFFICULTIES SO THAT HE IS NOT FRUSTRATED WHEN HE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE
ARRIVES IN GUYANA AND IS CONFRONTED WITH THE REALITIES OF TRAVEL TO THE NORTHWEST REGION OF THE COUNTRY. ASSUMING THAT HE DOES CARRY THROUGH ON HIS PLAN TO COME HERE HE WILL HAVE TO EITHER CHARTER AN AIRCRAFT AT THE CODEL'S EXPENSE OR GO VIA THE RATHER PRIMITIVE AND UNRELIABLE COMMERCIAL MEANS WHICH ARE AVAILABLE IN ORDER TO GET TO JONESTOWN. THE EMBASSY HAS NO TRANSPORTATION OF ITS OWN SUITABLE FOR THE TRIP. IF COMMERCIAL MEANS ARE USED THE TRIP WOULD PROBABLY TAKE AT LEAST 2 TO 3 DAYS TO NEGOTIATE UNDER THE BEST CONDITIONS. IT WOULD INVOLVE A COMMERCIAL FLIGHT TO MACKENZIE, AN OVERLAND TRIP FROM MACKENZIE TO PORT KAITUMA, AND THEN TRAVEL VIA A 4-WHEEL DRIVE VEHICLE FROM PORT KAITUMA TO JONESTOWN. THE VEHICLE FOR THE LAST LEG WOULD HAVE TO BE FURNISHED EITHER BY THE GOVT. OF GUYANA OR THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. IF A CHARTER AIRCRAFT WERE USED IT WOULD IN ALL LIKELIHOOD BE POSSIBLE TO COMPLETE THE VISIT IN ONE DAY DEPENDING ON HOW LONG THE CONGRESSMAN WANTED TO STAY IN JONESTOWN. IT SHOULD BE REMEMBERED THAT EVEN BY A CHARTER AIRCRAFT AS USED,

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE / EXDIS OR ONLY

GROUND TRANSPORTATION FROM THE AIRSTRIP TO JONESTOWN AND RETURN WOULD HAVE TO BE PROVIDED BY THE GOG OR PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. LASTLY THERE HAVE ALSO BEEN PROBLEMS INVOLVING THE AVAILABILITY OF CHARTER AIRCRAFT AND THE PHYSICAL CONDITION OF THE AIRSTRIP AT PORT KAITUMA. THESE SHOULD ALSO BE KEPT IN MIND.

B. POLITICAL

AS YOU WILL HAVE SEEN FROM OUR UNCLASSIFIED TELEGRAM 0698 ATTORNEY MARK LANE PAID A VISIT TO GUYANA LAST WEEK DURING WHICH HE GAVE A PRESS CONFERENCE IN WHICH HE CHARGED THAT CERTAIN AGENCIES OF THE USG WERE CONSPIRING TO DESTROY BISHOP JONES AND THE PEOPLE'S

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE
LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

TEMPLE. HE INDICATED IN HIS PRESS CONFERENCE THAT HE WAS CONSIDERING THE FILING OF CIVIL SUITS FOR DAMAGES ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AGAINST THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND VARIOUS FEDERAL AGENCIES. CONGRESSMAN RYAN, IF HE IS NOT ALREADY AWARE, SHOULD BE APPRISED OF THIS DEVELOPMENT.

IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT BEFORE UNDERTAKING ANY TRIP TO GEORGETOWN WITH THE EXPECTATION THAT HE WILL BE ABLE TO VISIT JONESTOWN COMMUNITY, CONGRESSMAN RYAN SHOULD FIRST OBTAIN AGREEMENT FROM THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO SUCH A VISIT. THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IS OCCUPYING LAND IN GUYANA WHICH WAS MADE AVAILABLE TO THEM BY THE GOVERNMENT. THEY HAVE LEGAL POSSESSION OF THIS LAND AND HAVE DEMONSTRATED IN THE PAST A WILLINGNESS EITHER TO PERMIT OR DENY ACCESS TO INDIVIDUALS SEEKING TO VISIT THE COMMUNITY. IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT THE GOG IS PREPARED TO HONOR THE WISHES OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MANAGEMENT IN EXERCISING ITS CONTROL OVER THIS COMMUNITY. IT IS UNLIKELY THEREFORE THAT THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT WOULD ATTEMPT TO FORCE ENTRY ON BEHALF OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN OR ANY OTHER OUTSIDER IF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE INDICATED AN UNWILLINGNESS TO RECEIVE SUCH VISITORS.

C. LEGAL
THE EMBASSY HAS ALWAYS TAKEN A POSITION VIS-A-VIS THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND THE COMMUNITY AT JONESTOWN THAT OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH IT AND WITH THE AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDING THERE IS IDENTICAL WITH OUR RELATIONSHIP TO ANY OTHER AMERICAN CITIZEN OR CITIZENS IN GUYANA, AS PROVIDED FOR IN FORN. SERVICE REGULATIONS. ACCORDINGLY, WE HAVE PROVIDED CONSULAR SERVICES TO THE COMMUNITY AND HAVE RESPONDED TO REQUESTS FROM NEXT OF KIN IN THE U.S. IN DIRECTING WELFARE WHEREABOUTS INQUIRIES TO THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND THE AMCIT RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN. WE HAVE INSTITUTED A SERIES OF QUARTERLY VISITS, WITH THE AGREEMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE, TO PERFORM SUCH SERVICES. IN THE DISCHARGE OF OUR RESPONSIBILITIES WE HAVE BORNE PARTICULARLY IN MIND THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE PRIVACY ACT AND THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT. I AM SURE THAT CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS STAFF ARE AWARE OF THE PROVISIONS OF THESE TWO LAWS AND CAN APPRECIATE THEIR POSSIBLE APPLICATION TO THE PRESENT CASE.

2. WE OF COURSE STAND READY TO PROVIDE ANY APPROPRIATE ASSISTANCE TO CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS PARTY SHOULD THEY DECIDE TO VISIT GEORGETOWN. IN ORDER TO AVOID ANY CONFUSION, I THINK IT IMPORTANT THAT THE POINTS SET FORTH ABOVE BE DISCUSSED IN DETAIL WITH THEM SO THAT THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS PARTY WILL BE UNDER NO MISAPPREHENSION WHEN THEY ARRIVE. FURTHER, I BELIEVE IT WOULD BE USEFUL AND DESIRABLE FOR A DEPARTMENT LAWYER FROM THE STAFF OF THE LEGAL ADVISER TO ACCOMPANY THE CODEL TO GUYANA AND JONESTOWN.

SUBJECT: AMERICAN LAWYER MARK LANE'S GEORGETOWN PRESS CONFERENCE ON THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE

REF: GEORGETOWN 3098

1. A TAPE RECORDING OF THE SUBJECT PRESS CONFERENCE HAS BEEN MADE AVAILABLE TO THE EMBASSY, A COPY OF WHICH HAS BEEN TRANSMITTED TO THE DEPARTMENT (ARA/CAR). A PARTIAL TRANSCRIPT OF THE TAPE HAS ALSO BEEN SUBMITTED. THE TAPE RECORDING IS NOT OF HIGH QUALITY, SOME WORDS AND PHRASES ARE INDISTINCT, AND THERE ARE MINOR GAPS WHICH COULD BE EDITORIAL BUT ARE MORE LIKELY TECHNICAL.

2. BRIEF EXCERPTS OF THE PRESS CONFERENCE WERE AIRED OVER THE LOCAL RADIO SHORTLY FOLLOWING THE PRESS CONFERENCE. A SUBSTANTIAL PORTION OF MR. LANE'S OPENING STATEMENT WAS REBROADCAST ON SEPT 26. THE REFTEL REPORTS NEWSPAPER COVERAGE OF THE SAME SUBJECT. IN ADDITION, THE "MIRROR," ORGAN OF THE MOSCOW-ORIENTED PEOPLE'S PROGRESSIVE PARTY, ON SEPT 22 CARRIED A FRONT PAGE PHOTO OF AND BRIEF INTERVIEW WITH MR. LANE WHICH STATED THAT MR. LANE WAS VISITING GUYANA FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTIGATING ALLEGATIONS AGAINST THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE WHICH HE HAD FOUND TO BE FALSE. THE REMAINDER OF THE

ARTICLE DEALT WITH MR. LANE'S ROLE IN THE INVESTIGATIONS OF THE DEATHS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

3. IT IS MR. LANE'S BASIC CONTENTION, AS EXPRESSED AT THE PRESS CONFERENCE, THAT A CONSPIRACY FOMENTED BY USG INTELLIGENCE AGENCIES EXISTS FOR THE PURPOSE OF DESTROYING BISHOP JIM JONES AND THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. MR. LANE HAS CONCLUDED THAT INTELLIGENCE AND OTHER AGENCIES AND INDIVIDUALS OF THE USG, AS WELL AS PRIVATE ENTITIES SUCH AS SEGMENTS OF THE NEWS MEDIA, HAVE CONSPIRED TOGETHER. THAT AN IMPERFECT FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT AND, MORE IMPORTANTLY, FEDERAL COURT PROCEEDINGS HAVE DOCUMENTED OTHER CONSPIRACIES OF THE "ESTABLISHMENT" AND THAT THESE TOOLS SHOULD BE USED TO DOCUMENT THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST BISHOP JONES AND THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. THERE FOLLOWS A RESUME OF MR. LANE'S PRESS CONFERENCE, OMITTING THE

UNCLASSIFIED

CONSIDERABLE ILLUSTRATIVE COMMENTS ON ALLEGED CONSPIRACIES OTHER THAN THAT AGAINST THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE.

4. OPENING STATEMENT: MR. LANE OUTLINED THE BACKGROUND OF THE CITIZENS' COMMISSION OF ENQUIRY (CCE). CCE BECAME AWARE OF THE "VERY SERIOUS AND SUBSTANTIAL" CHARGES BEING MADE IN THE US AGAINST THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. CCE ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR DON FREED VISITED THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE SOME WEEKS AGO, MR. LANE NOTES. AFTER CONSULTATIONS WITH MR. LANE UPON HIS RETURN TO THE US, MR. LANE AND MR. FREED CONDUCTED INTERVIEWS IN CALIFORNIA AND SPOKE WITH THE "CHIEF PROPONENT" OF THE CHARGES. MR. LANE THEN VISITED JONESTOWN. "WE ARE ABLE TO STATE CONCLUSIVELY AT THIS TIME...THAT NONE OF THE CHARGES...ARE ACCURATE OR TRUE. THE CHARGES...ARE DEMONSTRABLY FALSE TO ANYONE WHO SPENDS FIVE MINUTES IN JONESTOWN." ...NEVER BEFORE HAVE I SEEN

UNCLASSIFIED

SUCH A MODEL COMMUNITY OF PEOPLE WORKING TOGETHER COOPERATIVELY," MR. LANE SAID. "PEOPLE I INTERVIEWED,...MOSTLY OF COLOR, WHO HAD EXPERIENCED GREAT DIFFICULTIES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES. THEY HAVE BEEN BRUTALIZED AND OSTRACIZED AND DISCRIMINATED AGAINST IN THE UNITED STATES." MR. LANE SAID THAT "...A KEY WITNESS WHO WAS ONE OF THE KEY PEOPLE WHO HAD MADE THE CHARGES...NOW HAS MADE IN ESSENCE A FULL CONFESSION TO US..." AS A RESULT, MR. LANE STATES, "WE JUSTLY CONCLUDE THAT THE PLANS TO DESTROY THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND THE PLAN TO DESTROY JIM JONES WERE INITIATED BY THE INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES. THAT THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY, THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS WHICH HAVE COOPERATED WITH THOSE TWO INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS HAVE CONSPIRED TOGETHER ILLEGALLY TO DESTROY THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND JIM JONES." MR. LANE CONTINUED THAT HE BELIEVED THAT WITHIN 90 DAYS "A MASSIVE ACTION FOR MILLIONS OF DOLLARS (WILL BE) FILED BY THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND JIM JONES AGAINST EVERY AGENCY OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT THAT HAS PARTICIPATED IN THIS CONSPIRACY, BEGINNING WITH THE CIA, THE FBI, THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE, THE US POST OFFICE, AND MANY OTHER AGENCIES AND INDIVIDUALS WHO WILL BE NAMED." MR. LANE ALSO SAID THAT "SEGMENTS" OF THE AMERICAN NEWS MEDIA PARTICIPATED IN THE CONSPIRACY.

5. IN THE QUESTION AND ANSWER PERIOD WHICH FOLLOWED MR. LANE'S OPENING STATEMENT, HE MADE THE FOLLOWING POINTS REGARDING THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE AND THE ALLEGED CONSPIRACY AGAINST IT, SUPPORTING HIS PRESENTATION WITH EXAMPLES FROM OTHER ALLEGED CONSPIRACIES. THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE CONSPIRACY IS AT LEAST TWO YEARS OLD AND PROBABLY OLDER. WHILE IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO SAY WHAT PRECISELY MOTIVATED THE CONSPIRATORS, MR. LANE BELIEVES THAT "THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IS A POLITICAL FORCE FOR CHANGE WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COOPERATIVE COMMUNITY OF JONESTOWN IS OF THE UTMOST

GOVERNMENT... MR. LANE BELIEVES THAT AMBASSADOR YOUNG'S STATEMENT REGARDING POLITICAL PRISONERS IN THE US IS PROBABLY AN UNDERSTATEMENT. WHAT JONESTOWN SAYS TO THOSE WHO LOOK AT IT, LANE CONTINUES, IS THAT THERE ARE WELL OVER 1,000 PEOPLE WHO LEFT THE US IN SEARCH FOR FREEDOM, IN A SEARCH FOR FREEDOM FROM RACISM AND FREEDOM FROM ECONOMIC EXPLOITATION. I THINK THIS WILL BE EXTREMELY EMBARRASSING TO PRESIDENT CARTER, WHOSE CAMPAIGN ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS SEEMS TO EXTEND ONLY TO COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE US BUT RARELY FOCUSES ON ANY OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS WHICH ARE WITHIN THE US. MORE AMERICANS WILL WANT TO COME TO JONESTOWN, MR. LANE BELIEVES, WHEN THE TRUTH ABOUT IT IS KNOWN IN THE UNITED STATES. I THINK THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT THROUGH THE INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS IS DESPERATELY AFRAID OF THAT TAKING PLACE AND FOR THAT REASON HAS CREATED SO MUCH PUBLICITY WITHIN THE UNITED STATES SAYING THAT JONESTOWN IS AN ENCAMPMENT, A BARBED WIRE ENCAMPMENT, A CONCENTRATION CAMP, WHERE CHILDREN ARE TORTURED, BEATEN, AND CANNOT LEAVE. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION AS TO WHETHER ANY RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN MIGHT WISH TO LEAVE, LANE SAID THAT SUCH A QUESTION WOULD ONLY PRODUCE LAUGHTER IN JONESTOWN, WHICH HE DEPICTS AS AN IDYLLIC COMMUNITY. MR. LANE STATED THAT TWO OF THE PRINCIPAL PROPONENTS OF CHARGES AGAINST THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE WERE MESSRS. STORM AND MAYER.
6. COMMENT: PERSONS ATTENDING THE PRESS CONFERENCE HAVE INDICATED THAT ATTORNEY GENERAL BELL AND THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE WERE MENTIONED IN THE LIST OF AGENCIES AND INDIVIDUALS AGAINST WHOM MR. LANE STATED ACTIONS WOULD BE BROUGHT (REFTEL). THE RECORDED TAPE AVAILABLE TO THE EMBASSY, HOWEVER, DID NOT INCLUDE REFERENCE TO MR. BELL OR THE DEPARTMENT.

2. MCCOY EMPHASIZED DIFFICULTIES IN TRAVELING TO THE TEMPLE'S AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY AND THE IMPORTANCE OF HAVING THE TEMPLE AGREE TO THE VISIT. IN THIS CONNECTION MCCOY MENTIONED THAT TO DO OTHERWISE COULD LEND CREDENCE TO ATTORNEY MARK LANE'S CHARGES OF A MASSIVE CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE PEOPLE REPORTED IN REF B. BELT ADDED THAT CONGRESSMAN SHOULD JUSTIFY VISIT TO TEMPLE AS ON SITE INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS AT JONESTOWN IN RESPONSE TO INQUIRIES FROM CONSTITUENTS.
3. RYAN'S AIDE NOTED SUGGESTIONS MADE BY MCCOY AND BELT AND WELCOMED EMBASSY'S ADVICE ON THIS MATTER. SHE WAS UNSURE WHETHER RYAN WOULD AGREE TO CONTACT TEMPLE IN ADVANCE BECAUSE OF HIS CONCERN ABOUT ALLEGATIONS OF PSYCHOLOGICAL MANIPULATION OF TEMPLE MEMBERS PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF VISITORS. 1. DESK OFFICER MET WITH RYAN STAFFER (MS. JACKIE SPEIER) AND TWO STAFF MEMBERS (JIM SCOLLEART AND TOM SMEETAN) OF HOUSE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS COMMITTEE (HIRC) ON OCTOBER 25 TO DISCUSS PROPOSED VISIT. SPEIERS INDICATED THAT CONGRESSMEN RYAN (D-CALIF.) AND DERWINSKI (R-ILL) ACCOMPANIED BY APPROXIMATELY SIX STAFF MEMBERS HAVE TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED VISIT TO GUYANA NOVEMBER 14-18.
2. MCCOY RAISED AGAIN SEVERAL POTENTIAL PROBLEMS THAT MUST BE CONSIDERED BEFORE ARRIVAL OF GROUP INCLUDING LOGISTICS AND AGREEMENT OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO VISIT. WHILE SPEIERS INDICATED ON OCT. 25 THAT RYAN INTENDED

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

TO NOTIFY PEOPLE'S TEMPLE OF HIS VISIT SHE ALSO MENTIONED ON OCT. 30 THAT RYAN WAS PLANNING TO REQUEST THAT ORGANIZATION MAKE ABOUT 20 MEMBERS OF THE TEMPLE INCLUDING JOHN STOEN, MARIA KATSARIS ETC AVAILABLE TO CODEL IN GEORGETOWN FOR PERSONAL PRIVATE MEETINGS. MCCOY RESPONDED THAT HE BELIEVED TEMPLE WOULD VIEW REQUEST WITH SUSPICION AND AS IN THE PAST CODEL WOULD BE INFORMED BY TEMPLE REPRESENTATIVES THAT THE INDIVIDUALS REQUESTED IN TELEGRAM DECLINED TO TRAVEL TO GEORGETOWN. MCCOY CONTINUED THAT SUCH A REQUEST WOULD CAST PALL ON VISIT ESPECIALLY TO TOWNSITE. SPEIERS AGREED AND INDICATED SHE WOULD DISCUSS THIS FURTHER WITH RYAN. SPEIERS ALSO MENTIONED THAT RYAN WOULD BE SENDING PERSONAL TELEGRAM TO AMBASSADOR CONCERNING VISIT.
3. FYI EMBASSY SHOULD BE AWARE THAT 18 PRIVATE CITIZENS INCLUDING TIMOTHY AND GRACE STOEN, AND MS. KATSARIS HAVE BEEN REQUESTING RYAN TO EITHER INCLUDE THEM IN PARTY OR HAVE EMBASSY ARRANGE TRANSPORTATION AND GUARANTEE ACCESS TO AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY. MCCOY INFORMED SPEIERS THAT HE BELIEVED TEMPLE WOULD NOT AGREE TO ANY VISIT THAT

INCLUDED MEMBERS OF THE CONCERNED RELATIVES INC. HE ADDED THAT IT WOULD NOT BE APPROPRIATE FOR THE EMBASSY TO ARRANGE TRANSPORTATION OR REQUEST ASSISTANCE FROM GOG FOR PRIVATE CITIZENS. MCCOY CONTINUED THAT EMBASSY WOULD BE PLEASED TO ASSIST PRIVATE GROUP WITH INFORMATION AND ADVICE ABOUT AERA, AND AVAILABILITY OF COMMERCIAL OR CHARTER TRANSPORTATION, BUT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WOULD THE EMBASSY TRY TO FORCE THE PEOPLE TO RECEIVE THEM. SPIERS STATED THAT RYAN WOULD NOT BE INCLUDING ANY PRIVATE INDIVIDUALS IN HIS DELEGATION AND THAT SHE UNDERSTOOD EMBASSY'S LIMITATIONS IN ASSISTING PRIVATE

1. AMBASSADOR HAS NOT YET RECEIVED PERSONAL TELEGRAM FROM CONGRESSMAN RYAN REFERRED TO PARA TWO REF A. TROUGH TEXT OF RYAN'S TELEGRAM TO PEOPLE'S TEMPLE (REF A) HAS BEEN RECEIVED HOWEVER, GIVEN IMMINENCE OF CODEL PROPOSED VISIT, BELIEVE DEPARTMENT SHOULD CONVEY THE FOLLOWING POINTS TO CONGRESSMAN AND/OR HIS STAFF AND ELICIT INFORMATION REQUESTED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.
2. IN REF. D EMBASSY OUTLINED DIFFICULTIES INVOLVED IN SUPPORTING CODEL VISIT TO GEORGETOWN AND JONESTOWN AS WELL AS LIMITATIONS IMPOSED UPON THE EMBASSY IN ACTING AS A GO-BETWEEN FOR THE CODEL WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMEPLE (PT) AND ITS LEADERSHIP. BECAUSE THE PERSONNEL AT PEOPLE'S TEMPLE ARE AMERICAN CITIZENS AND BECAUSE THEY ARE OCCUPYING GUYANESE TERRITORY MADE AVAILABLE TO THEM BY THE GOG, THERE IS A DEFINITE LIMITATION ON WHAT MIGHT BE DONE TO ASSIST CODEL IN ITS MISSION IF PERSONNEL AT JONESTOWN FLATLY REFUSE TO RECEIVE CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS PARTY. ASSUME THAT OFFICERS FROM ARA/CAA HAVE OUTLINED THIS PROBLEM TO THE

CODEL STAFF AND THE CONGRESSMEN FULLY UNDERSTAND THESE LIMITATIONS. UPON RECEIPT OF REF A WE CONTACTED PT OFFICE IN GEORGETOWN (1) TO FIND OUT IF CONG.RYAN'S CABLE HAS BEEN RECEIVED AND (2) TO ENCOURAGE PT TO RECEIVE CODEL AT JONESTOWN. PT HAS NOT YET RECEIVED CONG. RYAN'S CABLE. INITIAL REACTION FROM LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE (SHARON AMOS) WAS HOWEVER FAVORABLE TO IDEA. SHE OBSERVED, HOWEVER, THAT
VISIT TO JONESTOWN SHOULD PRECLUDE ANY TALKS CONDEL MAY HAVE WITH GOG
OFFICIALS AND THAT PT REPS SHOULD PARTICIPATE IN ANY SUCH MEETINGS. (FINAL PT CONCURRENCE WILL NOT BE PROVIDED UNTIL BISHOP JONES HAS HAD OPPORTUNITY TO REVIEW CODEL CABLE WHEN RECEIVED.). GOG AMB. MANN, CURRENTLY IN GEORGETOWN, HAS ALSO BEEN INFORMED OF POSSIBLE CODEL VISIT.
3. IF CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND PARTY DO UNDERTAKE THEIR

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

JOURNEY TO GUYANA. IT WILL OBVIOUSLY BE IMPORTANT FOR THE EMBASSY TO KNOW AT EARLIEST STAGE POSSIBLE WHETHER OR NOT THEY ARE TRAVELING ON COMMITTEE BUSINESS AND WHAT APPROPRIATION NUMBERS WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE CODEL DURING ITS STAY IN GEORGETOWN. (ASSUME E IS IN A POSITION TO PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION.) IN ORDER TO AVOID FRUSTRATION ON THE PART OF CODEL AND STAFF IT IS ALSO ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL THAT THEY UNDERSTAND THE DIFFICULTIES OF TRAVEL WITHIN GUYANA. FOR EXAMPLE, IF THE CODEL INTENDS TO TRAVEL TO PORT KAITUMA, THE JUMPING-OFF PLACE FOR JONESTOWN, IT WILL HAVE TO TRAVEL BY CHARTER AIRCRAFT. AIRSTRIP AT PORT KAITUMA CANNOT TAKE AN AIRCRAFT LARGER THAN COMPARATIVELY SMALL TWIN-ENGINE CESSNA WHICH CAN CARRY NO MORE THAN SIX INDIVIDUALS PLUS CREW. AS STATED IN REF. C TRAVEL BETWEEN

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE
LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

PORT KAITUMA AND GEORGETOWN MUST BE ACCOMPLISHED USING A 4-WHEEL DRIVE VEHICLE WHICH ONLY JONESTOWN OR THE GOG DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVE CAN PROVIDE. EVEN FOR A GROUP AS SMALL AS SIX, THE SINGLE 4-WHEEL DRIVE VEHICLE WHICH MAY BE AVAILABLE MAY BE REQUIRED TO SHUTTLE THE GROUP TO JONESTOWN IN TWO OR MORE TRIPS. ON DAYLONG TRIP TO JONESTOWN CODEL WILL HAVE TO DEPEND EITHER ON THE HOSPITALITY OF JONESTOWN OR CARRY BOX LUNCHES FROM THE HOTEL FOR MIDDAY MEAL. THERE ARE NO RPT NO RESTAURANTS IN PORT KAITUMA.

4. RECENTLY, HOTEL SPACE IN GEORGETOWN HAS BEEN VERY LIMITED; MUST KNOW THEREFORE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE NUMBER IN CODEL AND EXACT DATES THEY EXPECT TO BE IN GEORGETOWN SO THAT ROOMS CAN BE RESERVED. FURTHERMORE BECAUSE OF THE SCARCITY OF CHARTER AIRCRAFT, MUST KNOW AS SOON AS POSSIBLE PRECISE DATE OR DATES CODEL WILL BE AVAILABLE TO TRAVEL TO JONESTOWN SO THAT SOME SUITABLE TYPE OF AIRCRAFT MAY BE RESERVED. (ASSUME THAT CHARTERING OF AIRCRAFT MAY BE CHARGED TO APPROPRIATION NUMBER WHICH CODEL WILL HAVE AVAILABLE TO IT.)

5. EMBASSY WISHES TO REITERATE THE POINT MADE IN PARA 2 REF B, I.E., THAT A DEPARTMENT LAWYER FROM THE STAFF OF THE LEGAL ADVISER ACCOMPANY THE CODEL TO GUYANA. EMBASSY BELIEVES THAT PRESENCE OF LEGAL COUNSEL IS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL GIVEN THE POSSIBLE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS CODEL VISIT UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS. MUST POINT OUT ONCE MORE THAT IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE FOR FRICTIONS TO OCCUR BETWEEN CODEL AND THE JONESTOWN COMMUNITY UNLESS AGREEMENT TO THE VISIT HAS BEEN OBTAINED FROM THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF THE CODEL. IT IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT THEREFORE THAT EMBASSY HAS AVAILABLE TO IT LEGAL COUNSEL FAMILIAR WITH THE PROVISIONS OF BOTH OF THESE ACTS AND THEIR APPLICATION TO WHATEVER INCIDENTS MAY ARISE IN

DESK OFFICER DRAWING UPON HIS PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE OF BOTH AREA AND PROBLEMS HAS GRAPHICALLY PORTRAYED SITUATIONS THAT COULD ARISE. DESK OFFICER ALSO HAS POINTED OUT LIMITS OF EMBASSY AUTHORITY OVER PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY.
3. DESK OFFICER BRIEFLY DISCUSSED CODEL DURING LUNCHEON WITH GUYANESE CHARGE ON NOVEMBER 2. SUBJ: CODEL RYAN VISIT TO GUYANA
REF: AMBASSADOR/MCCOY TELECON NOVEMBER 4, 1978
1. AMBASSADOR SPOKE WITH GUYANESE AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON LAURENCE MANN AFTERNOON NOV 4 REGARDING PROPOSED VISIT OF CODEL RYAN TO GUYANA FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAKING CONTACT WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE (PT) COMMUNITY AT JONESTOWN. AMBASSADOR TOLD MANN THAT AMERICAN CONSUL HAD BEEN INFORMED BY PT REPRESENTATIVES IN GEORGETOWN THAT IT WAS NOW PT INTENTION NOT RPT NOT TO RECEIVE CONGRESSMAN RYAN AT JONESTOWN. MANN SAID THAT HE HAD HEARD OF THIS DECISION AND HAD TOLD THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE THAT HE PERSONALLY CONSIDERED IT TO BE ILLADVISED. NEVERTHELESS, HE WENT ON, IT WAS THEIR DECISION AND GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA COULD NOT FORCE PT TO RECEIVE CODEL WITHIN THEIR COMMUNITY JUST AS GOG COULD NOT DICTATE TO ITS CITIZENS WHOM THEY RECEIVE IN THEIR HOMES. MANN WENT ON TO SAY THAT PT SEEMED CONVINCED THAT CODEL WAS HOSTILE, WOULD BE ARRIVING WITH WELL-DEVELOPED PRE-JUDICES AGAINST PT AND MERELY WANTED AN ON-THE-

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

SPOT VISIT TO ENABLE CODEL TO RETURN TO U.S. AND REITERATE PREJUDICED VIEW OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNITY WITH MORE AUTHORITY THAN BEFORE. PT OFFICIALS HAD APPARENTLY CITED TO MANN COINCIDENT VISIT BY NBC CAMERA TEAM AS PROOF-POSITIVE OF CODEL'S BAD FAITH.
2. AMBASSADOR REPEATED FOR MANN'S BENEFIT WHAT CONSUL HAD ALREADY CONVEYED TO PT REPRESENTATIVES RE CODEL'S VISIT: IT WAS TO GIVE CONGRESSMAN RYAN AN OPPORTUNITY TO FAMILIARIZE HIMSELF PERSONALLY WITH A COMMUNITY WHICH HAD GENERATED GREAT INTEREST IN HIS CONSTITUENCY. FURTHERMORE, CONGRESSMAN HAD MADE NO SECRET OF HIS INTENTIONS AND IN FACT HAD SENT A MESSAGE DIRECTLY TO THE PT ASKING THAT HE BE PERMITTED TO VISIT JONESTOWN. AMBASSADOR OBSERVED TO MANN, AS HE HAD PREVIOUSLY, THAT CODEL VISIT TO JONESTOWN WOULD APPEARED TO BE AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY FOR PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO RESPOND TO CRITICISM IN THE U.S. ABOUT THEIR COMMUNITY EFFORT IN GUYANA. ON THE OTHER HAND, A FLAT REFUSAL TO RECEIVE THE CODEL AT JONESTOWN MIGHT HAVE JUST THE OPPOSITE EFFECT. AS FOR THE NBC CAMERA TEAM, AMBASSADOR INFORMED

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

MANN THAT ON THE BASIS OF THE REFTELCONS, IT WAS THE EMBASSY'S CLEAR UNDERSTANDING THAT THE CONGRESSMAN HAD NOT INVITED THE TEAM TO COME AND THAT NBC SAN FRANCISCO HAD ONLY BECOME INTERESTED IN COVERING THE STORY WHEN NEWS OF THE CONGRESSMAN'S PROPOSED TRIP BECAME KNOWN. FURTHER, IT WAS OUR UNDERSTANDING THAT NBC HAD BEEN TOLD THAT THEY WOULD HAVE TO CLEAR ANY TRIP TO JONESTOWN WITH PEOPLES TEMPLE AND ANY VISIT BY A CAMERA TEAM TO THE GUYANESE HINTERLAND WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA.

3. AMBASSADOR MANN PROFESSED TO UNDERSTAND ALL OF THIS BUT REPEATED HIS STATEMENT THAT GOG WAS POWERLESS TO FORCE PT TO RECEIVE CODEL AT JONESTOWN IF TGROUP WAS ADAMANTLY OPPOSED. HE EXPRESSED AGAIN HIS PERSONAL VIEW THAT PT WAS WRONG TO REFUSE. HE WANTED IT EMPHASIZED TO CONGRESSMAN RYAN THAT GOG, FOR ITS PART, WOULD WELCOME HIS VISIT TO GUYANA AND THAT FORMIN RASHLEIGH JACKSON AND OTHER OFFICIALS WOULD BE PLEASED TO RECEIVE HIM IF HE DECIDED TO COME.

4. WITHIN AN HOUR OF THE AMBASSADOR'S CONVERSATION WITH MANN, A PT REPRESENTATIVE CALLED THE CONSUL TO TELL HIM THAT AMBASSADOR'S IMPRESSION WAS NOT ACCURATE: PT HAD NOT DEFINITIVELY CLOSED THE DOOR TO A VISIT BY CONGRESSMAN RYAN, BUT WERE SETTING THREE CONDITIONS:

A) THAT CODEL MUST HAVE BALANCE(I.E. THAT IT INCLUDE REPRESENTATION SYMPATHETICALLY DISPOSED TO PT);

B) THAT THERE BE NO MEDIA COVERAGE ASSOCIATED WITH THE CODEL'S VISIT TO JONESTOWN;

C) THAT ATTORNEY MARK LANE BE PRESENT FOR CODEL VISIT TO GUYANA AND JONESTOWN.

5. PT REPRESENTATIVE ALSO INFORMED CONSUL THAT THEIR RESPONSE TO CONGRESSMAN RYAN'S CABLE WOULD BE COMMUNICATED THROUGH ATTORNEY MARK LANE.

SUBJ: CONGRESSMAN RYAN'S VISIT TO GUYANA.

REF: STATE 285461

1. EMBASSY HAS BEEN INFORMED THAT IN ADDITION TO AN NBC TELEVISION TEAM FROM SAN FRANCISCO TWO AND PERHAPS THREE OTHER JOURNALISTS REPRESENTING NEWSPAPERS IN THE BAY AREA MAY BE ACCOMPANYING CODEL RYAN TO GEORGETOWN. AS DEPT. HAS ALREADY INFORMED US IN PARA 4 REFTEL, CONCERNED RELATIVES WILL ALSO BE IN GEORGETOWN AT THE TIME OF CODEL'S VISIT. IN ORDER TO RESPOND TO ANTICIPATED QUESTIONS FROM BOTH THE MEDIA AND CONCERNED PARENTS, EMBASSY WOULD APPRECIATE DEPT'S AUTHORIZATION TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT AVAILABLE ON AN "IF ASKED" BASIS.

2. QUOTE: THE PEOPLES TEMPLE COMMUNITY AT JONESTOWN IS A GROUP OF PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS WHO HAVE CHOSEN TO COME TO GUYANA AS PERMANENT OR SEMI-PERMANENT RESIDENTS. AS WITH PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDING ANYWHERE ABROAD, THEY ARE SUBJECT TO THE LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF THE HOST COUNTRY, IN THIS CASE GUYANA. THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN HAS NO OFFICIAL CONTACT WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE OTHER THAN THE PROVISION OF ROUTINE CONSULAR SERVICES TO THE INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THIS COMMUNITY ON A REGULAR BASIS. THESE SERVICES INCLUDE RENEWAL OF PASSPORTS, REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS, ETC. THE EMBASSY HAS NO OFFICIAL AUTHORITY OVER THE COMMUNITY OR ITS INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OR ANY LEGAL RIGHT TO DEMAND ACCESS TO ANY PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZEN IN GUYANA. IF THE MEMBERS OF PEOPLES TEMPLE CHOOSE TO AVOID CONTACT WITH OTHER AMERICANS EITHER OFFICIAL OR UNOFFICIAL, THAT IS THEIR LEGAL RIGHT AND NEITHER THE U.S. GOVERNMENT NOR THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA CAN LEGITIMATELY FORCE A REVERSAL OF THIS DECISION. THE MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE ARE PROTECTED BY THE PRIVACY ACT OF 1974, AS ARE ALL AMERICAN CITIZENS. UNQUOTE.

SUBJ: DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED BY AMERICAN JOURNALISTS ARRIVING IN GEORGETOWN WITHOUT VISAS.
REF: A. GEORGETOWN 3729 B. GEORGETOWN 3714.

1. AS THE DEPARTMENT IS AWARE SEVERAL AMERICAN JOURNALISTS WHO ARRIVED IN GEORGETOWN IN THE EARLY MORNING HOURS OF NOV. 15 ON PA 227 (THE SAME PLANE THAT BROUGHT CODEL RYAN) HAVE EXPERIENCED DIFFICULTIES WITH GUYANESE IMMIGRATION. THE PROBLEM TURNS AROUND THE POINT THAT THESE JOURNALISTS HAD NOT OBTAINED VISAS FROM THE GUYANESE EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON BEFORE DEPARTING FOR GEORGETOWN. IN MANY CASES — BUT NOT ALL - THE PAPERWORK TO OBTAIN VISAS HAD BEGUN BUT HAD NOT BEEN COMPLETED. NEVERTHELESS, IT APPEARS THAT THE JOURNALISTS DECIDED TO TRAVEL TO GEORGETOWN, APPARENTLY HOPING THAT THE FACT THAT THEY WERE ON THE SAME PLANE WITH CODEL RYAN WOULD ENABLE THEM TO OBTAIN ENTRY EVEN THOUGH VISAS HAD NOT BEEN OBTAINED.

2. SINCE BECOMING AWARE OF THIS PROBLEM SHORTLY AFTER ARRIVAL OF THE AIRCRAFT, EMB HAS GONE TO EXTRAORDINARY LENGTHS TO ARRANGE FOR ENTRY OF THESE JOURNALISTS. THIS HAS INCLUDED CALLS TO THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE, DIRECTOR OF IMMIGRATION AT THE AIRPORT AND OTHER OFFICIALS

BETWEEN 2:00 AND 4:00 A.M. NOVEMBER 15. SINCE 8:00 A.M. THE AMBASSADOR HAS SPOKEN TO THE FOREIGN MINISTER PERSONALLY ON THE MATTER. THE PAO HAS ALSO BEEN IN CONSTANT TOUCH WITH THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND OFFICIALS OF THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS IN AN EFFORT TO ARRANGE FOR THE ENTRY OF THESE VISA-LESS JOURNALISTS. AS OF ONE O'CLOCK P.M. NOV. 15 (WASHINGTON TIME), ALL OF THE JOURNALISTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO GUYANA AND THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS ASSURES US THAT EACH WILL RECEIVE A VISA FOR FIVE DAYS (DURATION OF THE CODEL VISIT). THE GUYANESE CHIEF OF INFORMATION OFFICER WILL MEET WITH THE JOURNALISTS AT 2 P.M. WASHINGTON TIME.

3. BY CONTRAST WITH THE DIFFICULTIES EXPERIENCED BY THE PRESSMAN WHO CHOSE TO TRAVEL WITHOUT GOG VISAS, THE NBC CAMERA TEAM FROM SAN FRANCISCO, WHICH HAD OBTAINED VISAS WELL IN ADVANCE, HAS APPARENTLY HAD NO DIFFICULTY IN ENTERING THE COUNTRY. THE ONLY INCONVENIENCE THEY

1. IN RESPONSE TO THEIR REQUEST, AMBASSDOR MET AFTERNOON NOV. 16 WITH FOURTEEN MEMBERS OF THE CONCERNED RELATIVES GROUP WHO HAD ARRIVED IN GEORGETOWN IN THE SMALL HOURS OF WEDNESDAY, NOV. 15, ABOARD THE SAME PANAM FLIGHT WHICH BROUGHT CODEL RYAN TO GUYANA. GROUP CLAIMS (WITH ONE EXCEPTION) TO HAVE CLOSE RELATIVES AT THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNITY AT JONESTOWN WITH WHOM THEY HAVE BEEN DENIED CONTACT. THEY HAVE TRAVELED TO GUYANA IN COMPANY WITH CONGRESSMAN RYAN IN HOPE THAT THEY MAY BE PERMITTED TO VISIT JONESTOWN OR MEET WITH THEIR RELATIVES IN GEORGETOWN. SINCE THEIR ARRIVAL THEY HAVE SEPARATELY AND COLLECTIVELY BEEN IN CONTACT WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE GEORGETOWN OFFICE, WITH THE PRESSMEN WHO ARRIVED WITH CODEL, AND WITH CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS STAFFERS.

2. WHEN "CONCERNED RELATIVES" GROUP ARRIVED AT EMBASSY THEY WERE ACCOMPANIED BY AMERICAN PRESSMEN WHO HAD ARRIVED GEORGETOWN WITH CODEL. THOUGH THERE HAD BEEN

PRIOR UNDERSTANDING THAT MEETING WITH AMBASSADOR WOULD BE PRIVATE, GROUP'S SPOKESMAN ON ARRIVAL INSISTED THAT PRESS SHOULD BE INCLUDED. AMBASSADOR DECLINED TO MEET WITH GROUP WITH PRESS PRESENT ON GROUNDS THAT THERE WERE SENSITIVE LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS INVOLVED. GROUP THEN CAUCUSSED TO DECIDE WHETHER THEY WOULD ACCEPT MEETING ON THIS CONDITION AND EVENTUALLY AGREED TO MEET IN PRIVATE. ALSO IN ATTENDANCE WERE CONGRESSMAN RYAN, HIS TWO STAFFERS, DCM AND CONSUL.

3. MEETING OPENED WITH A SHOWING OF AMATEUR COLOR SLIDES OF JONESTOWN WHICH HAD BEEN TAKEN (WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE PERMISSION) DURING ONE OF THE CONSUL'S ROUTINE VISITS TO JONESTOWN. AMBASSADOR THEN BEGAN THE DISCUSSION WITH A STATEMENT IN WHICH HE OUTLINED BRIEFLY AN EMBASSY'S OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES TOWARDS AMERICAN CITIZENS RESIDING ABROAD BOTH TEMPORARY AND PERMANENT. PRINCIPAL POINT WAS THAT ALL AMERICAN CITIZENS ENJOYED

AN EQUAL CLAIM ON THE EMBASSY' PROTECTION AND SERVICES BE THEY RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN OR VISITING CONCERNED RELATIVES.

4. SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE GROUP PROCEEDED TO DESCRIBE ALLEGED CONDITIONS IN JONESTOWN AND TO EXPRESS CONCERN ABOUT THEIR INABILITY TO MAKE DIRECT CONTACT WITH THEIR RELATIVES. AMBASSADOR THEN DESCRIBED FOR THE GROUP THE SERIES OF REGULAR CONSULAR FLIGHTS TO JONESTOWN WHICH HAD BEEN INSTITUTED SINCE HIS ARRIVAL DURING WHICH WELFARE/WHEREABOUTS INQUIRIES WERE LOOKED INTO ON BEHALF OF NEXT-OF-KIN, NOTING THAT IN EACH CASE TO DATE CONSUL HAD BEEN ABLE TO INTERVIEW PERSONALLY AND PRIVATELY THE INDIVIDUAL CONCERNED AND TO REPORT BACK TO NEXT-OF-KIN.

5. INDIVIDUALS IN THE GROUP WERE INCLINED TO DISMISS AS INCONCLUSIVE INTERVIEWS BETWEEN INDIVIDUAL JONESTOWNIANS AND CONSUL, ALLEGING BRAINWASHING AND CONDITIONING TO EXPLAIN STATEMENTS FROM INTERVIEWEES THAT THEY WERE HAPPY IN JONESTOWN AND CONTENT TO REMAIN THERE. VARIOUS MEMBERS WITHIN THE GROUP THEN RETURNED TO A RECOUNTING OF ALLEGED CHARGES AGAINST THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE BOTH IN GUYANA AND THE UNITED STATES. AMBASSADOR ATTEMPTED TO RESPOND BY REITERATING THAT EMBASSY HAD NO POLICE OR ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL OVER PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS IN GUYANA AND THAT ONLY GUYANESE JUSTICE AND ADMINISTRATION HAD DIRECT APPLICATION.

6. SESSION WHICH LASTED AN HOUR-AND-A-HALF ENDED WITH AMBASSADOR PROMISING GROUP THAT IF THEY WOULD PROVIDE CONSUL WITH NAMES OF NEXT-OF-KIN HE WOULD MAKE CONTACT DURING HIS NEXT CONSULAR VISIT TO THE COMMUNITY. ALSO, IN THE PRESENCE OF THE GROUP, AMBASSADOR CALLED PEOPLE'S TEMPLE OFFICE IN GEORGETOWN IN AN EFFORT TO VERIFY STATEMENT WHICH SOME MEMBERS OF THE GROUP SAID THEY HAD BEEN TOLD WHEN THEY ATTEMPTED TO MAKE CONTACT: VIZ., THAT THE INDIVIDUALS SHOULD MAKE ARRANGEMENTS THROUGH THE EMBASSY TO MEET WITH THEIR RELATIVES AT JONESTOWN. IN RESPONSE TO HIS CALL AMBASSADOR WAS TOLD BY SPOKESMAN THAT PT HAD RECOMMENDED THAT "CONCERNED RELATIVES" SHOULD ARRANGE TO MAKE CONTACT WITH THEIR NEXT-OF-KIN THROUGH THE EMBASSY, REFERRING TO THE REGULAR CONSULAR VISITATION. AMBASSADOR TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE CALL TO URGE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE REPRESENTATIVE EITHER TO PERMIT A VISIT BY "CONCERNED RELATIVES" TO JONESTOWN AS LONG AS THEY WERE PHYSICALLY IN GUYANA OR ARRANGE FOR NEXT-OF-KIN TO TRAVEL TO GEORGETOWN FOR MEETINGS IF FORMER COURSE WAS NOT POSSIBLE. TAGS: CASC, OREP (RYAN LEO) GY SUBJ: CODEL RYAN: SHOOTING INCIDENT AT PORT KAITUMA.
REF: GEORGETOWN 3774.
1. I HAVE JUST RETURNED FROM A MEETING WITH PRIMIN BURNHAM, DEPUTY PRIMIN REID, FORMIN JACKSON, AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION SHIRLEY FIELD-RIDLEY. VARIOUS OFFICERS OF THE GUYANA DEFENSE FORCE WERE ALSO IN ATTENDANCE. CREWS OF THE TWO CHARTER AIRCRAFT WHICH HAD BEEN SHOT AT DURING THE INCIDENT AT PORT KAITUMA HAD JUST ARRIVED AND WERE ALSO PRESENT. FOLLOWING RECONSTRUCTION OF INCIDENT IS BASED ON THEIR TESTIMONY WHICH MUST BE USED CAREFULLY IN VIEW OF THEIR UNDERSTANDABLY EMOTIONAL STATE.
2. BOTH CHARTER AIRCRAFT HAD ARRIVED AT PORT KAITUMA AND HAD COMMENCED LOADING CONGRESSMAN RYAN'S PARTY. THE SMALLER OF THE TWO, A FIVE-PASSENGER CESSNA, HAD ALREADY LOADED APPARENTLY, WITH AT LEAST TWO OR THREE OF THE JONESTOWN RESIDENTS WHO HAD ELECTED TO LEAVE THE COMMUNITY WITH

CONGRESSMAN RYAN, AMONG ITS FIVE PASSENGERS. ACCORDING TO THE PILOT ONE OF THE INDIVIDUALS PRODUCED A PISTON AND BEGAN FIRING WITHIN THE AIRCRAFT AT THE OTHER PASSENGERS. AT ALMOST THE SAME TIME A TRACTOR PULLING A CART APPEARED ON THE SCENE. THE CART WAS LOADED WITH SEVERAL PEOPLE AND WHEN IT APPROACHED THE AIRCRAFT THE INDIVIDUALS IN THE CART BEGAN FIRING AT THE CLUSTER OF PEOPLE WHO HAD NOT YET BOARDED THE SECOND LARGER AIRCRAFT. SEVERAL OF THE PEOPLE, ACCORDING TO THE PILOTS, WERE IMMEDIATELY STRUCK BY BULLETS AND IT THEIR ESTIMATION WERE KILLED DURING THE FIRST FUSILLADE. THIS GROUP INCLUDED CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND MEMBERS OF THE NBC CAMERA TEAM. THE FIRING ALSO DAMAGED THE ENGINES OF THE SECOND AIRCRAFT AND RENDERED IT UNFLYABLE. PEOPLE STILL ON THE GROUND WHO WERE NOT WOUNDED OR WERE WOUNDED AND AMBULATORY RAN INTO THE BUSHES SURROUNDING THE AIRSTRIP TO ESCAPE THE FIRE. THE THREE-MAN CREW IN THE DISABLED

AIRCRAFT SCRAMBLED ABOARD THE CESSNA WHICH WAS TAXI-ING DOWN THE RUNWAY. THIS AIRCRAFT MANAGED TO TAKE OFF WITH BOTH CREWS PLUS ONE WOUNDED PASSENGER WHO APPARENTLY WAS ONE OF THE PERSONS WHO HAD ELECTED TO LEAVE GEORGETOWN. (SHE IS NOW IN A HOSPITAL IN GEORGETOWN.)
3. NEITHER OFFICER HAD ANY GREAT FAMILIARITY WITH THE INDIVIDUAL PASSENGERS WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE CONGRESSMAN. THE NBC CAMERA TEAM AND THE DCM AND TDYS COULD NOT READILY IDENTIFY CASUALTIES. THEY DID REPORT, HOWEVER, THAT WHEN THEY LEFT PORT KAITUMA
THE DCM SEEMED TO BE AMBULATORY BUT PERHAPS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED. THE CONGRESSMAN AND THE CAMERA TEAM APPEARED TO BE DEAD.

4. AFTER THE MEETING WITH THE PRIMIN THE AIR
CREWS WERE TAKEN IN CHARGE BY THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE
FOR A MORE INTENSIVE DEBRIEFING. I HAVE SENT AN EMBASSY POLITICAL OFFICER TO BE PRESENT AT THIS SESSION.
5. UNITS OF THE GUYANA DEFENSE FORCE AND THE POLICE ARE BEING AIRLIFTED DURING NIGHT HOURS TO MATTHEWS RIDGE.
THE CLOSEST AIRSTRIP CAPABLE OF TAKING AIRCRAFT AFTER DARK. GDF IS ALSO POSITIONING TOW HELICOPTERS AT MATTHEWS RIDGE IN ORDER TO BE ABLE TO SHUTTLE TROOPS INTO PORT KAITUMA AT FIRST LIGHT. THERE IS ALREADY A SMALL GDF UNIT AT PORT KAITUMA NUMBERING PERHAPS NO MORE THAN SIX. AS OF NOW THERE IS NO COMMUNICATION LINE WITH PORT KAITUMA.
6. THE PRIMINISTER EXPRESSED HIS DEEP REGRET OVER THIS TRAGIC INCIDENT AND WISHED THIS TO BE CONVEYED URGENTLY TO USG.
HE NOTED THAT HIS GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN MOST FACILITATIVE REGARDING THE CODEL'S VISIT.
7. I TOLD THE PRIME MINISTER THAT OUR IMMEDIATE CONCERNS WERE AS FOLLOWS: (1) THAT THE GOG MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO GET INTO PORT KAITUMA TO FURNISH AID, ASSISTANCE AND PROTECTION TO THE AMERICANS WHO WERE STILL THERE.
(2) THAT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE THE BODIES OF THE DEAD SHOULD BE BROUGHT TO GEORGETOWN, AND (3) THAT THE PERPETRATORS OF THIS OUTRAGE BE BROUGHT TO JUSTICE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.
8. I LEFT THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE AT THIS POINT AND RETURNED TO THE EMBASSY.
9. WE HAVE ALSO LEARNED THAT THERE HAVE BEEN THREE MURDERS AND ONE SUICIDE AT THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE OFFICE IN GEORGETOWN. BURKE

REF: GEORGETOWN 3774.
1. PORT KAITUMA AIRSTRIP IS A VERY SHORT RUDIMENTARY LANDING AREA WITHOUT NAVIGATIONAL AIDS, RADIO, OR LANDING LIGHTS.
2. AREA IS VERY INACCESSIBLE BY ANY OTHER MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION; THERE BEING ONLY JUNGLE TRAILS AND EXTREMELY ROUGH ROAD BETWEEN AIRSTRIP AND JONESTOWN, SITE OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE COMMUNE AND AGRICULTURAL PROJECT.
3. THERE ARE NO OTHER NEARBY LANDING AREAS CAPABLE OF TAKING MILITARY AIRCRAFT SUCH AS C-123 OR C-130. NEAREST U.S. MILITARY FACILITY IS EITHER PANAMA OR PUERTO RICO, APPROXIMATELY 6 HOURS FLYING TIME FROM GUYANA.
4. PORT KAITUMA AIRSTRIP IS SURROUNDED BY DENSE, ROUGH JUNGLE AND ANY RESCUE OR ASSAULT OPERATION WOULD REQUIRE AIRBORNE CAPABILITY. CHART COORDINATES ARE 7 DEGREES 45 MINUTES NORTH AND 59 DEGREES 45 MINUTES WEST.

5. MATTHEWS RIDGE TO WHICH GOG IS SENDING [illegible] SECURITY FORCE IS 20 MILES SOUTHWEST PORT KAITUMA ACROSS BARIMA RIVER AT COORDINATES 7 DEGREES 30 MINUTES NORTH, 60 DEGREES 10 MINUTES WEST. THIS AREA ALSO EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TERRAIN WITH TRAILS EXTENDING THROUGH VERY DENSE JUNGLE.
6. ANY NIGHT OPERATION WOULD REQUIRE FLARES TO LIGHT UP LANDING AREA AT PORT KAITUMA.
7. RE PARA 2 ABOVE, PORT KAITUMA AS WELL AS ACTUAL SITE JONESTOWN AGRICULTURAL PROJECT IS IN REMOTE AREA OF GUYANA IN NORTHWEST DISTRICT THAT IS ALMOST TOTALLY UNINHABITED. ACCESS TO AREA IS RESTRICTED TO AIR SERVICE, ALTHOUGH ACCESS BY KATIUMA RIVER IS POSSIBLE FROM ATLANTIC OCEAN.

SUBJ: INTERVIEW WITH MARK LANE
MARK LANE WAS CONTACTED IN HIS HOTEL BY EMBASSY OFFICIALS AND HE READILY AGREED TO GIVE A STATEMENT TO THEM REGARDING THE INCIDENT IN JONESTOWN. LANE BEGAN HIS NARRATION BY DESCRIBING THE EVENTS AFTER THE DEPARTURE OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN HIS PARTY, AND THOSE MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE WHO CHOSE TO GO WITH HIM.
1. LANE STATED THAT HE AND HIS COLLEAGUE, CHARLES GARY, MET WITH JIM JONES AFTER CONGRESSMAN RYAN'S PARTY LEFT, AND ATTEMPTED TO PERSUADE HIM NOT TO TAKE DRASTIC MEASURES FOLLOWING THE DEPARTURE OF SOME OF HIS SECT'S MEMBERS. THE MEETING WAS INTERRUPTED BY MARIE KATSARIS WHO SAID "IT WAS IMPORTANT." AFTER A WHISPERED CONSULTATION BETWEEN JONES AND KATSARIS -- ACCORDING TO LANE -- JONES TOLD HIM AND GARY TO GO TO THE EAST CABIN BECAUSE THEY WERE IN DANGER. LANE SAID THE DON SLY, WHOM HE HAD HELPED TO DISARM IN THE FIRST ATTEMPT ON RYAN'S LIFE, WAS SENT TO GUARD THEM. LANE SAID HE THEN HEARD SHOUTS OF "DEATH IS A DIGNITY" AND "LET'S GET

'EM NOW." AT FIRST, LANE SAID, HE THOUGHT THE THREAT WAS AIMED AT HIM AND GARY, BUT THE PEOPLE RUSHED PAST TO ANOTHER BUILDING WHERE THEY ALLEGEDLY WITHDREW GUNS AAND AMMUNITION. LANE STATED THAT SOME CRATES APPEARED TO BE SO HEAVY THAT TWO MEN COULD NOT CARRY THEM FOR MORE THAN A FEW YARDS AT A TIME. ALL THE PEOPLE HE COULD SEE, SAID LANE, WERE MOVING TOWARD A PAVILION ATOP A HILL.
2. LANE ALLEGES THAT TWO MEN KNOWN TO HIM, NAMED PANCHO AND THOMPSON, STOPPED TO SPEAK TO HIM AND HIS COLLEAGUE. HE REPORTED THAT ONE OF THEM, PANCHO, APPEARED TO BE VERY HAPPY AND SAID "IT'S A GREAT THING TO DIE, TO DIE WITH DIGNITY." LANE SAID THAT HE DISPUTED THIS IDEA SOMEWHAT WITH PANCHO, BUT THAT EVENTUALLY DECIDED TO FLEE THE AREA. HE ASKED FOR, AND RECEIVED, DIRECTIONS TO THE ROAD TO PORT KATUMA FROM PANCHO. LANE SAID THAT THOMPSON AT THIS POINT SHOUTED THAT "JIM

IS THE GREATEST MAN IN THE WORLD" AS THE TWO ATTORNEYS RAN FROM JONESTOWN.

3. AS THEY WERE LEAVING, LANE SAID, HE HEARD JIM JONES CHANT WHAT SOUNDED LIKE "MOTHER, MOTHER, MOTHER" OVER THE PA SYSTEM. WHEN ASKED IF JIM JONES HAD TO BE IN THE PAVILION TO USE THE PA SYSTEM, LANE REPLIED IN THE NEGATIVE, BUT INDICATED THAT HE FELT THAT JONES WAS IN THE PAVILION. LANE THEN ALLEGES THAT HE HEARD 80 TO 90 SHOTS.

4. LANE THEN BACKTRACKED IN TIME, AND SAID THAT JONES HA SAID PRIOR TO THE INTERRUPTION BY MARIE KATSARIS, THAT THE PEOPLE WHO HAD LEFT HIS ORGANIZATION FOR CONGRESSMAN RYAN HAD DONE IT ONLY BECAUSE THEY PLANNED TO KILL RYAN. AND HE COULD PREDICT THAT THEY WOULD. LANE ALLEGES THAT HE DID NOT BELIEVE THE STORY OR THE "PROPHECY" AT THE TIME. HE FUR HER STATED THAT HE DID NOT LEARN OF THE AIRPORT ATTACK UNTIL HE WAS BACK IN GEORGETOWN.

5. LANE CONTINUED WITH HIS NARRATIVE OF HIS ESCAPE. HE SAID THAT HE AND GARY HAD WALKED ALONG THE ROAD, KEEPING WELL TO THE SIDE IN ORDER TO AVOID ANYONE ELSE. JUST AS IT WAS GETTING DARK, HE SAID THAT HE SPIED TWO MEN (BUT SAID THAT GARY BELIEVED IT WAS A GROUP OF THREE) ON THE ROAD CARRYING WHAT APPEARED TO BE FOOTLOCKERS. HE AND GARY SOUGHT SHELTER IN THE BUSH ALONG THE ROAD TO AVOID DETECTION AND REMAINED IN THE JUNGLE UNTIL EARLY MORNING. LANE INDICATED THAT THE SEEKING OF COVER HAD BEEN A TECTICAL MISTAKE BECAUSE IT TOOK THEM SEVERAL HOURS TO REGAIN THE ROAD. HE SAID THAT THE BUSH IS VERY THICK AND THE SENSE OF DIRECTION THROWN WAY OFF. AT ABOUT 7:45 ACCORDING TO LANE, HE HEARD ABOUT 15-25 ROUNDS OF AUTOMATIC FIRE, AND THEY FLED THE AREA AS FAST AS POSSIBLE.

6. IN REPLY TO A DIRECT QUESTION, LANE SAID THAT HE HAD ORIGINALLY THOUGHT THAT JONES HAD DIED ALONG WITH HIS SECT'S MEMBERS, BUT THAT HE BEGAN HAVING SECOND THOUGHTS AFTER SEEING THE LOCKERS BEING CARRIED THROUGH THE JUNGLE. HE KNOWS FOR A FACT, HE SAID, THAT JONES HAD TWO OR THREE MILLION DOLLARS IN HIS CABIN. HE HAD NEVER SEEN IT, BUT ALLEGED THAT HE WAS SURE IT WAS THERE, AND EVEN KNEW WHO HAD BROUGHT IT INTO GUYANA AND HOW. HE DECLINED TO NAME THE SOURCE OF HIS INFORMATION, BUT SAID THAT HE WOULD DISCUSS IT WITH HIM AND PERHAPS IN EXCHANGE FOR IMMUNITY, THE INDIVIDUAL MIGHT EXPLAIN THE WEYS AND WHEREFORES.

7. AGAIN IN REPLY TO A DIRECT QUESTION, HE STATED THAT THE MEN CARRYING THE LOCKERS WERE HEADED IN THE GENERAL DIRECTION OF THE PLACE WHERE THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE BOAT WAS MOORED, BUT ADMITTED THAT IT WAS ALSO IN THE GENERAL DIRECTION OF THE ROUTE HE WAS TAKING TO REACH PORT KAITUMA. HE REPEATEDLY DISCLAIMED ANY KNOWLEDGE OF A CONTINGENCY PLAN FOR JONES' ESCAPE, IN THE EVENT IT BECAME NECESSARY. HE SAID THAT JONES TALKED OF SENDING A DELEGATION TO THE SOVIET UNION AND

PERHAPS OF MOVING THE COMMUNE THERE, BUT HAD NEVER MENTIONED
ANY PLANS INVOLVING HIS OWN ESCAPE.
8. WHEN ASKED IF HE HAD DETECTED ANY CHANGE IN THE ATMOSPHERE IN JONESTOWN DURING THE CONGRESSMAN'S VISIT, HE SAID NOT IN THE COMMUNITY IN GENERAL. HE ALLEGED, HOWEVER, THAT HE SENSED A CHANGE IN JIM JONES, THAT HE HAD SEEMED VERY CALM AND THAT HE (LANE) FELT THAT SOMETHING WAS GOING TO HAPPEN. HE THEN REPEATED JONES' "PREDICTION" OF TROUBLE FOR CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND PARTY.

9. LANE CHARACTERIZED THE LEADERSHIP GROUP AS A "COMMUNITY OF INSANITY." GROSS PARANOIA, HESTATED, SEEMED TO BE THE BADGE OF THE TRUE BELIEVER, AND THE SLIGHTEST SIGN THAT A PT LEADER DID NOT FEEL OPPRESSED ENOUGH WAS CAUSE FOR EXCLUSION FROM THE HIGHER ECHELON OF THE ORGANIZATION.
10. LANE SAID THAT WHEN HE FIRST BECAME INVOLVED WITH THE PT HE HAD BELIEVED THAT THE APPLAUSE AND RESPONSES TO JONES' WORDS WERE AUTHENTIC. SEVERAL WEEKS AGO, HOWEVER, HE FOUND OUT IT WAS ALL ARRANGED. HE STATED THAT HE HAD LEARNED OF THE STAGE MANAGING FROM A "HIGHLY-PLACED PERSON" WHO HAD LEFT THE ORGANIZATION. WHEN ASKED, THEN, WHY HE HAD WORKED SO HARD TO ARRANGE THE FACT-FINDING MISSION OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN, HE STATED THAT HE THOUGHT HE SHOULD TRY TO HELP SOME OF THE PEOPLE LEAVE JONESTOWN. HE WENT ON TO STATE THAT DON HARRIS (ONE OF THE NBC NEWSMEN KILLED AT THE AIRPORT ATTACK) HAD TOLD HIM THAT THE GUYANESE POLICE HAD REPORTEDLY SAID THAT THERE WERE NUMEROUS WEAPONS AT JONESTOWN, INCLUDING AUTOMATIC RIFLES AND HE HAD BEGUN TO WORRY.
11. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION REGARDING THE MASS SUICIDE IDEA, LANE DECRIBED THE SENSE OF COMMUNITY FELT BY MEMBERS OF

THE TEMPLE, BY RECOUNTING A SERVICE HE HAD WITNESSED AT ONE TIME IN SAN FRANCISCO WHERE THREE WOMEN HAD ATTESTED TO JONES' REMARKABLE SEXUAL ENDOWMENT AND PROWESS, AND JONES' STATEMENT THAT HIS SEXUAL LIAISON WITH THE WOMEN WAS VERY DISTASTEFUL TO HIM PERSONALLY BUT THAT HE HAD DONE IT FOR THE GOOD OF THE COMMUNITY. LANE STRESSED THAT SUCH A BIZARRE COMMITMENT INDICATED THAT FEELINGS WERE VERY STRONG. HE DID NOT, HOWEVER, FEEL THAT THE COMMITMENT RAN TO A SUICIDE PACT, AND REPEATED THAT "REVOLUTIONARY SUICIDE" WAS SUICIDE AT THE POINT OF A GUN. HE INDICATED THAT SUCH [illegible] BELIEVERS COULD BE INDUCED TO COMMIT SUICIDE BUT DISCOUNTED THE IDEA THAT THERE WOULD BE MASS SUICIDE IN OTHER AREAS. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HE WAS SURPRISED AT SHARON AMOS' ACTION. STATED THAT THE DOCTOR, NAMED "LARRY", AND HIS NURSE HAD BROUGHT UP UNSPECIFIED POISON IN "A TUB", AND WERE PREPARED TO ADMINIST

IT TO THE INHABITANTS OF JONESTOWN. THE POISON WAS TO BE SPRAYED INTO THE MOUTES OF THE CHILDREN, AND THOSE WHO RESISTED WERE TO BE SHOT, HE ALLEGED. WHEN ASKED WHY SPRAYED INTO THE MOUTES", HE REPLIED THAT HE DIDN'T KNOW, NOR DID HE KNOW THE TYPE OF POISON REFERRED TO.
12. TOWARD THE END OF THE CONVERSATION LANE STATED THAT THE DOCTOR, LARRY, WAS NOT ALLOWED TO HANDLE ANY DRUGS, SINCE HE WAS A FORMER ADDICT. THE NURSE HANDLED ALL DRUGS. HE THEN ASKED RHETORICALLY IF WE KNEW THAT JONES WAS TAKING SHOTS INTRAVANOUSLY FOR THE LAST SEVERAL WEEKS, AND SAID THAT HE WAS NOT UNDER MEDICATION FOR HIS HEALTH. REFERRING BACK TO HIS DESCRIPTION OF PANCHO'S EUPHORIC STATE WHEN THE GUNS AND AMMUNITION WERE TAKEN OUT, ONE OFFICIAL ASKED IF PANCHO AND PERHAPS THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE HAD TAKEN DRUGS ON THE EVENTFUL DAY. HE REPLIED BY SAYING THAT HE HAD BEEN WARNED (TIME UNSPECIFIED) NEVER TO EAT GRILLED CHEESE SANDWICHES OR DRINK MILK SHAKES THERE. THAT IS WHAT WAS

1. AMBA CALLED PRIME MINISTER EARLY MORNING TO DISCUSS DEVELOPING JONESTOWN TRAGEDY NOVEMBER 20. (DURING THE NIGHT NOV. 19/20 GDF AND GUYANA PLICE HAD ENTERED JONESTOWN AND ESTABLISHED AS MANY AS 300 TO 400 DEAD IN THE COMMUNITY.) AMBASSADOR SUGGESTED TO PRIME MINISTER THAT IN ORDER TO COME TO GRIPS WITH THIS CALAMITY IT WOULD BE USEFUL TO CREATE TASK FORCE THAT COULD BE IN CONTINUOUS TOUCH TO MAKE NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS IN DAYS AHEAD. PRIME MINISTER IMMEDIATELY CRIATED A TASK FORCE COMPOSED OF MINISTER OF HEALTH, HOUSING AND LABOR HAMILTON GREEN (CHAIRMAN), FOREIGN MINISTER RASHLEIGH JACKSON, AND MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS VIBERT MINGO. FIRST MEETING WAS SET FOR 0945.

2. AMBASSADOR AND ACTING DCM VICTOR DIKEOS ARRIVED AT MINISTER

GREEN'S OFFICE FOR THE TASK FORCE'S FIRST MEETING. ALSO PRESENT WERE COMMANDER OF THE GUYANESE DEFENSE FORCE BRIGADIER PRICE, POLICE COMMISSION BARKER, GDF COLONEL JOSEPH SIGH (WHO HAD COMMANDED THE MOVEMENT INTO GEORGETOWN), AS WELL AS THE PERMANENT SECRETARY FOR THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE.

3. GREEN OPENED THE MEETING BY NOTING THAT THE MOST IMMEDIATE PROBLEM SEEMED TO BE THE DISPOSITION OF THE 300 TO 400 RAPIDLY DECOMPOSING CADAVERS AT JONESTOWN. HE OUTLINED BRIEFLY TO THE GROUP THE PRIMITIVE COMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTATION LINKAGES FROM GEORGETOWN TO THE JONESTOWN AREA. HE ALSO SAID THAT AN ADDITIONAL CASUALTY DURING THE ATTACK ON CONGRESSMAN RYAN WAS THE GUYANA AIRWAYS AIRCRAFT WHICH HAD TAKEN HIM TO PORT KAITUMA. IT WAS NOW SERIOUSLY DAMAGED AND OBVIOUSLY OUT SERVICE FOR SOME TIME. AS OF NOW GUYANA AIRWAYS CORPORATION WHICH FURNISHES INTERNAL DOMESTIC AIR SERVICE IN GUYANA IS VITUALLY

OUT OF BUSINESS. THE MINISTER ASKED WHETHER OR NOT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WOULD BE IN A POSITION TO LOAN TO THE GOG TWO OTTER AIRCRAFT (GAC KNOWS AND FLIES OTTERS ON ITS INTERNAL ROUTES) FOR A TEMPORARY PERIOD TO ENABLE THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA TO RESTORE DOMESTIC AIR SERVICES. AMBASSADOR SAID THAT HE WOULD TRANSMIT THIS REQUEST TO WASHINGTON.

4. AMBASSADOR OUTLINED FOR THE GROUP WHAT THE U.S. WAS INTENDING TO DO: ITEM: WE WERE BRINGING IN ADDITIONAL MEDEVAC C-141 DURING THE DAY OF NOV. 29. ITEM: WE WERE IN THEPROCESS OF BRINGING TWO UH1AS INTO THE COUNTRY ALONG WITH AN L21. ITEM: TO HANDLE THE TRANSPORT OF THE BODIES FROM JONESTON TO TIMEERI AIRPORT FOR EVENTUAL TRANSSPORT TO THE US.S. WE WERE PROPOSING TO BRING IN 12 HELICOPTERS PLUS SUPPORT AND OPERATING PERSONNEL. ITEM: IN RESPONSE TO GOG POLICE AND GDG MATERIAL REQUESTS, WE WERE BRINGING IN EQUIPMENT FOR THESE TWO SERVICES.

5. MINISTER PROPOSED SENDING INITIAL TEAM UP TO JONESTOWN TO MAKE OVERALL ASSESSMENT OF PROBLEM AT 13:30 LOCAL NOV. 29. HE OFFERED TWO SPACES TO U.S. EMBASSY AND AMBASSADOR DESIGNATED ACTING DCM DIKEOS AND TDY CONSUL JOHN NASH TO ACCOMPANY. AN ADDITIONAL GROUND TRIP BY THE ONE REMAINING OTTER IN THE GOG INVENTORY WILL BE MADE MID-AFTERNOON AND WILL CARRY MEDIBAL PERSONNEL WHO WILL ATTEMPT TO BEGIN PROCESSING THE BODIES. (GOG HAS IN MIND TO SEPARATE POISON VICTIMS FROM GUNSHOT VICTIMS AND PERFORM SPOT AUTOPSIES ON RANDOMLY SELECTED BODIES IN EACH GROUP FOR PURPOSES OF THEIR INVESTIGATION. OBVIOUSLY THERE IS NO INTENTION TO PERFORM AUTOPSIES ON ALL BODIES.) GOG HOPES TO BE ABLE TO PHOTOGRAPH AND FINGERPRINT ALL OF THE VICTIMS.

6. WE WILL BE REPORTING FURTHER AS SOON AS ACTING DEPUTY CHIEF OF MISSION DIKEOS RETURNS FROM JONESTOWN AREA. SEPARATE FROM THE TWO FLIGHTS REFERRED TO ABOVE EMBASSY HAS ON ITS OWN CHARTERED THE ONE AVAILABLE CESSNA 402 IN COUNTRY AND IS SENDING USAF COMMO TEAM, WHICH ARRIVED NIGHT NOV. 19, TO JONESTOWN AT 1:30 P.M. LOCAL NOV 29. AMBASSADOR AND CONSUL HAVE BRIEFED MILITARY PEOPLE ON WHAT TO EXPECT IN WAY OF TRANSPORTATION PROBLEMS AND LIVING CONDITIONS ON ARRIVAL. COMMO TEAM IS, HOPEFULLY, SELF-CONTAINED AND SELF-SUSTAINING, AT LEAST FOR 3-DAY PERIOD.

1. AT 1740 HRS LOCAL, POLICE COMMISSIONER LLOYD BARKER INFORMED EMBASSY PEOPLES' TEMPLE (PT) LEADER JAMES JONES, HIS WIFE, ONE SON, AND ELEVEN MEMBERS OF HIS BODYGUARD WERE IDENTIFIED AS AMONG THE DEAD AT JONESTOWN. BARKER SAID THAT REV. JONES HAD A BULLET IN THE HEAD. POLICE SUSPECT THAT AN ARGUMENT MAY HAVE DEVELOPED OVER A LARGE SUM OF MONEY THAT JONES INTENDED TO REMOVE FROM JONESTOWN AND HE MAY HAVE BEEN EXECUTED.
2. FYI: ACCORDING TO BARKER THE NATIONAL POLICE DISPATCHED A SIX-MAN TEAM TO JONESTOWN ON 20 NOVEMBER ALONG WITH SEVERAL PT ESCAPEES FROM JONESTOWN TO AID IN IDENTIFICATION EFFORTS. AMONG THE POLICE TECHNICIANS WERE TWO PHOTOGRAPHERS AND TWO FINGER-PRINT TECHNICIANS.

1. EMBASSY AGREES ENTIRELY WITH THE COURSE OF ACTION SET FORTH IN REFTEL. EYE WITNESS REPORTS BY ACTING DCM VICTOR DIKEOS AND CONSUL JOHN ADAMS HAD ALREADY CONFIRMED THAT THE SITUATION AT JONESTOWN IS ALREADY CRITICAL, PARTICULARLY IN TERMS OF THE POTENTIAL HEALTH HAZARD AND THE PROBLEM OF IDENTIFICATION OF REMAINS.
2. AMBASSADOR IS REQUESTING URGENT APPOINTMENT WITH [redacted] MINISTER HAMILTON GREEN, CHAIRMAN OF THE GOG TASK FORCE. AT THIS MEETING AMBASSADOR WILL MAKE POINTS SET FORTH IN PARA 1 REFTEL. AT THE SAME TIME IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT WE BE ABLE TO ASSURE GOG THAT U.S. RESOURCES ALREADY IN COUNTRY AND THOSE DUE TO ARRIVE WITHIN THE NEXT 48 HOURS BE MADE AVAILABLE FOR THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF THE LOCAL INTERNMENT OPERATION. WE MUST NOT GIVE THE IMPRESSION THAT WE ARE NOW INCLINED TO LEAVE THIS PROBLEM FOR THE GOG TO RESOLVE ON ITS OWN. THUS WHEN SUGGESTING THE LOCAL BURIAL OPTION WITH MINISTER GREEN, I REQUEST AUTHORITY TO BE ABLE TO ASSURE HIM ON THIS POINT WHICH IS CERTAIN TO ARISE.

3. ASSUMING GOG CONCURRENCY, WE WILL THEN MOVE AT ALL POSSIBLE SPEED TO ACCOMPLISH LOCAL INTERNMENT IN COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL LAW AND WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT DISINTERNMENT WOULD BE POSSIBLE IN THE FUTURE IN INDIVIDUAL CASES IF THE NEXT OF KIN REQUESTED AND WOULD BE WILLING TO BEAR THE EXPENSE. IN ACCOMPLISHING LOCAL INTERNMENT EVERY EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO IDENTIFY THE REMAINS AND SUITABLE MARKERS FOR THE INDIVIDUAL GRAVES WILL BE SET IN PLACE. IT MUST BE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT SEVERAL OF THE BODIES HAVE DECOMPOSED TO THE POINT WHERE IDENTIFICATION WILL BE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT OR IMPOSSIBLE. WE MUST BE PREPARED, THEREFORE, FOR THE POSSIBILITY THAT AS MANY AS 20-25 PERCENT OF THE BODIES MAY NEVER BE IDENTIFIED.

4. UNDOUBTEDLY THE LOCAL INTERNMENT OPTION WILL NOT BE POPULAR IN SOME QUARTERS. NEVERTHELESS, IN VIEW OF THE ACUTE HEALTH PROBLEM THAT IS GROWING WITH EVERY PASSING HOUR, THAT OPTION SEEMS TO US TO BE ENTIRELY DEFENSIBLE ON HEALTH AND HUMANITARIAN GROUNDS. THE DEPARTMENT SHOULD BE AWARE THAT GEORGETOWN IS STILL FLOODED WITH FOREIGN PRESS IN SEARCH OF ANY STORY IN CONNECTION WITH THIS DISASTER. WERE THEY TO HAVE AN IMPRESSION THAT THE USG IS BACKING AWAY FROM ITS ORIGINAL COMMITMENT TO BE DIRECTLY AND IMPORTANTLY INVOLVED WITH THE DISPOSITION OF REMAINS, THEY WOULD BE QUICK TO FOCUS ON THAT. FURTHERMORE, WE HAVE ALREADY SOME NEXT OF KIN ARRIVING IN GEORGETOWN FROM THE U.S. BECAUSE OF THE INACCESSIBILITY OF JONESTOWN. THEY HAVE BEEN PRESSING US TO PROVIDE TRANSPORTATION TO THE SITE AND IN SOME CASES MAY BE REQUESTING IMMEDIATE SHIPMENT OF REMAINS TO THE U.S. THIS IS OBVIOUSLY BEYOND ANY GUYANESE FUNEREAL CAPABILITY. IT IS IMPORTANT THEREFORE THAT THEY BE MADE AWARE THAT THE USG IS MOVING PROMPTLY, WITH THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT, TO ARRANGE LOCAL INTERNMENT IN A DIGNIFIED MATTER.

GOG THROUGH BRIGADIER PRICE, COMMANDER OF THE GDF, HAS REQUESTED ANY ASSISTANCE WE MIGHT BE ABLE TO GIVE IN AN EFFORT TO LOCATE UNDERGROUND BUNKERS AT JONESTOWN. PRICE SAID THERE WAS NO CERTAIN EVIDENCE OF THE EXISTENCE OF THESE BUNKERS. HOWEVER, GIVEN THE DISCREPANCY BETWEEN THE 400 PLUS BODIES AT JONESTOWN AND THE SUPPOSED POPULATION OF 1100, GOG OBVIOUSLY WISHES TO EXPLORE ALL AVENUES IN AN EFFORT TO EXPLAIN SHORTFALL.

SUBJ: REQUEST FOR EQUIPMENT BY GOG DIRECTOR OF CIVIL AVIATION

1. ROBERT ROBERTS, DIRECTOR OF GOG CIVIL AVIATION, HAS SUBMITTED THREE LISTS OF EQUIPMENT SET OUT BELOW, FOR THE USE OF THE GUYANA AIRWAYS CORPORATION (GAC) AND/OR GUYANA DEFENCE FORCE (GDF) AIR COMMAND.

2. THE FIRST LIST OF EQUIPMENT IS TO ALLOW THE GAC, WHICH IS RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL COMMERICAL CIVILIAN AIRCRAFT OPERATIONS WITHIN GUYANA, TO RESUME NORMAL OPERATIONS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT GAC LOST THE USE OF ONE TWIN OTTER AIRCRAFT AS A RESULT OF THE SHOOTING INCIDENT AT PORT KAITUMA ON NOV. 1ST. GAC IS REQUESTING NOT ONLY A REPLACEMENT FOR THE AIRCRAFT, BUT ALSO AN ADDITIONAL BACK-UP AIRCRAFT WHICH CAN BE USED IN THEIR NORMAL OPERATIONS TO PORT KAITUMA.

3. THE SECOND LIST OF EQUIPMENT CONSISTS OF SPARE PARTS FOR HELICOPTERS OPERATED BY THE GDF AIR COMMAND ROTOR WING.

4. THE THIRD LIST CONSISTS OF EQUIPMENT TO FACILITATE EVACUATION EFFORTS IN THE MATTHEWS RIDGE AND PORT KAITUMA. IN REGARD TO THE THIRD LIST, ROBERTS HAS ADVISED THAT BECAUSE

OF THE CURRENT RAINY SEASON THE AIRSTRIP AT MTTTHEWS RIDGE CAN HANDLE C-130 AIRCRAFT ONLY IF REINFORCED RUNWAY MATTING IS PROVIDED. IF THE RUNWAY MATTING IS NOT AVAILABLE, ROBERTS RECOMMENDS USE OF A DEHAVILLAND BUFFALO AIRCRAFT OR USAAF C-123B (PROVIDER) FOR EVACUATION PURPOSES.

5. EMBASSY RECOMMENDS FAVORABLE USG CONSIDERATION OF THIS REQUEST. WE WILL ATTEMPT TO RATIONALIZE DUPLICATIONS OR QUESTIONABLE ITEMS.

6. EQUIPMENT FOR GAC:
TWO (2) SERIES 300 TWIN OTTER AIRCRAFT WITH LOW AIRFRAME AND ENGINE HOURS, FITTED WITH UTILITY SEATS
ONE(1) SPARE ENGINE AND PROPELLER FOR EACH OF ABOVE AIRCRAFT
ONE(1) AVIONICS SPARE PACKAGE FOR EACH OF ABOVE AIRCRAFT..

1. AT APPROXIMATELY 5:15 P.M. LOCAL AMBASSADOR RECEIVED MESSAGE CONVEYED OUT OF CABINET IN RESPONSE TO EARLIER REQUEST HE HAD MADE BY MINISTER HAMILTON GREEN THAT THE BODIES IN JONESTOWN BE INTERRED LOCALLY. THE MESSAGE WAS THAT CABINET HAD DECIDED THAT THEY WOULD LI F ALL OF THE BODIES RETURNED TO THE U.S. AND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. TO ASSIST IN THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF THIS, THE GOVERNMENT WAS PREPARED TO RELAX NORMAL REGULATIONS SUCH AS THE IDENTIFICIATION OF BODIES. THE PRINCIPAL REASON GIVEN FOR THE REFUSAL TO PERMIT LOCAL INTERMENT WAS GOG'S FEAR THAT THERE WOULD BE SUCH A FLOOD OF NEXT-OF-KIN WISHING TO VISIT THE JONESTOWN BURIAL SITE AND ASKING FOR THE DIS-INTERMENT OF BODIES OF THEIR RELATIVES THAT IT WOULD OVER TAX THE GOVERNMENT'S TRANSPORTATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE FACILITIES IN THAT PART OF GUYANA.

SITES. IF IDENTIFICATION CANNOT BE ESTABLISHED, BURIAL SHOULD BE DELAYED UNTIL EVERY EFFORT AT FORENSIC IDENTIFICATION HAS BEEN MADE. THE DEPARTMENT ALSO REQUESTS THAT GUYANESE DEATH CERTIFICATES BE ISSUED IN EACH POSSIBLE CASE. IT IS OUR VIEW THAT SUCH CERTIFICATES SHOULD NOT ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH THE CAUSES OF DEATH EXCEPT IN CASES WHERE A THOROUGH, CONCLUSIVE AUTOPSY OR CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION IDENTIFIES THE EXACT CAUSES OF DEATH, INCLUDING DISTINCTIONS BETWEEN HOMICIDE AND SUICIDE. THE EMBASSY SHOULD SUGGEST TO THE GOG THAT CAUSES OF DEATH THAT CANNOT BE DETERMINED SHOULD BE CERTIFIED AS "UNKNOWN."

SUBJECT: LIST OF PT MEMBERS FROM GUIANESE IMMIGRATION RECORDS
FOLLOWING IS A MULTI-SECTION MESSAGE LISTING PEO MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE GRANTED PERMANENT RESIDENCE BY THE GOG. THE LIST WAS OBTAINED FROM THE IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT. OUR ESTIMATE IS THAT IT COMPRISES A VIRTUALLY COMPLETE LIST OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE GUYANA OPERATION. WE ARE PROVIDING THIS LISTING AS AVAILABLE. FIRST OF THE ALPHABETICAL LISTS CONTAINS THE NAMES OF ALL WHO WERE UNDER SIXTEEN AT THE TIME OF THEIR ARRIVAL IN GUAYANA. (GOG IMMIGRATION CONSIDERS UNDER 16 AS CHILDREN FOR RECORDS-KEEPING PURPOSES.) OTHER, LONGER LIST IS THE ADULT LIST WHICH IS BEING TRANSMITTED IN PARTS AS IT COMES OUT OF THE TYPEWRITER.

1. THE DEPARTMENT HAS RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING LETTER FROM CONGRESSMAN CLEMENT J. ZABLOCKI, CHAIRMAN, COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVE, DATED NOVEMBER 21, 1978.

QUOTE: DEAR MR. SECRETARY:

THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS ARE DEEPLY DISTRESSED AND CONCERNED OVER THE TRAGEDY WHICH BEFELL THE MISSION TO GUYANA HEADED BY THE LATE HON. LEO J. RYAN. AS YOU KNOW, THERE HAVE BEEN ALLEGATIONS THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE WAS NEGLIGENT IN THIS AFFAIR. IN DETERMINING WHAT STEPS MIGHT BE TAKEN IN THE WAKE OF THIS MATTER, THE COMMITTEE INTENDS TO LOOK INTO ALL OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH MIGHT HAVE A BEARING ON THIS TRAGIC INCIDENT. IT IS THEREFORE, ESSENTIAL THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE COOPERATE FULLY WITH THE COMMITTEE IN THE CONDUCT OF THIS INQUIRY.

SPECIFICALLY, WE REQUEST A COPY OF THE FOLLOWING: ALL CABLE TRAFFIC BETWEEN THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN GUYANA AND THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE REGARDING THE ACTIVITIES OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE CHURCH AND ITS AGRICULTURAL COMMUNE IN JONESTOWN SINCE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FACILITY IN GUYANA; AND ALL COMMUNICATIONS ON THE ACTIVITIES OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE CHURCH WHICH THE DEPARTMENT HAS RECEIVED FROM THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION AND OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCIES.

ADDITIONALLY, WE NEED ANSWERS TO THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS (UNLESS SUCH ANSWERS ARE CONTAINED IN THE MATERIALS REQUESTED ABOVE):

1. TO WHAT EXTENT WERE THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND THE AMERICAN EMBASSY IN GEORGETOWN, GUYANA, AWARE OF THE POTENTIAL PHYSICAL DANGER TO THE RYAN DELEGATION OF A VISIT BY THEM TO JONESTOWN?

2. WHAT ADVICE DID THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND THE EMBASSY

REPORTED THAT HE PERFORMED A PARTIAL AUTOPSY ON A BODY IDENTIFIED TO HIM AS BEING THAT OF BISHOP JIM JONES AT JONESTOWN ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1978. HE SAID THERE WAS A SMALL BULLET ENTRY WOUND ABOVE THE RIGHT EAR, WITH A LARGE,
4 CENTIMETER EXIT WOUND BEHIND THE LEFT EAR. THE WOUNDS APPEARED TO BE SELF-INFLICTED, USING A SMALL PISTOL WHICH WAS FOUND LYING ON THE VICTIM'S CHEST. DR. MOOTOO SAID HE ALSO TESTED FOR POISON AND THERE WAS NOT EVIDENCE THAT HE HAD TAKEN ANY. A COMPLETE AUTOPSY WAS NOT DONE AS THE CAUSE OF DEATH WAS OBVIOUS. UNQUOTE.

SUNDAY HAD DISCOVERED 333 BODIES AND THE TOLL "SUBSEQUENTLY HAS RISEN TO 775 AND POSSIBLY MORE." LATER IN HIS SPEECH, THE DEPUTY PRIMEMINISTER ANNOUNCED THAT ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA RECORDS THE PEOPLES TEMPLE POPULATION IN GUYANA WAS 915 PERSONS.

3. IN SPEAKING OF THE U.S. ROLE IN ASSISTING WITH THE JONESTOWN DISASTER, REID SAID THAT THE U.S. AND THE GOG HAD AGREED, AS SOON AS THE DIMENSIONS OF THE TRAGEDY HAD BEEN MADE MANIFEST, ON AREAS OF COOPERATION AND COLLABORATION. HE EXPLAINED THE DECISION TO REPATRIATE THE REMAINS BY SAYING THAT THE GOG WISHED TO SPARE THE NEXT-OF-KIN THE LONG AND EXPENSIVE TRIP TO GUYANA, AND, FURTHERMORE, THE U.S. HAD THE TECHNICAL MEANS TO POSITIVELY IDENTIFY REMAINS ABOVE AND BEYOND THE 193 WHICH THE GUYANA POLICE HAD BEEN ABLE TO IDENTIFY.

THREE CHILDREN, REID IMPLIED THAT THE CHARGE OF MURDER WOULD SOON BE BROUGHT AGAINST A PRIME SUSPECT, WHOM HE DID NOT IDENTIFY.

5. IN EXPLAINING HOW THE PEOPLES TEMPLE HAD COME TO GUYANA, REID SAID THAT THE GROUP HAD BEEN INTRODUCED BY A FORMER GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA HONORARY CONSUL IN LOS ANGELES. BECAUSE OF THE GROUP'S INTERESTS WHICH SEEMED TO BE IN THE FIELD OF AGRICULTURE AND SOCIAL SERVICE, A DECISION WAS MADE TO LEASE TO PEOPLES TEMPLE 3,000 ACRES IN THE NORTHWEST DISTRICT.

6. OTHER ITEMS COVERED IN THE SPEECH WERE:

(A) THE POSITIVE IDENTIFICATION OF JAMES JONES HAS BEEN CONFIRMED BY THE US GOVERNMENT.

(B) FOUR (4) LICENSES FOR FIREARMS HAD BEEN ISSUED TO RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN. (SINCE THE INCIDENT REID ADMITTED IT HAD COME TO LIGHT THAT THERE WERE OTHER UNREGISTERED ARMS IN JONESTOWN. BUT HE OBSERVED THAT "THE CULPRITS ARE PROBABLY BEYOND OUR REACH.")

(C) THERE WAS THE PROMISE THAT FURTHER FORMAL CHARGES AGAINST INDIVIDUALS IN CONNECTION WITH THESE INCIDENTS WOULD BE MADE IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

(D) REID EXPRESSED THE SINCERE CONDOLENCES OF HIS GOVERNMENT AND THE PEOPLE OF GUYANA TO THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND PARTICULARLY TO THE FAMILY OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN.

7. COMMENT: REID'S REMARKS SHOWED EVIDENCE OF HASTY PREPARATION AND PROBABLY HASTY REWORKING IN LIGHT OF THE NEW NUMBERS ON TOTAL CASUALTIES WHICH BECAME AVAILABLE NOVEMBER 24. IN ANY EVENT IN VIEW OF THE TIMING OF HIS STATEMENT LATEST FIGURES WERE AVAILABLE TO THE PRESS BOTH IN GEORGETOWN AND WASHINGTON ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY. THE SESSION OF PARLIAMENT WAS ATTENDED BY MOST OF THE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS NOW IN GEORGETOWN.

2. ON SUNDAY SEPT 12, 1979, I WAS CONTACTED BY A MR JOSEPH MAZOR. HE IS A PRIVATE-INVESTIGATOR FROM CALIFORNIA ON HIS WAY TO CHECK OUT JONESTOWN FOR A MOVIE PRODUCER (PAUL JERICHO). MR MAZOR VISITED MY HOME AND TOLD ME THAT HE WAS A LONG-STANDING ADVERSARY OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE WHO HAD ONCE ENTERED GUYANA WITH THE SPECIFIC INTENT TO REPATRIATE CERTAIN CHILDREN FROM JONESTOWN. SINCE MAZOR WAS A PROFESSIONAL INVESTIGATOR I ASKED HIM TO CALL ON ME AGAIN AFTER HE VISITED THE AGRICULTURAL PROJECT AS HE EXPECTED TO DO AND GIVE ME HIS IMPRESIONS.

3. MAZOR APPARENTLY VISITED JONESTOWN FROM THE 11TH UNTIL THE 13TH AND CALLED ON ME IN MY OFFICE ON THE 14TH. HE REPORTED THAT HE HAD TRAVELED ALL OVER JONESTOWN AT WILL AND WAS UNESCORTED DURING MOST OF HIS VISIT. THAT HE SPOKE TO WHOMEVER HE WISHED, AND THAT NO ONE WANTED TO LEAVE. HE SAID THAT HE OFFERED 35-40 SPECIFIC PERSONS THE CHANCE TO LEAVE WITH HIM, BUT NONE ACCEPTED. HE SAID THAT ALL OF THE RESIDENTS SEEMED GENUINELY HAPPY THERE AND CITED RESPONSES SUCH AS "WHAT DO I HAVE BACK IN THE U.S.? ETC.

4. HE COMMENTED THAT EVERYONE APPEARED WELL-FED, THAT THE "OLD FOLKS" WERE WELL TENDED BY THE YOUNG, AND THAT MEDICAL FACILITIES AND PUBLIC HEALTH PROCEDURES WERE GOOD. HE COMMENTED THAT THE COMMUNITY APPEARED TO BE GROWING MUCH OF ITS OWN FOOD AND EVEN PRESERVING SOME PRODUCE IN CLEAN VACUUM-PACKED 55 GALLON DRUMS.

5. HE SAW TWO .38 CAL HANDGUNS ONLY, WHICH HE SAID WERE KEPT AT THE PIGGERY AND USED FOR SLAUGHTERING HOGS. THEY HAD NO OTHER WEAPONS, EXCEPT AXES, AND HE SAW NO BARBED WIRE. THE GROUP RELATED A STORY ABOUT BEING FIRED UPON FROM THE OUTSIDE IN APRIL OR MAY AND INDICATED CONCERN THAT THEY

6. HIS OVERALL IMPRESSION WAS VERY POSITIVE. HE SAID SOMETHING TO THE EFFECT THAT WHILE ALLEGATIONS OF FINANCIAL MISCONDUCT BACK IN CALIFORNIA IN PRECEDING YEARS MAY BE TRUE, JONESTOWN ITSELF WAS A MARVEL OF SIGNIFICANT SCOPE.

7. COMMENT: MAJOR'S CHANGE OF ATTITUDE WAS SURPRISING. HE WENT AWAY WITH NOTHING BUT POSITIVE IMPRESSIONS OF THE JONESTOWN PROJECT AND THE NATURE OF THE COMMUNITY. HE NO

SUBJECT: TRANSCRIPT OF THE SPECIAL ON-THE-RECORD BRIEFING BY JOHN A. BUSHNELL, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY, ARA ON THE GUYANA INCIDENT, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1978

1. MR. BUSHNELL: I HAVE BEEN HANDLING THE TASK FORCE WHICH WE HAVE SET UP OVER THE WEEKEND TO MANAGE THE SITUATION IN GUYANA.

I MIGHT START BY TRYING IN VERY BROAD SWEEP TO GIVE YOU SEE SITUATION IN A PREPARED STATEMENT AND THEN I'LL RESPOND TO YOUR QUESTIONS. THIS CAN ALL BE ON THE RECORD.

WE KNOW NOW THAT THERE HAS BEEN A GREAT CALAMITY IN GUYANA INVOLVING A LARGE NUMBER OF AMERICAN CITIZENS. THERE HAVE BEEN COLDBLOODED MURDERS AND APPARENTLY MANY SUICIDES. YESTERDAY WE MANAGED TO EVACUATE THE INJURED FROM THE ATTACKS ON THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION AT PORT KAITUMA. TODAY OUR ATTENTION IS CONCENTRATED ON THE SITUATION IN JONESTOWN, THE CENTER FOR THE PEOPLES TEMPLE IN GUYANA. THE ENTIRE SITUATION IS COMPLICATED BY THE VERY LARGE LOGISTICAL PROBLEMS. JONESTOWN IS ABOUT 150 MILES FROM GEORGETOWN, THE CAPITAL, BY AIR. THERE ARE ONLY A COUPLE OF VERY SMALL DIRT STRIPS IN THE AREA, AND THEY ARE SEVERAL MILES FROM THE COMPOUND ON THE CENTER OF JONESTOWN ITSELF. THIS MORNING THE SITUATION WAS FURTHER COMPLICATED BY TORRENTIAL RAINS. WE EXPECT SHORTLY TO HAVE OFFICIAL AMERICAN PERSONNEL IN JONESTOWN. IN FACT, I'VE JUST TALKED TO THE AMBASSADOR IN GEORGETOWN AND HE BELIEVES THAT SOME AMERICAN PERSONNEL HAVE NOW ARRIVED IN JONESTOWN; AND WE HOPE WITHIN A COUPLE OF HOURS TO HAVE ADEQUATE RADIO COMMUNICATION WITH THEM. WE DO NOT HAVE THAT AT THE MOMENT. AT THE MOMENT WE HAVE THE INFORMATION PASSED TO OUR EMBASSY BY THE GUYANESE POLICE WHO ENTERED JONESTOWN LAST NIGHT. THIS IS FRAGMENTARY AND INCOMPLETE BUT INDICATES A NUMBER OF DEAD CURRENTLY ESTIMATED BY THE GUYANESE POLICE AT ABOUT 400.

THROUGHOUT THIS INCIDENT, THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA HAS BEEN COOPERATING FULLY WITH US. THUS FAR ALL THE REPORTS INDICATE THAT THE INCIDENTS ONLY INVOLVE AMERICANS. OF COURSE, MAJOR CRIMES HAVE BEEN COMMITTED IN GUYANESE TERRITORY AND THAT GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZES ITS RESPONSIBILITIES IN THIS AREA.

EARLY ON IN THIS CRISIS, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT OFFER-

UNCLASSIFIED

ED WHATEVER ASSISTANCE MIGHT BE NEEDED TO THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT . GIVEN THE MAGNITUDE OF THE PROBLEM, THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT HAS ASKED US FOR ASSISTANCE, PARTICULARLY IN THE FIELD OF TRANSPORTATION, AND WE ARE MAKING URGENT ARRANGEMENTS TO INTRODUCE MILITARY HELICOPTERS INTO THE AREA. WE ARE ALSO SUPPLYING A NUMBER OF OTHER NON-LETHAL ITEMS, SUCH AS RADIOS, TO THE GUYANESE POLICE AND SECURITY FORCES OPERATING IN THE JONESTOWN AREA.

ALTHOUGH A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF AMERICAN — LARGELY MILITARY — PERSONNEL WILL BE INVOLVED IN THE SUPPORT OPERATION, AT THIS POINT THE PRIMARY LEGAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR BRINGING THOSE WHO ARE GUILTY TO JUSTICE REMAINS WITH THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT. AS I HAVE SAID, THEY ARE COOPERATING FULLY WITH US AND HAVE FORMED THIS MORNING A CABINET-LEVEL COMMITTEE TO COORDINATE THEIR EFFORTS IN THIS VERY UNFORTUNATE SITUATION THAT HAS OCCURRED ON THEIR TERRITORY.

Q COULD YOU SAY — YOUR COMMENT ABOUT THE MAJOR CRIMES COMMITTED AND THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZES ITS E-SPONSIBILITY — DO YOU MEAN BY THAT THAT YOU HAVE HAD DISCUSSIONS WITH THEM REGARDING THE EXTRADITION OF ANY OF THESE PEOPLE UNDER THE TREATY THAT WE HAVE WITH GUYANA?

A. WE HAVE NOT AT THIS POINT HAD ANY DISCUSSIONS ON EXTRADITION. THE EVIDENCE — THE FACTS THAT WE HAVE — I WOULDN'T CALL IT "EVIDENCE" AT THIS POINT — THE FACT THAT WE HAVE INDICATED THAT CRIMES SUCH AS MURDER HAVE TAKEN PLACE IN GUYANA. THESE ARE CRIMES IN GUYANA; THEY ARE NOT CRIMES IN THE UNITED STATES. AND INITIALLY THIS WOULD INVOLVE TRIAL UNDER THE GUYANESE LAW AND PROCEDURES, AND THEY RECOGNIZE THAT SITUATION.

IT IS CONCEIVABLE THAT THERE ARE CRIMES THAT HAVE

UNCLASSIFIED

TAKEN PLACE IN THE UNITED STATES, PARTICULARLY INVOLVING SUCH ISSUES AS CONSPIRACY. THAT QUESTION IS UNDER INVESTIGATION BY OUR LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES. CONCEIVABLY, THAT COULD RESULT AT SOME POINT IN A REQUEST FOR EXTRADITION. BUT THAT IS A MORE UNCERTAIN SITUATION THAN THE SITUATION WE HAVE ON THE GROUND THERE TODAY.

Q. I WANT TO FOLLOW UP THAT POINT SPECIFICALLY BECAUSE MR. HOLSINGER, WHO I UNDERSTAND IS AN AIDE TO THE LATE CONGRESSMAN RYAN, HAS ALREADY CHARGED THAT THE STATE

UNCLASSIFIED

DEPARTMENT IGNORED REQUESTS — OR, RATHER, THAT THE GUYANAN GOVERNMENT IGNORED US COURT ORDER REQUESTS THAT JONES BE EXTRADITED. DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT THAT AT ALL?

A. TO MY KNOWLEDGE, THERE WAS NOT AN OFFICIAL REQUEST COMMUNICATED IN THE NORMAL WAY FOR THE EXTRADITION OF JONES FROM GUYANA. I WOULD SAY ON THIS SUBJECT THAT THERE HAVE BEEN A NUMBER OF LEGAL PROBLEMS WHICH HAVE ARISEN IN THE INTERFACE BETWEEN LARGE NUMBERS OF AMERICANS AND THE GUYANESE SYSTEM. THESE HAVE PARTICULARLY INVOLVED THE CUSTODIANSHIP OF CHILDREN WHO WERE IN THE COLONY IN GUYANA WHILE ONE OR ANOTHER PARENT OR RELATIVE WISHED TO CLAIM THEM. ACTION HAS BEEN TAKEN IN SOME OF THESE CASES IN GUYANESE COURTS, AND THIS HAS BEEN AN ISSUE OF SOME DISCUSSION FROM TIME TO TIME — CERTAINLY BETWEEN OUR EMBASSY AND THE GUYANESE AUTHORITIES — BUT I KNOW OF NO FORMAL EXTRADITION REQUEST HAVING BEEN MADE FOR MR. JONES.

Q. MR. ECLSINGER ALSO SAID, MR. BUSHNELL, YESTERDAY THAT CONGRESSMAN RYAN WAS VERY CONCERNED AND HAD COMPLAINED TO HIS STAFF THAT THE INFORMATION COMING FROM OUR EMBASSY THERE WAS INADEQUATE — THAT HE WAS GETTING LESS THAN THE IN-DEPTH ANALYSIS THAT HE WAS REQUESTING BASED UPON REPORTS

FROM HIS CONSTITUENTS THAT THEY HAD RELATIVES WHO WERE BEING HELD INVOLUNTARILY IN THE ENCAMPMENT.

A. LET ME JUST SAY THAT THE CONSULAR SECTION OF OUR EMBASSY HAS MADE REGULAR VISITS TO JONESTOWN IN ORDER TO PROVIDE CONSULAR SERVICES. BECAUSE OF THE SUBSTANTIAL VOLUME OF REQUESTS WHICH THEY HAD FROM AMERICAN-CITIZEN FAMILY MEMBERS SUGGESTING THAT MEMBERS OF THEIR FAMILY WERE BEING HELD IN JONESTOWN AGAINST THEIR WILL, THEY TRIED IN THESE CASES, WHERE THIS WAS BROUGHT TO THEIR ATTENTION, TO HAVE PRIVATE FACE-TO-FACE DISCUSSIONS WITH THESE PEOPLE IN JONESTOWN. THEY HAD A LARGE NUMBER, A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER — I DON'T HAVE AN EXACT FIGURE — OVER THE COURSE OF THE LAST MANY MONTHS OF SUCH DISCUSSIONS. THEY DID NOT FIND ANY CASE WHERE MEETING FACE TO FACE WITH THE PERSON IN JONESTOWN THAT THAT PERSON INDICATED THEY WERE BEING HELD THERE ANY WAY AGAINST THEIR WILL. WHAT THEY FOUND WAS REPORTED BACK TO THE CONCERNED FAMILY MEMBERS.

IT OBVIOUSLY WAS NOT POSSIBLE, GIVEN THE REMOTENESS OF JONESTOWN AND OUR LIMITED CONSULAR STAFF AND SO FORTH, TO ALWAYS RESPOND AS RAPIDLY AS CONCERNED FAMILY MEMBERS MIGHT LIKE NOR WITH AS MUCH DETAIL AS THEY MIGHT LIKE; BUT I THINK THAT IN THE CASES ON WHICH WE WERE MADE AWARE THE CONSULAR OFFICERS DID HAVE FACE-TO-FACE CONTACT IN JONESTOWN WITH THE INVOLVED FAMILY MEMBERS.

Q. MR. BUSHNELL, IS THERE ANYBODY LEFT ALIVE IN GUYANA TO EXTRADITE — ACCORDING TO THE REPORTS YOU'VE HAD?

UNCLASSIFIED
A. THERE ARE CERTAINLY A NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE
UNCLASSIFIED
BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH THE PEOPLES TEMPLE COLONY THERE WHO ARE STILL ALIVE. THERE ARE A SMALL NUMBER WHO HAVE AT THIS POINT MADE THEIR WAY INTO GEORGETOWN AND THERE ARE SOME OTHERS THAT HAVE MADE THEIR WAY TO VARIOUS POLICE POINTS IN REMOTE AREAS OF THE COUNTRY. WHETHER OR NOT ANY OF THESE PEOPLE WERE INVOLVED IN ANY OF THE DEPLORABLE CRIMINAL ACTIONS, WE HAVE NO WAY OF KNOWING AT THIS TIME. THE LAST REPORT THAT WE HAVE FROM THE GUYANESE POLICE ON THE GROUND IN JONESTOWN IS THAT THEY DO NOT -- THEY HAVE NOT FOUND ANY LIVING PERSONS THERE.
Q. WHAT ABOUT THE NINE THAT WERE SUPPOSEDLY ARRESTED?
A. I AM NOT AWARE OF SOME NUMBER OF NINE SUPPOSEDLY ARRESTED. BUT THERE ARE A NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE COME IN TO POLICE POSTS REMOTE FROM JONESTOWN, A NUMBER OF MILES FROM JONESTOWN. THESE PEOPLE ARE UNDER POLICE CUSTODY AT THE MOMENT -- IF WE WANT TO USE THE WORD "CUSTODY" -- UNTIL THE SITUATION IS SORTED OUT. WHETHER OR NOT ANY OF THEM ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY SORT OF CRIME HAS CERTAINLY NOT YET BEEN DETERMINED. THAT IS PRESUMABLY BEING LOOKED AT IN SOME RESPECT.
THERE IS ONE CASE THAT I KNOW OF -- AND THERE MAY BE OTHER CASES -- WHERE THE GUYANESE AUTHORITIES HAVE DENIED--REFUSED TO ALLOW AMERICANS ASSOCIATED WITH THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY BECAUSE OF THE POTENTIAL SUSPICION AT LEAST THAT THEY WERE INVOLVED.
SO FAR AS I KNOW, THERE IS NO-ONE-YET ARRESTED CHARGED WITH THE CRIME.
UNCLASSIFIED
Q MR. BUSHNELL, MR. HOLSINGER SAID SOME OTHER THINGS TO REPORTERS YESTERDAY. HE SAID THAT CONGRESSMAN RYAN HAD ASKED STATE TO INVESTIGATE THIS, BUT WAS ASSURED THERE WAS NO CAUSE FOR ALARM AND HE SAID DIRECTLY THEY TOLD US EVERYTHING WAS FINE AMONG THE TEMPLE FOLLOWERS IN GUYANA; THEY SAID IT WAS A PRIVATE MATTER BETWEEN PRIVATE CITIZENS AND IRAN (SIC) SHOULD NOT GET INVOLVED.
A I THINK GIVEN THE LEVEL OF UNDERSTANDABLE EMOTION THAT WE HAVE SURROUNDING THIS WHOLE ISSUE AND WE HAVE UPSTAIRS IN THE OPERATION CENTER A NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN ON THE PHONE TO RELATIVES AND SO FORTH OVER THE LAST 48 HOURS, THERE ARE A LOT OF THINGS WHICH, FORTUNATELY I MIGHT SAY, WE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT DON'T BECOME INVOLVED IN ALL THE TIME. BUT IN THE SORT OF FAMILY TENSIONS THAT ARISE, IN THIS SORT OF SITUATION, THERE IS THE FEELING FREQUENTLY THAT ONE, THAT THE GOVERNMENT, WHATEVER THE GOVERNMENT IS, AND IN THIS CASE IT TENDS TO BE OUR EMBASSY IN GUYANA, IS NOT ABLE TO SATISFY ALL OF THE QUESTIONS, ALL

UNCLASSIFIED

OF THE ASPECT, THAT CONCERN FAMILY MEMBERS RAISED. I THINK THAT IS UNDERSTANDABLE.

I WOULD SAY THAT WE HAD A SERIES OF BRIEFINGS FOR THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS STAFF BEFORE HE MADE THIS TRIP. WE POINTED OUT TO HIM, ON THE ONE HAND, THATOUR CONSULAR OFFICERS HAD BEEN REGULARLY VISITING JONESTOWN; NONE OF THEM HAD EVER BEEN MOLESTED IN ANY WAY; THESE VISITS HAD BEEN OPEN; THAT THEY HAD BEEN ABLE TO TALK TO WHOEVER THEY WANTED TO, AS I INDICATED EARLIER. NONETHELESS, WE POINTED OUT TO HIM THAT IT WAS WELL KNOWN TO HIM, AS WELL AS TO US, THAT THE CAMP HAD ARMED GUARDS; THAT IT WAS IN A VERY REMOTE AREA; VERY HARD TO REACH; THERE WAS NOT A SIGNIFICANT GUYANESE LAW ENFORCEMENT PRESENCE IN THE AREA. NONETHELESS, I THINK THAT WE HAVE CERTAINLY FOUNDIT IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT VERY DIFFICULT TO SAY TO ANY CONGRESSMAN THAT HE SHOULD NOT VISIT OTHER AMERICAN CITIZENS, PARTICULARLY

UNCLASSIFIED

THOSE WHO ARE HIS CONSTITUENTS, WHEREVER IN THE WORLD HE MIGHT FIND THEM.

WE DID FEEL THAT BECAUSE HE HAD BEEN VISITED PERSONALLY BY A NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO HAD LEFT THAT SETTLEMENT IN GUYANA AND WHO HAD FIRST-HAND INFORMATION OF WHAT WENT ON THERE — THEY HAVE ALSO VISITED US AND GIVEN US EXPLANATIONS GIVEN TO HIM — THAT, IN FACT, HE WAS AWARE OF THE SITUATION THERE; AS AWARE OF SOME OF THE PLANS AND THE PROCEDURES OF THIS GROUP OF PEOPLE; AS WE WERE.

WE DISCUSSED ALL THESE PROBLEMS WITH HIM AND HIS STAFF IN DETAIL. WE POINTED OUT THE VERY REAL LIMITS OF ANY AMERICAN EMBASSY ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD IN TERMS OF SECURITY FOR VISITING PEOPLE. BUT WE HAD TO LEAVE, AND I THINK IT WAS PROPER FOR US TO LEAVE TO HIM, THE CHOICE OF WHETHER OR NOT HE MADE THE VISIT AND THE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR DOING SO.

Q HAS THE DEPARTMENT MADE CONTACT WITH GARY AND LANE AND HAS IT LEARNED ANYTHING FROM THEM OR ANYONE ELSE AS TO WHAT SPARKED IT EXACTLY, WHAT WENT ON BEYOND WHAT WE HAVE IN THE PRESS REPORTS?

A I WOULD SAY, TO BE PERFECTLY FRANK WITH YOU, THIS MORNING SOME OF OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS IN GEORGETOWN TALKED FOR AN HOUR AND A HALF WITH MR. LANE. THEY HAVE PREPARED A REPORT, WHICH IS AT THIS POINT ARRIVING HERE. I HAVE NOT READ IT. BUT WE HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT. WE HAVE OBVIOUSLY SUBSTANTIAL PROBLEMS AND WILL HAVE OF THE PRIVACY ACT IN TERMS OF REVEALING WHAT IS IN THE CABLE TO THE PRESS EVEN AFTER WE HAVE LOOKED AT IT, BUT IT MAY GIVE US SOME ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

Q CAN YOU BE A LITTLE MORE SPECIFIC ON THE INTER-RELA-

UNCLASSIFIED

TIONSHIP BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND LOCAL AUTHORITIES? IN OTHER WORDS, YOU SPOKE BEFORE OF QUESTIONING. ARE AMERICAN OFFICIALS OR WILL THEY BE PRESENT AT SUCH QUESTIONING, PARTICIPATE? IT IS SORT OF A JOINT INVESTIGATION? OR ARE YOU CONFIDENT THAT SOMEHOW, YOU KNOW, THEY ARE DOING THE JOB AND YOU WILL HEAR ABOUT IT?
HOW INTER-RELATED OR HOW INVOLVED IS THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IN THE INVESTIGATION?

A. THE BASIC RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE INVESTIGATION AND, OF COURSE, THE BASIC CAPABILITY TO DO IT IS WITH THE GUYANESE. WE HAVE OFFERRED ASSISTANCE OF VARIOUS SORTS. THEY HAVE TAKEN US UP ON THE OFFER OF PARTICULARLY TRANSPORT AND THINGS LIKE THIS. WE ANTICIPATE HAVING A NUMBER OF LEGAL ATTACHES — THOSE ARE ATTACHES OF THE FBI — GOING TO GUYANA AS SOON AS WE CAN ARRANGE IT. THESE ARE PEOPLE THAT WOULD HAVE HAD EXPERTISE WITH THE SORT OF SITUATION THAT HAS ARISEN THERE THAT COULD HELP THEM WITH INTERVIEWING AND SO FORTH.
WE HAVE INDICATED THAT WE WILL MAKE AVAILABLE LABORATORY WORK AND OTHER SORTS OF THINGS LIKE THAT FROM THE UNITED STATES.
AT THIS STAGE IN THE INVESTIGATION, WHICH IS THE VERY INITIAL STAGES, WE ARE ESSENTIALLY STANDING OPEN TO PROVIDE WHATEVER MIGHT BE USEFUL THAT THEY WOULD REQUIRE AND UNTIL THE INVESTIGATION ADVANCES WE WILL NOT KNOW PRECISELY WHAT THEY WILL BE.

Q MR. BUSHNELL, AT THIS POINT ARE YOU CLEAR AT ALL ON

UNCLASSIFIED

HOW MANY OF THE AMERICAN DEATHS THAT WERE REPORTED THIS MORNING WERE SUICIDES AND HOW MANY WERE MURDERS? WHAT DO THE GUYANESE POLICE REPORT TO YOUR PEOPLE?

A FRANKLY, WE ARE NOT CLEAR ON THAT UNTIL WE GET THE REPORTS FROM OUR OWN PEOPLE IN THAT AREA.
THE INITIAL REPORT THAT WE HAD INDICATED THAT AT LEAST MANY OR MOST OF THE BODIES WHICH THEY HAD SEEN SEEMED TO HAVE NO SIGNS OF EXTERNAL TRAUMA OR DAMAGE. THAT, HOWEVER, WAS NOT A COMPLETE INVENTORY. I WOULD NOT WANT TO RULE OUT THAT THERE ARE BODIES WITH THAT SIGN, BUT AT LEAST THE INITIAL REPORT FROM THE PEOPLE INITIALLY ARRIVING INDICATED THAT THE BODIES THAT THEY SEEM TO BE INSPECTING AND SEEING CLOSELY DID NOT HAVE ANY SIGNS OF EXTERNAL DAMAGE.

Q THAT WOULD STILL LEAVE ABOUT 700 AMERICANS NOT ACCOUNTED FOR. THERE ARE 400 BODIES AND YESTERDAY YOU PEOPLE SAID THERE WERE 1100 PEOPLE THERE.

A I WANT TO STAY AWAY, IF WE CAN, AND I THINK IT IS GOING TO RAISE A LOT OF HOPES, PERHAPS UNNECESSARILY, IN THIS COUNTRY WITH TOO MUCH OF A NUMBERSGAME.
OUR ESTIMATE OF 1100 AMERICANS IN THAT COLONY WAS AN ESTIMATE AS OF SOME MONTHS AGO. IT IS NOT SOMETHING WHICH

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

WE HAVE ANY FACILITY FOR KEEPING UP TO DATE EVERY TIME THERE IS A BIRTH, EVERY TIME ANYBODY LEAVES, AND SO FORTH.

Q JOHN, IS IT POSSIBLE TO GET A CHRONOLOGY OF CONSULAR VISITS IN RECENT MONTHS, INCLUDING THOSE THAT RELATED TO

THE SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS FROM RELATIVES?

A WE CAN PREPARE FOR YOU, I THINK, FROM THE RECORDS OF THE EMBASSY — WE WILL PROBABLY HAVE TO CONTACT THEM TO DO THIS — A LIST OF THE DATES OVER 1978, LET'S SAY, AT WHICH CONSULAR OFFICERS VISITED JONESTOWN.

IN ALL OF THESE VISITS THEY TOOK UP SOME PROBLEMS RAISED BY FAMILY MEMBERS. SO THAT, THE LIST OF VISITS WOULD INCLUDE — ALL THOSE VISITS WOULD INVOLVE THAT PROBLEM.

Q SIR, IN THOSE VISITS THAT THESE CONSULAR OFFICERS MADE, I THINK YOU SAID IN YOUR OPENING REMARKS THAT THEY HAD NOT COME UP WITH ANY INSTANCE IN WHICH IN A PRIVATE CONVERSATION WITH A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNITY THOSE PEOPLE EXPRESSED EITHER THE FACT THAT THEY WANTED TO LEAVE OR THAT THEY WERE BEING HELD AGAINST THEIR WILL.

BUT IN YOUR BRIEFINGS WITH CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS STAFF, CERTAINLY THEY PRESENTED INDICATIONS TO THE CONTRARY, INDICATIONS WHICH MAY HAVE TURNED OUT TO BE TRUE, IF WE CAN CREDIT THOSE THINGS THAT HAVE BEEN SAID BY THE SURVIVORS OF THE INCIDENT AT THE AIRPORT THE OTHER DAY.

NOW, I AM WONDERING HOW THE DEPARTMENT AND THE CONGRESSMAN'S STAFF MANAGED TO RECONCILE IN THE BRIEFINGS THAT WERE HELD BEFORE HE WENT DOWN THERE WHAT APPEARED TO BE AN INCONSISTENCY OF THE STATUS OF THE PEOPLE WHO WERE LIVING IN THAT COMPOUND; YOUR CONSULAR OFFICERS SAYING THAT EVERYTHING WAS ALL RIGHT DOWN THERE AND RYAN'S PEOPLE COMING UP WITH, I WOULD ASSUME, A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF INDICATIONS TO THE CONTRARY?

A ALL THAT OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS COULD PHYSICALLY DO, RECOGNIZING THAT WE DID NOT HAVE A CONSULAR POST IN THE COMMUNITY OR ANYTHING LIKE THAT, IS TO SIT DOWN WITH A PERSON AND TALK WITH THEM AND GIVE THEM EVERY OPPORTUNITY IN PRIVATE TO RAISE ANY COMPLAINTS WITH THE SITUATION OF THAT NATURE, THAT THEY COULDN'T LEAVE IF THEY WANTED TO LEAVE, THAT THEY WOULD WANT TO RAISE. THEY DID NOT DO SO.

NOW, WHETHER, IN FACT, EVEN SOME OF THESE PEOPLE WHO MAY SUBSEQUENTLY HAVE LEFT THE CAMP FELT THAT THERE WAS SOME CONSTRAINT ON THEM, WHICH THEY DIDN'T BRING UP WITH THE CONSULAR OFFICER, I COULD NOT SPEAK TO.

THE ROLE OF THE CONSULAR OFFICER, — REMEMBER THESE ARE AMERICAN CITIZENS, BOTH IN THE CAMP AND COMPLAINING — IS LIMITED CERTAINLY IN TERMS HE IS NOT ENGAGED IN INVES-

UNCLASSIFIED

TIGATION. HE WAS ENGAGED IN TALKING WITH THEM FACE TO FACE AND GIVING THEM AN OPPORTUNITY TO RAISE PROBLEMS THAT THEY FELT THEY MIGHT HAVE HAD.
WE DO KNOW, OF COURSE, THAT THERE ARE A NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO DID LEAVE THE CAMP.
Q I WAS ASKING ABOUT DO YOU KNOW IF THE SET OF PEOPLE THAT WANTED TO LEAVE WITH RYAN, IF ANY OF THOSE PEOPLE HAD BEEN PREVIOUSLY CONTACTED DURING THESE CONSULAR VISITS?
A THIS IS OF THE SIX TO TEN PEOPLE WHO WERE LEAVING WITH HIM.
WE DO NOT AT THIS MOMENT EVEN HAVE A COMPLETE SET OF NAMES FOR THOSE PEOPLE. SO, UNTIL WE GET THAT WE CANNOT ADDRESS THAT.

UNCLASSIFIED

Q JUST TO CLARIFY THAT, WAS THE DEPARTMENT APPROACHED EITHER STATE OR JUSTICE, BY SUCH A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER REQUESTING EXTRADITION OF MR. JONES?
A WELL, THIS DEPARTMENT AND THE OTHER DEPARTMENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT ARE VERY BIG PLACES. IF WE WERE APPROACHED FORMALLY, THE STATE DEPARTMENT WOULD CERTAINLY HAVE PROCEEDED FORMALLY WITH IT.
I CANNOT SAY FOR ALL THE PEOPLE IN THIS BUILDING AND OTHER BUILDINGS THAT NOBODY EVER HAD A CONVERSATION ABOUT IT.
Q JOHN, YOU CAN UNDERSTAND THAT THERE IS A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF INTEREST AT THIS POINT IN PRECISELY WHAT HAPPENED AT JONESTOWN, AND YOU HAVE INDICATED THAT A NUMBER OF PEOPLE FROM JONESTOWN ARE NOW IN GEORGETOWN, WERE PRESUMABLY THEY HAVE BEEN DEBRIEFED BY LOCAL POLICE, AND WHERE PRESUMABLY SOME OF YOUR PEOPLE HAVE BEEN IN TOUCH.
WOULD YOU GIVE US AS MUCH AS YOU CAN WHAT YOU KNOW?
A I WILL SAY THAT WE ARE IN THE PROCESS OF THIS. IN THE COURSE OF THE MORNING, THERE HAVE BEEN SUCH CONTACTS AS YOU HAVE MENTIONED. THE PEOPLE THAT HAVE HAD THOSE CONTACTS ARE WRITING THIS UP, AND WE DO NOT PHYSICALLY HAVE IT HERE. I HAVE NOT FELT THAT THIS WAS SOMETHING I SHOULD GO INTO IN DEPTH OVER THE PHONE. IT IS BETTER TO GET THAT IN WRITING. SO, WE WILL HAVE THOSE REPORTS COMING IN TO US, AND AT THIS POINT I CANNOT SAY ANY MORE THAN THAT.
WE DO HAVE REPORTS FROM GUYANESE AUTHORITIES THAT A SUICIDE PACT OF SOME SORT WAS IMPLEMENTED, THAT SOME PEOPLE FLED THE CAMP AREA, THE COMPOUND, THE AREA CALLED JONESTOWN, AS THAT PROCESS WAS UNDERWAY.
Q MR. BUSHNELL, LET ME JUST FOLLOW UP, IF I MAY, BECAUSE

SAID, SOME EXTRA PEOPLE WANTED TO LEAVE. IS THAT ACCURATE. FIRST OF ALL? AND, SECONDLY, HOW DOES THAT FIT IN WITH WHAT OBVIOUSLY HAPPENED THEREAFTER?

A THAT IS ESSENTIALLY ADEQUATE, AS I UNDERSTAND IT. THE EMBASSY, OF COURSE, WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR PROVIDING TRANSPORT, ARRANING TRANSPORT, FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION, AS IS NORMAL FOR CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATIONS.

THE EMBASSY DOES NOT, AND DID NOT, AT THAT TIME, HAVE ANY COMMUNICATIONS, AND HAS NEVER HAD ANY COMMUNICATION WIT JONESTOWN. THERE ARE NO TELEPHONES. THERE ARE NO COMMUNICATIONS.

MY UNDERSTANDING IS THAT THE PEOPLE AT JONESTOWN HAVE COMMUNICATED BY ESSENTIALLY SHORT-WAVE AMATEUR RADIO, INCLUDING COMMUNICATING WITH THEIR OFFICE IN GEORGETOWN.

AT ABOUT NOON, GEORGETOWN TIME, ON SATURDAY, THE EMBASSY WAS CALLED BY THE GEORGETOWN OFFICE OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE WHICH SAID THAT THEIR PEOPLE IN JONESTOWN HAD CALLED AND THERE WERE SOME PEOPLE FROM JONESTOWN THAT WISHED TO LEAVE WITH THE CONGRESSIONAL PARTY, THAT THIS WAS A NUMBER OF, AS I RECALL, SIX TO TEN PEOPLE WERE GIVEN, AND THEREFORE THERE WAS A REQUEST THAT THE EMBASSY PROVIDE ADDITIONAL TRANSPORT IN ORDER TO BRING THOSE PEOPLE OUT AT THE SAME TIME AS THE CONGRESSIONAL PARTY.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF ANYTHING HAVING TO DO WITH MOTIVATION OF THIS, BUT THAT IS THE REPORT THAT THE EMBASSY DID RECEIVE, AND HAS BEEN REPEATED TO ME BY EMBASSY OFFICIALS.

Q MR. BUSHNELL, YESTERDAY MORNING AT THE FIRST BRIEFING, THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD SAID REALLY NOTHING IN REPLY TO A QUESTION. THE SPOKESMAN SAID, "WE DIDN'T WARN THE CONGRESSMAN." YESTERDAY AFTERNOON, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAD GIVEN HIM LOGISTICAL WARNINGS. THIS MORNING YOU MENTION HE WAS INFORMED OF ARMAMENTS, ARMED GUARDS, AND OTHER PROBLEMS.

I AM WONDERING IF ALL OF THIS COMES DOWN TO THAT HE REALLY WAS BEING TOLD WITHOUT THE ACTUAL WORDS BEING USED THAT STATE WOULD RATHER HE NOT GO IN THERE, THAT IT WAS UNSAFE, THAT IT WAS DANGEROUS, THAT HE MIGHT LOSE HIS LIFE.

A LET ME TRY TO PUT THIS IN PERSPECTIVE IN THE FOLLOWING WAY. WE HAVE HAD OVER THE LAST, MORE THAN A YEAR, A GREAT MANY CONVERSATIONS BY STATE DEPARTMENT PEOPLE WITH THE CONGRESSMAN AND PARTICULARLY WITH VARIOUS MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF. HE WAS, OF COURSE, INTERESTED IN THE SITUATION THERE. IT WAS A MATTER IMPORTANT TO HIS OFFICE, TO HIM, AND TO HIS CONSTITUENCY.

WE WERE VERY AWARE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT THAT JUST AS WE WERE VERY AWARE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT THAT JUST AS OUR DESK OFFICERS WERE SEEING INDIVIDUALS WHO HAD LEFT THE COLONY, THAT THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS STAFF WERE SEEING

THESE SAME INDIVIDUALS. IN FACT, WE WOULD OFTEN REFER AN INDIVIDUAL THAT WOULD COME TO ONE OF THEIR OFFICES FIRST TO COME TO THE OFFICE. SO WE WERE AWARE FROM THIS LONGER SERIES OF DISCUSSIONS THAT THE CONGRESSMAN HAD ESSENTIALLY THE SAME BODY OF KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THIS SITUATION AS WE HAD.

IN FACT, THERE ARE MANY OF US WHICH ASSUME THAT IF ANYTHING, HE MIGHT HAVE, IN SOME ASPECTS, HAVE KNOWN MORE THAN WE DID, BECAUSE HE HAD REPORTS FROM HIS CONSTITUENCY, FROM HIS OFFICE, AND SO FORTH.

SO IT WAS NOT AS THOUGH -- AND I THINK THIS IS PERHAPS THE MISIMPRESSION THAT HAS GOTTEN AROUND -- THAT WHEN THE CONGRESSMAN CAME TO SEE US, WE BEGAN TO BRIEF HIM, AS THOUGH THIS WAS A NEW SITUATION WHICH HE HAD NO FAMILIARITY WITH. OBVIOUSLY HE HAD IMMENSE FAMILIARITY WITH IT. HE KNEW VIRTUALLY ALMOST AS MUCH ABOUT IT AS WE DID, SO THAT TO A CONSIDERABLE EXTENT, WHAT WE CONCENTRATED ON BRIEFING HIM WERE THOSE THINGS WE THOUGHT HE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN FAMILIAR WITH; FOR EXAMPLE, ON WHAT OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS WHO HAD BEEN VISITING THE AREA HAD DONE, WHAT THEY HAD ENCOUNTERED THERE, AND SO FORTH, SUCH AS THE PRESENCE OF ARMED GUARDS IN THE CAMP, AND THE VERY DIFFICULT PROBLEMS THAT WE WOULD FACE IN HANDLING A CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION, OF MOVING THEM UP THERE, PARTICULARLY IF, IN ADDITION TO THE OFFICIAL MEMBERS OF THE PARTY THERE WERE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE PARTY THAT WANTED TO GO AT THE SAME TIME, AND SO FORTH.

IT DID NOT SEEM TO THE PEOPLE THAT WERE GIVING THIS BRIEFING THAT THEY NEEDED TO SAY IN SO MANY WORDS THAT THIS WAS A DANGEROUS UNDERTAKING. I THINK THAT THAT WAS, IN SOME RESPECTS, CLEAR TO EVERYONE INVOLVED IN THE ISSUE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, I SUPPOSE IN SOME RESPECTS, IT HAS BEEN SOMEWHAT DANGEROUS, IN RETROSPECT, AT LEAST, FOR OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS TO BE GOING IN THERE ONCE A MONTH, AND YET THEY HAVE BEEN DOING THAT, AND DOING IT SUCCESSFULLY FOR SOME TIME.

SO THAT IS THE GENERAL PERSPECTIVE OF WHICH ONE SHOULD LOOK AT THIS SITUATION OF WHAT WE TOLD THE CONGRESSMAN AND HIS STAFF BEFOREHAND.

Q MR. BUSHNELL, CAN YOU ASSUME THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN THE FIELD WOULD KNOW MORE THAN A CONGRESSMAN HEARING REPORTS FROM HIS CONSTITUENTS?

A AS I SAID, WE DID BRIEF THE CONGRESSMAN ON WHAT THE EMBASSY HAD SENT IN. THAT WAS THE PARTICULAR VIEW WHICH WE COULD ADD TO THE VIEW THAT HE WAS GETTING INDEPENDENTLY FROM PEOPLE WHO HAD BEEN THERE, AND SO FORTH.

I DO NOT MYSELF HAVE ANY PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE ABOUT ANY SO-

CALLED SUICIDE PACT, AND SO FORTH. WE DO HAVE, AS YOU KNOW, WE OPERATE UNDER CONSIDERABLE RESTRAINTS IN TERMS OF OUR OWN CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS ON RELIGIOUS FREEDOM, AND SO FORTH. AND I THINK ALL CONSULAR OFFICERS OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE HAVE TO BE CIRCUMSPECT IN THE SORTS OF QUESTIONS IN TERMS OF RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES AND SO FORTH THAT THEY MIGHT ASK, AND INFORMATION THAT WE MIGHT ASK OF THAT NATURE.
SO I THINK WE DID SHARE WITH HIM THE SORT OF INFORMATION THAT WE HAD IN GIVING HIM AS FULL A BRIEFING ON THE SITUATION AS WE COULD.
Q I WONDER IF, PICKING UP ON BEING CIRCUMSPECT, DO YOU SUPPOSE THAT POSSIBLY WHY YOUR OFFICIALS WERE ABLE TO GET IN AND OUT SAFELY, AND POSSIBLY WHY YOUR OFFICIALS WERE NOT ABLE TO FIND ANYBODY WHO WAS BEING HELD AGAINST HIS WILL WAS BECAUSE POSSIBLY — AND I DON'T WANT TO PUT WORDS IN YOUR MOUTH, BUT I'D LIKE YOU TO SPECULATE — THEY WERE SO CIRCUMSPECT THAT THEY DIDN'T RUFFLE ANYBODY OR DID TOO

DEEPLY?
A —THAT THE CONSULAR OFFICER HAS A CERTAIN SERVICE TO PROVIDE, ISSUING BIRTH CERTIFICATES, PASSPORTS, THE VARIOUS SORTS OF THINGS THAT HE NEEDS TO DO. THIS BRINGS HIM IN VERY DIRECT PERSONAL CONTACT WITH A WIDE RANGE OF PEOPLE. THE INDIVIDUAL CONSULAR OFFICERS REQUESTED TO SEE THE INDIVIDUALS WHERE THEY HAD RECEIVED REQUESTS FROM FAMILY MEMBERS; THOSE INDIVIDUALS APPEARED, TALKED WITH THEM. THE CONSULAR OFFICERS HAD PREVIOUSLY READ THE LETTERS FROM THEIR INVOLVED FAMILY MEMBERS OF WHAT THEY HAD SAID; THEY EXPLORED WHAT WAS SAID IN THOSE LETTERS; THEY TALKED BACK AND FORTH. I THINK I WOULD AT LEAST ARGUE THAT OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS ARE, BY AND LARGE, AND CERTAINLY OUR ONES IN GUYANA ARE VERY SENSITIVE INDIVIDUALS. THEY WOULD CERTAINLY NOT TRY TO EMBARRASS ANY AMERICAN CITIZEN SITTING IN FRONT OF HIM, BUT THEY, SINCE THEY WOULD THEN GO BACK AND THEMSELVES DRAFT WHAT IN MANY CASES WAS AN AGONIZINGLY HARD LETTER TO DRAFT, DESCRIBING TO THE FAMILY MEMBER WHAT THEY HAD FOUND, I THINK THEY WOULD WATCH FOR THE NUANCE, THEY WOULD WATCH FOR WHAT WAS SAID IN ORDER TO GET A FEELING FOR THAT SITUATION.
Q WHAT IS YOUR EXPLANATION FOR WHY YOUR PEOPLE COULD GO IN AND OUT WITH APPARENT EASE AND THESE PEOPLE GOT GUNNED DOWN ON THE RUNWAY?
A UNTIL WE HAVE A LOT MORE FACTS, I THINK WE WOULD JUST BE SPECULATING ON THIS SITUATION. OBVIOUSLY, SOMETHING HAPPENED SOMEHOW AT A CRITICAL TIME. IF WE LOOK BACK OVER IT, THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION WAS ADMITTED TO THE CAMP, IT WAS THERE FOR SOME TIME; THE SHOOTING OCCURRED, NOT AT THE CAMP BUT AT THE AIRPORT. OBVIOUSLY,
UNCLASSIFIED

THIS RAISES A LARGE NUMBER OF QUESTIONS AND WE SIMPLY DO NOT HAVE THE ANSWERS TO THOSE QUESTIONS, AND WE HAVE A LOT OF INVESTIGATING TO DO, A LOT OF PEOPLE TO TALK TO. I SUSPECT, AS OFTEN IN TERSK CASES, THE STORIES WILL NOT BE IDENTICAL — WE WILL HAVE TO DO SOME SORTING OUT OF THE SITUATION. THERE IS, OBVIOUSLY, A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A SUBSTANTIAL CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION AND THE VISIT OF AN INDIVIDUAL CONSULAR OFFICER WHO IS COMING ON. WHAT IS GENERALLY PERCEIVED TO BE IMPORTANT BUSINESS IN TERMS OF ESTABLISHING THE RIGHTS OF AMERICAN CITIZENS OF THE OTHER PEOPLE IN THE COMPOUND.

Q MR. BUSHNELL, I WOULD LIKE TO FOLLOW UP THAT QUESTION ALSO. THE QUESTION I WOULD RAISE WITH YOU IS WHETHER A CONSULAR OFFICER GOING IN WOULD BE EMPOWERED TO SAY, "I'M PREPARED TO TAKE YOU OUT WITH ME IF IN FACT YOU WANT TO LEAVE." MIGHT THAT NOT BE A SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN WHAT A CONSULAR OFFICER HAS TO SAY AND AND WHAT CONGRESSMAN RYAN HAD TO SAY?

A WHAT THE CONSULAR OFFICER COULD HAVE DONE IN THAT CASE, OF COURSE, NEVER AROSE. HOWEVER, WE DID NOT, AS I HAVE SAID, ENCOUNTER ANY SITUATION IN WHICH ANYONE INDICATED TO A CONSULAR OFFICER THAT HE OR SHE WISHED TO LEAVE THE CAMP AND WAS BEING DETAINED, IF HE WAS.

Q THAT'S NOT THE QUESTION I WAS RAISING. THE QUESTION I WAS RAISING WAS WHETHER A CONSULAR OFFICER WOULD VOLUNTEER THE INFORMATION THAT IF SOMEONE WANTED TO LEAVE, HE, "WITH" THE POWER OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT BEHIND HIM, WAS PREPARED TO FACILITATE THAT.

A I THINK THAT IT WOULD BE IMPLICIT OR EXPLICIT IN WHAT HE SAID THAT SHOULD AN INDIVIDUAL INDICATE THAT HE WISHED TO LEAVE, THAT HE WOULD WORK TOWARDS THAT END.

Q MR. BUSHNELL, YOU MAY HAVE ANSWERED THIS: WAS ANY ATTEMPT MADE TO ELICIT ANY INFORMATION FROM THE LEGAL COUNSEL WHO WERE REPRESENTING THE PEOPLES TEMPLE ABOUT WHAT CONDITIONS MAY HAVE BEEN LIKE, THERE?

A WE HAVE HAD SOME CONVERSATIONS WITH THEIR LEGAL COUNSEL, BOTH ON INDIVIDUAL PROBLEMS SUCH AS CUSTODY PROBLEMS AND ON THE GENERAL SITUATION.

Q MR. BUSHNELL, I'M FINDING IT DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND. IF THIS GROUP WAS CAUSING ENOUGH CONCERN TO WARRANT ONCE-A-MONTH VISITS BY YOUR CONSULAR OFFICERS, WHEN THEY WOULD ISSUE BIRTH CERTIFICATES AND WHATNOT, AND SINCE IT IS SO UNUSUAL FOR A RELIGIOUS GROUP TO TRANSPLANT ITSELF IN LARGE NUMBERS TO A FOREIGN COUNTRY, WHY YOU DON'T HAVE A REAL COUNT ON WHO THESE PEOPLE WERE. DID YOU HAVE ANY DISCUSSION WITH THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT AS TO HOW [illegible] WERE THERE, WHY THEY WERE THERE [illegible], AND WHY THE GUYA-

UNCLASSIFIED

NEST LET THEM STAY THERE?

A LET ME SAY THIS. THAT IN RELATION TO THE COUNT IT IS THE NORMAL PROCEDURE THAT AMERICAN EMBASSIES EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD ASK THAT AMERICANS RESIDENT IN THE COUNTRY REGISTER WITH THEM, GIVING THEIR ADDRESSES, PHONE NUMBERS AND SO FORTH, SO THAT THEY ARE REGISTERED WITH THE EMBASSY. THIS REQUEST HAS BEEN MADE REPEATEDLY, SOME OF INDIVIDUAL AMERICANS AND OF THE GROUP LEADERSHIP AT THE PEOPLES TEMPLE, BUT VERY FEW IN FACT REGISTERED.

NOW, IN TERMS OF YOUR VISIT OF ONCE A MONTH, THE PRIMARY CONTROLLING FACTOR HERE WAS NOT AN ELEMENT OF CONCERN, IT WAS A MATTER OF TRYING TO PROVIDE CONSULAR

UNCLASSIFIED

SERVICES TO A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF AMERICANS IN A VERY ISOLATED REGION. WE WERE NOT GOING THERE BECAUSE WE WERE CONCERNED ABOUT THEM IN SOME SENSE. WE WERE GOING THERE TO PROVIDE THE CONSULAR SERVICES OF ISSUING BIRTH CERTIFICATES, DEATH CERTIFICATES, PASSPORTS, ALL OF THESE SORTS OF THINGS THAT WE DO FOR AMERICANS OVERSEAS, AND BECAUSE IT WAS INHERENTLY INCONVENIENT FOR THEM TO COME TO THE EMBASSY, WHICH IS WHAT WE WOULD NORMALLY REQUIRE OF PEOPLE IN THIS SITUATION. THEY WOULD BE EXPECTED TO COME TO THE EMBASSY FOR THESE SERVICES. THERE WERE, AS YOU KNOW, A GREAT MANY YOUNG PEOPLE IN THAT CAMP. THERE WERE FREQUENT BIRTHS, AND SO FORTH, AND THAT WAS WHAT CONTROLLED THE APPROXIMATELY ONCE-A-MONTH VISITS.

Q JOHN, WHEN THE DEPARTMENT RECEIVED COMPLAINTS OR INQUIRES FROM RELATIVES OF PEOPLE IN JONESTOWN, TO FOLLOW UP, WHO EXERCISED THE PRINCIPAL POLICY AND ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL IN TERMS OF REFERRING THESE TO THE EMBASSY? WOULD THIS BE ARA OR WAS IT THE BUREAU OF CONSULAR AFFAIRS?

A I SUPPOSE IT WOULD DEPEND ON WHO GOT THE LETTER FIRST. THEY WOULD COME IN IN SOME CASES TO CONSULAR AFFAIRS; THEY WOULD COME IN IN SOME CASES TO ARA. THE DESK OFFICER AND THE PEOPLE WORKING ON THAT IN CONSULAR AFFAIRS WOULD CONSULT. IN SOME CASES, IF IT WERE SORT OF NON-SPECIFIC, GENERAL REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION THAT WOULD BE REQUIRED, IT WOULD BE PROVIDED BY THE APPROPRIATE BUREAU; IN OTHER CASES, IT WOULD BE REFERRED TO THE EMBASSY. IN THE SORT OF CASES WHERE WE HAVE RAISED WHERE THE LETTER MADE THE ACCUSATION THAT AN INDIVIDUAL WAS BEING HELD THERE IN SOME RESPECTS AGAINST HIS WILL, THEN THE CONSULAR OFFICER ON HIS NEXT VISIT WOULD TRY TO TALK WITH THAT PERSON, AND AS I SAID, HAD BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN DOING SO, AND WOULD THEN HIMSELF PREPARE THE RESPONSE, EITHER DIRECTLY OR BACK THROUGH CHANNELS HERE DEPENDING ON WHAT WAS APPROPRIATE.

UNCLASSIFIED

Q WHAT I WAS GETTING AT WAS, IN THE DAYS JUST PRIOR TO THE LAST VISIT TO GUYANA. THE VISIT THAT CONGRESSMAN RYAN MADE TO GUYANA, WAS ANY CONSULATION DONE WITH MR. LANE OR MR. GARRY ABOUT THE PROBABILITY OR THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH AN EVENT AS TOOK PLACE ON SATURDAY?

A I DOUBT IF SOMEONE RAISED THAT SORT OF AN EVENT. THERE WERE SOME CONTACTS, I THINK, BETWEEN SOME STATE DEPARTMENT PEOPLE AND BETWEEN THE CONGRESSMAN'S OFFICE AND THESE PEOPLE. I AM NOT FULLY INFORMED AT THIS POINT ON THAT, SO I CANNOT ANSWER THAT QUESTION VERY DEFINITIVELY. CHRISTOPHER

SUBJECT:MEDIA ACTIVITIES IN WAKE OF PORT-KAITUMA-JONESTOWN TRAGEDIES
1. SUMMARY: MORE THAN 100 REPRESENTATIVES FROM ALL MAJOR US AND INTERNATIONAL MEDIA ARE TREATING THE JONESTOWN TRAGEDY AS THE MAJOR NEWS STORY OF ITS KIND IN THE DECADE. THE RESULTING ONSLAUGHT OF MEDIA COVERAGE HAS TAXED USICA, EMBASSY AND GUYANESE RESOURCES SEVERELY, AND BASIC PROBLEMS OF COMMUNICATION, TRANSPORTATION AND INFORMTION --COMPOUNDED BY WHAT HAD DEVELOPED INTO ONE OF THE GREAT RUMOR MILLS OF OUR TIME--HAVE STIRRED SHARP VERBAL CRITICISM OF THE US ROLE BY REPORTERS ON THE SCENE. WITH RECOVERY OF THE BODIES NEARING COMPLETION, ATTENTION HAS SHIFTED TO THE MISSING SURVIVORS OF JONESTOWN, IF ANY, AND THE SEARCH EFFORTS FOR THEM. END SUMMARY.

NOVEMBER 18, WHEN THE CODEL RAY VISIT TRIGGERED THE LATENT VIOLENCE OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE COMMUNE. BUT THE MEDIA ASSUMES AND INSISTS THAT, GIVEN SOME 800 PASSPORTS FOUND AT THE SITE, 600 BEDS IN THE CAMP, AND REPORTS OF THOSE WHO WERE THERE, A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER HAVE NOT TURNED UP. REPORTERS HAVE SCOURED GEORGETOWN IN AN EFFORT TO GAIN INTERVIEWS WITH THE SURVIVORS, WHO HAVE REPEATEDLY TOLD THE EMBASSY THEY DID NOT WANT TO BE INTERVIEWED. SOME, HOWEVER, APPARENTLY HAVE MET PRIVATELY WITH REPORTERS, CREATING FURTHER STRAINS IN A HIGHLY COMPETITIVE SITUATION. USICA HAS RECEIVED CONTINUOUS QUERIES ABOUT REPORTS OF SURVIVORS RANGING IN NUMBER FROM TWO TO 200 WALKING TO GEORGETOWN THROUGH THE JUNGLE, TURNING UP ON A BOAT ON THE HIGH SEAS, APPEARING IN CARACAS, FOUND IN MASS GRAVES, ETC.
3. TWO BASIC PROBLEMS HAVE FURTHER COMPLICATED RELATIONS WITH THE MEDIA. USAF SPOKESMAN SAY ALL AIRCRAFT ARE BEING USED IN THE OPERATION AND THE MEDIA CANNOT

BE FERRIED TO THE JONESTOWN SITE, INACCESSIBLE EXCEPT BY AIRCRAFT. HOWEVER, THE COG MINISTRY OF INFORMATION (MOI) ARRANGED SOME FLIGTS IN GOG AIRCRAFT, STIRRING PROTESTS OF FAVORITISM FROM THOSE NOT INCLUDED. SOME REPORTERS ALSO OBTAINED PRIVATE AIRCRAFT TO TAKE THEM TO THE SCENE, WITHOUT NECESSARILY OBTAINING REQUIRED PRIOR APPROVAL FROM THE MOI. THE SECOND PROBLEM IS ONE OF COMMUNICATIONS, OR THE LACK OF IT. MILITARY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS DID NOT FUNCTION FOR THE FIRST 36 HOURS, AND EVEN NOW THERE ARE BOTH TECHNICAL AND FUNCTIONAL PROBLEMS IN GETTING FACTS TO THE MEDIA. LOCAL COMMUNICATIONS FACILITIES ARE SORELY STRAINED; ONE REPORTER SAID HIS STORY WAS FILED ONLY PARTIALLY BECAUSE THE TELEX OPERATOR SAID IT WAS TOO LONG AND OTHERS WERE WAITING.

4. A PRESS BRIEFING SET UP BY USICA NOVEMBER 22 INCLUDED USAF PERSONNEL, A CONSULAR EXPERT FROM STATE, AND AN MOI REPRESENTATIVE WHO WAS OBVIOUSLY UNPREPARED. SOME 75 REPORTERS FUMED AND BLUSTERED ABOUT U.S. FAILURE TO INTENSIFY SEARCH EFFORTS, FAILURE TO FERRY THEM TO JONESTOWN (A COVER-UP SHOUTED ONE), FAILURE TO PREDICT THE DANGERS, FAILURE TO REACT QUICKLY ENOUGH. YET THE BRIEFING WAS VALUABLE IN GETTING SPECIFIC INFORMATION TO MOST OF THE MEDIA, AS WELL AS CLARIFYING THE MILITARY MISSION.

5. USICA SET UP PRESS CENTER AS FOCAL POINT FOR MEDIA. WORKING WITH EMBASSY, USAF AND MOI TO COORDINATE INFORMATION. CARACAS ACAO PAT MCGEE AND AR DEPUTY POLICY OFFICER FRED SHAVER WORKED WITH USICA STAFF IN HANDLING QUERIES, COORDINATING INFORMATION EFFORTS, AND PULLING TOGETHER AVAILABLE MATERIAL IN ONE LOCATION.

6. LOCAL MEDIA HAVE REACTED WITH SHOCK AT JONESTOWN INCIDENT, WITH MASSIVE COVERAGE IN GEORGETOWN BY NEWSPAPERS AND RADIO STATIONS (THERE IS NO TELEVISION). BUT THERE HAS BEEN NO SIGNIFICANT EDITORIAL CRITICISM OF THE U.S. OR ANY ASPECTS BILATERAL RELATIONSHIPS AS YET BEYOND DETAILS OF HANDLING OF CONSULR AND MEDIA AFFAIRS. AND POST HAS IMPRESSION BASED ON PERSONAL CONTACTS THAT DESPITE OPPOSITION PARTIES EFFORTS TO MAKE POLITICAL CAPITAL OF IT, THERE IS NO TENDENCY TO MAKE OF THIS MORE THAN THE PERSONAL TRAGEDY OF MASSIVE PROPORTIONS IT ACTUALLY IS.

7. THERE MAY IN FACT BE SOME GAIN FROM ALL THIS. A REPORTER ASKING USAF ABOUT POLITICAL PROBLEMS INTERFERING

MOI REPRESENTATIVE WAS ON HAND WHEN STATEMENT WAS MADE, AND PRESUMABLY WILL REPORT THIS TO HIGHER AUTHORITIES WHO WERE SENSITIVE TO THE IMPLICATIONS OF A U.S. MILITARY FORCE OPERATING IN GUYANA.

3. IT IS LIKELY THAT UNLESS SOME INFORMATION GIVES CLUE TO WHEREABOUTS, OR EXISTENCE, OF SURVIVORS, MOST MEDIA WILL DEPART WITH COMPLETION OF REMOVAL OF BODIES FROM JONESTOWN AND RETURN OF SURVIVORS TO U.S., EXPECTED THIS WEEK-END. HOWEVER, IT WILL CONTINUE TO DRAW WRITERS AND ANALYSTS OF EVERY STRIPE FOR YEARS TO COME, AND USICA WILL BE REQUIRED TO DEAL WITH THEM. POST WOULD WELCOME AGENCY RECOMMENDATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS ON CP CHANGES OR AMENDMENTS.

4. POST WILL REPORT BY FM WHEN FINAL WRAP-UP POSSIBLE.

1. THE NOV 26 EDITION OF THE WEEKLY "NEW NATION," OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE RULING PEOPLE'S NATIONAL CONGRESS (PNC) PARTY, CARRIES AN EDITORIAL AND CARTOON CONCERNING THE ASSASSINATION OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND SUBSEQUENT EVENTS. IT IS THE FIRST EDITORIAL IN THE GOVERNMENT-OWNED PRESS ABOUT THE INCIDENT.
2. THE CARTOON DEPICTS A SAILING, LABELLED "PEOPLE'S TEMPLE," BEING CUT IN HALF BY A MACHETTE LABELLED "INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY." THREE PARAGRAPHS IN THE MIDDLE PORTION OF THE EDITORIAL ADDRESS THE CAUSES OF THE INCIDENTS AT PORT KAITUMA AND JONESTOWN. THE PARAGRAPHS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

"BE THAT AS IT MAY THERE ARE A FEW THINGS THAT SEEM QUITE CLEAR TO US. FOR ONE THING MANY IN THE UNITED STATES WERE DETERMINED THAT THE JONESTOWN COMMUNE SHOULD NOT SUCCEED. THEY MADE EVERY EFFORT, THEREFORE, TO UNDERMINE AND DISCREDIT. WHY?

"THAT SO MANY PEOPLE SHOULD WANT TO LEAVE THE 'COMFORT' OF THE UNITED STATES TO COME AND SETTLE IN GUYANA'S HINTERLAND REFLECTED ADVERSELY ON THE 'AMERICAN' WAY OF LIFE. THAT THEY COULD HAVE DONE SO SUCCESSFULLY WOULD HAVE CAUSED GREAT ANGER AND DISSATISFACTION IN MANY QUARTERS. THEREFORE WHATEVER DISSATISFACTION OR DISAGREEMENT EXISTED IN THE COMMUNE WAS ENCOURAGED AND, IT APPEARS, EVEN EXAGGERATED.

"A HOSTILE PRESS CAMPAIGN WAS STARTED AND RELENTLESSLY PURSUED AND THE DIFFERENCES AMONG THE TEMPLE MEMBERS WERE EXPLOITED TO THE FULL. THESE SEEM TO HAVE AFFECTED UNDULY THE MIND OF JONESTOWN'S FOUNDER, PASTOR JIM W. JONES. IT THEREFORE APPEARS TO HAVE TAKEN THE DECISION, AFTER CONGRESSMAN LEO RYAN INSISTED

OF VISITING THE COMMUNE. THAT HE AND A NUMBER OF THOSE ACCOMPANYING HIM SHOULD NOT LEAVE JONESTOWN ALIVE.

4. COMMENT: THE CREDIBILITY OF THE GOG FACES A SEVERE TEST AS A RESULT OF THE JONESTOWN TRAGEDY. ERSI KWAYANA'S WORKING PEOPLE'S ALLIANCE (WPA) HAS PUBLICLY ALLEGED THAT THE GOG WAS AWARE OF HUMAN RIGHTS, CUSTOMS AND FIREARMS VIOLATIONS BY PT MEMBERS IN GUYANA, BUT DID NOTHING ABOUT THEM. IN PARLIAMENT ON NOV 24, AFTER DEPUTY PRIMIN REID'S STATEMENT (REFTEL), ACTING LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION JANET JAGAN VEHEMENTLY PROTESTED THE FAILURE OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TO IMMEDIATELY DEBATE THE MATTER. SHE ADDED THAT THE SECURITY OF THE COUNTRY HAD BEEN THREATENDED BY EVENTS IN

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

JONESTOWN, BUT DID NOT EXPLAIN FURTHER. THE "NEW NATION" EDITORIAL OBVIOUSLY INDICATES THAT HARD-LINERS IN THE PNC WANT TO DEFLECT DOMESTIC CRITICISM OVER THE AFFAIR FROM THE GOG TO THE UNITED STATES. WHAT IS NOT SO OBVIOUS IS WHY THE GOG WOULD PERMIT THE PUBLISHING OF THE EDITORIAL AND CARTOON, GIVEN NOT ONLY THE MAGNITUDE OF THIS TRAGEDY, BUT ALSO THE FATE OF US-GOG RELATIONS IN THE DAYS AFTER THE GUYANA INCIDENT OF 1976. THE AMBASSADOR HAS ALREADY RAISED THE CARTOON AND EDITORIAL WITH THE GOG AT CABINET LEVEL. THIS WILL BE THE SUBJECT OF A SEPTEL.

1. AS OF 0800 (EST), THE CURRENT COUNT, ACCORDING TO THE JOINT TASK FORCE COMMANDER, IS 794 BODIES, ALTHOUGH MORE MAY STILL BE FOUND IN JONESTOWN. AMBASSADOR BURKE AND THE COMMANDER WILL EVALUATE THE NEED FOR US MILITARY PER-SONNEL TO REMAIN AT THE JONESTOWN AREA AND WILL INFORM THE DEPARTMENT OF THEIR DECISION.
2. ONE C-141 WITH 110 BODIES WILL ARRIVE AT DOVER AT 1130 (EST) TODAY, BRINGING THE TOTAL BODIES RETURNED TO
232. A SECOND FLIGHT IS DUE TO DEPART GEORGETOWN AT 1000
EST). WHILE THERE IS A BOTTLENECK AS REGARDS TRANSFER CASES, ADDITIONAL CASES ARE EN ROUTE AND IT MAY BE POS-IBLE TO REMOVE ALL BODIES FROM GUYANA BY TONIGHT. ALL SHOULD BE OUT BY TOMORROW.
3. THERE IS STILL NO WORD ON WHEN THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT WILL PERMIT THE DEPARTURE OF THE SURVIVING MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE. GEORGETOWN RADIO ANNOUNCED THAT CHARLES BEIKMAN HAD BEEN FORMALLY CHARGED WITH THE MURDER

(IN GEORGETOWN) OF SHARON AMOS AND HER CHILDREN. TOGETHER WITH LARRY LAYTON, THIS MAKES TWO PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS AGAINST WHOM CHARGES HAVE BEEN BROUGHT. THREE OTHERS ARE DETAINED AND UNDER INVESTIGATION FOR ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF FIREARMS.

4. A SMALL CEMETERY CONTAINING FIVE GRAVES WAS LOCATED AT JONESTOWN. FIVE DEATES HAD BEEN REPORTED TO EMBASSY CONSULAR OFFICERS EARLIER. TAGS INITIALLY PUT ON BODIES BY LOCAL OFFICIALS WERE PREPARED WITH WATER SOLUBLE INK, WHICH HAS SINCE BECOME UNREADABLE WITH THE RAIN.

MANY BODIES PREVIOUSLY IDENTIFIED WILL HAVE TO BE IDENTIFIED AGAIN. A FINAL COUNT REVEALED 947 BEDS IN TO PAY FOR THESE ITEMS. DOD LAWYERS HAVE QUESTIONED THE LEGAL AUTHORITY FOR PROVIDING EQUIPMENT TO THE GUYANESE POLICE. WE WILL BE LOOKING INTO THE MATTER TODAY. CHRISTOPHER

FOLLOWING IS PRESS GUIDANCE:
1. QUOTE: IS IT TRUE THAT THE SURVIVORS ARE COMING INTO CHARLESTON, AND CAN YOU TELL ME WHEN?
A. I CAN CONFIRM THAT THE PRESENT PLAN IS TO USE CHARLESTON AS THE POINT OF ENTRY INTO THE US. I CANNOT GIVE YOU ANY GOOD IDEA ABOUT THE TIMING EXCEPT TO SAY IT WILL NOT BE TODAY. IT MAY BE WELL INTO NEXT WEEK.
2. Q. WILL ALL THE SURVIVORS BE COMING?
A. NO. FIVE SURVIVORS, AS YOU PROBABLY KNOW, ARE NOW BEING HELD BY THE GUYANESE POLICE WHILE THEY ARE CONDUCTING THEIR INVESTIGATION. OTHERS MAY NOT WISH TO LEAVE GUYANA.

3. Q. IS IT POSSIBLE THAT THE SURVIVORS MAY BE ARRIVING IN TWO OR MORE GROUPS?
A. YES, THAT IS QUITE POSSIBLE.
4. Q. WHY WAS CHARLESTON CHOSEN?
A. FOR LOGISTICAL AND TRANSPORTATION REASONS IT WAS DECIDED TO USE A PORT OF ENTRY IN THE SOUTHEASTERN UNITED STATES. THE VARIOUS FEDERAL AGENCIES INVOLVED -- THE MILITARY, STATE, JUSTICE, HEW AND OTHERS -- DECIDED THAT ON BALANCE CHARLESTON OFFERED A REASONABLY CONVENIENT LOCATION FOR THE SURVIVOR'S RE-ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES, AS WELL AS FOR CARING FOR THEIR IMMEDIATE NEEDS AND HELPING THEM TO ARRANGE THEIR FURTHER TRAVEL TO WHATEVER LOCATION THEY CHOOSE.
5. Q. WILL THE USG PAY FOR THEIR TRAVEL HOME?
A. NO, BUT WE UNDERSTAND THAT EMERGENCY LOAN FUNDS FROM HEW WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR THOSE FOR WHOM THIS IS ESSENTIAL.
6. Q. WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO THE SURVIVORS IN CHARLESTON? WILL THEY BE QUESTIONED, AND BY WHOM?
A. THE SURVIVORS WILL BE SUBJECT TO NORMAL RE-ENTRY PROCEDURES FOR AMERICAN CITIZENS RETURNING FROM ABROAD.

A. HEW AS WELL AS OFFICIALS OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR RENDERING WHATEVER ASSISTANCE MAY BE NECESSARY.

8. Q. HAS THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA OFFERED $25,000 TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO BE USED TO ASSIST THE SURVIVORS?

A. WE HAVE NOT HEARD THAT. IT WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY FOR SOUTH CAROLINA TO OFFER FUNDS TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT. THE STATE GOVERNMENT AS WELL AS HEW, WILL BE ASSISTING THE SURVIVORS AFTER THEIR ARRIVAL IN CHARLESTON. END QUOTE. CHRISTOPHER

1. TODAY AMBASSADOR AND ADCM MET WITH MINISTRY OF LABOR AND TASK FORCE LEADER HAMILTON GREEN TO DISCUSS PROGRESS OF THE BODY RECOVERY EFFORT. GREEN TOOK THE OCCASION TO REQUEST AS-SISTANCE IN THE FORM OF HELICOPTER SUPPORT TO TF GOG EFFORT TO TAKE CONTROL OF JONESTOWN. GREEN SAID THAT THEY EXPECTED TO NEED TAKE ABOUT 30 DAYS TO INVENTORY THE PROPERTY AT THE JONESTOWN SITE AND THAT TWO HELICOPTERS SHOULD BE DEDICATED TO THE TASK. HE EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER THE POSSIBILITY OF LOOTING AND VANDALISM AND INDICATED THAT THEY HAD ALR ADY DIRECTED THE POLICE TO ESTABLISH AND MAINTAIN SECURITY PATROLS WHICH ALSO REQUIRE LOGISTICAL SUPPORT BY HELICOPTER OPERATIONS.
2. THE EMBASSY STRONGLY SUPPORTS GREEN'S REQUEST SINCE THE MISSION TO BE UNDERTAKEN IS ONE THAT PARALLELS OUR OWN CONSULAR RESPONSIBILITY AND BECAUSE CONTINUING PRESENCE OF A USG AIR-LIFT CAPACITY COULD BE EXTREMELY USEFUL IN RECOVERY AND TRANSPORT OF ADDITIONAL PERSONAL PROPERTY THAT MIGHT BE LOCATED AT JONESTOWN.

3. GREEN ALSO REFERRED AGAIN TO EARLIER GOG REQUEST THAT WE ASSIST THEM IN GETTING A TWIN-OTTER FOR TEMPORARY SERVICE UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THE GUYANA AIRWAYS TWIN OTTER, DAMAGED AT PORT KAITUMA AIRSTRIP DURING THE AMBUSH OF CONGRESSMAN RYAN AND HIS PARTY. AMBASSADOR SAID THAT THE REQUEST WAS STILL BEING ACTIVELY PURSUED BUT AS YET NO TWIN OTTERS HAD BEEN LOCATED IN THE AREA. GREEN THEN ASKED IF SOMETHING COULD BE DONE TO GET A REPLACEMENT ENGINE FOR THE DAMAGED AIRFRAME. WE AGREED TO CONVEY THE REQUEST.
4. PURCHASE AND AIRLIFT OF A REPLACEMT ENGINE TO REPAIR THE DAMAGED OTTER MIGHT IN THE LONG RUN BE THE MOST EXPEDITIOUS WAY OF GETTING GAC BACK INTHE AIR IN THE NORTHWEST. BELIEVE WE SHOULD CONTINUE TO PURSUE THE POSSIBILITY OF A LEASED REPLACEMENT AIRCRAFT BUT AT THE SAME TIME LOOK INTO THE POSSIBILITY OF REPAIRING THE AMAGED PLANE.

SUBJECT: DISPOSITION OF THE IDENTIFIED REMAINS OF GUYANESE CITIZEN JIMMY GILL

1. DURING A 24 NOVEMBER VISIT TO THE GROUP OF PT MEMBERS WHO WERE VOLUNTARILY STAYING AT EVE LEARY POLICE HEADQUART, A CONOFF WAS APPROACHED BY A GUYANESE CITIZEN WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS JOHNNIE GILL. GILL ADVISED THAT HIS BROTHER, JIMMY GILL, HAD BEEN IN JONESTOWN AT THE TIME OF THE MASS SUICIDE/MURDER AND WAS AMONG THE DDAD. HE SAID HIS BROTHER HAD BEEN AMONG THE GROUP OF 174 BODIES THAT HAD BEEN IDENTIFIED FOR THE GUYANESE DEFENCE FORCES BY THE SURVIVORS OF THE JONESTOWN INCIDENT. HE ALSO SAID THAT ANOTHER BROTHER, JACKIE GILL, HAD VISITED THE JONESTOWN SITE AND HAD CONFIRMED THE IDENTIFICATION. JACKIE GILL WAS APPARENTLY IN TOUCH WITH US MILITARY PERSONNEL WHO WERE REMOVING THE BODIES FROM THE SITE AND HAD REQUESTED THAT HIS BROTHER'S BODY BE TURNED OVER TO THE FAMILY FOR A FUNERAL SERVICE AND BURIAL. JOHNNIE GILL, IN HIS CONVERSATION WITH THE CONOFF, WANTED TO CONFIRM HIS FAMILY'S DESIRE TO HAVE HIS BROTHER'S REMAINS TURNED OVER TO THEM FOR DISPOSITION.

2. UPON HIS RETURN TO THE EMBASSY, THE CONOFF PASSED JOHNNIE GILL'S REQUEST THROUGH APPROPRIATE CHANNELS. TWO US MILITARY PERSONNEL AT TIMEHRI WERE REQUESTED NOT TO SHIP THE GILL REMAINS TO DOVER IF SUCH REMAINS COULD BE IDENTIFIED. ON

SATURDAY EVENING, THE EMBASSY WAS ADVISED THAT THE GILL REMAINS HAD BEEN IDENTIFIED AT TIMEHRI. THE CONOFF, THROUGH THE GOOD OFFICES OF THE GUYANESE POLICE, NOTIFIED THE GILL FAMILY, WHO LIVE IN THE PORT KAITUMA AREA. THE EMBASSY ALSO NOTIFIED APPROPRIATE GUYANESE OFFICIALS THAT A GUYANESE CITIZEN HAD BEEN IDENTIFIED AMONG THE DEAD BY HIS FAMILY, AND THAT THE FAMILY WISHED TO CLAIM THE BODY.

3. SINCE THE GILL FAMILY IS AT PORT KAITUMA AND WILL ONLY ACCEPT DELIVERY OF THE REMAINS THERE, AND SINCE THERE ARE NO US MILITARY AIRCRAFT FLYING BETWEEN TIMEHRI AND PORT KAITUMA AT THIS TIME, THE EMBASSY ENLISTED THE ASSISTANCE OF POLICE COMMISSIONER BARKER TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM. BARKER ADVISED THE EMBASSY THAT HE WOULD HAVE A GUYANESE POLICEMAN CLAIM THE BODY AT TIMEHRI, AND THAT THE BODY WOULD BE RETURNED TO THE GILL FAMILY BY THE GUYANESE DEFENCE FORCE.

FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS KEYED TO PARA 2 OF REFTEL (A):
2. ACTIONS TAKEN BY U.S. MILITARY:
A) UPON ARRIVAL AT SITE, THE JOINT TASK FORCE (JTF) MET WITH NATIONAL POLICE OFFICIALS AND THE COMMANDANT OF THE GDF BATTALION WHO HAD ARRIVED AT THE JONESTOWN SITE SUNDAY NIGHT. THESE OFFICIALS TOOK THE JTF THROUGH THE AREA, EXPLAINED THAT THEY HAD ALREADY SEARCHED THE MAIN RESIDENCE AND BUILDING, AND POINTED OUT THE LOCATIONS OF THOSE BODIES NOT AMONG THE MAIN GROUP AROUND THE CENTRAL PAVILION. THESE OFFICIALS ALSO PROVIDED THE JTF WITH THE FIRST ESTIMATED COUNT
B) THE JTF THEN MADE THEIR OWN SEARCH, ENTERING EVERY BUILDING AND COVERING EVERY INCH OF TERRAIN.
C) THE JTF REMOVED THE ISOLATED REMAINS FIRST, BEFORE ADDRESSING THE TASK OF REMOVING THOSE PILED AROUND THE PAVILION.

D) ALTHOUGH THE PRESENCE OF UNDISCOVERED BODIES WOULD HAVE BEEN OBVIOUS FROM THE STRONG ODOR ALONE, THE JTF MADE ANOTHER COMPLETE SWEEP OF ALL BUILDINGS AND THE AREA AFTER ALL BODIES HAD BEEN BAGGED. COL. WILLIAM GORDON, USA, ADVISED THE AMBASSADOR SATURDAY NIGHT THAT A CHECK PRIOR TO FINAL DEPARTURE OF THE JTF DISCLOSED NO REMAINS OR EVIDENCE OF REMAINS OTHER THAN THE FIVE GRAVESITES PREVIOUSLY REPORTED.
3. ACTIONS TAKEN BY EMBASSY OFFICERS:
A) CONSULAR OFFICER RICHARD MARTIN WAS AT THE SITE TUESDAY AND FRIDAY. DURING THESE TWO VISITS HE COMBED THE AREA LOOKING FOR ANY IDENTIFIABLE PERSONAL EFFECTS WITH ANY VALUE. HE ENTERED ALL OF THE ADMIN. BUILDINGS IN WHICH BODIES HAD INITIALLY BEEN DISCOVERED. MOST OF THE OTHER RESIDENCES AND ENCOUNTERED NO HUMAN REMAINS.
B) CONSULAR OFFICER JAMES WARD WAS AT THE SITE ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, TO HAVE AN ANALYSIS OF THE EXISTENCE OF ANY TANGIBLE PERSONAL ESTATE AND THE FEASIBILITY OF SECURING THEM. DURING THIS EXERCISE HE ENTERED ALL BUILDINGS WHERE BODIES HAD BEEN DISCOVERED, ALL ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURES, INCLUDING THE PAVILION, ALL LARGE DORMITORIES AND A NUMBER OF

1. AMBASSADOR BURKE NEVER MET REVEREND JIM JONES EITHER OFFICIALLY OR SOCIALLY. AS FAR AS IS KNOWN, JONES WAS NEVER IN GEORGETOWN DURING THE PERIOD SINCE AMBASSADOR'S ARRIVAL IN SEPTEMBER 1977. AS INDICATED IN PARA ONE REFTEL, MRS JONES PAID A COURTESY CALL ON AMBASSADOR AT 3 PM MONDAY, JUNE 26. THIS WAS THEIR ONLY MEETING.

2. EMBASSY HAS NO RECORD OF EVER HAVING RECEIVED THE LAIRY AFFIDAVIT OF JUNE 15, 1972 FROM THE DEPARTMENT. EMBASSY DID, HOWEVER, RECEIVE A COPY OF THE AFFIDAVIT DIRECTLY FROM ONE OF THE CONCERNED RELATIVES' GROUP IN A COMMUNICATION POSTMARKED AUGUST 11. SAME INDIVIDUAL IS ALSO KNOW TO HAVE ADDRESSED A LETTER TO PRIME MINISTER REGARDING CONDITIONS IN JONESTOWN. THE AFFIDAVIT WAS NOT DISCUSSED AT THE TIME.

1. WE HAVE BEEN THINKING OUTLOUD RECENT FOR THE TWO HELICOPTERS WHICH WE DESCRIBED AS JOINT MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO GOG LIGHTOUT. IT WOULD BE MORE ACCURATE TO CHARACTERIZE OUR REQUEST AS CERTE CONTINUING MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO EMBASSY GEORGETOWN LIGHTOUT.
2. IT IS THE EMBASSY'S PLAN TO CONTROL THE SCHEDULING OF THE HELICOPTERS IN ORDER TO UTILIZE THEM ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE VARIOUS ASPECTS OF PROTECTIVE [illegible] ASPECTS LOCATED AT JONESTOWN- SUCH AS ASPECTS AS TRANSPORT OF LEGAL, SECURITY, INVESTIGATIVE AND CONSULAR PERSONNELAN TRANSFER OF PROPERTY TO SECURITY AS FOR SAFEKEEPING, ETC.
3. SINCE THE PRIMARY FUNCTION TO BE SUPPORTED IS ESSENTIALLY CONSULAR AND SINCE SATISFACTORI.ALTERNATIVE FUNDING ARRANGEMENTS SEEM NOT TO BE FEASIBLE. IT WOULD APPEAR LOGICAL TO LOOK TO THE EMERGENCIES IN THE DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR SERVICE AP ROPRIATION TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM.

SITREP #5 AS OF [redacted] NOV 78
1. (C) SITUATION. FORWARD OPERATING BASES AT JONESTOWN AND MATTHEWS RIDGE ARE IN THE PROCESS OF BEING DISMANTLED AND PERSONNEL AND EQUIPMENT REDEPLOYED TO THIS LOCATION. ALL KNOWN SURVIVORS HAVE BEEN EVACUATED FROM JONESTOWN. FINAL COUNT FROM THAT LOCATION IS 909 DEAD. THE 5 ADDITIONAL VICTIMS EVACUATED FROM GEORGETOWN RAISE THIS TOTAL TO 914 DEAD.

2. (C) INTELLIGENCE.
A. COORDINATION WITH GUYANA NATIONAL POLICE REVEALS THAT THE FOLLOWING WEAPONS WERE CONFISCATED BY THEM AT JONESTOWN.
(1) 18 PISTOLS
(2) 11 SEMI-AUTOMATIC RIFLES (.243 TO .308 CAL)
(3) 3 .22 CAL RIFLES
(4) 7 12 GAUGE SHOTGUNS

TO AND FROM THE JONESTOWN AREA BY UH-1H HELICOPTER.
4. (C) OPERATIONAL SUMMARY. FLIGHT OPERATIONS COMMENCED AT [redacted] WITH THE LAUNCH OF 2 UH-1H'S. FIVE UH-1H'S WERE EMPLOYED BY [redacted]. ONE MISSION [redacted] REPORTED "THUMBS" AT [redacted] NOV WITH [redacted] HUMAN REMAINS; 94 UNIDENTIFIED/1 IDENTIFIED. ONE MISSION [redacted] RETURNED AT [redacted] NOV WITH [redacted] HUMAN REMAINS; [redacted] UNIDENTIFIED/3 IDENTIFIED. THE ADDITIONAL BODY COUNT CREATED A TRANSFER CASE PROBLEM, BUT THE RESPONSE WAS TIMELY AND APPRECIATIVE. MISSION [redacted] ARRIVED ZORGE WITH [redacted] TRANSFER CASES AND DEPARTED AT [redacted] WITH [redacted] TRANSFER CASES. MISSION [redacted] ARRIVED AT [redacted] NOV WILL EVACUATE THE LAST KNOWN REMAINS FROM GUYANA. MISSIONS UNDERWAY TO JONESTOWN VICINITY ON UH-1H'S UTILIZING SHELL BOXES. ONE UH-1H WAS USED FOR BODY RETRIEVAL AND WAS S.R. AT [redacted]. ALL AIRCRAFT ARE OPERATIONALLY READY.
5. (C) COMMANDERS PLANE. REDEPLOYMENT PLANNING WILL CONTINUE AND WILL COMMENCE WITH THE RETURN OF SOME PERSONNEL AND EQUIPMENT TO [redacted] ZONE TIME TUESDAY ON A C-130. THE FIRST REDEPLOYMENT C-141 IS DUE AT [redacted] FROM THIS LOCATION AT [redacted] NOV 78. REDEPLOYMENT PLANS PENDING ACTUAL LAST GROUP BODY ELEMENTS WILL DEPART GUYANA ON 27 NOV 78. SUBJ: RETURN OF PEOPLE'S TEMPLE SURVIVORS
1. (C) THE SITUATION REGARDING LEGAL STATUS AND RETURN TO CONUS OF US TEMPLE MEMBER SURVIVORS HAS DEVELOPED INTO UNKNOWN DIPLOMATIC DELAYS AND LAW ENFORCEMENT REQUIREMENTS. IT DOES NOT APPEAR THAT THE GUYANIAN GOVERNMENT IS GOING TO RELEASE THE GROUPS OF SURVIVORS WITHIN THE NEXT 72 HOURS. THERE ARE SOME INDICATIONS THAT THE "LAMAR GROUP" CULT SURVIVORS MAY NOT BE RELEASED UNTIL SOME TIME IN DECEMBER.
2. (C) IT IS PLANNED TO REDEPLOY ALL US MILITARY ELEMENTS FROM GUYANA BY END OF 2: NOV 78 EXCEPT FOR THE AIRLIFT CONTROL ELEMENT (ALCE) (ABOUT TWENTY SEVEN PERSONNEL) NECESSARY TO RETURN CULT SURVIVORS AND THE HELICOPTERS WITH PERSONNEL PROVIDING SUPPORT TO AMEMB GUYANA.
3. (C) IT APPEARS PRUDENT TO REDEPLOY THE ALCE ON 27 NOV 78 SINCE CULT SURVIVORS WILL NOT BE RELEASED WITHIN 72 HOURS. ALTHOUGH COMMERCIAL AIR IS PREFERRED AND AVAILABLE, IF MILITARY AIRLIFT IS REQUIRED SPECIAL MISSION AIRCRAFT AND REQUIRED SECURITY PERSONNEL CAN BE READIED FOR DEPLOYMENT WITHIN 24 HOURS.

Re: Reverend James Jones.

Dear Mr. Prime Minister,

It is my pleasure to introduce to you an outstanding humanitarian, Reverend James W. Jones. He is the Pastor of Peoples Temple Church and will soon be visiting your country to seek permission to establish a missionary human service work there. He and his people have shown themselves to be extraordinarily responsible, industrious and compassionate---working to serve people in what ever way they can.

Reverend Jones has for years carried on an exceptionally effective ministry of human service. The church has taken in senior citizens and housed them, regularly provides emergency food and services, has brought children off the street and paid for their dental and medical care, and has rehabilitated scores of young people from the use of drugs. It is fair to say that Reverend Jones and Peoples Temple epitomize the giving of self and service to others.

What ever courtesies you and your Government could extend to Reverend Jones would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you very much indeed.

JOSEPH L. ALIOTO

December 7, 1973

To Whom These Presents May Come:

Greetings

These presents will serve to introduce and identify Reverend James W. Jones, Pastor of Peoples Temple Christian Church, probably the largest single Protestant Church in the State of California. The Church has a California membership of over 10,000. Pastor Jones' social service programs are extremely supportive of local law enforcement, and his members hold important positions in local government.

Reverend Jones contemplates a visit to British Guiana during the early part of December, and I respectfully trust he will receive every courtesy and consideration during his sojourn. For purposes of identification his signature appears below.

Very truly yours,

Joseph L. Alioto

Mr. Horan telephoned me today to inquire if I had any information concerning a reported movement by U.S. citizens and Cubans into the Essequibo Region of Guyana. I replied that I did not.

Mr. Horan said that information reaching the Venezuelan Embassy indicates that there is a current influx into a sector known as "Matthew's Ridge". He understood that it is sponsored by the "Peoples' Disciples Movement" and that an eventual total of 4,000 immigrants is contemplated.

Mr. Horan had no other pertinent information, and I told him that I was totally uninformed in the premises.

With further reference to the information contained in my Memcon of May 21, Mr. Noran phoned me again to say that a Dr. Talbot, Bishop of the Peoples' Disciples Movement, was in charge of the migratory effort. The "Matthews Ridge" section had been chosen as the most salubrious area available, and the influx of these 4,000 black U.S. citizens and Cubans was being encouraged by persons concerned over a reinforcement of pro-Jagan and pro-Communist political strength within Guyana.

Rev. Jim Jones
People's Temple
1859 Geary Street
San Francisco, CA

Dear Rev. Jones,

I have been following with great interest the vituperative and defamatory attacks against you and the People's Temple which have appeared in New West magazine and, more recently, reprinted in the Mendicino Grapevine. I recently saw the July 21 editorial in the Sun Re[illegible].

I initially met you in my capacity as attorney for Dennis Banks. At the time of our first meeting his wife, Ka-Mook was incarcerated in Kansas under a $20,000 bail. The defense fund was virtually non-existent and the possibility of Ka-Mook obtaining bail was slim indeed. Then you and the Temple stepped forward and out of the goodness of your heart produced virtually the entire bail for Ka-Mook. This put her in the position of being free to help prepare our defense. Today, we got the wonderful news that the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in San Francisco held that the government's case against her must be dismissed. If you did not provide the bail, she would have had to sit in jail for about two years until she was ultimately vindicated, and instead of being free to be with her family and small babies. If I knew nothing else about you, this would be sufficient for me to sing your praises to every available ear. However, after our initial meeting I was so impressed with your "good works" that I started to do my own "investigation". Everyone spoke in the most glowing terms of you, the Temple, and the work that you have performed. You have constantly articulated the position of the underdog and provided the support necessary to stand up to overwhelming governmental attack. In so many cases you and the Temple made the crucial difference in the ability to withstand these attacks.

I am not a Christian and for many years have felt strongly about the hypocrisy of so many who called themselves "christians". It is only upon coming in contact with the People's Temple that I was able to start to reappraise this opinion and realize that there were people who did take their professed religion seriously and who, in fact, did live up to what I would like to believe being a Christian means.

If there is any way that I can assist you in helping to expose the falsity of the vile attacks against you, please do not hesitate to call on me. It would be but small repayment for the debt that the people of this area owe you.

Sincerely,

Dennis Roberts

Dear Members of Peoples Temple:

To many people in this country, as well as throughout the world, your church and what you stand for has meant hope and justice. But what is more important, that hope has become a reality.

I for one have seen the fruits of your work and have seen that you practice what you teach. There is no doubt in my mind that when an issue of justice or human rights has come to your attention you have always responded in every way possible to help.

I would like to express that although it outrages me to see what the news media is doing it, it does not surprise me. In my life I have always seen that we are always played against each other -- church against church, blacks against latinos, latinos against blacks, every minority and working people blaming each other for their failures and problems because that way they can keep us apart and not see that the real problem is between those who have and those who don't.

I would like to put our organization at your service to do whatever little we can to show the media and whoever is trying to discredit your work that as long as we live we will not stand for anybody trying to destroy any of our honest, hard working leaders that are fighting for our rights.

Sincerely,

Dear Prime Minister Burnham:

Recently in San Francisco a number of people have begun to attach a political meaning to the work carried on by the Rev. Jim Jones and the People's Temple.

As a politician, I am aware from firsthand experiences that the leadership and congregation of People's Temple carry out exceptional public service activities without partisan political overtones.

While it is true that their religious beliefs require active participation in issues confronting the community such as supporting in large numbers the tenants of the International Hotel, 99% of all the work done by People's Temple is in service to the elderly, poor families, and troubled youth. On many occasions I have referred destitute people to People's Temple for help and they have all received it.

It is most unfortunate that some people in San Francisco feel threatened by this very simple organization and philosophy of service.

Sincerely,

Honorable Sir:

I have been active in community programs in the San Francisco area for over forty years. I am a member of long standing in the I.L.W.U. - Longshoreman's Union, the Third Baptist Church and a Deputy Mayor of the City (Deputy for Neighborhood Development). I am well acquainted with the activities of Peoples Temple Church and with the integrity and character of its pastor, Reverend Jim Jones.

Concerning them I say without qualification that this church has been second to none in preventing crime in the city. They have donated thousands of dollars to city-sponsored fund drives for the purpose of creating summer jobs for youth and programs for cultural enrichment.

Too often clever and cynical newswriters, skilled in the art of withering sarcasm and satire can capture the imagination of people, take statements violently out of context and create an atmosphere where violence and harassment result.

On two occasions that I know of, this church has been burned, its members physically attacked, its youngsters attending school humiliated and terrorized. In spite of these discouraging incidents Peoples Temple has remained a vital force for decency and dignity for us all.

The article printed by News West and others are typical of the forces of evil who would destroy a good thing.

Dear Mr. Prime Minister:

I am writing to express my concern for the work which The Reverend Jim Jones and the members of his Peoples Temple (Disciples of Christ) perform in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. As happens all too frequently, when someone actually attempts to live out the commandments of the Christian Gospel, there is adverse reaction from the non-Christian community. And even, sometimes, from within that same community.

Peoples Temple in San Francisco has recently found itself under attack from a few persons who were former members, in addition to a few others who wish to discredit the work and ministry of Peoples Temple - for whatever their motives. I do not attempt to understand or speak to the motives behind these actions; however, I can and will speak to my observations as to the ministry of The Rev. Jim Jones and his congregation.

Rev. Jones is a member of the Board of Directors of the San Francisco Council of Churches, and also serves as chairperson of the Housing Authority in San Francisco. Listening to him speak at our Martin Luther King Anniversary celebration held at Peoples Temple, I felt a deep and sincere commitment to Christ's work in our time. This feeling has been enhanced many times upon other occasion

For example, in the mission work there in Guyana with the youngsters, I know from my own personal experience as a former director of adolescent group homes for emotionally disturbed teenagers that having a setting such as the mission there in Guyana would be most beneficial to the development of the youths concerned: There is a challenge and a beauty. There is a community, and yet a need to develop independence. In short, an ideal place for working with young people who need assistance to come into power over their God-given talents - within a community of loving and knowledgeable persons.

I am grateful that Peoples Temple, and Rev. Jones, are a part of our community here at the Council.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Prime Minister:

It is a privilege that I/we have the opportunity to express a word of concern for the Christian Ministry of the Reverend Jim Jones and the members of People's Temple (Disciples of Christ) here in the city of San Francisco and throughout the State of California.

It appears that persons who contribute to humanity the human needs find themselves in controversial situations, usually marked by mis-information and unsound reasoning.

Rev. Jones has contributed to San Francisco the needs of the under-privileged and the oppressed. He has not done this alone, but with the concern and cooperation of people who are disciples of Christ, in every sense of the word.

Throughout Christ'--ion there has always been those who rejected those who would be followers of Christ. The Scriptures say "feed the hungry - clothe the naked - heal the sick." (He has the spiritual gift of healing and provisions provided for those seeking help.)

Rev. Jones has contributed spiritually to the San Francisco Council of Churches Board of Directors since becoming a member. His members have shown concern in the issue related to Council work. Theirs is a true spiritual commitment and voluntarily rendered. Rev. Jim Jones' philosophy is a challenge to the citizens of San Francisco and especially to Christians who are not committed to the Christian doctrines.

I/we have the privilege and the honor of opportunity to speak for one from our community and a member of the San Francisco Council of Churches.

Yours sincerely,

Donnetar L. Lane, Executive Director

The Honorable Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister Republic of Guyana
Public Buildings Brickdam

Dear Prime Minister Burnham:

I appreciate this opportunity to direct your attention to the work of the People's Temple of San Francisco. At the request of Gene Chaiken, Legal Counsel for the Temple, I thought it appropriate to extend my personal appraisal to you of the work they do here in San Francisco so that it may add to their credibility in their efforts in your own country.

As a matter of introduction, I am a past president of the Bar Association of San Francisco (1975), a professor of law at Hastings College of the Law and Consultant to the Dean at that school. I am a lawyer in active private practice. I do not belong to People's Temple and my only contact with them has been as a result of our shared interests in a variety of community projects in this city.

I have had an opportunity to meet and talk at length with Reverend Jim Jones, examined fully the services and programs of the People's Temple and know their reputation in this community in a variety of sources.

In all respects, the People's Temple makes a major contribution to the social wellbeing of this city, particularly among the disadvantaged, minorities and disabled within our community. Those individuals who often find it difficult to assemble support for their position as they seek to obtain lawful and appropriate rights from our society find a strong and giving ally in Reverend Jim Jones and those with whom he works.

In any community such as ours, there are bound to be those who express concern, and even disapproval, of the work performed by the People's Temple. By and large, I am forced to conclude that most, if not all, of those who criticize the work of the People's Temple do so from a vantage point of ignorance and without a full understanding of the major social objectives and significant daily contributions made by the Temple to the personal lives of thousands of individuals living in our city.

I prefer to believe that if they had a full opportunity to understand the work being done that it would allay their suspicions and put their fears to rest.

While I do not have personal contact with the work being done in your Republic by the People's Temple, I have had it fully described to me and most certainly believe in both the concept and the realization which appears to be a daily event. Projects designed to provide a new life for people without hope demand our full support, yet seldom receive it from the established governmental facilities.

You are to be congratulated and emulated in your contribution with the People's Temple to convert hopeless lives into persons of contribution and significance.

If I can provide any additional information to you at any time, please don't hesitate to let me know. Best regards.

Very truly yours,

e. robert (bob) wallach

Honorable Sir:

I have been asked to write a letter concerning the status of the People's Temple in San Francisco and its pastor, the Rev. Jim Jones. I am glad to do this because of my deep respect for these splendid people.

For the past 5 years I served as the Executive Minister of the Northern California Ecumenical Council and the San Francisco Council of Churches before recently becoming the pastor of this parish and retaining only part of the responsibilities that are related to ecumenical work. During this time I have had many opportunities to work with and observe Jim Jones and his people. In every instance they displayed an enormous amount of integrity and commitment to the poor and the oppressed. I can only wish that all churches did as much to help those who need help.

As this letter is written, part of the media in the San Francisco area is attacking the credibility of People's Temple and their pastor. They are quoting some disgruntled former members who were asked to leave the congregation or who chose to leave because of differences of opinion. I have seen no evidence that the accusations being made are true and I do not expect any proof to be forthcoming. At this point it would appear that a conspiracy has formed for the purpose of hurting the ministry of People's Temple.

I have heard good things about the agricultural project that People's Temple is associated with in your country. And I have heard Rev. Jones speak very highly of Guyana on several occasions. I hope that this relationship shall continue to flourish and be beneficial to all.

Very sincerely yours,

Lynn E. Hodges, Pastor

Dear Sir:

I have been familiar with the career of Rev. Jim Jones for many years. He has done outstanding work with our troubled youth, the needy aged, the sick and the poor.

I feel he is under attack because he has chosen to question the system that breeds the above adversities. If the Rev. Jones spoke for the corporations and not for the people, he would not find himself so bitterly assailed by our press.

We hear great things of the Peoples' Temple Project in Guyana. We are grateful for your government's kindness and cooperation. I hope it shall continue.

Dear Mr. Burnham:

I am writing to express my admiration for the work that Rev. Jim Jones, his wife, and his congregation at Peoples' Temple are doing in San Francisco, California.

Just recently I had the opportunity to visit the Temple, and to see the people, all ages, all colors, finding guidance and encouragement there. In the last two or three years it has been wonderful to watch Rev. Jones and his people in their quest for a better life for people. Unhappily, our city and our country are full of people in terrible physical as well as spiritual need.

Personally, I do most of my own work in the political field, and Rev. Jones has been most helpful on occasion with his moral support and encouragement. His project in your country is an exciting one to us, and we we will await further word as to its development.

Thank you and your country for all the help you have given Rev. Jones and his people. We will try to do the same here.

Honorable Sir;

I am writing this letter in support of the Peoples Temple and Rev. Jim Jones. It is important that you hear from us who are community leaders in San Francisco. I am the President of the San Francisco National Organization For Women as well as serving two terms as a National Board Member. I have also been a school Administrator over the past twenty years. Currently I am running for the Board of Supervisors of the City of San Francisco.

There is no doubt in my mind when I say that the Rev. Jones is a person of integrity and commitment. I have seen the work of the Temple. Poor people are fed there. I have seen the Health Clinic of the Temple. Sick people are cared for there. I have seen drug victims being helped back to reality at the Temple. I have seen a creative and innovative school in operation at the Temple. I have seen and know personally some of the very disturbed youth that the Temple has literally saved from certain self destruction.

Do not listen to those who wish to stop the Temple's activities whether it be here in San Francisco or in your country. Give it your continued support along with the major leaders of San Francisco. Rev. Jones is a great leader with a great mission. He truly cares and shares with oppressed humans. I am ready to answer any questions you may have.

Dear Mr. Prime Minister:

I am writing on behalf of Peoples' Temple and my friend, Jim Jones. I have known of the work of the church for seven or eight years, and have known Jim during that time. We have talked of Guyana and the work of the church there.

Jim has sounded to me much like DAvid I. Mitchell, whose office is in Barbados, when he has talked of the quality of life, and hopes and possibilities for the future in Guyana. My wife and I heard Dr. Mitchell several weeks ago, and are reading his book, New Mission for a New People: Voices from The Caribbean, with interest. I turned first to the chapter on Guyana, because of my familiarity with the country through Jim.

Jim and Peoples' Temple have worked with the weak and the poor and the oppressed providing health care, counsel for those in conflict with the law, and housing for the aged and retarded. His identification with the people who live in public housing in San Francisco brought him into conflict with vested interests who derive income from their services to the housing authority. Jim stood with the residents over against those who made money in the housing areas, but lived elsewhere.

I am persuaded that Peoples' Temple is committed to the welfare of the people. They can provide men and women with skills and commitment to work with the people of Guyana. As I understand Guyana, their vision of the future future is in harmony with the hopes of the people Guyana.

I wish you and your people well, and the people of Peoples' Temple who cast their lot with you.

With peace and hope,

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you as a member of the Human Rights Commission in San Francisco to indicate to you my personal support of the Reverend James Jones who, with the permission of your government, has established and operated an Agriculture Mission in your country for a number of years.

Mr. Jones is also the pastor of the "Peoples Temple" Church here in San Francisco. I have observed a number of services at the Peoples Temple, and witnessed the extensive activities of community service engaged in by the Peoples Temple to the poor in this city. The Reverend Jones' church provides a wide variety of services, including free medical and food programs, which have been a great service to our community. In essence, Peoples Temple seems to me to be a church involved in what Christianity is all about: people of all ages working and living together in harmony and serving the community.

Our reports of the Peoples Temple activities in Guyana are, that the church is involved in similar activities of service through a progressive Agricultural Mission which is also providing great benefits to the people of your country.

These outstanding contributions of the Peoples Temple lead me to share with you, my impression of the mutual benefit from the services of Peoples Temple and urge your support of their activities in your country.

Dear President Carter:

I am writing to you because our church, Peoples Temple, is currently the target of what religious and community leaders in this area have agreed is a vicious smear campaign, based upon a series of spurious, unsubstantiated and outrageous allegations. The vehicle initially carrying these attacks was a magazine owned by scandalmonger and sensationalist news magnate Rupert Murdoch, whose Village Voice recently targeted you for attack ("Nixon's Third Term," August 1, 1977). We feel that these press attacks on us have a neo-McCarthyite dimension, which I will clarify later on. A few of the media here have taken up the vendetta, and are publishing a steady barrage of articles, calling for investigations of us by several government agencies. These are already underway, though the investigators have recently indicated that they can find, after extensive interviewing, no evidence of criminal activity, despite the sound and fury of the press attacks. Already persons who made some of these allegations are under scrutiny, disavowing their stories.

It is clear that the reporters involved have obviously not probed the allegations of their sources, and only one newspaperman in the area, the president of the black press association (NNPA), has spoken out in our defense. The character of the sources, as well as the private investigator they have hired, is highly questionable. (The investigator, a Mr. Mazor, has served two terms in jail for felonies, and has only the flimsiest of credentials). We have compiled a series of affadavits on those making the charges which detail how some of them at one time even tried to persuade or even force members of our church to take a course of violence and terrorsim in order to advance progressive social goals. Another of the sources even idolized Hitler. When Rev. Jones learned of some of this provocateur-type activity, he came down most firmly against these persons, and some were asked to leave the church. Others who have harbored resentments against Peoples Temple for petty, personal reasons, have also been brought together in a co-ordinated effort explicitly designed to destroy our church, and have even bragged about it.

An individual responsible for "bringing together" some of those who have offered testimony against Peoples Temple, at one time was going around portraying himself as a "Treasury agent." We were highly suspicious, and checked on it with the IRS, who thought it was someone working independently. When this man later surfaced at the time the story about us broke last month, we were doubly suspicious. We have also learned that this same individual approached an American Indian leader asking him to give damaging testimony against us. We noted the man's own legal problems considerably worsened shortly after he refused to co-operate in the scheme.

The entire business is having the lamentable effect of alienating from society a great number of our younger members, many ow whom were problem children, delinquents, and drug users, who we have painstakingly worked with to overcome their previous disaffection with society and their lack of desire to work responsibly for its betterment. We fear that they may, along with many others, turn back to former patterns of antisocial, even destructive behavior.

But our concern rests at an even deeper level, which has prompted us to write you. One of our most significant projects in recent years has been the establishment of a large agricultural mission/community in the Caribbean nation of Guyana. Originally conceived of as a practically-oriented mission that would help the nation in the development of a diversified tropical agriculture, medical services, and small-scale technology, the project has evolved into a full-scale community of several hundred, and has won the praises of government officials here (Lt. Governor Mervyn Dymally of California visited there) and in Guyana, where it has been called the most successful project of its kind in the nation. Recently, Ambassador Andrew Young was in Guyana, and has since mentioned that we should be supportive of newly-emerging nations pursuing progressive social courses. Our desire has been to foster goodwill and a co-operative spirit there that shows the essentially positive and generous nature of the American people. Rev. Jones has been a kind of "good will ambassador" in Guyana, speaking on the radio frequently, and from various pulpits.

We are concerned that the smear attacks on Peoples Temple (which have of late included several press portrayals of our mission as a "hard labor" camp) may be needlessly, tragically, and purposely endangering good will and understanding that Rev. Jones and his staff have carefully built up over several years. We have a marvelous opportunity to show the developing nations of the world that the American people are supportive and interested in their populations attaining a good life, and will even (as we have) offer practical assistance in a spirit of co-operation and humanitarian service. This can also overcome mistrust and a legacy of "the ugly American" that has hindered progress in relations with these nations.

Again, we have been pained by the way the media has attempted to smear this innovative, marvelous human service program which has taken us years and a great "labor of love" to build, and a great deal of our church's resources. We have established the mission/community in Guyana entirely with our own resources.

We are persuaded, then, that the attacks on Peoples Temple are motivated by a desire to disrupt that new trend in American diplomacy, especially in the Caribbean. We are wondering, therefore, if there might be some way in which your office could assist or advise us in counteracting the appalling power of the press to pressure investigative agencies, and even manipulate them into crediting irresponsible attempts to slander, smear, and vilify our church and our minister.

Peoples Temple has always been and will continue to be supportive of your Administration in its efforts to achieve human rights and peace throughout the world. You have created a real feeling of hope and trust that seemed to have vanished from national leadership. Our faith in you may be gauged by our bringing this matter to your attention in a spirit of candor and concern.

Ambassador Young and Mrs. Carter, as well as the Vice-President, have especially impressed and encouraged us in their diplomatic missions, that America can take a decisive lead in bringing the world closer to the vision of compassion and tolerance you have articulated as President.

Sincerely yours,

Richard D. Tropp

ADDENDA

1. Approximately ten months ago, the mayor of Mayersville, Mississippi, Ms. Unita Blackwell Wright, spoke at Peoples Temple about her experiences in the Peoples Republic of China, which she toured with Shirley McLaine recently. During her talk, we noticed a man loitering in the alley adjacent to our church, with what appeared to be monitoring devices. We traced him through the license plate of the car rental vehicle he used, to what appears to be an intelligence unit attached to Senator Stennis. We have tried to find out more about this odd occurence, through the help of our local Congressman, but to no avail. It is incidents like this that cause us great apprehension that smear campaigns based upon spurious, flimsy allegations may have considerably more far-reaching implications and purposes.

2. Our frequent amateur radio contacts between San Francisco and Guyana has given us a great opportunity to spread good will among thousands of operators who have facilitated our radio contact. Just the other night we were in touch with over 20 operators who learned of the co-operation of our country with Guyana through our church mission program.

Re: Peoples Temple

Dear Mr. Tumminia;

This is written in reference to our telephone conversation of yesterday August 23, 1977 and is in reply to your request for written documentation concerning the situation in Guyana. It is most interesting that on the very day that I contacted you, you received complaints and information relating to the same issue from other sources and I do wish to thank you for discussing the matter at length with me.

However, since I have already written a lengthy letter to Mr. McCoy at our Embassy in Guyana and attached additional material relating to the matter, I have simply inclosed a xeror of that letter and material for your information - I call your attention to paragraph 2, page two, regarding the passport issue, which may be of immediate concern to your office.

Lastly, I would appreciate the assistance of the Guyana Government in my task of locating and returning these children to their parents and guardians. They are all American citizens and under the age of eighteen. This office has retained counsel in Guyana in order to meet any requirement that the government may have with regard to civil rights, or custody.

Your assistance would be most beneficial.

Very truly yours,

Joseph A. Mazor

Dear Sir:

A perfidious campaign against Reverend Jim Jones and People's Temple has come to our attention. Sensationalistic-prone, [illegible] journalists, corrupt and decadent magazines are trying to misrepresent the work of People's Temple and to taint the honor of Rev. Jones. Our organization, which organizes community schools at the elementary, secondary and college level, wants very much to dispel the effects of this infamous campaign and to give People's Temple our total support.

We know of the activities of People's Temple through our association with Ms. Yvonne Golden, a distinguished American educator who pursues an active role in the public schools of San Francisco, bringing hope and vitality to otherwise impoverished students from humble families in our city. She speaks highly of People's Temple, and we know her to be an extremely honorable and truthful person.

So, Mr. Prime Minister, People's Temple is not just a charitable organization. It is an active alliance of the members of our community working to bring to our society not only the most ample democracy but, at the same time, a spirit of social justice that is the very essence of Christianity. Self reliance, hard work, discipline and, above everything, a profound respect for human dignity is the essence of People's Temple's work. Our organization cannot let this occasion pass by without supporting this most significant movement in our country. As you know, sometimes dull and uninspired journalists find in cheap sensationalism a way to sell more papers. It is unfortunate that in this case they have chosen to attack a most noble and singular organization. We are sure that you, as head of an enlightened government, know some of the most ugly aspects of the so-called freedom of the press.

Above everything, People's Temple will continue helping people, working with them and bringing hope to all citizens. We hope they will receive your support.

In the name of our Board of Directors.

Sincerely yours,

SUBJECT: PEOPLE'S TEMPLE PROGRAMS

Ms. Paula Adams, accompanied by another member of the People's Temple, came to see me this afternoon to play a tape that they had made of the conversation between Paula Adams and a member of their organization called Maria Katasaris. On the tape Ms. Katasaris stated that her father was coming to Georgetown to see her, but that she did not wish to see him because of a number of traumatic experiences she had suffered while she was living with him. Ms. Katasaris claimed to be 24 years old and was living in Jonestown of her own free will and she intimated in the telephone conversation that her father had sexually assaulted her and committed other acts against her which lead her to leave him and never wish to see him again. She stated categorically that she had no intentions of leaving Jonestown and did not wish to be bothered by her father or have any type of personal contact with him. In addition to the conversation I had received a telegram from Ms. Katasaris stating, in essence, the same thing.

I informed Ms. Adams that the father had not been in communication with the Embassy and that I would pass on Ms. Katasaris' message to him if he does come to Georgetown. I suggested, though, that it would be more effective if Ms. Katasaris, at some time soon, could come to Georgetown on Peoples Temple business and drop in and see me and state so in person. Ms. Adams thought that this was unlikely and said that she personally was upset by all these requests coming in about whether people were being held against their will by the organization. I told her that I could understand the feeling but that, as I pointed out to her in an earlier conversation, she should not consider this unusual in view of the allegations made in the United States press and the fact that the organization had just recently brought such large numbers of people to settle in Guyana. I continued that I thought that by a Consular Officer having personal contact with these individuals and being able to report that they did wish to remain in the agricultural community, this should dissipate the fears of the families of those concerned as well as allay any other fears that people are being mistreated and held against their will by the People's Temple. Ms. Adams agreed and said that the organization could not understand why there was all this sudden harrassment taking place in the United States and now in Guyana.

I countered that from what I could see most of the problems appeared to be caused by former members of the organization and that she should understand that relatives would be reading this in the press and becoming naturally concerned about their relatives' well being. Ms. Adams should also clearly understand that the Embassy did not intend to take sides in any disputes involving her organization unless there was absolute evidence to support such an allegation, but that should the Department of State order us to have personal contact with that individual then we had no choice but to do so. I assured her that I nor the Embassy were concerned about these allegati unless they could be proven to us and we only acted upon official inquiries by the U. S. Government. I indicated to her that while I enjoyed going up to the Northwest District, I had a lot of other things that I needed to do and that it was difficult for me to have to take the time to leave Georgetown and I again reiterated toher that I was as much their Consul as anybody else's.

FROM : CONS/Richard A. Mc Coy

SUBJECT: PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IMMIGRANTS - MARIA KATSARIS

On September 29 Mr. Steve A. Katsaris, DPOB: March 28, 1928, Ohio, came to the Embassy to discuss with me his daughter, Maria, who is currently residing at the People's Temple Agricultural Community in Jonestown, Northwest District.

Mr. Katsaris stated that he had come to Guyana to see his daughter because he was concerned about her well being. Mr. Katsaris continued that up until just recently (about three to four months), his daughter had invited him to visit her in Guyana. However, in the last two or three radio telephone conversations he has had with her, she had suddenly changed her mind and began telling him not to come that she did not want to see him. Mr. Katsaris indicated he was concerned for two reasons:-

1) That she has been psychologically pressured by the People's Temple to turn against him or

2) the group does not want to be seen by any outsiders, therefore, she has been pressured into telling him not to come.

Mr. Katsaris explained that he was not opposed to the People's Temple or even his daughter being a member. However, he was very worried about her and in particular her mental condition. He did not want to force himself upon her but, on the other hand, he could not understand why she refused to come to Georgetown to see him. He feared that she is now in some physical danger because of his pressure to see her.

I explained to Mr. Katsaris that while I sympathized with him as a father, officially, there was nothing I could do. His daughter is over 21 years of age and of course, had the right to determine who she will and will not see. Furthermore, I pointed out I had received a telegram from her which indicated she did not wish to see him. I also mentioned that the People's Temple representatives played a tape in my presence of the radio telephone conversation between Maria and a member of the People's Temple in

Georgetown in which she indicated very strongly that she did not wish to see her father. Mr. Katsaris stated that he was from Ukiah, California, and was by profession a psychologist. He said he was aware of the allegations in the press in the U. S. made against the People's Temple. He continued that when his daughter first joined the organization he was happy because it seemed to be a worthwhile religious organization, which was dedicated to helping the poor and disadvantaged. However, he noticed that over a period of time his daughter became secretive about her church activities. However, he continued to support her in the church and even on occasion donated small sums of money to the People's Temple. Mr. Katsaris then showed me letters he had received from Maria over the past several months and asked whether I thought these letters indicated a relationship that was presumably as bad as Maria had indicated to me through her telephone conversation and telegram. The letters were warm and long, filled with descriptions of her life in Georgetown and in the Northwest region. They did not indicate that she was a sibling who hated or feared her father. I indicated to Mr. Katsaris that I believed I had seen his daughter during my visit to Jonestown on August 30th. I described her to him and the conditions of the farm and told him I had met her fiance a young doctor attached to the community.

Mr. Katsaris concluded the conversation stating that he would most probably return to Washington to talk to people he knew there to determine if there was something that could be done in this matter. I pointed out to him that should the Department of State request me to make personal, private contact with his daughter I would do so. However, I emphasized to him that there was no way that I could prove if she was under any serious mental strain unless she chose to tell me so. Naturally, I would observe what I could about conditions at the farm but that unless a formal complaint was made, I had no authority to conduct any investigation or request the assistance of the local authorities to do so.

BUREAU OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Dear Sir:

Our church has established a large agricultural mission project in the interior of Guyana, South America. The project is thriving and has been widely acclaimed and commended by Guyanese officials, as well as officials from the United States who have visited there, such as the Lieutenant Governor of California, Hon. Mervyn Dymally.

I am enclosing a recently published report on our work there, along with supplementary materials that provide more detail about the scope and nature of this extensive undertaking.

I am writing because of reports that have come to us from a parent of a young woman residing at the mission community, to the effect that persons in our State Department are for some reason "unhappy" with our project. We have no further details.

Naturally, we are concerned about such reports, and we would like to know if you or someone in the State Department could help us to evaluate them.

Our only desire has been to create a program in Guyana which will show the practical, helpful and beneficial effects of Christian mission. Our community has grown in the three years it has been under development. Many persons, young and old, who have found their lives lacking fulfillment, have found meaninful opportunities for human service in the peaceful, natural, and wholesome surroundings of our mission.

If there are any questions or further information you would like about our work in our Caribbean mission, please let us know, or contact our project directly through P. O. Box 893,

"For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat:
I was thirsty and ye gave me drink:
I was a stranger and ye took me in:
Naked, and ye clothed me:
I was sick and ye visited me:
I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying,
When saw we thee an hungered and fed thee?
Or thirsty, and gave thee drink?
When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in?
Or naked, and clothed thee?
Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these... ye have done it unto me"

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of	No. 719-147
Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN	ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY
and
Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

MARGARET RYAN
ATTORNEY AT LAW

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents

W OLIVER STOEN --- CHARACTER REFERENCES

1. Superior Judge Arthur D. Broaddus: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney... [illegible] work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an approximation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/76]

2. Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Merle P. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [illegible]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and deft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." The Honorable Cyrus Vance
Secretary of State
Department of State

Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Mr. Secretary:

A young San Francisco attorney, Margaret Ryan, has brought the case described in the attached clipping to my attention. Ms. Ryan and attorney Jeff Haas represent Timothy and Grace Stoan in their effort to recover custody of their 5 year old son. The son is being held by the Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana.

John Stoen

The Stoens have been awarded custody of the child by a California court. The problem now is convincing the Courts and government of Guyana to enforce the U.S. court order.

The background of the case is exceedingly complex and involves the operation of a religious sect called the "Peoples Temple," operated by Rev. Jones. My interest in the case stems from my long acquaintance with Jeff Haas' father in Coos Bay, Oregon, and I don't pretend to any knowledge of the "Peoples Temple" but I can sympathize with the anguish the Stoens must be feeling as they entrust the fate of their child to the uncertainties of a Guyanese court. I would hope that the U.S. Embassy in Guyana would do all that it can to help. At least I hope you can call this matter to the attention of the proper authorities so that it can be heard and decided, hopefully, on its merits without untoward delay.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT B. DUNCAN

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Reiterman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Finnegan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Temple attorney Charles Garry [illegible] to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. He said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could easily cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 25 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

Added Stoen, "I made a prom[illegible] be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1976 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1969, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1975. The last time she saw her son was in September 1978 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September, but his efforts to find Jones and the

Re: Request for Assistance in Enforcement of Court Order Against Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana

Dear Sir:

On November 18, 1977, the Superior Court of the State of California ordered our office to "take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order." Paragraph 4 of the order (a copy attached) states:

> "It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE MARY STOEN, or to her authorized representative."

According to our information, the underlying facts are that Rev. Jones has refused to deliver the child to his legal parents, each of whom testified before the court and joined the request for the order issued. Our office is representing the court pursuant to Section 4700(c) of the California Civil Code.

We are respectfully asking you to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Rev. Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order. If we cannot obtain Rev. Jones' compliance in this manner, it will be our duty pursuant to Section 5160 of the California Civil Code to apply to the court for a warrant of arrest against Rev. Jones.

We will be most grateful for whatever you can do to help. Time may be of the essence. Please let our office know if you need further information.

Thank you very much indeed.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Bennett

I draw your attention to the attached letter which I received today, November 29, from Joseph Freitas, District Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco.

Pursuant to this letter, and in light of the fact that a court hearing will be held in early December to determine whether the Government of Guyana will comply with the California court order, I strongly urge that the State Department take all necessary and proper steps to ensure that the court proceedings in Guyana are conducted in a fair and proper manner.

This is in reply to your letter of June [illegible] concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, who is presently in the custody of a religious group known as the People's Temple, in Guyana. Congressman Robert Duncan has also expressed interest in this case and has received a similar reply.

As you are aware John Stoen's mother, Mrs. Grace Stoen, Attorneys Mark Lane and Jeffrey Haas in connection with her regarding court proceedings in Guyana to regain custody of her son. It is noted that Mrs. Stoen previously signed over custody of John to the religious group. Both Mr. Haas and Mr. Ryan have visited the Department of State to express their concern and to seek guidance concerning the handling of a child custody court matter in Guyana. While Mr. Haas was in Guyana for some preliminary court proceedings, he was in close touch with officers at the American Embassy there, who offered him every possible assistance, including personal representations by the Chargé d'Affaires to high Guyanese government officials when Mr. Haas believed that political pressures were being brought to bear in the judicial system. John Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan agree that the American Embassy offered Mr. Haas all possible assistance during his visit to Guyana. Mrs. Stoen has also retained an attorney in Guyana to represent her. We are informed that the attorney was recommended by the Solicitor General of Guyana and that he enjoys a very good reputation in Guyana.

During Ms. Ryan's recent visit to the Department she talked at length about Mr. Haas's and her belief that the pending judicial proceedings were going to be unfair in some manner, unduly prejudicing the judge against their client. She was unable to be specific and was counseled to keep in close touch with the Embassy for any required assistance during the hearings.

neither the department nor the embassy can exercise progressions of normal court procedures which have not yet happened.

We have attempted to assure Mr. Davis and Mr. Ryan that in our experience Guyana is a country with a strong rule of law and that the judicial system therefore has not been unduly influenced by outside political interference. Should Mr. Davis, Mr. Ryan or their Guyanese representative believe that the hearing which is afforded them on behalf of Mrs. Steen is not conducted in accordance with the local law, they should promptly bring any irregularities to the attention of the American Embassy.

With respect to the basic question regarding custody, such orders issued by individual states in the United States have no validity outside the jurisdiction of the court which issues them. The question of John Victor Steen's custody can only be decided at this time by the competent court having jurisdiction in his present place of residence, Guyana. Although the California court orders may be useful in the case in Guyana, the family must not expect that the hearing in Guyana is to enforce the California court order. The hearing in Guyana is to determine the custody of John Victor Steen. His family and their attorneys must be prepared to discuss the basic custody matter with the court in Guyana and not expect that court to accept the decisions of a foreign (U.S.) court at face value.

This information conforms that provided to Ms. Theresa Arnold of your staff on December 2?, 1977 by telephone. For additional information about child custody cases please telephone Miss Elizabeth Powers at our Office of Consular Services on 632-3215.

The Hon. Cyrus Vance

Dear Mr. Secretary:

For some time now, I have been aware of the activities of a man in San Francisco who is a natural born United States citizen and refers to himself as the Reverend Jim Jones. In recent years, he has established what he refers to as "People's Temple" under the laws of the State of California. In the last year, Mr. Jones and many of those who consider themselves members of his church left with apparent haste and are now in apparent residence in the nation of Guyana.

In connection with that exodus, he took with him several minors. One of those minors is the subject of the enclosed court action.

You will note the concern of the San Francisco District Attorney with regard to this case. Please consider this letter to be a request to investigate what action might be taken in connection with Mr. Jones in regard to his passport or other means to obtain his presence here in this country before courts which may wish to question him.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Request for Assistance in Enforcement of Court Order Against Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana

Dear Sir:

On November 18, 1977, the Superior Court of the State of California ordered our office to "take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order." Paragraph 4 of the order (a copy attached) states:

> "It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STORM, to the Petitioner, GRACE ROSE STORM, or to her authorized representative."

According to our information, the underlying facts are that Rev. Jim Jones, a United States citizen, is living in Guyana, South America, where he is exercising physical custody over John Victor Storm, a 5-year old child who is also a United States citizen. Rev. Jones has refused to deliver the child to his legal parents, each of whom testified before the court and joined the request for the order issued. Our office is representing the court pursuant to Section 4728(a) of the California Civil Code.

We are respectfully asking you to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Rev. Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order. If we cannot obtain Rev. Jones' compliance in this manner, it will be our duty pursuant to section 5160 of the California civil code to apply to the court for a warrant of arrest against Rev. Jones.

We will be most grateful for whatever you can do to help. Please spy be at the ostrich. Please let our office know if you need further information.

Thank you very much indeed.

Dear Mr. Freitas:

The Secretary has asked that I reply to your letter of November 25 concerning the child custody case of John Victor Stoen in Guyana.

We understand that John Stoen's mother has engaged attorneys Margaret Ryan and Jeffrey Haas to counsel her regarding court proceedings in Guyana to regain custody of her son. It is noted that Mrs. Stoen previously signed over custody of John to the religious group. Both Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan have visited the Department of State to express their concern and to pose questions concerning the handling of a child custody court hearing in Guyana. They have been advised that the Embassy in Georgetown is prepared to offer all possible assistance to them and to Mrs. Stoen's Guyanese attorney if such assistance is required during the hearings scheduled for this month.

As you are no doubt aware, neither the Department of State nor the Superior Court for the State of California has the authority to enforce the order of November 18

Dear Mr. Secretary:

A young San Francisco attorney, Margaret Ryan, has brought the case described in the attached clipping to my attention. Ms. Ryan and attorney Jeff Haas represent Timothy and Grace Stoen in their effort to recover custody of their 5 year old son. The son is being held by the Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana.

John Stoen

The Stoens have been awarded custody of the child by a California court. The problem now is convincing the Courts and government of Guyana to enforce the U.S. court order.

The background of the case is exceedingly complex and involves the operation of a religious sect called the "Peoples Temple," operated by Rev. Jones. My interest in the case stems from my long acquaintance with Jeff Haas' father in Coos Bay, Oregon, and I don't pretend to any knowledge of the "Peoples Temple" but I can sympathize with the anguish the Stoens must be feeling as they entrust the fate of their child to the uncertainties of a Guyanese court. I would hope that the U.S. Embassy in Guyana would do all that it can to help. At least I hope you can call this matter to the attention of the proper authorities so that it can be heard and decided, hopefully, on its merits without untoward delay.

Thank you for your attention.

v. 19, 1977

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Ratterman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Flanagan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Temple attorney Charles Garry said Jones will have to decide how to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. He said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could easily cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 25 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

Added Stoen, "I made a promise to myself that John Victor will be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1976 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March ... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1969, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that [illegible]tings of church members prompted her to leave in 1976. The last time she saw her son was in September 1976 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September, but his efforts to find Jones and the boy were unsuccessful.

On December 12, I held a long discussion (two hours) with three members of the People's Temple at their request. They were concerned about the motive behind my intended visit to Jonestown next month. As usual, I explained to them that there were still allegations being made against them in the United States about holding people against their will here and as a result, I was receiving inquiries through the Department of State from relatives to have personal contact with members to insure their well being. I informed them that they should not conclude from this that I believe these allegations or was in some way carrying out a quasi judicial action. This was simply part of my responsibility as the American Consul in Guyana.

In addition, I also pointed out to them that eventually I would have to be doing social security compliance requests in which I would have to confirm for the Social Security Administration (SSA) that recipients of social security benefits were alive and well. However, this program did not just pertain to retired members of the People's Temple but to all SSA annuitants in Guyana.

At the same time I pointed out that I was prepared to assist them any time when they had any problems such as with the recent death case, reporting births, passport services and any other function where they may need assistance. I continued that by travelling to Jonestown it would obviate the need for a number of elderly people to have to make a long, arduous trip to Georgetown.

At the same time I emphasized that I had not made a trip since the last part of August and since that period I have received a number of inquiries from individuals in the United States asking about the health and well being of their relatives residing in Jonestown. I was aware that the People's Temple may feel persecuted by certain elements in the United States but they should understand that I have a job to perform and I would try to perform it as objectively as possible - I was as much their Consul as anybody else's and that with 800 American citizens living up there, I was naturally interested in their welfare. On the other hand I had no wish to intrude on their privacy. Moreover, to the best of my knowledge, the People's Temple is not under active Federal investigation nor are there any warrants of arrest issued by any United States Law Enforcement Agency. If such were the case, then the Guyanese Police Officials would carry out any arrests since I did not have this type of authority. I remarked that it appeared to me the more times I go up to Jonestown and visit the area and am able to comment to Washington that there does not appear to be anyone held against their will, etc., the less inquiries on the safety and well being of their members we will receive. The three members acknowledged this by stating that they really wanted to be sure that I was objective. They had heard reports that I was a member of the CIA and that at times they had seen me in the company of Jeffrey Haas and that I had met with Steven Katsaris. I replied that by now with all that has passed with these problems, they should know that I do not take sides and as the Consul here it was only proper that Steven Katsaris come to see me since that is a part of my job. I would be very happy to show up at court with the members of the People's Temple as I would with anybody else. They simply had to understand that I was interested in their welfare and certainly interested in the John Stoen custody case since all the disputants were American citizens. I continued that I still feel it was absolutely ridiculous for the Katsaris girl to show up with an attorney when she met with her father. The three individuals disputed this last statement of mine claiming that she wanted the attorney with her so that her father could not intimidate her. I responded that how could her father intimidate her when I was there, the Guyanese Ambassador to the United States was there as were several other members of the People's Temple.

At this point, our conversation covered the allegations of psychological intimidation by members of the People's Temple, the alleged embezzlement by Bishop Jones on social security checks and the conspiracy that is being conducted against the People's Temple by elements in the United States. When I challenged them to indicate to me who "they" were, the group responded by showing me a book in which purportedly 88 prominent American blacks had been subjected to various investigations by Federal Agencies. I reiterated that first of all I did not believe the CIA would be interested in them and secondly, that at the present time U. S. investigative agencies do not conduct witch hunts. Furthermore, I was unaware of any investigative interest on the part of the United States toward the People's Temple. One member pointed out that a recent shipment of machinery and household effects destined for the community had been opened by U. S. Customs and searched. Also for the first time here in Guyana they were experiencing difficulty in clearing this shipment through Guyana Customs, even though it had been thoroughly searched by Guyanese Customs Officials and they had duty free import licenses for the contents. They asked whether I could assist them to get the items cleared. I agreed and called Dennis Corlette, Head of Customs, on their behalf. He was not in so I spoke to his secretary who agreed to put them in contact with the person who could help them. I remarked to the group that it is not easy to clear items through customs these days and gave them the example of the problems I had clearing my son's shotgun.

Essentially, the remainder of the meeting continued in this vein. There was much 'to-ing and fro-ing' and discussing of conspiracy allegations, future trips by Consular Officers and further problems.

COMMENT:

Apparently, what triggered this visit at this time was my comments that I would be going to Jonestown next month. This coincides, reportedly, with the arrival of Grace and Timothy Stoen to Guyana to [illegible] custody of their son, John, so the group connected the two. I am not sure whether I was able to convince them that I am truly objective and that I would really prefer there were no problems. In closing, I simply emphasized to them that they would be able to judge for themselves of the role of the Embassy in all this. I told the group I enjoyed the dialogue and they should feel free to contact me at any time to continue it.

Dear Mr. Edwards:

I am replying to your letter of December 2 on behalf of San Francisco District Attorney Joseph Freitas, Jr., requesting the Department of State to assist Mr. Freitas in securing enforcement of a California Court Order. The order involves the child custody case of John Victor Stoen who is presently in the custody of a religious group known as The People's Temple in Guyana. Congressman Robert Duncan and Phillip Burton have also expressed interest in this case and have received similar replies.

We note that John Stoen's mother previously signed over custody of John to the religious group. The Department has also met personally with the two California attorneys engaged by Mrs. Stoen to assist her in this case. They have been given advice concerning the handling of a child custody case in a foreign country. They have also been advised that the American Embassy in Guyana is prepared to offer all possible assistance to themselves and to Mrs. Stoen's Guyanese attorney if such assistance is required during the hearings scheduled in Guyana this month.

Neither the Department of State nor the Superior Court, State of California has the authority to enforce in Guyana the order of November 18 regarding the custody of John Victor Stoen. Under many foreign laws there are provisions for proving foreign judgements, although, unfortunately, custody orders are usually excluded from this procedure. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. The question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyana courts, after hearing all relevant evidence, on the basis of Guyanese law. The California court order undoubtedly will be given evidentiary weight in the custody hearing, but by no means will it be binding on that court.

The Honorable
Don Edwards,
House of Representatives.

I trust that this information will be helpful to you. Additional questions concerning child custody may be referred to Miss Elizabeth Powers of our Office of Special Consular Services on 632-3015.

Dear Mr. [redacted]:

This is in reply to your letter of November 29 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, who is presently in the custody of a religious group known as The People's Temple, in Guyana. Congressman Robert Duncan has also expressed interest in this case and has received a similar reply.

As you are aware John Stoen's mother has engaged Attorneys Margaret Ryan and Jeffrey Haas to counsel her regarding court proceedings in Guyana to regain custody of her son. It is noted that Mrs. Stoen previously signed over custody of John to the religious group. Both Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan have visited the Department of State to express their concern and to pose questions concerning the handling of a child custody court hearing in Guyana. While Mr. Haas was in Guyana for some preliminary court proceedings, he was in close touch with officers at the American Embassy there, who offered him every possible assistance, including personal representations by the Charge d'Affaires to high Guyanese government officials when Mr. Haas believed that political pressures were being brought to bear in the judicial system. Both Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan agree that the American Embassy offered Mr. Haas all possible assistance during his visit to Guyana. Mrs. Stoen has also retained an attorney in Guyana to represent her. We are informed that the attorney was recommended by the Solicitor General of Guyana and that he enjoys a very good reputation in Guyana.

During Ms. Ryan's recent visit to the Department she talked at length about Mr. Haas's and her belief that the pending judicial proceedings were going to be unfair in some manner, unduly prejudicing the judge against their client. She was unable to be specific and was counseled to keep in close touch with the Embassy for any required assistance during the hearings.

The Honorable
Phillip Burton,
House of Representatives.

Neither the Department nor the Embassy can protest transgressions of normal court procedures which have not yet happened.

We have attempted to assure Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan that in our experience Guyana is a country with a strong rule of law and that the judicial system there heretofore has not been unduly influenced by outside political interference. Should Mr. Haas, Ms. Ryan or their Guyanese representative believe that the hearing which is afforded them on behalf of Mrs. Stoen is not conducted in accordance with the local law, they should promptly bring any irregularities to the attention of the American Embassy.

With respect to the basic question regarding custody, such orders issued by individual states in the United States have no validity outside the jurisdiction of the court which issues them. The question of John Victor Stoen's custody can only be decided at this time by the competent court having jurisdiction in his present place of residence, Guyana. Although the California court orders may be useful in the case in Guyana, the family must not expect that the hearing in Guyana is to enforce the California court order. The hearing in Guyana is to determine the custody of John Victor Stoen. His family and their attorneys must be prepared to discuss the basic custody matter with the court in Guyana and not expect that court to accept the decisions of a foreign (U.S.) court at face value.

This information confirms that provided to Ms. Theresa Hardi of your staff on November 22, 1977 by telephone. For additional information about child custody cases please telephone Miss Elizabeth Powers of our Office of Special Consular Services on 632-3015.

Sincerely,

GW

Dear Mr. Freitas:

The Secretary has asked that I reply to your letter of November 25 concerning the child custody case of John Victor Stoen in Guyana.

We understand that John Stoen's mother has engaged attorneys Margaret Ryan and Jeffrey Haas to counsel her regarding court proceedings in Guyana to regain custody of her son. It is noted that Mrs. Stoen previously signed over custody of John to the religious group. Both Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan have visited the Department of State to express their concern and to pose questions concerning the handling of a child custody court hearing in Guyana. They have been advised that the Embassy in Georgetown is prepared to offer all possible assistance to them and to Mrs. Stoen's Guyanese attorney if such assistance is required during the hearings scheduled for this month.

As you are no doubt aware, neither the Department of State nor the Superior Court for the State of California has the authority to enforce the order of November 13 regarding the custody of John Victor Stoen in the country of Guyana. Under many foreign laws there are provisions for proving foreign judgments, although, unfortunately custody orders are usually excluded from this procedure. Re: Request for Assistance in Enforcement of Court Order Against Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana

Dear Sir:

On November 18, 1977, the Superior Court of the State of California ordered our office to "take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order." Paragraph 4 of the order (a copy attached) states:

> "It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative."

According to our information, the underlying facts are that Rev. Jim Jones, a United States citizen, is living in Guyana, South America, where he is exercising physical custody over John Victor Stoen, a 5-year old child who is also a United States citizen. Rev. Jones has refused to deliver the child to his legal parents, each of whom testified before the court and joined the request for the order issued. Our office is representing the court pursuant to Section 4700(c) of the California Civil Code.

We are respectfully asking you to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Rev. Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order. If we cannot obtain Rev. Jones' compliance in this manner, it will be our duty pursuant to Section 5160 of the California Civil Code to apply to the court for a warrant of arrest against Rev. Jones.

We will be most grateful for whatever you can do to help. Time may be of the essence. Please let our office know if you need further information.

Thank you very much indeed.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH FREITAS, JR.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN and Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN	No. 719-147 ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings; of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, c any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is heret declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

President Jimmy Carter
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C.

Dear President Carter:

I am writing on behalf of the membership of the Peoples Temple Christian Church, concerning what appears to be a flagrant attempt to quash the economic security of hundreds of elderly and disabled American citizens presently residing at our agricultural mission in Guyana, South America. These persons are presently facing denial of monies rightfully due to them under U.S. law. An official Postal Service memo, dated September 9, 1977, and circulated throughout San Francisco branch post offices, reads as follows:

> "This is to advise you that the Department of H.E.W. (Social Security Administration) has instructed us to return all SSI (gold checks) and Social Security (green) to them where we have a forwarding order for Guyana. Georgetown, Guyana, South America." (We have been widely-publicized in San Francisco as having moved close to a thousand members to Guyana.)

As you undoubtedly know, these social security checks are permanent pensions to which U.S. citizens are entitled almost anywhere in the world, including Guyana. It is a great source of consternation to these persons who have worked hard all their lives for such benefits, to now face deliberate interruption of their checks. They were moreover promised an official transfer of their monies by SSA, and secure forwarding of their checks in the interim by both SSA and the Postal Service. This is only one of many such hardships we have had to endure in recent months.

As you perhaps recall, our Pastor, the Reverend Jim Jones, is the minister of the interracial church of many thousands, who had the opportunity to dine personally with Mrs. Carter when she was on the San Francisco campaign trail in the Fall a year ago. We have certainly not suffered disappointment on the part of the Carter Administration since that time, to the contrary, but we are well aware of the overwhelming complexities of government bureaucracy. For that reason, we are providing you with the following in the way of background, to assist your staff in discerning what might be behind this present issue with H.E.W. and the Postal Service, so as to further an expeditious resolution:

The Peoples Temple has been established within the United States for over 25 years with a virtually incomparable record of human service and Christian activist concern. Not only is the Temple recognized nationwide for providing financial, material, medical, educational, and legal security for countless of its members of every race, age, sex, and economic strata for many, many years, eliminating the need for Welfare in many instances; but it has conducted extensive outreach to support minority and disadvantaged segments of the society (and bring them into the mainstream); reporters struggling to defend a free press; the unemployed; the ghettoized; drug culture youth; the elderly; neglected children. In the spirit of vigilant concern that America must always remain free, we have also consistently focussed upon the abuse of human rights in all walks of life, and fully support your efforts to that end.

We have also gone to lengths to expose what we consider dangerous Nazi elements still operative within our society, and the activities of the Ku Klux Klan. We have been greatly concerned about the encroachment of repressive legislation, and our support of press freedom for "The Fresno Four" newsmen was acclaimed as far away as the New York Times.

For the many courageous, and sometimes unpopular stands taken by our Pastor and church, we have suffered much persecution, such as threats, hate calls, arson, bombing attempts, and outright assasination attempts on Rev. Jones' life. The struggle to achieve social justice in the highest tradition of humanitarian Christiandom has been a stony path; but we have not shied away from these perils in its pursuit, confident that just causes can never be truly vanquished. We believe that our ideals and standards reflect the liberty and equality guaranteed in the Constitution of our nation, and that in fact the source of these difficulties over the years has almost invariably originated with fringe elements.

Yet in recent months, dating back to approximately a year ago, we have witnessed many disturbing occurences that we shall enumerate here, so you can gain a clearer perspective on our present situation:

-On November 7, 1976, the Peoples Temple hosted as its guest speaker Mrs. Unita Blackwell Wright, Mississippi's first Black woman Mayor. Much to our chagrin, members of our staff discovered two officials eavedropping outside the building with tape equipment. We were able to take their license number, and trace down the origin of the rented car, plus the identity of the two men from a distant state and their connections with a powerful legislator.

-We have noted that for a good many months our auditorium microphones are heard on the Temple telephone lines; and even on phones many blocks away.

-Active media harassment was initiated this past July, beginning in Rupert Murdoch's New West magazine, then picked up by the Hearst press (the San Francisco Examiner), and the San Francisco Chronicle, the area's largest circulation daily. This peaked recently in distortions and lies so outrageous, that we felt we had no recourse but to put the Examiner on notice of our intention to litigate.

-According to the sworn testimony of American Indian Movement leader Dennis Banks, he was approached by one Standard Oil employee who represented himself as working with agents of the Treasur Department and who, Banks alleges, proposed to him that he give false testimony against Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple church in exchange for favorable consideration of his extradition troubles; with the implicit threat that his refusal to cooperate would mean the intensified effort to extradite him back to (all but certain death in) South Dakota's prison system. This courageous man resisted the blackmail and in fact exposed it publicly. Efforts to step up his extradition proceedings have in fact intensified since that time, involving the re-hearing of his Oregon case which had already been thrown out of court twice; and to the point of a "test case of challenge" by South Dakota, questioning the discretionary powers of all Governors regarding extradition, which would jeopardize a safeguard of liberty that this nation as a whole needs.

-Equally shocking is an INTERPOL directive aimed at completely destabilizing the Peoples Temple work in Guyana with vicious lies. We have the file number of this document, and substantiation of its involvement in attacks against the Peoples Temple by the press and by other agencies.

Regarding the involvement of INTERPOL, the reasons for these lies we do not know. Either these are deceivers or they are ruthlessly deceived. These lies are baseless. Perhaps you can empathize with what we have been going through, we saw what you had to endure when your good and loyal friend was smeared. In any event, we represent you well at our Guyanese project, you would be very proud of this American accomplishment in the third world. We are always praising you there, saying that the policies of your Administration are altogether different from your immediate predecessors. Of course you can check this out for yourself — we are sure you have ways of doing this.

Now, regarding the agricultural project where our social security pensioners live, some enclosed literature will provide you with information about the development. It is not only a thriving, well-developed community (wells, refrigeration, electrical generators, streets, the beginnings of industry in saw mill, cassava processing, and furniture building from indigenous hardwoods), with an abundance of fresh food, excellent schooling for the children, and top medical care; but it is of especial interest to the Guyanese government as a pioneer project in experimental agriculture.

We have excellent relations with the Guyanese government, who has recently designated the Temple's development as a tourist spot through which to bring visiting foreign dignitaries. The Prime Minister is himself slated for a visit soon. Government officials are in and out of the project, and one who visited recently wrote in the guest book that this is a model community that should be emulated all over the world. The Minister of the Interior was so impressed with the project's excellent drainage system that he said it would be used as model for interior development all over the country. The Minister of Education was thrilled at our nursery and educational programs. This is only a sampling of the type of response we routinely receive.

The government personnel there has such confidence in our project that recently, for example, an Amerindian woman some ten miles from the project, in need of emergency hospital care was not only accomodated by a Guyana Defense Force plane, but two GDF men gave up their place on the plane to accomodate the project's doctor, to assist her until she could reach her destination in Georgetown.

That doctor (who received his medical education at church expense) and a professional health team maintain a rigorous schedule to provide the most meticulous monitoring of health. The same elderly and disabled people whose checks are now threatened with denial, receive: regular monitoring of blood sugar if they are, or have been diabetic; monitoring of blood pressure three times a day on both arms if they suffer from high blood pressure; special dietary consideration for obesity. In addition, the project's Clinic recently undertook a ROUND-THE-CLOCK CANCER DETECTION PROJECT, for one solid week, to give comprehensive testing to all the almost one thousand residents of the project, plus 200 people from the surrounding area (provided free to them). A total of six early-cancer cases were detected, and referred immediately for proper corrective treatment.

The medical team has also been amazed to report that: no-one at the project requires insulin any longer (numerous people were on insulin before); and that high blood pressure is routinely DOWN TO NORMAL WITHIN A MONTH'S TIME. Arthritis has also been subject to dramatic improvement. These people could have no better environment than the mild, sunny climate; abundant, fresh natural foods; and the release from the pressures of urban life. The vast improvements in health alone are testimony of the best of individualized, concerned care. Indeed, every single morning a member of the medical team visits each senior's residence to inquire if they have had any problems during the night. They have beautiful individual cottages, help with landscaping and gardening if they desire, close access to the medical compound, entertainment and constructive activities in arts, crafts, sewing, classes in a wide range of subjects, and are indeed fully useful and accepted members of the community, something they keenly lacked in the cities of the United States from which they came.

We also consider this check cut-off ironic at best in that communities such as the Golden Rule in Willits, California, do take people's welfare checks as a means of supporting the collective body of people living there; whereas the Peoples Temple project in Guyana has no welfare checks, but rather provides goods, services, facilities, and activities that well exceed any benefit they could possibly have derived here in the U.S., even with welfare supplements!

Now there is a perspective from which to reconsider people who have hard-earned social security pensions, to which they are entitled living in Guyana. We are searching our souls to try to understand why H.E.W. and the U.S. Postal Service are attempting to withhold these benefits.

We have already called upon our local Congressmanand our own legal staff to assist in investigating and rectifying this distressing abuse of citizens' rights, the withholding of U.S. mail, and specifically cutting off the means of subsistence for the elderly, blind and disabled, which is entirely contrary to every humane consideration on behalf of the affected individuals.

This is only the last of the series of abuses itemized earlier in the letter. Thus we appeal directly to you, Mr. President, to look into this hardship that law-abiding, even exemplary citizens are now suffering, for what reasons we do not understand.

We have no small measure of concern, either, that U.S.-Guyanese relations be strengthened, not torn down. Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs Terence A. Todman's recent visit to Guyana in this regard was, we understand, most productive in building constructive and viable international relations. We also feel concern that the Guyanese government could stand to be disillusioned with America's human rights policies if they see the withholding of due benefits to disabled and elderly Americans who have taken up residence in their country.

And for our own part, we have no desire to see the United States discredited in the eyes of the Guyanese, to the contrary -- especially as we know this is not representative of our government at all, but is an abuse which we have every confidence will be speedily rectified.

Reverend Jim Jones and the entire congregation of the Peoples Temple Christian Church have great confidence in your Administration, and extend deepest thanks for your assistance.

Respectfully yours,

Laurie Efrein

Dear Mr. Tumuinta:

During the first year of the Carter Administration, the Peoples Temple Christian Church has been encouraged to note the many steps taken towards improved foreign relations with our neighbors to the South. Pursuant to this potential for the enhancement of U.S.-Caribbean relations, the Peoples Temple would like to share with you news of its pioneering work in experimental agriculture and other enterprises in the jungle interior of Guyana. You will find enclosed, "Progress Report - Summer 1977" for the Peoples Temple Agricultural Project, plus several news articles relating to the 27,000 acre community.

The Guyanese have been extremely helpful to us from the very inception of the project, and we have established excellent relations with the government, who has recently designated "Jonestown" as a tourist spot through which to bring visiting foreign dignitaries. Prime Minister Burnham is slated for a visit very soon, and government officials are in and out of the project all the time. One official wrote in the guest book that this is a model community that should be emulated all over the world. The Minister of Interior Development was so impressed with the excellent drainage system that he stated it will be used as a model for the entire country. A delegation from the Ministry of Education was thrilled with the nursery and educational programs. This is only a sampling of the type of reponse we have been routinely receiving.

Recently, an Amerindian woman some ten miles from our project was in need of emergency hospitalization. The government demonstrated such confidence in our Project and the Project's M.D. that a Guyana Defense Force plane was especially flown in following contact with our radio ham operator, and two GDF men gave up their seat in the plane and spent the night in Jonestown, so that the woman and the Jonestown doctor might be accomodated to the capital.

We are building an extensive medical program, with the most modern equipment such as EKG machines, electronic microscope, centrifuge and autoclave, to provide expert regular health care to not only the residents of Jonestown but to the people from the surrounding area. The Clinic conducted a round-the-clock cancer detection clinic for a solid week, for 1200 persons (free), giving comprehensive testing to each individual, and the six early-cancer cases thus detected were immediately referred for proper corrective treatment before the disease could progress any further.

Most remarkable to the people at the Guyana Project is the complete freedom from social problems (many or most came from congested urban environments), every child doing well in school, and everyone happily occupied with the task of their choosing. Many industries are being developed such as saw mill, cassava processing, and furniture building from indigenous hardwoods.

We are especially concerned to help alleviate the world food crisis by developing and spreading technology that will be of use in underdeveloped areas of the world, and to strengthen positive ties between Guyana and the U.S. To this good end, the Guyana Chronicle, Guyana's national government newspaper, reported that Dr. P.A. Reid, the Deputy Prime Minister recently referred to Reverend Jim Jones as "an unofficial ambassador of goodwill between Guyana and the U.S." We are proud that we are able to serve this type of function within the aspiring self-determined nation of Guyana, whose government is doing so much to meet its peoples needs and co-exist within our changing hemisphere.

Reverend Jim Jones and the Congregation of the Peoples Temple Christian Church extend greetings to you, and we hope you will feel free to contact us at any time, regarding any matter where we might be of service.

Sincerely yours,

L.B. Efrein,

Dear Mr. Freitas:

The President has asked that I reply to your letter of November 25 concerning the child custody case of John Victor Stoen who is presently in the custody of a religious group known as The People's Temple, in Guyana.

We note that John Stoen's mother previously signed over custody of John to the religious group. The Department has met personally with the two California attorneys engaged by Mrs. Stoen to assist her in this case. They have been given advice concerning the handling of a child custody case in a foreign country. They have also been advised that the American Embassy in Guyana is prepared to offer all possible assistance to themselves and to Mrs. Stoen's Guyanese attorney if such assistance is required during the hearings scheduled in Guyana this month.

As you are no doubt aware, neither the Department of State nor the Superior Court for the State of California has the authority to enforce the order of November 18 regarding the custody of John Victor Stoen in the country of Guyana. Under many foreign laws there are provisions for proving foreign judgments, although, unfortunately, custody orders are usually excluded from this procedure. It is extremely unlikely that a child custody order issued in the United States is normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. The question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court, after hearing all relevent evidence, on the basis of Guyanese law. The California court order undoubtedly will be given evidentiary weight in the custody hearing, although by no means will it be binding on that court.

Joseph Freitas, Jr., Esquire,
District Attorney,
880 Bryant Street,

A copy of this correspondence is being forwarded to the American Consul in Georgetown for his information. I trust that this will be helpful to you. Further information regarding child custody may be obtained from Miss Elizabeth Powers of this office on 202-632-3015.

Re: Request for Assistance in Enforcement of Court Order Against Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana

Dear Sir:

On November 18, 1977, the Superior Court of the State of California ordered our office to "take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order." Paragraph 4 of the order (a copy attached) states:

> "It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative."

According to our information, the underlying facts are that Rev. Jim Jones, a United States citizen, is living in Guyana, South America, where he is exercising physical custody over John Victor Stoen, a 5-year old child who is also a United States citizen. Rev. Jones has refused to deliver the child to his legal parents, each of whom testified before the court and joined the request for the order issued. Our office is representing the court pursuant to Section 4700(c) of the California Civil Code.

We are respectfully asking you to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Rev. Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order. If we cannot obtain Rev. Jones' compliance in this manner, it will be our duty pursuant to Section 5160 of the California Civil Code to apply to the court for a warrant of arrest against Rev. Jones.

We will be most grateful for whatever you can do to help. Time may be of the essence. Please let our office know if you need further information.

Thank you very much indeed.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH [illegible] JR.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of) No. 719-147 Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN) ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY
and)
Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN)

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

MEMORANDUM TO: ARA/LA - Ms. Sally Shelton

FROM: CA - Robert T. Hennemeyer /s/

SUBJECT: People's Temple in Guyana

The Office of Special Consular Services is receiving an increasing number of inquiries concerning American citizens who are living in Jonesboro, Guyana with the People's Temple religious group. These inquiries without exception allege that the person in question is either being held against their will or has been "brainwashed" by the leader of the group, Jim Jones. Recent newspaper and magazine articles highly unfavorable to Jones and his organization have fanned public opinion, and there are the first indications of attempts to organize persons with relatives or friends in Jonesboro as a pressure group, particularly in the San Francisco area. Acting as individuals, concerned relatives and friends have been able to interest most of the California Congressional delegation and Vice President Mondale's office in specific cases; an organized effort could be expected to create even greater publicity and pressure.

Ambassador Lawrence Mann, Ambassador from Guyana to the United States, is aware of the unfavorable press article concerning the People's Temple. Recent reporting by the Embassy in Georgetown indicated that Ambassador Mann was apprehensive about the effect of this adverse publicity on Guyana's image in the United States and that he would speak to Jones personally regarding some child custody cases pending at that time (Georgetown 2880). As there are some 130-150 children presently believed to be in Jonesboro who were awarded to the People's Temple as wards of the California courts and who may have been illegally taken from California without the permission of the courts, it is anticipated that public interest in these cases will continue and increase as the opposition to Jones becomes more organized.

ACTION REQUESTED:

In light of Ambassador Mann's interest and previous personal involvement with the People's Temple, CA would appreciate ARA conveying to Ambassador Mann our interest and concern that the child custody matters will be expeditiously reviewed by the courts in Guyana and that the Government of Guyana will take appropriate steps to ensure that Mr. Jones and the People's Temple abide by the decisions of those courts.

REVIEWED BY _____ DATE _____

Dear Mr. Ryan: [redacted]

The Secretary has asked that I reply to your letter of December 8 on behalf of Mr. Joseph Freitas, Jr., District Attorney of San Francisco. Mr. Freitas has asked for assistance in enforcing a court order concerning the custody of John Victor Stoen, who is presently in Guyana with the religious group known as "The Peoples Temple". Several other Congressmen have also expressed interest in this case and have received similar replies.

While we in the Department sympathize very much with Mrs. Stoen in her efforts to regain custody of her son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance to her. We note that Mrs. Stoen previously signed over custody of her son to the religious group. The Department has met personally with the two California attorneys engaged by Mrs. Stoen to assist her in this case. They have been given advice concerning the handling of a child custody case in a foreign country. They have also been advised that the American Embassy in Guyana is prepared to offer all possible assistance to them and to Mrs. Stoen's Guyanese attorney if such assistance is required during the hearings scheduled in Guyana this month.

As you are undoubtedly aware, neither the Department of State nor the Superior Court, State of California has the authority to enforce the order of November 13, regarding the custody of John Victor Stoen in Guyana. Under many foreign laws there are provisions for proving foreign judgments, although, unfortunately custody orders are usually excluded from this procedure. [redacted] custody orders issued in the United States are normally [redacted] for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity.

The Honorable
Leo J. Ryan,

The question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court, after hearing all relevent evidence, on the basis of Guyanese law. The California court order undoubtedly will be given evidentiary weight in the custody hearing, but by no means will it be binding on that court.

A copy of this correspondence is being forwarded to the American Consul in Georgetown. I trust that this will be helpful to you. Further information regarding child custody may be obtained from Miss Elizabeth Powers of our Office of Special Consular Services on 632-3015.

Douglas J. Bennet, Jr.
Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations
Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

RE: Reply to Douglas Bennet's Letter of December 9, 1977 to the Honorable Robert E. Duncan Concerning the Custody of John Victor Stoen

Dear Mr. Bennet:

I write to protest several statements made in the above-referenced letter. The letter states that during my recent visit to the Department that I talked at length about my belief "that the pending judicial proceedings were going to be unfair in some manner, unduly prejudicing the judge", and that I "was unable to be specific". The letter also states that "we have attempted to assure Mr. Haas and Ms. Ryan that in our experience Guyana is a country with a strong rule of law and that the judicial system there heretofore has not been unduly influenced by outside political interference."

Your letter suggests that the Guyanese desk has not provided you with full information concerning the facts of the case and the role the State Department HAS played to date. The Department's files should reflect that Mr. Haas went to Guyana on August 30, 1977 to secure, pursuant to a California court order, the return of five-year old John Victor Stoen, a San Francisco resident, who was and is being held by the People's Temple.

Mr. Haas retained a respected Guyanese attorney, Clarence Hughes, to apply to the Supreme Court for an order returning the boy to his mother. On September 6, 1977, a Writ of Habeas Corpus was issued and Jim Jones, head of the People's Temple, was ordered to appear before the court on September 8, 1977. On September 8th, the court found that there was good cause to believe that Jones was intentionally evading Supreme Court Marshal William Blackman's attempts to personally serve him. Accordingly, alternate means of service of the Writ of Habeas Corpus was prescribed and Jones was ordered to appear in court with the child on September 10th. Jones failed to appear in court on September 10th. The court then made the child a ward of the court and ordered Jones arrest.

Events then ceased to follow the normal legal course. Despite numerous requests of counsel, the clerk of the court failed to sign and issue the warrant. It was Mr. Haas' understanding as well as the stated position of the United States Embassy in Guyana that a high ranking official in the Guyana government had illegally instructed the clerk not to issue the warrant. The Embassy sent a diplomatic letter protesting this classic denial of justice to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Mr. Haas left Guyana on September 26th. The warrant was unsigned at that time and remains unsigned.

Despite the diplomatic letter of protest, neither the court nor the government took steps to countermand the wrong which had occurred. Subsequently, Joyce Touchette, a member of the People's Temple, asked leave to intervene in the proceeding. Since that time, papers have been filed by both sides and a short hearing held on a technical point. The major issue, the return of John Victor Stoen, remains unresolved.

o/s hearing see Gf 2-27

Based upon the foregoing, Mrs. Stoen and Mr. Stoen, who has joined Mrs. Stoen in her struggle to regain custody of the boy, have reasonable grounds to fear that the denial of justice which has already occurred will not cure itself. I concur in Mr. & Mrs. Stoen's belief that they are well within their rights to request that the Department of State extend diplomatic protection to safeguard the best interests of their minor son.

As is noted in Whiteman's Digest of International Law at page 698: "Intervention, on the one hand, and diplomatic protection or interposition on the other, are to be distinguished ... The right of diplomatic protection under international law has not been renounced or outlawed under recognized principles of international law." In order to conform to the requirements of §§179(2)(e) and §§180 of the Restatement of Foreign Relations Law, Rstmt 2, 1965, A.L.I. , "a trial or other proceeding to determine the rights or liabilities of an alien must be fair."

Further, it is clearly established that a denial of justice can occur prior to final decision on a case by the highest court." "Denial of justice exists where there is a denial, unwarranted delay or obstruction of access to the courts ..." Whitman, supra, page 698.

I am sure that you can understand Mr. & Mrs. Stoen's distress when State Department representatives to whom their attorneys' inquiries are directed have no knowledge of what the State Department's previous position has been. In light of what has transpired to date, the case cannot be seen as a routine international child custody case. A referral to an international social service agency such as was made by Ms. Elizabeth Powers of Consular Services is no doubt helpful to parties in the ordinary case. However, it is difficult to understand how an international social service agency can persuade an interested high ranking Guyanese official to cease unwarranted interference in the courts.

The most basic of human rights are at stake. On behalf of Mr. & Mrs. Stoen, I urgently request that you reconsider the statements and positions taken in your letter of December 9th. I look forward to your reply.

Very truly yours,

Margaret Ryan

PRESSTUFF: Journalist Phil Tracy, who, along with the Chron's Marshall Kilduff, broke the Rev. Jim Jones-Peoples Temple story in New West magazine, was asked by a fellow newsman at the Press Club, "Hot story, but where's the smoking gun?" (hard evidence of wrongoing). "The smoking gun," replied Tracy, "was Jones' resignation as chairman of the S.F. Housing Authority. That alone justified the entire article." Well, yes and no. Jones first tried to resign from the Authority in June, but Mayor Moscone, facing Prop. B and hoping to present a united front, talked him into staying. Jones wrote another letter of resignation on July 18, disclosing that Gov. Brown had offered him a spot on the State Bd. of Corrections (hey, that's news), "an area in which I have great interest." The Tracy-Kilduff piece, which apparently blasted the Rev. Jones all the way to South America, broke in the Aug. 1 issue of New West. So far, lots of smoke, but no gun.

Matthew 25:35-40

Dear Friend,

In the past several months, Peoples Temple and Bishop Jim Jones have been the target of a concerted, well-coordinated effort to discredit and destroy the effectiveness and reputation of our organization. The enclosed material will detail what kind of activity is behind the barrage of negative publicity which is full of distortions and outragious lies. The sources of these 'allegations' are racists, law violators and common terrorists who were upset with the church when we did not follow their advocated course of violence. We are certain that these people are being paid for their scurrilous actions in recent months.

We have anticipated for some time that anti-progressive forces would attempt to use whatever means they could to paralyze the dynamic ministry of social and economic equality that Jim Jones has led for some twenty-five years. We also believe that the current campaign to discredit us is just the latest episode in a kind of neo-McCarthyism that has been resurgent of late in various quarters, and which has targeted black elected officials, progressive causes, and experimental communities in the United States. We know that just recently Rep. Clay of Missouri was exonerated of a series of totally baseless charges leveled at him by a hostile press, as was Lt. Governor Dymally of California (who has been strongly supportive of Bishop Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple). A book recently put together by Mary Warner of the Lt. Governor's office very aptly cites numerous examples of this type of planned harassment that black and minority elected officials in the United States have been subjected to.

On a national level, the same thing is being done to Andrew Young, United States Ambassador to the United Nations. One wonders if he will be able to maintain his position with the type of unwarranted criticism that he is getting, even from members of the black community. This singling out of an official who may be catgorized as having a progressive viewpoint is not uncommon. We witnessed it with the sensationalistic, slanted press that both Martin Luther King and John F. Kennedy received, even years after their deaths.

Those who are a part of a conspiracy against Peoples Temple have reached Guyana. Obviously an attempt to discredit the church and pastor in the eyes of the public, their efforts have had little effect, using the same old trash, lies and smears--a whole library of it. People in the States know and esteem the character and commitment of Bishop

Jones. They are not fooled by the reactionary, anti-Socialist smear campaign. On the contrary, we have the total support of Dr. Carlton Goodlett, and numerous other prominent Socialist leaders throughout the States and the world. We have likewise had no criticism from within any minority community in the United States.

We have had all kinds of church and government officials visit us from both here and the United States. We will be having an open house in the near future. If you are unable to make it to the open house, we will gladly receive you any time. We have a community in which we are more positive than ever. Contrary to malicious allegations, we don't have to have corporal punishment of any kind and never have had. It is fantastic: no anti-social behavior exhibited of any kind and the highest level of medical care you can find any place in the world. The food is tremendous and many new innovative crops are being planted and successfully grown. This type of food production is helping the whole community, and this pleases us very much.

We build most of our houses now out of prefabricated material with the help of our sawmill. Our skilled craftsmen design and build our furniture and cabinets. The school at the Jonestown project is a healthy combination of work/study programs designed to let the youngsters progress at their own rate of speed, with individualized attention readily available. Our program includes an emphasis on Guyanese history and culture. The youth are also trained in a number of technical skills by competent tradesmen. At Jonestown, we make all kinds of other things that will have great utility for Guyana.

Numbers of our families have adopted Guyanese youngsters into their homes. We have integrated into the community and all community activities here, helping with school and recreational facilities. We are bringing Guyanese into this community and have a friendly, cooperative relationship with our neighbors in the area.

We wish to thank the government and people of Guyana. We could never have progressed so far so fast were it not for the total cooperation given every step of the way. We look forward to a relationship of friendship and mutual support between our mission settlers and Guyanese from every walk of life. We can only express our appreciation by trying to make our experiences useful for others engaged in similar efforts to expand and improve cultivation and development of the rich interior of Guyana - Guyana, with the goal of benefiting her people.

October 27, 1977

Honorable Forbes Burnham
Prime Minister
Georgetown, Guyana
South America

Dear Mr. Burnham:

I want to share with you a matter of great concern to me.

The concept of a politically motivated conspiracy directed against an individual or organization in an attempt to discredit and destroy one's effectiveness in the political and social arena should be utterly foreign to a democratic society. Unfortunately, however, such is not the case.

Having myself been the subject of an ungrounded attack by the media and other agencies, I have first hand experience as to how such campaigns against outspoken persons are launched and carried forward.

Recently, the Lieutenant Governor of Colorado, Lieutenant Governor George Brown, and I joined the National Association of Human Rights Workers to announce the publication of an exhaustive study of organized efforts in the United States to discredit black elected officials. In looking at the extensive body of data compiled after two years of careful research, the picture is unmistakably clear that conspiracies against black and third world people are very real and serve to blunt the effectiveness of any person trying to represent the interest of third world people.

One such person to whom the media and several agencies of government have deliberately and concertedly focussed their resources is one of the most committed activists and finest human beings I know--Reverend Jim Jones. Reverend Jones is the leader of a multi-ethnic, multi-faceted, many thousand member organization known as People's Temple. It is one of the most significant forces today in the area of human rights, social change and concrete service work.

It is my belief that by the year 1980 the minority population in California alone will reach the 60% mark. People's Temple is a working solution to the problem that California can anticipate in the not so far distant future. People's Temple has managed to effectively organize minority and caucasians as well, into a viable, progressive force.

A noteworthy feature of the Temple's program is its compassionate emphasis on the needs of the ever growing senior population. This emphasis accurately reflects the shifting age curve of the future and meets that need with kindness not condescension.

Beyond that, Reverend Jones and People's Temple have helped every person who in recent years has been oppressed or jailed fundamentally because of his or her political beliefs. Jim has never been reticent to speak his beliefs in non-violent causes.

It is my confirmed opinion that this outspoken stance coupled with the undeniable size and effectiveness of his organization, has made him a target of the most gruelling and vicious conspiracy yet witnessed.

That which I know to be obvious, lies and frame-up, are presented to the public as thoroughly proven facts. Interestingly enough, the scurrilous nature of these lies were meted out to papers in those cities throughout the world which has the highest concentration of Carribean and, in particular, Guyanese residents. By doing so, the organizers of this conspiracy hoped to have such information filter into Guyana where Reverend Jones has established a remarkable and highly successful model community which I personally have visited. I found that visit to be one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

One of the key figures in this cruel scenario is a man with a well documented criminal background who has been described by several correctional specialists as a "con man" with an insatiable desire for money and notoriety. Also involved is a high priced public relations firm whose job is to map out campaigns to discredit Reverend Jones and feed information prepackaged to a supposedly free and "objective" press.

It is clear to me that a phenomenal amount of money is being spent by this conspiracy in an attempt to destabilize the agricultural project in Guyana and to apparently, bring about the elimination of Reverend Jones.

Evidence currently being gathered points clearly to right wing forces of the first magnitude. One such force is known to have political affiliation with those remnants of the Nazis who continue to permeate the fabric of American society to a degree that would shock people unfamiliar with the growing move to the radical right in the United States.

In fact, the last time I visited the San Francisco Headquarters of the People's Temple several weeks ago, a large Nazi rally was taking place in the nearby city of San Jose. It was covered extensively by all media. Klu Klux Klan chapters continue to grow and flourish in all parts of the United States. It is likely that the Panama Treaty will be defeated as a result of the well financed campaign against its passage. These are but a few examples to give you some idea of the current trend.

As a native of Trinidad, my bonds with the Caribbean are close and everlasting. I feel a certain responsibility to apprise you of my thoughts on Jim Jones and my interpretation of what I have seen of the attack on him and his organization in the past months. Jim is a deeply loyal and sensitive person and he is a man who stands by his word and by those who look to him for guidance and leadership. It is this kind of loyalty that makes him a man to be trusted. I know for a fact that he will stand by his commitment to Guyana just as firmly as he now stands by his commitment to any one of his children.

I look forward to future visits to Guyana and extend to you my warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

MERVYN M. DYMALLY

SUBJECT: People's Temple in Guyana

ARA/CAR has been following very carefully the activities of the People's Temple in Guyana. We have spoken several times to Guyanese Ambassador Mann conveying to him our hope that all child custody cases, particularly the Stoen case, be handled expeditiously and in a fair fashion.

The Officer-in-Charge of Guyanese Affairs spoke to Ambassador Mann on December 28, 1977 and to Peter Halder, the Guyanese Deputy Chief of Mission, on January 5 conveying to both our concern in regard to the Stoen case.

The Ambassador indicated that he was fully aware of the problem and that he would alert his government to insure that the case is resolved equitably and quickly.

In view of the fact that this subject matter comes within the purview of your Bureau, we will continue to defer action on it to the Office of Special Consular Services. Frank Tumminia, Guyana's Desk Officer, will keep in close touch with Elizabeth Forney and Steven Dobrenchuck of your Bureau who have immediate responsibility in this area.

PROTECTIVE SERVICES: VISA PROBLEM - GRACE [redacted] STOEN

While I was at the Supreme Court Saturday morning, January 7, three Guyanese immigration inspectors appeared at the Court. Since all three inspectors were known to me, the Senior Inspector approached me and asked if Mr. and Mrs. Stoen were present at the Court. I replied they were and asked what was the problem. The Senior Inspector replied that the People's Temple had called Immigration Headquarters and stated that the Stoens were no longer members of their organization. After checking their entry record the Chief Immigration Officer learned that the Stoens had received entry visas valid for one month rather than two weeks that is normal. The Inspector continued that the Stoens must appear at the Immigration Headquarters to resolve this matter. When I inquired further the Senior Inspector mentioned that members of organizations were permitted to enter Guyana as tourists for a period of one month - all other unattached individuals are only permitted to enter for a two-week period after which they must apply for an extension of stay. The Inspector continued that this period accorded organizations, not only pertained to the People's Temple but also included other church and non religious organizations registered with the Guyanese Immigration Service. The Inspector commented that he could not understand such tactics by an organization spying on people coming into the country. He thought there must be something inherently wrong with such a group who resorted to such activity. When I indicated the desire to immediately telephone the Chief Immigration Officer, the Inspector recommended against this and suggested that since I was well known to the Superintendent that I could just bring Mr. and Mrs. Stoen to Immigration Headquarters before 12 o'clock that morning. I agreed to do so and the immigration inspectors departed.

At 11:35 a.m. I arranged to have Mr. and Mrs. Stoen leave the judge's chambers where the hearing was taking place and accompanied them to Immigration Headquarters. Superintendent Theo George, the Senior GOG Immigration Officer, explained the problem to Mr. and Mrs. Stoen and assured them there would be no difficulty in changing their visas from one month to two weeks, with the possibility of an extension for an additional two weeks, if necessary.

UNCLASSIFIED

Mr. and Mrs. Stoen both explained to Superintendent George that they had not misrepresented themselves as being members of the People's Temple upon entry into Guyana and had in fact, emphasized to the officer at Timehri Airport that they were entering the country to regain the custody of their son from the People's Temple. At this point I remarked to Superintendent George that as the American Consul I believed Mr. and Mrs. Stoen should be permitted to remain in Guyana while the court case was proceeding since their presence was vital in their attempt to regain custody of their son. The Superintendent replied that it is only justice and reasonable that the Stoens be allowed to remain in Guyana and that he did not see any problem in this. Superintendent George then informed the Stoens of who they must see if they required an additional two weeks extension of their stay. We then departed after Superintendent George told Mr. and Mrs. Stoen they could return to Immigration Headquarters on either January 9 or 10 to pick up their passports with their new visas.

COMMENT:

The Stoens believed that this was an obvious harrassment tactic directed against them by the People's Temple organization. They believe there will be other activity including the possibility of actual physical assault by members of the People's Temple in an attempt to cause them to depart Guyana and leave their son in the custody of members of the organization. I assured them that Superintendent George was a dedicated, honest Government employee and that to the best of my knowledge he would not be a party to any attempt to have them forced out of Guyana under a legal technicality. I pointed out to the Stoens that was the reason I had them leave the judge's chambers to insure they were at Immigration Headquarters before 12 noon so there could be no cause for any further problem relating to this matter.

I have been asked to reply to your letter of December 30 1977 addressed to Assistant Secretary Douglas J. Bennet requesting information concerning the custody of John Victor Stoen.

The Department of State and the American Embassy in Georgetown do not agree with your suggestion that the legal procedures in Guyana have not been conducted fairly and in accordance with international standards. Although the Embassy has officially expressed concern over the apparent governmental intrusion in the judicial process, they believe that the Stoen's local attorney is representing their interests most capably and that the case is proceeding with reasonable speed. Court proceedings resumed September 21 and have continued periodically since that time. The latest report from the Embassy (received January 9, 1978) indicated that Mr. Haas was optimistic that the court will rule in favor of Mr. and Mrs. Stoen and that he appeared satisfied that the Government of Guyana was not exerting any improper influence in the judicial process.

Please be assured that the Embassy continues to monitor the case closely and has extended all appropriate assistance to the parties in the hope of reaching a just solution in accordance with the laws of Guyana. The Department of State and the Embassy in Georgetown cannot intervene in the decision per se but will take all available measures to ensure that the decision is reached fairly and equitably.

No. 7

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Guyana and wishes to express its concern about the status in Guyana of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Stoen.

Timothy and Grace Stoen came to Guyana January 5 for the purpose of regaining custody of their child, John Stoen. They are seeking to do this under due process of the Guyanese legal system.

They have in their passports permits to stay in Guyana for a two week period ending January 19. They understood at the time they were issued these permits that if the litigation in which they were involved was not completed by January 19 they could apply for an extension of their stay. On January 13, however, an immigration officer came to their hotel and informed them that they would have to leave Guyana on Saturday, January 14. They were given no reason for this curtailment of their permission to stay in Guyana.

The Embassy believes it to be a matter of humanitarian concern that the Stoens be permitted to remain in Guyana until the judicial proceedings they have initiated to regain custody of their son have been completed and a decision by the court made public. Accordingly, as a matter of urgency, the Embassy would appreciate that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs inquire into this matter and use its good offices to obtain permission for the Steens to remain in Guyana for the time necessary to complete their litigation.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the assurances of its highest considerations.

Embassy of the United States of America,
Georgetown, January 14, 1978.

ARA #3 PT

KR. P.L 13-6

No. 71.

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Guyana and wishes to inform the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of a matter of concern that has come to the attention of this Embassy.

As the Ministry is aware, Mr. Jeffrey Haas, an American attorney, has been in Guyana since August 30, 1977, representing Mrs. Grace Stoen, an American citizen residing in California, in regaining the custody of her son, John Stoen, who is residing at the People's Temple community near Port Kaituma, Northwest District. Mr. Haas has in his possession a court order issued by the competent judicial authority of the State of California awarding custody of John Stoen to his client, Mrs. Grace Stoen.

At the invitation of the Honorable Minister of Foreign Affairs and Justice Messrs Jeffrey Haas, John Blacken and Richard McCoy met with the Minister in his office September 1 to discuss this case. The Minister summoned the Solicitor General to effect proper enforcement of the custody order pursuant to Guyanese law. The Solicitor General later referred Mr. Haas to Clarence Hughes esq. Mr. Hughes has been retained and expeditiously moved the matter through the Supreme Court of Guyana.

Initiating the procedure, a writ of Habeas Corpus was issued by the Supreme Court on September 6, 1977. Mr. Jim Jones was ordered to appear before the Court on September 8, 1977 to resolve this matter fairly and expeditiously under the applicable statutes of the Government of Guyana. Service was attempted unsuccessfully on September 7. The Court therefore ordered on September 8 to have alternate service utilized and this service was effected on September 9, 1977, with the assistance of the Guyana Defense Force and the Guyana Police. Representatives of People's Temple were hostile and abusive. They referred to the Court Order as "garbage" and "trash".

Neither John Stoen nor Jim Jones appeared in Court as ordered. As a result, the Court on September 10 ordered the arrest of John Stoen. Further it ordered John Stoen a ward of court. Leave was granted to institute contempt proceedings against Jones... However, it is my understanding that the Government has issued instructions that the court order not be implemented. For instance, the warrant for the arrest of the child remains unsigned despite numerous requests by Counsel.

The Embassy is concerned over this apparent intervention on the part of the Government into a matter that is under the jurisdiction of the Court. The Embassy does not presume to take sides in this case, but we are concerned that expeditious, unimpeded due process under Guyanese judicial procedure be followed. It is significant to note that this case involves only American citizens, all of whom are residents of California. Accordingly, it would seem appropriate that the California Court would be the proper authority to decide the custody question. Indeed, normal procedure in cases such as this would require the recognition of the California decree.

On the surface it appears that Jim Jones is impeding the resolution of a case involving the welbeing of a young child.

Regardless of the question of jurisdiction, normal jurisprudance should be allowed to take its course. In this way we could avoid setting dangerous precedents on similar cases which may well arise in the future given the number of American children now living at the People's Temple settlement at Jonestown.

The Embassy would appreciate the Ministry of Foreign Affairs inquiting into this matter and determining what action can be taken to remove any impediments to a speedy conclusion of this case.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the assurances of its highest consideration.

Embassy of the United States of America,
Georgetown, September 16, 1977.

Dear Ted:

I thought that my assignment to Guyana would lessen my activities with SSA, especially after two such active posts as Adana and Zagreb. However, I seem to find myself right in the middle of a problem involving SSA recipients.

I travelled to the People's Temple Mission Village in Guyana's Northwest District on January 11, 1978. I had personal private contact individually and collectively with all the beneficiaries shown on the enclosed form. All are presently residing in the Mission Village and all claimed to receive their social security checks personally. They all stated that they have not signed any written agreement or power of attorney assigning or transferring their monthly social security benefits to the People's Temple organization. They all indicated that they either cash their checks personally or through the assistance of a member of the organization. They denied that they had to turn over the proceeds of their check to the Temple but rather could donate whatever they wanted. None are employed by the People's Temple.

I believe their answers were essentially genuine although probably all social security recipients are influenced to turn over their monthly benefits after their checks are cashed. However, all the pensioners that I saw appear to be adequately housed, fed, and in relatively good health. There are medical facilities at the Village and community activities for them to participate in. Several mentioned to me that they feel safe at the Village and particularly enjoy the warm climate and the opportunity to fish, garden and pursue other leisure but useful activities.

In short, I am convinced that the People's Temple has not actually forced social security annuitants to sign away their benefits. I can also confirm that is preferable to send the checks through the Mission Village address rather than entrust them to the local unsafe and chaotic mail service.

It may interest you to know that we currently have 78 social security recipients listed at the Embassy who are residing at the Mission Village. I have personally delivered this month's checks to the Village and gave them to a number of the beneficiaries.

I hope the above information clarifies this situation for you. If you have any questions or need any additional information let me know.

I hope you had a very pleasant holiday. Please accept my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Richard N. Mc Coy

Dear Ms. Powers:

I understand from seeing your name at the bottom of several replies to Congressional inquiries that you are "stuck" with the John Stoen custody case.

I am enclosing a memorandum for the file concerning a report that I did on an initial visa problem encountered by Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Stoen on January 7, 1978. I won't go into details on the latest visa problem of the Stoens since you are aware of it by now via our telegrams.

Frankly, at this point I feel like a tennis ball who keeps being hit from one side to the other. Obviously, no matter what we do one side will complain of favoritism. However, I do believe it is important that we keep in touch since I'm afraid the Stoen case and People's Temple problems will be with us for awhile.

I plan to be in Washington in March on leave and I will drop in for a short visit to give you my impressions of the whole sordid mess.

If you have any questions or need clarification on any matter please let me know. One last note, the Ambassador thought your response to Congressman Ryan was very well done. All the best.

Sincerely,

Richard A. McCoy

PROTECTIVE SERVICES: VISA PROBLEM - GRACE & TIMOTHY STOEN

While I was at the Supreme Court Saturday Morning, January 7, three Guyanese Immigration Inspectors appeared at the Court. Since all three inspectors were known to me, the Senior Inspector approached me and asked if Mr. and Mrs. Stoen were present at the Court. I replied they were and asked what was the problem. The Senior Inspector replied that the People's Temple had called Immigration Headquarters and stated that the Stoens were no longer members of their organization. After checking their entry record the Chief Immigration Officer learned that the Stoens had received entry visas valid for one month rather than two weeks that is normal. The Inspector continued that the Stoens must appear at the Immigration Headquarters to resolve this matter. When I inquired further the Senior Inspector mentioned that members of organizations were permitted to enter Guyana as tourists for a period of one month - all other unattached individuals are only permitted to enter for a two week period after which they must apply for an extension of stay. The Inspector continued that this period accorded organizations, not only pertained to the People's Temple but also included other church and non religious organizations registered with the Guyanese Immigration Service. The Inspector commented that he could not understand such tactics by an organization trying on people coming into the country. He thought there must be something inherently wrong with such a group who resorted to such activity. When I indicated the desire to immediately telephone the Chief Immigration Officer, the Inspector recommended against this and suggested that since I was well known to the Superintendent that I could just bring Mr. and Mrs. Stoen to Immigration Headquarters before 12 o'clock that morning. I agreed to do so and the Immigration Inspectors departed.

At 11:15 a.m. I arranged to have Mr. and Mrs. Stoen leave the judge's chambers where the hearing was taking place and accompanied them to Immigration Headquarters. Superintendent Theo George, the Senior GOG Immigration Officer, explained the problem to Mr. and Mrs. Stoen and assured them there would be no difficulty in changing their visas from one month to two weeks, with the possibility of an extension for an additional two weeks, if necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoen both explained to Superintendent George that they had not misrepresented themselves as being members of the People's Temple upon entry into Guyana and had in fact, emphasized to the officer at Timehri Airport that they were entering the country to regain the custody of their son from the People's Temple. At this point I remarked to Superintendent George that as the American Consul I believed Mr. and Mrs. Stoen should be permitted to remain in Guyana while the court case was proceeding since their presence was vital in their attempt to regain custody of their son. The Superintendent replied that it is only justice and reassured the Stoens that he did not see any problem in this. Superintendent George then informed the Stoens of who they must see if they required an additional two weeks extension of their stay. We then departed after Superintendent George told Mr. and Mrs. Stoen they could return to Immigration Headquarters on either January 9 or 10 to pick up their passports with their new visas.

COMMENT:

The Stoens believed that this was an obvious harrassment tactic directed against them by the People's Temple organization. They believe there will be other activity including the possibility of actual physical assault by members of the People's Temple in an attempt to cause them to depart Guyana and leave their son in the custody of members of the organization. I assured them that Superintendent George was a dedicated, honest Government employee and that to the best of my knowledge he would not be a party to any attempt to have them forced out of Guyana under a legal technicality. I pointed out to the Stoens that was the reason I had them leave the judge's chambers to insure they were at Immigration Headquarters before 12 noon so there could be no cause for any further problem relating to this matter.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am writing to urge you to do all within your power to secure the release of John Victor Stoen, [illegible] being held against his parents' will on the People's Temple farm in Guyana.

His parents, Timothy and Grace Stoen, who are both American citizens, have left the church, but were restrained by the other members of the People's Temple from taking their son with them.

The Stoens are currently obtaining a California court order to regain custody of their son. I am asking for your full support in having the Guyanese government recognize the validity of the court order, and to expedite the return of John Victor Stoen to his parents here in the United States.

I am confident that with your backing this matter can be handled quickly and easily; I'm sure you understand the importance of time when our concern is to reunite a 6 year old boy restrained in a foreign country with his concerned parents.

I look forward to seeing your swift action in this matter.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Timothy E. Wirth

Dear Prime Minister Burnham:

I am writing to urge your cooperation in securing the expeditious release of John Victor Stoen, age 5, from the People's Temple farm located in your country, so that he may quickly be reunited with his parents.

I appreciate the normal administrative problems you must face in order to have this request accomplished. Still, I ask that you use all the means at your disposal to expedite John's return to his concerned parents.

Enclosed is a copy of my appeal to Secretary of State Vance. I hope that our two governments will be able to work together, so that John may soon be reunited with his parents.

WE DESPERATELY PLEAD FOR YOUR HELP IN GETTING OUR SIX YEAR OLD SON, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, NOW BEING FORCIBLY HELD AGAINST OUR WILL IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA BY A CERTAIN JIM JONES OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE.

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA ON NOVEMBER 16, 1977 FOUND JONES IN VIOLATION OF ITS ORDER TO APPEAR, AND FURTHER ORDERED HIM TO IMMEDIATELY DELIVER THE CHILD TO US. THE COURT GAVE US LEAVE TO INSTITUTE CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS, AND IT ORDERED SAN FRANCISCO DISTRICT ATTORNEY JOSEPH FREITAS, JR. TO "TAKE ALL ACTIONS NECESSARY" TO SECURE JONES' COMPLIANCE WITH THE ORDER.

JONES STILL REFUSES TO GIVE US OUR CHILD. ON JANUARY 8, 1978 WE TRAVELLED TO GUYANA TO SEE OUR SON AND AWAIT A COURT DECISION THERE. JONES REFUSED TO LET US SEE OUR SON. THE GUYANESE COURTS STILL HAVE NOT RENDERED A DECISION ON HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT LAST SEPTEMBER. UPON LEAVING GUYANA ON JANUARY 18, WE WERE MET BY AGENTS OF JONES AND PEOPLES TEMPLE WHO SAID IF WE RETURNED TO GUYANA WE WOULD BE KILLED.

WE EARNESTLY AND RESPECTFULLY [illegible] THAT YOU REQUEST THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT AND ANY OTHER APPROPRIATE AGENCY TO DEMAND THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA HONOR THE ABOVE-MENTIONED UNITED STATES ORDER UNDER THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF COMITY. JONES AND ALL PARTIES INVOLVED ARE U. S. CITIZENS.

File

Charge and Consul met with Mr. Haas and Mr. and Mrs. Stoen on January 6, to discuss the Stoens' current custody case.

Mr. Haas was hopeful that the hearing scheduled for January 7 would produce some movement in the case and speed up the judicial process so that John Stoen could be returned to his parents. However, Haas stated that regardless of how optimistic he was about the outcome of the case, he was concerned whether the GOG would enforce the court decision. Consul replied that he had no reason to believe that GOG would not enforce its order. He then alluded to the appointment for this afternoon (January 6) that Mr. and Mrs. Stoen had with the Minister of Home Affairs, Vibert Mingo.

Timothy Stoen entered the conversation at this point confirming Mr. McCoy's statement that he will meet with Minister Mingo on January 6, and stating that he intends to raise this question. Haas pressed Charge on the Embassy's position should the GOG not enforce its court order. Charge answered that he had no reason to believe the government would not enforce its court orders. Charge continued that the Guyanese government appears to want to protect its image as a government that prides itself on abiding by the law and one which has an independent judicial system. The Embassy would expect that the Stoen case would be handled in accordance with due process of law.

Haas did not appear to accept this reply, and said that because of previous government interference in the case (Haas was alluding to a request allegedly made by a high government official to the Clerk of the Court that a court order made on September 10 not be enforced), high officials might intervene against his clients. The Charge reiterated that he saw no recent indications that the government would intervene, and he had no reason to believe that officials would intervene in the future.

Haas pressed for a commitment by the Embassy of what it would do if the government did intervene against his client. The Charge said he would not speculate on hypothetical situations. The Embassy would not take sides in a dispute between Americans, but it had an interest in seeing that all parties adhered to due process of law. Haas then made the surprising statement that as far as he could see, there was no way, on the basis of the evidence that would be presented, that his clients could possibly lose the case. Therefore, should the judge rule otherwise, it must be because of government interference. He stated that Charge and Consul should be aware that should his clients lose their case, he intended to direct as much publicity and pressure as he could on the State Department and the GOG to rectify any adverse decision by the court because of his belief that his clients did not receive a fair hearing. Haas indicated that Congressman Leo Ryan of California was very interested in the case, as well as Congressman Duncan from Oregon and Congressman Edwards from California. Haas continued that he would not let the Department simply 'whitewash' this case to the detriment of his clients. Haas concluded that he hoped he would not have to resort to such tactics but that he would have no other choice if Mr. and Mrs. Stoen were not to regain custody of their son. Again, neither the Charge nor the Consul commented on Haas' statement. The conversation was then concluded.

Comment. It is obvious from this conversation that Haas was in effect warning the Embassy that unless his clients win their case we could expect media and congressional pressure to force the Department and the Embassy into a position of protesting any judicial decision against the Stoens. Obviously, Haas wants the Embassy to take sides, which we believe would be improper. Haas appeared unwilling to accept the fact that the Embassy must be unbiased in its approach to this case. It should be noted that Timothy Stoen informed the Consul on January 7 that Minister Mingo had assured Stoen during their meeting that any decision of the court would be enforced.

U S REPRESENTATIVE
2183 RAYBURN BLDG
WASHINGTON DC 20515

WE DESPERATELY PLEAD FOR YOUR HELP IN GETTING OUR SIX YEAR OLD SON, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, NOW BEING FORCIBLY HELD AGAINST OUR WILL IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA BY A CERTAIN JIM JONES OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE. DURING THE TIME THAT THE UNDERSIGNED WAS ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR MENDOCINO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, WE BECAME ADHERENTS OF THE APOSTOLIC TEACHINGS OF PEOPLES TEMPLE UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF JONES. OUR SON WAS RAISED IN THE COMMUNITY OF PEOPLES TEMPLE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THOSE TEACHINGS. WE EACH LEFT THE TEMPLE WHEN IT BECAME APPARENT THAT ITS PRACTICES SERIOUSLY VIOLATED THOSE TEACHINGS. BUT JONES REFUSED TO PERMIT OUR SON TO BE RETURNED TO US.

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA ON NOVEMBER 18, 1977 FOUND JONES IN VIOLATION OF ITS ORDER TO APPEAR, AND FURTHER ORDERED HIM TO IMMEDIATELY DELIVER THE CHILD TO US. THE COURT GAVE US LEAVE TO INSTITUTE CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS, AND IT ORDERED SAN FRANCISCO DISTRICT ATTORNEY JOSEPH FREITAS, JR. TO "TAKE ALL ACTIONS NECESSARY" TO SECURE JONES' COMPLIANCE WITH THE ORDER.

JONES STILL REFUSES TO GIVE US OUR CHILD. ON JANUARY 6, 1978 WE TRAVELLED TO GUYANA TO SEE OUR SON AND AWAIT A COURT DECISION THERE. JONES REFUSED TO LET US SEE OUR SON. THE GUYANESE COURTS STILL HAVE NOT RENDERED A DECISION ON HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT LAST SEPTEMBER. UPON LEAVING GUYANA ON JANUARY 18, WE WERE MET BY AGENTS OF JONES AND PEOPLES TEMPLE WHO SAID IF WE RETURNED TO GUYANA WE WOULD BE KILLED.

WE EARNESTLY AND RESPECTFULLY ASK THAT YOU REQUEST THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT AND ANY OTHER APPROPRIATE AGENCY TO DEMAND THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA HONOR THE ABOVE-MENTIONED UNITED STATES ORDER UNDER THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF COMITY. JONES AND ALL PARTIES INVOLVED ARE U. S. CITIZENS.

THANK YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS.

MOST SINCERELY,

TIMOTHY AND GRACE STOEN

Dear Secretary Vance:

Mr. Timothy [redacted] Stoen has visited my office concerning five-year-old John Victor Stoen, who at present is being held on the Peoples's Temple farm in Guyana.

Mr. Stoen, and his wife, Grace, once members of the Temple have left this church. They have obtained a California court order, to regain custody of this boy. Mr. Stoen's name is on the child's birth certificate.

The head of the Church is contesting the removal of the child. The Guyanese Government conducted a hearing but the American Consul, I am advised, was not admitted. I believe the child has not appeared before the Judge.

If it is determined that the case Mr. Stoen presents is based on fact and he is entitled to representation, perhaps an expression of interest in the case to the Prime Minister of Guyana, as he requests, might be useful to the plight of Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, who seek the return of the child to their home and this country.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Alan Cranston

Dear Dick:

Thank you for your kind [illegible]. As you correctly surmised, I have been charged with overall responsibility for the custody and welfare inquiries generated by the People's Temple's presence in Guyana.

Thus far we in Washington have been very pleased with the overall Embassy response to the many inquiries and charges connected with the group. We have received some indication that there is a mail campaign being started which charges that the Department and the Ambassador have not always acted in an impartial manner. Our intital telephone response to the charge has been that we are very much aware that all the concerned personalities are American citizens and that all persons involved have the same rights to consular protection. With that background we feel that both the Department and the Embassy have been absolutely impartial in their dealings with the group and with individual members of the group. We feel that your reports on your visits reflect that impartiality and that the reports are fair and balanced. Would it be possible for you to obtain a Privacy Act authorization statement from Jim Jones for use in answering the queries that we are sure to receive about our dealings with the People's Temple?

I trust that you will appreciate that your excellent reporting has enabled us to answer the many Congressional and public inquiries that we receive here in Washington rather than forwarding them to you for reply. I hope that you have received copies of all of the Congressionals, however many of them are absolute duplicates.

Richard A. McCoy, Esquire,

For your information I am enclosing a copy of correspondence with the Justice Department in which an Assistant Attorney General neatly outlines the applicability of First Amendment freedoms to sect or cult religions such as the People's Temple. We have found the language useful in replying to queries from concerned relatives here.

I am departing Washington in May or June for assignment to Jidda. I am not certain that I will be here during all of March as I hope to attend several courses before leaving the Department. However, I very much would like to meet with you while you are here. Please let me know when you plan to be in D.C. so we can work out such a meeting.

Once again, thank you for your letter and I hope to see you in March.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am writing to you on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Stoen, who are encountering difficulties in getting their child John Stoen back from the Rev. Jim Jones' Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

The Stoens were once members of Rev. Jones' San Francisco-based religious organization and temporarily left their child to be cared for by Agricultural Mission members in June 1977 in Guyana. Mr. Stoen worked at the Mission from February to June 1977. Now Rev. Jones refuses to allow John (age six) to rejoin his parents in San Francisco. Jones has repeatedly ignored and challenged the validity of California Superior Court orders declaring that the Stoens have joint legal custody of their son. The Stoens fear that Rev. Jones, who apparently has political influence with the Guyanese Government, will not return the child even after the Guyanese Court rules in the Stoens' favor on the custody matter (the decision is expected any day now).

Would you consider directing the U.S. Ambassador in Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government in this matter to the Guyanese Government? Thanks for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,

Paul N. McCloskey, Jr.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- REQUESTED ACTION

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Ashley Hewitt, Director, Office for Carribean Affairs):

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although separated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN — CHARACTER REFERENCES

1. Superior Court Judge Arthur B. Broaddus: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney.... His work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an approximation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/75]

2. Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney—and I'm saying these words literally—not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Merle P. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and moral honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and daft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." [4/14/76]

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 25, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:30 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

ample Trouble

the poor-black Fillmore district San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones wered as a good Samaritan with ons in very high places. As pastor e People's Temple, one of the largest faith churches in California, Jones only claims God's power to heal the but also wields palpable clout among and state political leaders. The gov-or, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff district attorney have all visited temple and, during the 1976 Presi-tial campaign, Jones himself shared latform with Rosalynn ter. Last December, the ismatic preacher who master black voters was ed chairman of the San ncisco Housing Author-Commission by Mayor rge Moscone. But now es stands accused by 30 ner temple members of lding his power through , fraud, physical beatings, appropriation of parish-ers' property and possible use of government funds. he accusations were pub-ed in two August issues New West magazine, ich called for an investiga-n of the temple's financial and disci-ary practices. Church representa-s promptly denied the charges. But a pair of surprise moves last week, es resigned from the Housing Au-rity and District Attorney Joseph tar announced that he would look the accusations.

Story: No one has yet filed a formal plaint against Jones, who temple of-ls said was unreachable at the rch's 27,000-acre South American n colony in Guyana. The city's most erful politicians still seem solidly ind the controversial minister. May-Moscone has said he saw no evidence Jones had broken any laws and, in a ent Sunday-morning sermon at the ple, black state Assemblyman Willie ns laughed the attacks "a measure of church's] effectiveness."

nes preaches a religious socialism he himself, it appears, is the first practice. His church, which claims 00 members statewide, sponsors a g-rehabilitation program, a free res-rant and medical clinic and a legal-aid ice. More radically, Jones encour-s his flock to give up their private perty and live in low-rent apartments ed by the church from the city. Jones his wife live modestly above the ple, where they are raising a multira-family of seven adopted children their own son. But his social activ-also is expressed as politics, and Election Day, the poor deliver for r leader. In two recent close races for mayor and district attorney, Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with NEWSWEEK, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Micki Touchette, 28, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded garage and were given a weekly dole of $2 each as members of a temple commune. Touchette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had an in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle, 38, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $150,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Kellerman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Finnegan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Hass.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Temple attorney Charles Garry to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. Jones previously has take position that he intends to the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could easily cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

Hass said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 28 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

Added Stoen, "I made a promise be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1978 to prosecute vote fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the au[illegible]ritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1969, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1978. The last time she saw her son was in September 1978 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September, but [illegible]

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY C. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverand Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

Dear Doug:

I am writing concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, son of Grace and Timothy Stoen.

Mr. Timothy Stoen stopped by my office today with an alarming story of his son being held by Rev. Jim Jones in Guyana, South America. I am enclosing information on the case that Mr. Stoen left with a member of my staff.

I would appreciate your prompt attention on this matter.

Sincerely,

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although separated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

DECLASSIFIED

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 23, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

DECLASSIFIED

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:30 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been panding since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

But his social activ...also is expressed as politics, and ...lection Day, the poor deliver for ...leader. In two recent close races for ... mayor and district attorney, Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with NEWSWEEK, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Micki Touchette, 28, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded ... and were given a weekly dole of $2 ... members of a temple commune. Touchette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had us in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle, 38, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $150,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Kellerman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Flanagan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

In response to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child, Ile said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could easily cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 21 deadline in the letter. "The child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1976 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March ... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1959, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1976. The last time she saw her son was in September 1978 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September,

TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN --- CHARACTER REFERENCES

Superior Court Judge Arthur B. [illegible]: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney.... His work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an approximation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/75]

Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

Attorney Merle F. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and deft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." [4/14/76]

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- REQUESTED ACTION

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Ashley Hewitt, Director, Office for Carribean Affairs):

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior Court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

Dear Secretary Todman:

I am writing for the purpose of giving you some details about a very unique American project in the Third World, the Peoples Temple agricultural missionfield in Guyana, South America, founded by my religious leader, Reverend Jim Jones. The American standard of life and her technological sophistication are without equal in the world, and as Christian emissaries in Guyana, we feel a responsibility to show America in the best light possible. We take the success of our mission there with great pride and see our role in helping America develop close relations with Guyana and her many neighbors in the Caribbean.

We see this part of the world as so critical to the world's balance of power. With Cuba only 90 miles offshore, America must maintain her presence in the Caribbean with great vigilance. Our success in making the jungle economically prosperous and in bringing the indigenous Indian populations into the Guyanese economy is not only rewarding in itself, but we value the opportunity to help America develop close working relationships with the Third World. On a grass-roots level, we are able to demonstrate a model of American technology that the Guyanese can and are learning from. We have established a successful cooperative community with a weekly outreach of harvested foods and medical supplies, also health clinics and hygienic instruction given by our medical staff in the surrounding areas. We are proud to serve America in this capacity. We credit the Carter administration for the policies of coexistance and mutual assistance within the hemisphere that we embrace as our own philosophy.

History is replete for close to three decades has been to bring into the mainstream of American life, those segments of society which had been neglected. Consequently, Peoples Temple has received on countless occasions national recognition, for successfully establishing and maintaining programs in drug and alcohol rehabilitation, youth recreation and tutorial services, as well as for senior citizens, free food, medical, and legal programs. In 1975, Reverend Jones was named by Religion in American Life as one of the top one hundred most outstanding clergymen in the nation, at a presentation in New York.

In 1973, when the Guyanese Government first gave us a leasehold on the 27,000 acres we now have, we hoped that through our mission there we would be able to make some contribution however small to furthering American-Guyanese relations. We hoped we could build a showplace, demonstrating the highest spirit of cooperative brotherhood and creating a community where the needs of all- both young and old- could be met.

Today, there are close to one thousand people living happily in Jonestown, in Guyana's North-West District. We have been visited by representatives of many countries, both from the Caribbean and other Third World countries, who have praised our achievements to the highest. We want American influence to be seen in the best light possible. We think we have found a way to do that. Guyanese Dental Surgeon Ng-a- Fook who this month spent several days in Jonestown remarked, " I have never seen so many people of varying races working happily side by side in the fields without a single spark of friction. With its own school, sawmill, electricity, roads, houses, and so on, all being scrupulously clean , I could not help but be impressed."

Our church membership took the late President Kennedy's proclamation to heart:" Ask not what your country can do for you, but ask what you can do for your country." In our present mission in Guyana, we have the vision, the hope, and have taken a step towards the closer international community that surely Kennedy would have wanted to see.

We are confident that your recent visit to Guyana was met and received with a great measure of gratitude by the Government of Guyana. All best wishes to you and the responsibility you carry, in the coming year, in building the international community.

Sincerely yours,

Andrew M. Silver

[illegible] custody case (457)

2/78 draft

Dear

The Secretary has asked me to reply to your letter of January 24 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several other Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. An Embassy officer has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. It is the Embassy's responsibility to seek to ensure that the judicial outcome of the dispute results from a fair and impartial determination of the merits of the case, and all of our efforts are so directed.

Following a hearing held on January 10, Mr. Stoen's attorney stated that he anticipated a favorable decision at the conclusion of the proceedings. Mr. Stoen himself was guardedly optimistic in conversations with officers at the Department of State on January 27.

On February 24, the American Consul in Georgetown, Guyana met with the new Guyanese Minister of Justice, Mohamed Shahabuddeen. Minister Shahabuddeen stated that child custody cases are civil disputes and therefore there is no legal requirement that hearings be scheduled within a specific time period. Further, the Minister indicated that a judge's written opinion may take four months to compose and release. Consequently, the delay to date in the Stoen case is not considered excessive under Guyanese legal procedures.

The Department shall continue to keep you informed of progress in this case. Should you require further information, please contact our Office of Special Consular Services, telephone 632-3034.

President Carter
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Carter;

I am Dennis Banks, leader of the American Indian Movement. I am writing out of concern for my good friend, Jim Jones, who has been a loyal and tireless friend to the Indian people, and to all oppressed minorities in the United States. I understand his work in Guyana, as well as his small son, John, are being threatened by some very ugly methods. As a champion of justice through thick and thin, there is no one who could deserve such treatment less than Jim Jones.

I first met Rev. Jones when my wife, Ka-Mook was imprisoned in [redacted] on false charges that were later dropped. At that time, we were penniless and her bail was $20,000. She had had our baby in jail, with the baby immediately removed from her and she was never given the proper medical attention that she needed. Jim Jones learned of our plight, and I was invited to come to the Peoples Temple church along with several of my associates from AIM. The same night I came, Jim Jones raised the money for Ka-Mook's bail from members of his congregation. I couldn't believe that these people, many or most of whom were from poor backgrounds themselves, were making this kind of sacrifice for me. But I learned later that Jim Jones himself has made this kind of sacrifice again and again over the years, and it was just his way, and the way of his people, to extend their help to the farthest limit when an injustice was involved.

Later I witnessed Jim Jones made the object of the same kind of false accusations, and I was approached myself by a man, David Conn, who said he was working with Treasury Department agents, and said he could give me help avoiding extradition (to a certain death in South Dakota jails) if I would only join the people who were lying on Jim Jones. He also implied that things would go badly for me if I did not agree, and it was clear to me that he was trying blackmail. I refused to go along with this scheme, and later exposed the man publicly for what he had done. This same man told me that one of the people he was working with was Grace Stoen, the mother of Jim Jones' child.

I did not know the background of John's situation at the time, but trusted in the integrity of a man I had seen do so much for me and so many others with no thought of reward or praise. Now that I know the true background of the situation, and how Grace Stoen rejected and abandoned her own son, I can well understand how she was working with these agents to try and destroy Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple plus anyone else who got in her way, because I have fifteen children, Mr. President, and this woman didn't care whether I lived or died, whether my children had a father or not, or whether my people were left without a leader. As you may know, it is also [redacted] for Indian children to be forced from their natural homes and put in foster homes when one parent is gone, so my devoted wife has has the burden of not only my own future, but the future of all the Banks children as well.

One more thing I want to add is that the Peoples Temple are very wonderful people. They work together, and build programs to help children, youth, and senior citizens. They extend friendship and assistance to whomever needs help, and never ask anything in return. Now they are working in Guyana, and saving the lives of Amerindian babies who would have died of malnutrition and gastroenteritis. It take a very sick and cold-hearted person to turn against people like that.

I am sure that Jim Jones and his people are the best thing that could happen to Guyana. And Jim Jones being the kind of person he is, I'm sure he will also be making many Guyanese friends for the United States. It would be a terrible tragedy if anything happened that would hurt his son, John who has a wonderful future there. For him to go back to Grace Stoen, who doesn't even want him except to use him to hurt others, would be like having no future at all. It can't even be considered.

I stand behind Jim Jones keeping his son, and the unethical and vicious actions of Grace and Timothy Stoen being stopped. I urge you to do the same, President Carter. Anyone who carries moral authority as you do, cannot fail to see where justice lies.

I also urge you to further a policy towards Guyana that is humane and generous, because we all need to work together more closely in this hemisphere and help developing nations build a good life for their people. The Guyanese are people who were under colonial rule until a few years ago, and they need and deserve whatever aid America can give to them.

Sincerely,

Dennis J. Banks

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and [illegible] priation of the property of its [illegible] Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moved to Guyana. See New York, August 13, 197[illegible] attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order, giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress had been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although separated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 25, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:30 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- REQUESTED ACTION:

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Terence A. Todman, Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affairs)

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

Temple Trouble

In the predominantly black Fillmore district of San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones is revered as a quasi-Samaritan with patrons in very high places. As pastor of the People's Temple, one of the largest nondenominational churches in California, Jones not only claims God's power to heal the sick but also wields palpable clout among city and state political leaders. The governor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff and district attorney have all visited the temple and, during the 1976 Presidential campaign, Jones himself shared a platform with Rosalynn Carter. Last December, the Democratic president also an ex-master black rioters was named chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority Commission by Mayor George Moscone. But more than a decade ago, accused by 30 former temple members of enriching his power through alleged fraud, physical beatings, misappropriation of parishioners' property and possible misuse of government funds.

The accusations were published in two August issues of New West magazine, but allegations of irregularities in the temple's financial and disciplinary practices. Church representatives promptly denied the charges. But in a pair of surprise moves last week, Jones resigned from the Housing Authority and District Attorney Joseph Freitas announced that he would find no basis for prosecution.

Coming: No one has yet filed a formal complaint against Jones, who temple officials said was serving builder of the church's 27,000-acre South American farm colony in Guyana. The city's most powerful politicians still seem solidly behind the controversial minister. Mayor Moscone has said he saw no evidence that Jones had broken any laws and, in a recent Sunday-morning sermon at the temple, black state Assemblyman Willie Brown Jr. warned that attacks on Jones were "a measure of the church's effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism that he himself, it appears, is the first to practice. His church, which claims 20,000 members statewide, sponsors a drug-rehabilitation program, a free restaurant and medical clinic and ambulance service. Most notably, Jones encourages his flock to give up their private property and live in low-cost apartments built by the church from the ruins. Jones and his wife live modestly above the temple, where they are raising a multiracial family of seven adopted children plus their own son. But his social activism also is experienced as pulpit showmanship. On Pentecost Day, the usual deluge of visiting preachers from across the country and local hopefuls jockeying for temple endorsement finds they received for exercising boisterous homage.

Jones (inset). Klan drama: 'That's why people turned over all they had'

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were harassed with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local news reports reported similar confusion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with New West, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Mabel Tom that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had us in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle. "So we thought going to the police would be no use."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $1,500,000 annually. Angry ex-members suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana heaven.

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Reiterman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Flanagan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Temple attorney Charles Garry to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. He said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have produced only illegible portions of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "unethical mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen said Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could only cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise Grace repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves John deeply and has never abandoned him."

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 25 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withheld is the child is in defiance of a court order."

Added Stoen, "I made a promise to myself that John Victor will be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1976 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I quit the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1968, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1975. The last time she saw her son was in September 1976 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September, but his efforts to find Jones and the

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of	No. 719-147
Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN	ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY
and
Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the Court made the following findings and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

2. Attorney Lee M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Barker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Peterson: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Coldgn: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Marie P. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and deft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." DEAR MR. VICE PRESIDENT:

I DESPERATELY SEEK YOUR HELP IN HELPING MY WIFE AND I GET OUR SIX YEAR OLD SON, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, NOW BEING HELD IN VIOLATION OF A CALIFORNIA COURT ORDER IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA. THE MAN HOLDING OUR SON, JIM JONES, IS MANIFESTING EXTREME SYMPTOMS OF PARANOID SCHIZOPHRENIA AND TALKING A LOT OF VIOLENCE. HE TELLS THE GUYANESE GOVERNMENT THAT THE U.S. POLITICIANS ARE ON HIS SIDE. THE DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER INTERVENED IN THE "SUMMARY" COURT PROCEEDINGS WE BROUGHT IN GUYANA AND NO DECISION HAS BEEN MADE AS OF NOW FIVE MONTHS LATER.

PLEASE, PLEASE HELP US BEFORE SOMETHING DREADFUL HAPPENS. WE WILL BE GRATEFUL TO YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS.

SINCERELY,

Timothy Stoen

ENC: HISTORY OF CUSTODY EVENTS AND COPY OF COURT ORDER.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although separated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

DECLASSIFIED

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

UNCLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 25, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

DECLASSIFIED

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:50 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

Temple Trouble

In the poor-black Fillmore district of San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones revered as a good Samaritan with patrons in very high places. As pastor of the People's Temple, one of the largest interfaith churches in California, Jones not only claims God's power to heal the sick but also wields palpable clout among city and state political leaders. The governor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff and district attorney have all visited the temple and, during the 1976 Presidential campaign, Jones himself shared platform with Rosalynn Carter. Last December, the charismatic preacher who can muster black voters was named chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority Commission by Mayor George Moscone. But now Jones stands accused by 30 former temple members of building his power through fear, fraud, physical beatings, the appropriation of parishioners' property and possible misuse of government funds.

The accusations were published in two August issues of New West magazine, which called for an investigation of the temple's financial and disciplinary practices. Church representatives promptly denied the charges. But in a pair of surprise moves last week, Jones resigned from the Housing Authority and District Attorney Joseph Freitas announced that he would look into the accusations.

Colony: No one has yet filed a formal complaint against Jones, who temple officials said was unreachable at the church's 27,000-acre South American farm colony in Guyana. The city's most powerful politicians still seem solidly behind the controversial minister. Mayor Moscone has said he saw no evidence that Jones had broken any laws and, in a recent Sunday-morning sermon at the temple, black state Assemblyman Willie Brown labeled the attacks "a measure of the church's effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism that he himself, it appears, is the first to practice. His church, which claims 20,000 members statewide, sponsors a drug-rehabilitation program, a free restaurant and medical clinic and a legal-aid service. More radically, Jones encourages his flock to give up their private property and live in low-rent apartments leased by the church from the city. Jones and his wife live modestly above the temple, where they are raising a multiracial family of seven adopted children plus their own son. But his social activism also is expressed as politics, and on Election Day, the poor deliver for their leader. In two recent close races for mayor and district attorney, Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

Jones (inset), Klan drama: 'That's why people turned over all they had'

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with Newsweek, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Micki Touchette, 28, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded garage and were given a weekly dole of $2 each as members of a temple commune. Touchette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had an in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle, 33, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $150,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN -- CHARACTER REFERENCES

- Superior Court Judge Arthur B. Brizzolara: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney ... His work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an appreciation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/75]

- Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

- Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

- State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

- Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carper: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

- Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

- Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

- Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

- Attorney Merle P. Orriard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

- Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and daft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." [4/14/76]

JOHN VICTOR STOEN — REQUESTED ACTION

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Terence A. Todman, Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affairs)

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

Re: John Stoen

Guyana, S.S. Master

Dear Secretary Vance:

I write out of urgent concern for the welfare of a six year old child, John Stoen. This child is being detained in Guyana, contrary to the wishes of his parents and legal custodians, Timothy and Grace Stoen, all of whom are citizens of the United States.

The child is being kept in Guyana through the efforts of the Reverend James W. Jones, and is being used as a hostage, in effect, by Mr. Jones in a conflict between Mr. Jones and the parents.

You need to know that Mr. Jones is a self-expatriated leader of a religious movement in the United States which generated the fanatical commitment of thousands of persons, including the admiration of a number of popular political leaders. Though that movement was related to the religious body of which I am a part, it now is clear that the trust which so many gave to Mr. Jones so unreservedly was tragically misplaced. Many of his most devoted followers have discovered him to be manipulative, coercive, and deeply vindictive, while still seeming to many persons to be credible and charismatic. Mr. Jones is, in short, a beguiling individual who is apparently capable of wreaking havoc with people's lives.

The sole reason it is important to Mr. Jones to keep John Stoen is that John's parents have both "defected" from the church which Mr. Jones leads. Not only has Mr. Jones acquired the properties and assets of many of his followers, fleeing this country with these riches; at least in this instance, he even has a child of two of his disillusioned devotees.

Having some personal knowledge of both Mr. Jones and of Mr. Stoen, I implore the intervention of the just powers of our country to enable the re-uniting of John Stoen with his parents. Knowing both men, I know that any claim of James W. Jones must be given very close scrutiny, for he would deny the common human rights of those who are no longer faithful to him.

The child is being kept in Guyana through the efforts of the Reverend James W. Jones, and is being used as a hostage, in effect, by Mr. Jones in a conflict between Mr. Jones and the parents.

You need to know that Mr. Jones is a self-appointed leader of a religious movement in the United States which perverted the functional equivalent of the tenets of Judaism, including the admiration of a number of popular political leaders. Though that movement was related to the religious body of which I am a part, it was in name only and the trust which so many gave to Mr. Jones so unknowingly was tragically misplaced. Many of his most devoted followers have discovered him to be manipulative, coercive, and highly vindictive, while still seeming to many persons to be sensible and charismatic. Mr. Jones is, in short, a troubling individual who is apparently capable of wreaking havoc with people's lives.

The sole reason it is important to Mr. Jones to keep John Stoen is that John's parents have both withdrawn from the church which Mr. Jones leads. Not only has Mr. Jones acquired the properties and assets of many of his followers, fleeing this country with those riches; at least in this instance, he even has a child of two of his disillusioned devotees.

Having some personal knowledge of both Mr. Jones and of Mr. Stoen, I implore the intervention of the just powers of our country to enable the reunion of John Stoen with his parents. Knowing both men, I know that any claims of James W. Jones must be given very close scrutiny, for he would deny the common human rights of those who are no longer faithful to him.

Though I trust that your Department has adequate information on this case, I would be pleased to look to see that you receive any data which you need.

I anticipate that your Department will be unremitting in its efforts until young John Sam Vance has been returned safely to his parents.

Dear Reverend Riley:

The Secretary has asked that I respond to your letter of February 2 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit in Georgetown last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, S[illegible] of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, terror, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although separated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

DECLASSIFIED

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 23, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 1:30 P.M. an official of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. The advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go as directed. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration official that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

JOHN VICTOR STOEN — REQUESTED ACTION

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Terence A. Todman, Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affair

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to discuss this matter.

Temple Trouble

In the poor-black Fillmore district f San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones revered as a good Samaritan with atrons in very high places. As pastor f the People's Temple, one of the largest nterfaith churches in California, Jones ot only claims God's power to heal the ck but also wields palpable clout among ty and state political leaders. The gov-rnor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff nd district attorney have all visited e temple and, during the 1976 Presi-ential campaign, Jones himself shared platform with Rosalynn arter. Last December, the harismatic preacher who n master black voters was amed chairman of the San rancisco Housing Authori-Commission by Mayor eorge Moscone. But now nes stands accused by 30 rmer temple members of uilding his power through ar, fraud, physical beatings, e appropriation of parish-ners' property and possible isuse of government funds.

The accusations were pub-shed in two August issues f New West magazine, hich called for an investiga-on of the temple's financial and disci-linary practices. Church representa-ves promptly denied the charges. But a pair of surprise moves last week, nes resigned from the Housing Au-ority and District Attorney Joseph reich announced that he would look to the accusations.

Catalyst: No one has yet filed a formal mplaint against Jones, who temple of-cials said was unreachable at the urch's 27,000-acre South American rm colony in Guyana. The city's most owerful politicians still seem solidly ehind the controversial minister. May-r Moscone has said he saw no evidence at Jones had broken any laws and, in a ecent Sunday-morning sermon at the mple, black state Assemblyman Willie rown lauded the attacks "a measure of he church's] effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism at he himself, it appears, is the first practice. His church, which claims 0,000 members statewide, sponsors a rug-rehabilitation program, a free res-aurant and medical clinic and a legal-aid ervice. More radically, Jones encour-ges his flock to give up their private roperty and live in low-rent apartments wned by the church from the city. Jones nd his wife live modestly above the mple, where they are raising a multira-ial family of seven adopted children ides their own son. But his social activ-m also is expressed as politics, and n Election Day, the poor deliver for eir leader. In two recent close races for-mayor and district attorney, Jones's regi-mented followers were considered im-portant to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parish-ioners described ritual beatings and hu-miliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been per-suaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the tem-ple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

When New West first considered in-vestigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local news-men reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with Newsweek, former followers of Jones corrobo-rated the New West report. Mickl Tou-chette, 28, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded garage and were given a weekly dole of $2 each as members of a temple commune. Tou-chette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had an in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle, 38, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued state-ments countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child mo-lesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $150,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to mine up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN and Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN	No. 719-147 ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 13th day of November, 1977.

TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN --- CHARACTER REFERENCES

1. Superior Court Judge Arthur S. Broaddus: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney.... His work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an approximation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/75]

2. Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Merle P. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics. But he is in my opinion a very shrewd and deft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." [4/14/76] and at the end of the Jan 10 hearings the judge took the case under advisement and stated he would study the issues and made a decision. The Stoen's attorneys expressed optimism that the decision would be made shortly but thus far there has been no decision. The decision is whether the September order for Jones to ~~produce~~ produce the child was legal or not. The custody case has not yet been formally introduced into court.

Mr. Stoen is an attorney as and was formerly the assistant District Attorney in San Francisco. He has visited many Senators and Congressmen during the past two weeks and sent sailgrams to 91 members of ~~congress~~ congress.

On the opposite side the desk has received at least 400 letters from supporters of the group alleging that the Embassy has interfered in the internal workings of the Guyanese government by assisting the Stoens when their visas were suddenly and without reason revoked during the hearings.

As far as SCS and ARA can determine the issue is still a child custody dispute involving all American citizen disputants in Guyana.

We have now received an expression of interest from DHA who feel that s the USG should come out openly in favor of the Stoen's case. They are deaf to our reasoning that we are unable to determine the merits of the case, that the court is the proper forum for such a determination and that without any court decision it would be improper for us to attempt to influence the local government.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am writing to urge you to do all within your power to secure the release of John Victor Stoen, age 6, who is currently being held against his parents' will on the People's Temple farm in Guyana.

His parents, Timothy and Grace Stoen, who are both American citizens, have left the church, but were restrained by the other members of the People's Temple from taking their son with them.

The Stoens are currently obtaining a California court order to regain custody of their son. I am asking for your full support in having the Guyanese government recognize the validity of the court order, and to expedite the return of John Victor Stoen to his parents here in the United States.

I am confident that with your backing this matter can be handled quickly and easily; I'm sure you understand the importance of time when our concern is to reunite a 6 year old boy restrained in a foreign country with his concerned parents.

I look forward to seeing your swift action in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

NORMAN Y. MINETA

DECLASSIFIED FEB - 1 1979

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

DECLASSIFIED

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although seperated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

CONFIDENTIAL

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

CONFIDENTIAL

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) —"that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 25, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:30 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

Temple Trouble

In the poor-black Fillmore district of San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones is revered as a good Samaritan with access in very high places. As pastor of the People's Temple, one of the largest interfaith churches in California, Jones not only claims God's power to heal the sick but also wields palpable clout among city and state political leaders. The governor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff and district attorney have all visited the temple and, during the 1976 Presidential campaign, Jones himself shared a platform with Rosalynn Carter. Last December, the charismatic preacher who can muster black voters was named chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority Commission by Mayor George Moscone. But now Jones stands accused by 30 former temple members of wielding his power through lies, fraud, physical beatings, the appropriation of parishioners' property and possible misuse of government funds. The accusations were published in two August issues of New West magazine, which called for an investigation of the temple's financial and disciplinary practices. Church representatives promptly denied the charges. But in a pair of surprise moves last week, Jones resigned from the Housing Authority and District Attorney Joseph Freitas announced that he would look into the accusations.

Colony: No one has yet filed a formal complaint against Jones, who temple officials said was unreachable at the church's 27,000-acre South American farm colony in Guyana. The city's most powerful politicians still seem solidly behind the controversial minister. Mayor Moscone has said he saw no evidence that Jones had broken any laws and, in a recent Sunday-morning sermon at the temple, black state Assemblyman Willie Brown labeled the attacks "a measure of the church's effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism that he himself, it appears, is the first to practice. His church, which claims 8,000 members statewide, sponsors a drug-rehabilitation program, a free restaurant and medical clinic and a legal-aid service. More radically, Jones encourages his flock to give up their private property and live in low-rent apartments leased by the church from the city. Jones and his wife live modestly above the temple, where they are raising a multiracial family of seven adopted children as well as their own son. But his social activism also is expressed as politics, and on Election Day, the poor deliver for their leader. In two recent close races for mayor and district attorney, Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

Jones (inset), Klan drama: 'That's why people turned over all they had'

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with NEWSWEEK, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Child Tourchette, 26, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded garage and were given a weekly dole of $2 each as members of a temple commune. Tourchette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had an in with the police," said Deanne Myrtle, 38, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $150,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Reiterman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Finnegan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Jones has been unavailable to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. He said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Jo Jo Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could easily cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 25 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1978 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1969, Grace had Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1975. The last time she saw her son was in September 1978 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September, be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of	No. 719-147
Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN	ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY
and
Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN — CHARACTER REFERENCES

1. Superior Court Judge Arthur B. Broaddus: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney.... His work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an appreciation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/75]

2. Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Merle F. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and daft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." The Honorable Cyrus Vance
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Secretary:

It has come to my attention that a child from California is being held by a California citizen in Guyana, South America. The child, John Victor Stoen is the son of Timothy and Grace Stoen, also residents of California. Young John is presently being held by Jim Jones in Guyana in violation of a custody order issued by San Francisco Superior Court granting custody of the boy to his parents.

The parents are presently seeking to enforce their decree through the proper legal channels in Guyana. It is my sincere hope that these proceedings will restore this six year old boy to his parents' care. However, should undue delays arise in the progress of the case, I hope that the United States Ambassador to Guyana will indicate to the Guyanese government my concern for the safe return of the child to his parents.

I would greatly appreciate knowing what action the Department of State intends to take in this matter.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Member of Congress

Dear Mr. Miller:

The Secretary has asked me to reply to your letter of January 24 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from Congressmen Leo Ryan, Don Dellums, Phillip Burton, Don Edwards, John Burton, Robert Duncan, Paul McCloskey, Timothy Wirth, and Clement Zablocki and Senators Alan Cranston and Mark Hatfield.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce an U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit in Georgetown last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce any U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit in Georgetown last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. Dear Mr. Chairman:

The Secretary has asked me to reply to your letter of January 24 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from Congressmen Lee Ryan, Ron Dellums, Phillip Burton, Don Edwards, John Burton, Robert Duncan, Paul McCloskey, Timothy Wirth, and George Miller and Senators Alan Cranston and Mark Hatfield.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Dear Mr. Bennet:

Recently, I was made aware of the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Oliver Stoen to secure the return of their son who is being held at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana. Mr. and Mrs. Stoen and their son are United States citizens.

Although I realize that it is difficult to intervene in such a custody case in a foreign nation, I would appreciate any appropriate assistance that may be given. I am advised a California court which had jurisdiction over all the parties found in favor of the Stoens.

It would be helpful if I could be provided with a full report on this situation and on the efforts of the Department in the Stoen's behalf.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

John Sparkman

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6. Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although separated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

[redacted]

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

[redacted]

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 25, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming habeas corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:50 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

RELIGION

Temple Trouble

In the poor-black Fillmore district of San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones is revered as a good Samaritan with patrons in very high places. As pastor of the People's Temple, one of the largest interfaith churches in California, Jones not only claims God's power to heal the sick but also wields palpable clout among city and state political leaders. The governor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff and district attorney have all visited the temple and, during the 1976 Presidential campaign, Jones himself shared a platform with Rosalynn Carter. Last December, the charismatic preacher who can muster black voters was named chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority Commission by Mayor George Moscone. But now Jones stands accused by 30 former temple members of building his power through fear, fraud, physical beatings, the appropriation of parishioners' property and possible misuse of government funds.

The accusations were published in two August issues of New West magazine, which called for an investigation of the temple's financial and disciplinary practices. Church representatives promptly denied the charges. But in a pair of surprise moves last week, Jones resigned from the Housing Authority and District Attorney Joseph Freitas announced that he would look into the accusations.

Colony: No one has yet filed a formal complaint against Jones, who temple officials said was unreachable at the church's 27,000-acre South American farm colony in Guyana. The city's most powerful politicians still seem solidly behind the controversial minister. Mayor Moscone has said he saw no evidence that Jones had broken any laws and, in a recent Sunday-morning sermon at the temple, black state Assemblyman Willie Brown labeled the attacks "a measure of [the church's] effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism that he himself, it appears, is the first to practice. His church, which claims 20,000 members statewide, sponsors a drug-rehabilitation program, a free restaurant and medical clinic and a legal-aid service. More radically, Jones encourages his flock to give up their private property and live in low-rent apartments leased by the church from the city. Jones and his wife live modestly above the temple, where they are raising a multiracial family of seven adopted children plus their own son. But his social activism also is expressed as politics, and on Election Day, the poor deliver for their leader. In two recent close races for mayor and district attorney, Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

Jones (inset), Klan drama: 'That's why people turned over all they had'

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with NEWSWEEK, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Micki Touchette, 26, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded garage and were given a weekly dole of $2 each as members of a temple commune. Touchette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had an in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle, 38, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $150,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Reiterman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Finnegan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Temple attorney Charles Garry said [illegible] to decide how to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. He said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could easily cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 25 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

Added Stoen, "I made a promise to myself that John Victor will be back with Grace by Jan. 1. I will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1976 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March ... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1969, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1975. The last time she saw her son was in September 1976 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September, but his efforts to find Jones and the boy were unsuccessful.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of	No. 719-147
Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN	ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY
and
Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of tl above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and ord that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is he

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Merle P. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 26 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and deft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- REQUESTED ACTION

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Terence A. Todman, Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affair

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

Dear Reverend Riley:

The Secretary has asked that I respond to your letter of February 2 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit in Georgetown last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. It is the Embassy's responsibility to seek to ensure that the judicial outcome of the dispute results from a fair and impartial determination of the merits of the case, and all of our efforts are so directed.

Following a hearing held on January 10, Mr. Stoen's attorney stated that he anticipated a favorable decision at the conclusion of the proceedings. Mr. Stoen himself was guardedly optimistic in conversations with officers at the Department of State on January 27.

The child custody case involving the parties Timothy O. and Grace Lucy [illegible] vs. Rev. James W. Jones is a domestic matter that is being handled appropriately and adequately within the court system of Guyana, South-America.

There is no reason whatsoever for any intsrference in this case from parties acting in any governmental capacity from the United States.

Your cooperation in leaving the settlement of this domestic matter to the Guyanese courts is appreciated by our offices.

The Honorable Cyrus Vance
Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am writing to call attention to the plight of Grace and Timothy Stoen, whose young son is being held under rather bizarre circumstances in Guyana. Given the rather unstable emotional condition of the person, Reverend Jim Jones, who is holding the son, there is reason to be concerned about the child's welfare.

The Stoen case is well known to the Department of State (the Bureau of Consular Affairs), and I won't go into detail here. In a nutshell, the Stoens became involved with a religious group in California headed by the Reverend Jones, traveled to Guyana to join a religious retreat there, and subsequently left the child in Jones' care. Later when they came to their senses, the Stoens tried to get the child back, but were rebuffed by Reverend Jones.

I understand the political sensitivities involved, particularly because both the Stoens and Reverend Jones are American citizens, and the case is before the courts. But there is also an obvious human consideration, and I think the Department should do whatever it can to help out.

Sincerely,

Dick Clark

SCS called Embassy to elicit response to Ba State 4386.

DCM informed Dept that reply had been drafted Feb 13, he regretted we had not received and outlined Embassy belief that Embassy attorney/advisor not required as Embassy felt confident of legal issues at stake.

SCS then inquired how long Embassy believed it should properly take to get decision in type of case held January 10 in Stoen/Jones battle. DCM replied that given lack of clerical assistance etc it would seem reasonable to wait about two six weeks.

SCS then informed that we were going to instruct Embassy to inquire of Local govt how long we should expect to wait for decision on hearing held over a month ago.

Dear Mr. Miller:

I have known Rev. Jim Jones of the Peoples Temple for ten years. During this time I have never known him once to refuse to help anyone in need, regardless of race, color, or creed.

He has always believed in lighting a candle rather than cursing the darkness, and his work here in San Francisco and the Bay Area, as well as his devotion to the people and mission in Guyana, are the mark of a man who has devoted his whole life to the service and welfare of humankind.

I am thus dismayed to learn that another round of attacks has been levelled against him -- although I understand that Jesus Christ and Martin Luther King, among many others throughout history, have suffered condemnation and persecution during their lifetimes for wanting nothing more than a better life for the downtrodden.

If you have been used and misled by a detractor in any way who is trying to hinder the work of Rev. Jones and Peoples Temple in their Jonestown agricultural mission, which is making such strides in resource and human development and building a bridge of friendship between Guyana and the United States, I am very sad. Because if such a beautiful work for the people could just be left alone to develop in peace, the world would see a candle of hope become a flame of inspiration for others to follow. All of us have much to learn about living together in racial and economic equality as the People's Temple is doing.

I implore you to withdraw any commitment you have or may have made inadvertently on behalf of one who is bent on throwing the work of peacemakers to the wind and who may well be receiving money to do it.

Sincerely yours,

President Jimmy Carter
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Carter:

I am the Supervisor for District Five in the City of San Francisco. The People's Temple Christian Church is not located in my District, so I have no political ties or obligation to this church. I am writing to call an urgent concern of theirs to your attention, as I understand it is the endorsement of some of our Congressmen for the efforts of Timothy Stoen against Rev. Jim Jones and the People's Temple. There are some facts I feel you should be informed of:

Rev. Jones is widely known in the minority communities here and elsewhere as a man of the highest character, who has undertaken constructive remedies for social problems which have been amazing in their scope and effectiveness. He is also highly regarded amongst church, labor, and civic leaders of a wide range of political persuasions. Our own Board of Supervisors has presented Rev. Jones with a Certificate of Honor, unanimously passed by all members, praising the church for its many projects "which have been so beneficial to all the citizens of the Bay Area." On the same occasion, he was also presented with a unanimously passed resolution by a Republican State Senator, Milton Marks representing that legislative body.

Timothy and Grace Stoen, the parties that are attempting to damage Rev. Jones' reputation, and seriously disrupt the life of his son, John, have both already been discredited in the news media here. The most widely-read columnist in the area, Herb Caen, printed Mr. Stoen's sworn testimony that John is not his child but rather Rev. Jones. Grace Stoen is reported involved in what could be considered a blackmail attempt against another leader in the minority community, Dennis Banks, reported in the two major dailies with her name also given in Mr. Banks' sworn affidavit about the attempt.

It is quite obvious that Timothy Stoen could even think of fomenting this situation in front of our Congressmen with apparently bold-faced lies. I have learned in addition, that he has pressured these Congressmen towards unanimous compliance with promoting State Department intervention in the custody case now pending in Guyana.

Not only is the life of a child at stake, who presently has loving protective parents in Rev. and Mrs. Jones, but our official relations with Guyana could stand to be jeopardized, to the potentially great embarrassment of our State Department.

Mr. President, the actions of Mr. Stoen need to be brought to a halt. It is offensive to most in the San Francisco community, and all those who know Rev. Jones to see this kind of an outrage taking place.

Respectfully,

Harvey Milk

Ms. Foster reported that the purpose of the meeting was to convince the Congressional offices to "stay out of the case." 2/17/78. Mrs. Jim Jones, Terry Buford and another member of the People's Temple, First name Edgar, met in the Department with Elizabeth A. Powers and Fred Kempeka of CA/SCE and Brook Tennenis, ARA/CAR/C. The meeting was at the request of Mrs. Jones. It was apparent that Mrs. Jones and her associates were trying to determine the Department's position concerning the custody case. Mrs. Jones was told that the Department had no position on the merits of the case but was interested only in a fair and impartial determination by the Guyanese court. She was given a copy of the Stoen letter we sent in response to Congressional inquiries. It was pointed out to Mrs. Jones that the People's Temple was not at issue and that the Department had no position concerning the Temple. In her comments, Mrs. Jones asserted that her husband was the natural father of the child. She appeared satisfied with the Department's position on the case and was properly appreciative for the meeting.

PEOPLE'S TEMPLE

The People's Temple is a religious cult organization that originated in the San Francisco area under the guidance of its "bishop", Jim Jones. Mr. Jones at one time was a prominent political figure in the Bay area, serving as the appointed chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority. He still has many supporters in prominent positions in California, including the Lieutenant Governor, Mervyn Dymally.

The People's Temple purchased 23,000 acres of land in Guyana and, under a cloud of accusations of beatings, fraud and financial improprieties by former members moved the headquarters of the Temple to Jonestown, where they have established an agricultural commune. The Embassy presently estimates that there are 400-500 Americans, living and working at the People's Temple Agricultural Community. CA/SCS has received approximately twenty inquiries from concerned parents or other relatives of persons living at Jonestown. Richard McCoy, Consul at the Embassy, has made two trips in the past four months to investigate the charges that persons were being detained against their will or being mistreated. His personal observations and conversations with local officials who deal with the People's Temple have convinced him that no one is being held against his/her will or in bondage. The people at the Agricultural Community appeared healthy, well-fed and satisfied with their lives as agricultural workers.

The desk officer informs us that the Government of Guyana is sympathetic and supportive to the People's Temple as their commune (established in 1973) is very successful and is being used as an example by the local government.

CHILD CUSTODY CASE: JOHN VICTOR STOEN

This case involves a dispute over the custody of John Victor Stoen, age 6, who is the legal son of two former members of the People's Temple. He was born while his parents were active members of the Temple. At one time, the mother signed power of attorney concerning John to a member of the People's Temple. Jim Jones showed papers to the desk officer and the DCM when they recently visited the commune which he states were signed by Mr. Stoen. One paper allegedly asks Mr. Jones to sire a child for Mr. Stoen. The other states that Jones is the father of the child. We note also that the Stoens effectively abandoned the child when they left the group. After leaving the group in 1976, Mrs. Stoen began court proceedings in 1977 to regain the custody of her son. Her husband joined her in these proceedings. After obtaining custody through the courts in California the legal process in Guyana was instituted last September. Hearings on the question of the validity of an arrest warrant for Jim Jones based upon his evasion of a habeus corpus order directing him to produce the child have been held periodically since September, the last hearing concluding January 18. Only after resolution of this dispute will the court turn to the actual custody question.

The case has created considerable public interest. Mr. Stoen has lobbied extensively with the Congress and to date SCS has received inquiries from 28 members of Congress. On the other side, the Guyanese desk and SCS have received in excess of 500 letters from members or supporters of the People's Temple. To the Congress, the general public and both parties, the Department and the Embassy have emphasized that the USG has no position on the merits of the case but is only concerned that the decision be reached fairly and impartially. To better assist us in monitoring the progress of the dispute, we have asked the Embassy to seek impartial legal advice regarding the procedural aspects of the case.

QUESTIONS TO RAISE

Based upon the progress of the dispute to date and the personalities involved, both SCS and the Guyana desk believe it likely that the court proceedings in Guyana will drag on for an indeterminate time. Furthermore, it is our private opinion that custody of John Victor very likely could be awarded to Jim Jones. Should there be a long delay or Jones be awarded the child, Mr. Stoen is certain to demand that the Department intervene with the Government of Guyana to force the return of his child. This demand undoubtedly will be accompanied by strong Congressional pressure on the Department.

In your conversations with Ambassador Burke, we recommend that you discuss fully the domestic consequences of such adverse results as opposed to the consequences in Guyana should the Stoens be granted custody. You should emphasize to the Ambassador that, failing clear proof of any outside interference with the decision of the courts, the USG will decline to intervene in behalf of either party.

SCS has recommended that the Embassy consider hiring independent counsel to monitor legal developments; the Embassy is reluctant to take this action (See Georgetown 651 and State 14403 and 417101. Embassy contacts with the government to obtain information are misinterpreted by Peoples Temple supporters in the United States as interference in the internal affairs of Guyana. However the Department supports the Embassy's efforts to obtain information from the government. Although the Embassy should continue to speak with both attorneys the Embassy should not rely upon the attorneys' beliefs as definitive concerning the procedures in the case.

Dear Mr. Mineta:

The Secretary has asked me to reply to your letter of February 3 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several other Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit in Georgetown last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- REQUESTED ACTION

I. LETTER to SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE (with copy to Terence A. Todman, Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affair

a. Asking him to direct U.S. Ambassador to communicate official concern of U.S. Government and the Congress of the U.S. that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Asking him to seek action by Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by negotiation with Jones and by all other necessary means.

II. LETTER to FORBES BURNHAM, Prime Minister of Guyana, and to DR. PTOLEMY REID, Deputy Prime Minister:

a. Communicating your concern that child be safely restored to parents;

b. Requesting Guyanese government to facilitate safe return of child by direct negotiations with Jones and by all other necessary means;

c. Pointing out that it is in the best interests of the Stoens, the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana that the child be safely returned so as to avoid dangers inherent in a confrontation.

III. POINTS TO POSSIBLY INCLUDE:

a. The only issue is the restoration of a child to his parents.

b. Jones, the child, and the Stoens are all U.S. citizens, making this a particularly appropriate case for comity.

c. Jones was found by the California Superior Court to be properly before it, and the order of the court is unequivocally clear in ordering Jones to deliver the child.

d. The parents have taken all reasonable action by submitting themselves to the courts. By failing to personally appear and raise defenses, Jones has in effect defaulted.

e. The California Superior court is so concerned as to have ordered the District Attorney to assist in obtaining compliance by Jones. The District Attorney has sent official letters to the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister, and Foreign and Justice Minister (Fred Wills) but received no response.

f. Jones has knowledge of the order but refuses to comply. Jones refused to let parents even see their son on their visit to Guyana this month.

Temple Trouble

In the poor-black Fillmore district of San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones is revered as a good Samaritan with patrons in very high places. As pastor of the People's Temple, one of the largest interfaith churches in California, Jones not only claims God's power to heal the sick but also wields palpable clout among city and state political leaders. The governor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff and district attorney have all visited the temple and, during the 1976 Presidential campaign, Jones himself shared a platform with Rosalynn Carter. Last December, the charismatic preacher who can muster black voters was named chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority Commission by Mayor George Moscone. But now Jones stands accused by 30 former temple members of building his power through fear, fraud, physical beatings, the appropriation of parishioners' property and possible misuse of government funds.

The accusations were published in two August issues of New West magazine, which called for an investigation of the temple's financial and disciplinary practices. Church representatives promptly denied the charges. But in a pair of surprise moves last week, Jones resigned from the Housing Authority and District Attorney Joseph Freitas announced that he would look into the accusations.

Colony: No one has yet filed a formal complaint against Jones, who temple officials said was unreachable at the church's 27,000-acre South American farm colony in Guyana. The city's most powerful politicians still seem solidly behind the controversial minister. Mayor Moscone has said he saw no evidence that Jones had broken any laws and, in a recent Sunday-morning sermon at the temple, black state Assemblyman Willie Brown linked the attacks "a measure of [the church's] effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism that he himself, it appears, is the first to practice. His church, which claims 20,000 members statewide, sponsors a drug-rehabilitation program, a free restaurant and medical clinic and a legal-aid service. More radically, Jones encourages his flock to give up their private property and live in low-cost apartments leased by the church from the city. Jones and his wife live modestly above the temple, where they are raising a multiracial family of seven adopted children plus their own son. But his social activism also is expressed as politics, and on Election Day, the pastor can deliver for their leader. In two mayoralty races [illegible] mayor and district attorney, Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

Jones (inset). Klan drama: 'That's why people turned over all they had'

When New West first considered investigating the People's Temple, the editors were barraged with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did ex-members of the temple volunteer to tell of their experiences.

In separate interviews with Newsweek, former followers of Jones corroborated the New West report. Nicki Touchette, 28, told how she and seven other students slept in a crowded garage and were given a weekly dole of $2 each as members of a temple commune. Touchette, who is white, said that Jones, who is part American Indian, told them "how ugly and horrible it was to be white," and "not to have sex because we were all latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his followers a haven in Guyana when, as he predicted, Fascists took over the U.S. "He said they had a plan to exterminate blacks like they did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. She also described a ritual by temple members that dramatized a Ku Klux Klan lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He told us the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against their lives if they dared talk to police and said that they had been made to sign false confessions to crimes such as conspiracy against the government. "Jim always said he had an in with the police," said Deanna Myrtle, 38, "so we thought going to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued statements countercharging that some of the dissenters were terrorists and child molesters. Throughout the controversy, Jones has remained at the Guyana farm, which the church says it funds with $1,500,000 annually. And some suspect that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the first to take up permanent asylum in the Guyana haven.

Parents awarded custody

Jones temple asked to return child

By Tim Reiterman

Former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen and his separated wife have been awarded custody of their 5-year-old son and are calling upon the Rev. Jim Jones to return the child from the Peoples Temple agricultural mission in Guyana.

Stoen, a former high ranking temple member said yesterday that he decided to join forces with his wife in the complex custody battle because he received information that their son, John Victor Stoen, was being turned against his mother.

Though they have been separated, the couple appeared before Superior Court Judge Frank G. Finnegan in San Francisco and agreed that Stoen's wife Grace would have physical custody of the boy, that Stoen would share legal custody and that Stoen would have visitation rights.

The judge also ruled that Jones, who joined as a party of interest in the custody fight, had failed to appear as ordered although he had been properly served.

"This means that Jones is required to give up the child immediately," said Grace Stoen's attorney, Jeff Haas.

The question remains whether Guyanese courts will recognize the United States court order.

Haas said he will consider contempt proceedings against Jones if the child is not returned by a Nov. 26 deadline in the letter. "That child now is supposed to be with Grace, and anyone who withholds the child is in defiance of a court order."

to respond to the court action and the Stoens' request for return of the child. He said Jones previously has taken the position that he intends to keep the child.

Temple member Joyce Touchette has filed papers with the Guyanese courts alleging that Mrs. Stoen was an unfit mother and had given her power of attorney and permission to take the child to Guyana.

But Grace, 27, and Tim, 40, have revoked any alleged powers of attorney given to Touchette or Jones. And Stoen testified that his wife was an "excellent mother."

In a letter dated Nov. 17, Stoen told Jones: "I have received reliable information to the effect that Grace is being seriously discredited in John's eyes. Not only is this deeply offensive to me, but it could really cause irreparable emotional harm to John.

"I ask you to immediately reverse the hate campaign and to advise John repeatedly what you and I both know to be true—that Grace loves him deeply and has never abandoned him."

he back with Grace by Jan. 1. I Will personally go down and get him if Jim refuses to cooperate."

He said, "This puts me on a collision course with a man I was so fiercely loyal to. But I'm doing it because it's right."

Stoen is a former Mendocino County deputy district attorney who came to the San Francisco District Attorney's office in 1976 to prosecute voter fraud cases.

He left the San Francisco post earlier this year to devote his efforts to the church mission in South America.

"I left the church because I didn't like the authoritarianism for myself," he said. "I quit in March ... Then Jim begged me to come back because he felt I was needed at the mission. I finally left again June 8. I felt that John was being well cared for there at the time."

In 1968, Grace and Tim joined the temple and were married by Jones in Redwood Valley, near Ukiah. They became members of the church hierarchy.

Grace said in an earlier interview that beatings of church members prompted her to leave in 1975. The last time she saw her son was in September 1976 in Los Angeles when her husband and Jones refused to give up the child.

Her attorney flew to Guyana with a court order giving her temporary custody last September.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of

Petitioner: GRACE LUCY STOEN

and

Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STOEN

No. 719-147

ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STOEN, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Haas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

DECLASSIFIED

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, this court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LUCY STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LUCY STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOUCHETTE, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

ORDERED this 18th day of November, 1977 and signed the 18th day of November, 1977.

TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN --- CHARACTER REFERENCES

1. Superior Court Judge Arthur B. Broaddus: "He is an extremely capable trial attorney.... His work is careful, thorough and prompt. Add to this his fine judgment and common sense approach and you start to get an approximation of the fine attorney he is." [4/8/75]

2. Attorney Leo M. Cook: "His intellectual level is very high, and he has an extraordinary ability to analyze complicated issues.  He is certainly incorruptable." [4/14/76]

3. Chairman of Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Ernest F. Banker: "He has great integrity and a dedication to any job that he undertakes in a degree that I have found unsurpassed. I have never really known of any advice that Tim has given our Board that has caused us any embarrassment or financial loss, and our reliance on him is unequivocal." [4/15/76]

4. State Assemblyman Barry Keene: "By virtue of his fair and public spirited approach to the practice of law, Mr. Stoen has garnered the admiration of the Bench and the Bar of the state as well as his community at large." [10/15/75]

5. Former Stanford Assistant Professor of Law Jared G. Carter: "I have the highest possible regard for Tim Stoen's ability, integrity and fairness. I first knew him as a student of mine at Stanford Law School for the period between 1963 and 1965.  Tim enjoys not only my high opinion, but also the high regard of the entire county administration and the Bar in this area." [4/15/76]

6. Attorney and Mendocino County Supervisor Burgess Williams: "I am now completing four years on the County Board of Supervisors, and Mr. Stoen has always been our legal counsel. During that time, the Board has conducted many public hearings involving complex legal matters, and I have always gone into those hearings confident that our attorney was better prepared and more knowledgeable on the issues than any other advocate in the chambers. Mr. Stoen is an ethical, principled person whose character is beyond reproach. I don't believe there is a better public attorney in the State of California." [4/15/76]

7. Mendocino County Bar Association President Richard J. Petersen: "He's knowledgeable, believes in what he's doing, is truthful to himself and therefore can be truthful to a jury; he's an honor to his profession.  I would be hard-pressed to list one attorney--and I'm saying these words literally--not one attorney in the Mendocino County Bar who does not believe Tim Stoen an honest man, a principled man, an effective lawyer, and perhaps more importantly, a well-balanced man." [4/15/76]

8. Superior Court Judge John J. Golden: "Tim is an excellent lawyer." [4/14/76]

9. Attorney Merle P. Orchard: "He...has distinguished himself in the practice of law to a high degree. He also commands the utmost personal respect in this community [Ukiah]. He is both a fine scholar as well as an aggressive and exceptionally fine practitioner of the law. Of all the young men whom I have seen practice in the last 25 years in this community, I would place Tim, in all respects, at the very top." [4/21/76]

10. Mendocino County Public Defender Joseph D. Allen: "Mr. Stoen compiled a brilliant record as a criminal prosecutor.  I have found him to be deeply committed to civil rights matters as well as social justice, the vigorous prosecution of law breakers and vigorous protection of the county tax payers in handling the county's civil legal business. Mr. Stoen...in his professional capacity has a reputation in our county for fairness, intelligence, absolute integrity and total honesty. He is not active in partisan politics but he is in my opinion a very shrewd and daft negotiator.  He enjoys absolutely the highest reputation by all who have known him in Mendocino County." [4/14/76]

JOHN VICTOR STOEN, Age 6, Son of Grace and Timothy Stoen, San Francisco, California. Now held illegally by Jim Jones, leader of Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission, Jonestown, Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America.

Situation: John Victor Stoen, now age 6, was born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in 1972 and raised in the community of Peoples Temple, San Francisco, California, of which his parents were active members. By 1976, the Peoples Temple was a significant political force in Northern California.

In June 1977, Timothy Stoen, then at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, quit the Temple in disagreement over its authoritarian practices, but left John Victor with his teachers at the Mission. The Mission, known as Jonestown, is in a remote jungle area accessible only by air or boat. The U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, reports that some 850 Americans are believed to be in residence.

In July 1977, New West magazine reported charges by 30 former Peoples Temple members that Jones controls the organization through fraud, fear, physical beatings and appropriation of the property of its members. Jones thereafter resigned his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moved to Guyana. See Newsweek, August 15, 1977, attached.

In August 1977, the California Superior Court issued an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace Stoen. Jones has not released the child in response to this order. In September 1977, habeas corpus proceedings against Jones were brought in the Guyanese courts, but the proceedings have been contested by Jones on procedural grounds and progress has been extremely slow. In November 1977, the Stoens, still legally married although seperated since July 1976, appeared together in California Superior Court and were awarded joint legal custody of John Victor. The Court ordered the San Francisco District Attorney to take all actions necessary to obtain release of the child from Jones. Jones has refused to comply with this order and continues to contest the proceedings in Guyana.

Jones has claimed to be the natural father of John Victor, but has not raised this issue in either the California or Guyanese Court proceedings.

All persons involved in the matter are U.S. citizens.

Problem: Jones strongly resists release of the child and is politically influential in the highest circles of the Guyanese Government. The court is expected to award custody to the Stoens, but enforcement may require a political decision to use the Guyanese Army and could result in harm to John Victor or other innocent persons. The Stoens wish to avoid a dangerous confrontation with Jones and to enlist the aid of the U.S. and Guyanese Governments to this end.

Requested Actions: Ask the Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, to direct the U.S. Ambassador to Guyana to communicate the official concern of the U.S. Government and the Congress of the United States that John Victor Stoen be safely restored to his parents, and to further direct the U.S. Ambassador to seek action by the Guyanese Government to facilitate his safe return by negotiation with Jones and all other necessary means.

Communicate this concern and requested action directly in a letter to Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister, and Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana.

Chronology: A chronology of events is attached.

DECLASSIFIED

JOHN VICTOR STOEN -- CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS

January 25, 1972: John Victor Stoen born to Grace and Timothy Stoen in Santa Rosa, California, and raised in community of Peoples Temple.

July 1976: Grace leaves Temple.

February 1977: Timothy resigns position as Assistant District Attorney and Special Prosecutor for City of San Francisco to go to Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

June 1977: Timothy quits Peoples Temple, leaving John Victor with his teachers in Guyana.

July 1977: Jim Jones, Leader of the Peoples Temple, is attacked in the Press. Jones resigns his position as Chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority and moves to the Mission, which is in a remote jungle area of Guyana.

August 1977: The California Superior Court issues an ex-parte order giving custody of John Victor to Grace. Jones is notified but refuses to permit John to be returned.

September 6 and 10, 1977: Habeas corpus proceedings are brought against Jones in the Supreme Court of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. A writ of habeas corpus is issued, making John Victor a ward of the court, ordering him brought into court, and granting leave to commence contempt proceedings against Jones. Jones evades personal service. The court authorizes substituted service, which is made with the help of the Guyanese Army.

September (a few days later): The Deputy Prime Minister of Guyana, the Hon. Dr. Ptolemy Reid, returns to Guyana from a trip abroad. All effective action in the "summary" habeas corpus proceedings stops.

November 18, 1977: Timothy and Grace Stoen testify together in California Superior Court, and are awarded joint legal custody. The Superior Court determines that it has personal jurisdiction over Jones and that Jones has been properly served; the court determines that Jones is in violation of its order to appear.

The court orders:

a) "that Reverend Jim Jones...immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner."

b) that the San Francisco District Attorney "take all actions necessary...to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order."

c) that petitioner "is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones."

November 18, 1977: The above-mentioned court order is served on Jones' attorney of record in San Francisco. Jones does not comply.

November 25, 1977: The District Attorney of San Francisco, Joseph Freitas, Jr., sends an official letter to the following persons requesting each "to use whatever influence you have to help us obtain Reverend Jones' compliance with the aforesaid order:"

a) United States officials: President Jimmy Carter; Secretary of State Cyrus Vance; Bay Area Congressional Representatives;

b) Cooperative Republic of Guyana officials: Prime Minister Forbes Burnham, Deputy Prime Minister Dr. Ptolemy Reid, Foreign and Justice Minister Fred Wills.

DECLASSIFIED

December 16, 1977: The U.S Department of State writes a letter to District Attorney Freitas saying in effect that the State Department is unable to help and that the "question of John Victor Stoen's custody will almost certainly be decided by the Guyanese court...on the basis of Guyanese law." The Guyana officials do not respond to Freitas.

December 1977: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that final argument on procedural objections to the habeas corpus writ will commence January 7, 1978.

January 4, 1978: Stoens travel from San Francisco to Georgetown, Guyana.

January 7, 1978: The Guyanese court hears argument in the habeas corpus proceeding. The Stoens are present. Jones appears by counsel.

January 10, 1978: At the conclusion of argument, the court takes the matter "under submission." The Stoens' Guyanese lawyer advises that the outlook for a favorable order confirming hab as corpus against Jones is very positive and that a decision should be issued in matter of days.

January 13, 1978: At 3:50 P.M. an offical of the Guyana Immigration Office comes to the Tower Hotel and advises the Stoens that they must be out of the country before midnight the next day. No reason is given, although visas are good through January 19. Tim advises the U.S. Embassy in Guyana that the order is illegal and that he will stay but Grace will go to Trinidad. The next day while Grace is checking baggage at the airport, the Stoens are informed by a Guyanese Immigration offical that the order has been rescinded. Though requested, no explanation is given.

January 17, 1978: The Stoens are advised by their Guyanese lawyer that a decision may not be reached for a matter of weeks. The matter has now been pending since September.

January 18, 1978: The Stoens decide to leave Guyana and to fly back when the court's decision is imminent. At Guyana's Timehri Airport, Tim is surrounded by three agents of Jones and the Peoples Temple who demand that they drop the court proceedings and verbally threaten their lives.

January 1978: The Stoens remain married with a possibility of reconciliation and are in full agreement and harmony on all questions pertaining to the raising of John Victor.

FROM : SCS-Francis X. Lambert

SUBJECT: Public Correspondence: The People's Temple

The Correspondence section of Public Affairs has requested language to use in response to the many letters they have received on the custody case of John Victor Stoen, the People's Temple and the politics of Guyana. All three subjects are inter-related in the volumes of letters SCS, ARA and PA have received. PA states that the language we submit must be cleared at the Deputy Assistant Secretary level.

We propose to send PA the three attached information sheets. Information sheet number one is the standard response we have been using for Congressional inquiries on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Stoen. It has been cleared by Miss Watson. Information sheet two is the response drafted by the Guyanese desk in reply to queries by Congress alleging USG interference in the internal affairs of Guyana. It was cleared by ARA—G. Lister. Information sheet three is a new draft providing information in general about the People's Temple.

Action requested: That you review all three sheets and provide clearance for information sheet three.

Dear Senator Cranston:

The Secretary has asked me to reply to your letter of January 29 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several other Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. It is the Embassy's responsibility to seek to ensure that the judicial outcome of the dispute results from a fair and impartial determination of the merits of the case, and all of our efforts are so directed.

Following a hearing held on January 16, Mr. Stoen's attorney stated that he anticipated a favorable decision at the conclusion of the proceedings. Mr. Stoen himself was guardedly optimistic in conversations with officers at the Department of State on January 27.

As the case is presently before the court, it would be improper for the Department of State or the Embassy to approach the Government of Guyana on behalf of either party. You may be assured, however, that the Government of Guyana is fully aware of the United States' interest in a fair and impartial adjudication of the merits of the dispute.

The Department will keep you informed on the progress of the case. Should you require further information, please contact Miss Elizabeth A. Powers, in our Office of Special Consular Services, Telephone 202-632-3015.

RETRIEVED BY _____ DATE _____

February 27, 1978

The Honorable Jimmy Carter
The President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania St.
Washington D.C.

Dear President Carter:

It is an honor for me to write on behalf of Rev. Jim Jones, a rare human being and leader of the first order. He has been unjustly maligned in recent months, but is presently undertaking a remarkable agricultural mission in Guyana, South America, the reality of which flies in the face of all its detractors. Rev. Jones, more than any other minister the Bay Area has seen, did wonders for this community in terms of tackling ingrained social problems, such as drug abuse, crime, and unemployment. I have no doubt that his inspirational leadership is motivating the Peoples Temple members in Guyana to even greater achievements, now that they are established on their own territory free from the tensions and hinderances of urban life.

As a leader within the minority community of San Francisco and of the State of California, I can speak to the tireless efforts Jim Jones extended to virtually everyone in need of assistance when he was a resident of our city. The Third World community knows and respects him well. A man this noteworthy for his high principles, ceaseless work, and extraordinary ability to motivate others is surely the best representative our country could hope to have in the emerging third World nation of Guyana. I have confidence that Jim Jones' community can only reflect well upon both America and the Guyanese.

I had the pleasure of attending a testimonial dinner on behalf of Rev. Jones, at which he was presented well-deserved certificates of commendation from both the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, and the State Senate, the latter of which was initiated by my Republican colleque, Senator Milton Marks. The dimension of Rev. Jim Jones humanitarian goals and accomplishments is such that he has been uniquely able to transcend surface political considerations to promote concrete, humane and better conditions of life for all our citizens.

I am advised that Rev. Jones decision to remain in Guyana for the time being. I understand that decision. I respect it and I am sure that Rev. Jones will return to this country when he deems it wisest to do so.

From the news stories about Rev. Jones absence from the country, it is clear that many persons opposed to Rev. Jones are attempting to exploit the absence for their political purposes. I am frankly appalled at such efforts. I hope that you will not be persuaded to assist in their efforts.

Jim Jones is truely an American asset!

Sincerely,

WILLIE L. BROWN, JR.

WE DESPERATELY PLEAD FOR YOUR HELP IN GETTING OUR SIX YEAR OLD SON, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, NOW BEING FORCIBLY HELD AGAINST OUR WILL IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA BY A CERTAIN JIM JONES OF THE PEOPLES TEMPLE. DURING THE TIME THAT THE UNDERSIGNED WAS ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR MENDOCINO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, WE BECAME ADHERENTS OF THE APOSTOLIC TEACHINGS OF PEOPLES TEMPLE UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF JONES. OUR SON WAS RAISED IN THE COMMUNITY OF PEOPLES TEMPLE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THOSE TEACHINGS. WE EACH LEFT THE TEMPLE WHEN IT BECAME APPARENT THAT ITS PRACTICES SERIOUSLY VIOLATED THOSE TEACHINGS, BUT JONES REFUSED TO PERMIT OUR SON TO BE RETURNED TO US.

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA ON NOVEMBER 18, 1977 FOUND JONES IN VIOLATION OF ITS ORDER TO APPEAR, AND FURTHER ORDERED HIM TO IMMEDIATELY DELIVER THE CHILD TO US. THE COURT GAVE US LEAVE TO INSTITUTE CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS, AND IT ORDERED SAN FRANCISCO DISTRICT ATTORNEY JOSEPH FREITAS, JR. TO "TAKE ALL ACTIONS NECESSARY" TO SECURE JONES' COMPLIANCE WITH THE ORDER.

JONES STILL REFUSES TO GIVE US OUR CHILD. ON JANUARY 4, 1978 WE TRAVELLED TO GUYANA TO SEE OUR SON AND AWAIT A COURT DECISION THERE. JONES REFUSED TO LET US SEE OUR SON. THE GUYANESE COURTS STILL HAVE NOT RENDERED A DECISION ON HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT LAST SEPTEMBER. UPON LEAVING GUYANA ON JANUARY 18, WE WERE MET BY AGENTS OF JONES AND PEOPLES TEMPLE WHO SAID IF WE RETURNED TO GUYANA WE WOULD BE KILLED.

WE EARNESTLY AND RESPECTFULLY ASK THAT YOU REQUEST THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT AND ANY OTHER APPROPRIATE AGENCY TO DEMAND THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA HONOR THE ABOVE-MENTIONED UNITED STATES ORDER UNDER THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF COMITY. JONES AND ALL PARTIES INVOLVED ARE U. S. CITIZENS.

THANK YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS.

INFORMATION SHEET NUMBER 1

JOHN VICTOR STOEN CASE

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit in Georgetown, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese Government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. It is the Embassy's responsibility to seek to ensure that the judicial outcome of the dispute results from a fair and impartial determination of the merits of the case, and all of our efforts are so directed.

INFORMATION SHEET NUMBER 2

ALLEGATIONS OF EMBASSY OR USG INTERFERENCE

All the parties to the custody case of John Victor Stoen, currently in the courts in Guyana, are American citizens. The parents of the child are on one side and the People's Temple, a California religious organization which also operates in Guyana, on the other.

Our Ambassador and his staff in Guyana have taken an interest in the case, but have emphasized that the interest of the United States is confined to assuring that the matter is fairly and impartially adjudicated in the courts strictly on its merits and without outside interference from any quarter. Consistent with this position, the Embassy has avoided taking any sides in what is essentially a civil dispute between two groups of Americans. Nor has any pressure been brought by the Embassy on the Government of Guyana or its courts, which have yet to rule on the matter, in favor of one side or the other.

The inquiries made by the American Embassy on behalf of the child's parents were normal protective services which any American citizen abroad could expect to receive from his government. The inquiries were not attempts to interfere in the internal affairs of Guyana and, indeed, have not been interpreted as such.

INFORMATION SHEET NUMBER 3

PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IN GENERAL

As part of the traditional and internationally sanctioned protection services, officers of the American Embassy in Georgetown, Guyana, periodically visit the People's Agricultural Temple located at Jonestown, Guyana. These officers have been free to move about the grounds and speak privately to any individuals, including persons who were believed by their family and friends to be held there against their will. It is the opinion of these officers, reinforced by conversations with local officials who deal with the People's Temple, that it is improbable anyone is being held in bondage. In general, the people appear healthy, adequately fed and housed and satisfied with their lives on what is a large farm. Many do hard, physical labor but there is no evidence of persons being forced to work beyond their capacity or against their will.

Should you have a specific individual about whom you want information, please provide the name of the person and the person's date and place of birth to the Office of Special Consular Services, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520. During the next visit to the People's Temple by an officer of the American Embassy, that officer will attempt to speak privately with the individual in question, convey your concern and report to you.

Dear Mr. President:

I would like to commend to you highly the work of Reverend Jim Jones and the Peoples Temple. I first became acquainted with Jim Jones when he and his church came out early on behalf of my defense when I was in prison on charges for which I was later vindicated. This was at great risk to himself and his church, because my cause was not a popular one in church circles at that time. But I found on later personal contact with him, and to this day, that he is an ardent spokesman for justice who will speak out whenever he sees individuals or groups unjustly harassed or persecuted, whatever their race, background, or political persuasion. He is a humanitarian in the broadest sense of the word, who renders assistance often at great personal sacrifice, never concerned about what people think of his actions, but only that he is following the right course. He is a great champion of the poor and oppressed of our country, who has been able to organize and mobilize people to struggle for the racial equality and social justice which is our only insurance of freedom in the days to come.

You cannot realize how fortunate you are to have Rev. Jones spearhead his agricultural project in the Third World. He communicates with great sensitivity to Third World peoples, and his commitment to alleviating human suffering can hardly be matched. I am certain his intentions are of the best, and he will be a potent influence for good in strengthening America's relationship with that area of the hemisphere.

I understand efforts are underway to influence Congressmen to exert pressure on the State Department to intervene in a court matter under local Guyanese jurisdiction. This would be a foolhardy move, both from the standpoint of the best interests of the United States, and would surely antagonize the Guyanese, who are very competent to handle the matter, and the many thousands of Peoples Temple members and supporters here in the United States who are prepared to stand by Rev. Jones.

I urge you to give this matter your utmost consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Angela Y. Davis

Dear Mr. Bennet:

I regret that I cannot accept the State Department's rationale in your letter to me of February 13th concerning the case of John Victor Stoen.

I am enclosing a copy of John Victor Stoen's birth certificate filed in Sonoma County, California. It reflects his birth on January 25, 1972, to Grace Lucy Stoen and Timothy Oliver Stoen at Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital.

It is apparently uncontested that Mr. and Mrs. Stoen were married at the time of the birth of the boy to Mrs. Stoen. This creates an irrebuttable presumption, under California law, that the lawful husband is the father of the child. It is the child whom the law protects and neither the husband, the mother or any other person can challenge the child's right of legitimacy.

Should Reverend Jones be indeed the natural father of John Victor Stoen, this would not in any way remove the child's right to the presumption of legitimacy which is given him under United States law. As I understand Reverend Jones' position, he is in effect claiming that the child is a bastard.

Under these conditions, I think it entirely appropriate that the United States government seek the assistance of the Guyanese government to preserve the legitimacy of birth of a U.S. citizen. While freedom of religion is a basic right in America and guaranteed by our Constitution, I know of no honorable religion, particularly one headquartered in the United States.

Dear Senator Lugar:

I refer to your memorandum dated February 9, 1978 with enclosure concerning the child custody case of John Victor Stoen.

The Embassy has closely monitored this case since its inception in September, 1977. Embassy Officials have consulted with Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Stoen while they were in Guyana and offered appropriate assistance whenever and wherever possible.

As Mr. and Mrs. Stoen indicated to you in their mailgram, the case is presently pending in the Guyanese Courts.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoen are represented by a competent local attorney who has submitted into evidence a California Court order awarding Mrs. Stoen custody of her son, John. In this connection child custody orders issued in the United States are not accepted for enforcement in Guyana but may be admitted as evidence to support a claim for custody. At the present time we are waiting for the Judge to present his written decision on motions presented by the Stoens' attorney on January 18, 1978. However, a factor in this case that we must consider is that all the disputants are American citizens. As such the Embassy has to be very careful to avoid taking any action that would be deemed prejudicial toward the rights of any of our citizens.

You may be assured that the Embassy will continue to follow this case closely and you will be informed of the outcome. Please accept my best wishes.

Sincerely,

John D. Blachon

Dear Mr. Trupp:

Thank you for your inquiry of January 20 concerning the custody of the child of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Stoen.

I asked that the issue you described in your letter be investigated and that a report be made to me. I have been advised that the U.S. Embassy in Georgetown, at the request of Timothy Stoen's parents, expressed its interest in this case to Guyanese authorities solely to explain our hope that the custody dispute be adjudicated fairly and impartially. The Embassy has not taken sides in what is essentially a civil dispute between two groups of Americans, and the Embassy has exerted no pressure on the Guyanese Government to rule on this question in favor of one side or another.

The inquiries made by the American Embassy on behalf of the child's parents were normal protective services which any American citizen abroad can expect to receive from his government. The inquiries were not in any way directed to the substance of the case which is properly before the courts.

Assistant Secretary

U.S. Department of State

Dear Sir:

It is with some concern that I call your attention to what I have learned quite reliably to be a serious instance of unwarranted interference and misuse of authority within the U. S. Department of State in the affairs of a sovereign nation. I refer specifically to actions taken to exert influence on behalf of one of the parties in a custody dispute that is being handled through official legal channels of the country of Guyana.

All of the parties in the dispute are Americans. One of them (upon whose behalf there was direct interference from within the State Department), a Mr. Timothy Stoen, conducted himself in front of Guyana officials in such a manner as to reflect that they did not know how to handle their affairs, and that he could not trust anything they would do in the matter. (This matter involves his wife's child, who was abandoned by both of them to the third party in the dispute, Rev. Jim Jones, who is the child's natural father, several years ago). There is absolutely no reason for the United States to take any position on the matter, official or unofficial, and to do so constitutes an insult to the nation that is handling the matter within its proper jurisdiction, implying that it is not itself capable of doing so.

It is precisely this kind of meddling or pressure tactics that have, in the past, contributed to the distrust of not only Guyanese, but people of many small nations vis à vis the United States. The idea that a private citizen of the United States, who is having some sort of dispute with another person, can bend the machinery of State to his own personal ends, should be cause for alarm, since it creates the distinct possibility of subverting whatever constructive diplomatic efforts that may be underway towards building good relations. Particularly so in the case of Guyana, where a great deal of mistrust for the United States has been evident, reaching a high point with the Cubana Airlines disaster of a couple of years ago, where 73 young Cuban and Guyanese professionals perished in an explosion that has been widely attributed to a US-financed saboteur.

Since that time, and thanks to the constructive efforts of President Carter, Ambassador Young, and other in the U.S. government, relations between the United States and progressive Caribbean nations such as Guyana have been improving. We have even heard that Guyana, while accepting a substantial loan for development from the United States, has turned down aid from the USSR, a sign that Guyana, though following a socialist course, certainly need not become part of the Soviet sphere of influence. Now, quite obviously, the application of pressure by an individual or individuals within the State Department to control the course of a private matter is not going to help this state of affairs: indeed, it can very easily harm them, and may possibly already have done so.

I should also like to point out that the organization which Rev. Jim Jones heads, Peoples Temple, has been developing a large mission/community in Guyana which has been a great success, and has made outstanding contributions to the development of the region where it is located, extending vital medical services. In fact, the Peoples Temple project has to a significant degree helped to dispel a lot of anti-American feeling in Guyana by showing the constructive, practical and helpful aspects of Americans, rather than the "ugly" aspects that have created a stereotype that the U.S. has found hard to overcome.

In any case, any interference on the part of the State Department or any other U. S. agency is regrettable, and should be immediately stopped. I am aware that it is very difficult to be able to control this kind of thing in such a vast department. But, as I think you are aware, it can be through seemingly trivial matters like these, taking place perhaps on lower levels of the 'bureaucracy' where they are not very easily noticed, that incidents with serious ramifications can take place.

Your attention to this incident would, then, be most deeply appreciated, in the interests of US-Guyana (and, by extension, US-Caribbean and third world) relations.

Sincerely yours,

Richard D. Tropp

Dear Ms. Powers:

Thank you for your concern about the welfare of John Victor Stoen.

Enclosed you will find the following:

1. A letter from me to the U.S. Embassy in Guyana containing the notarized and original signatures of Grace Lucy Stoen and myself regarding: "John Victor Stoen--Notarized Request for Repatriation and Authorization to Incur Expenses."

2. Copy of a letter to the U.S. Embassy in Guyana transmitting a pre-paid airline ticket for John Victor Stoen from Guyana to San Francisco.

I would be most grateful if you would examine the terms of the repatriation request to make sure it is adequate by State Department standards to permit the return of my son should he be brought to the Embassy in Guyana. If it is adequate, I would be very appreciative if you would communicate your views to the Embassy in Guyana.

I have sent you an "original" of the repatriation request to make doubly sure that the proper authorization can be quickly tracked should John be brought to the Embassy.

Again, please accept the thanks of Grace and myself for your high degree of professionalism.

Dear Sir:

We, TIMOTHY OLIVER STOEN and GRACE LUCY STOEN, are the legal parents of JOHN VICTOR STOEN, a six-year old minor now being illegally held in the Cooperative Republic of Guyana by a Reverend Jim Jones in direct violation of a California Superior Court order dated November 18, 1977 ordering Jones to "immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN" to us. A certified copy of said order is attached.

The United States government is hereby authorized and requested to issue said minor a passport and to provide said minor both asylum and immediate transportation by air to San Francisco International Airport (San Francisco, California, U.S.A.) in the event any person appears with said minor in his or her physical custody. You are authorized to do the same for any person or persons who appear with said minor in their custody.

You are authorized to incur any and all reasonably-related expenses and to take any and all actions reasonably necessary to repatriate said minor to us.

We hereby promise, jointly and severally, to repay the United States government for any and all expenses incurred pursuant to this authorization.

We will be grateful beyond words for your cooperation in helping to enforce the aforesaid valid United States court order.

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

In re the marriage of Petitioner: GRACE LOCK STORM and Respondent: TIMOTHY O. STORM	No. 715-147 ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY

The matter of the order to show cause re the custody of the minor child JOHN VICTOR STORM, born January 25, 1972 came on regularly for hearing on November 18, 1977 in Department 13 of the above entitled court. Petitioner GRACE LOCK STORM was present personally and through her attorneys of record, Jeffrey Edas and Margaret Ryan. Respondent TIMOTHY O. STORM appeared in pro per. There was no appearance by Claimant JIM JONES.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court made the following finding and orders:

1. Based upon the declarations on file it is found that

Claimant Reverend Jim Jones had actual notice of the pendency of the proceedings, of his joinder, of this court's order directing him to appear and of the instant hearing.

2. It is also found that contrary to the order of this court that Reverend Jim Jones failed to appear before this court on November 18, 1977 at 9:00 AM.

3. Based on testimony offered at the hearing of November 18, 1977 and a written stipulation filed therein, the court finds and orders that it is in the best interest of the minor child, JOHN VICTOR STOEN that his physical custody, care and control be awarded to Petitioner GRACE LOCK STOEN, his natural mother. Reasonable visitation will be reserved to Respondent TIMOTHY O. STOEN. Petitioner and Respondent will share joint legal custody. This court hereby fully incorporates by reference the stipulation between the parties signed on November 18, 1977 and the order arising therefrom.

4. It is ordered that Reverend Jim Jones will immediately deliver the minor, JOHN VICTOR STOEN, to the Petitioner, GRACE LOCK STOEN, or to her authorized representative.

5. It is ordered that pursuant to Section 4604 of the California Civil Code, the District Attorney of the City and County of San Francisco shall take all actions necessary to locate Reverend Jim Jones and to secure Reverend Jim Jones' compliance with this order.

6. It is further ordered that Petitioner is granted leave to institute contempt proceedings against the Reverend Jim Jones.

7. Based on testimony offered at the hearing on November 18, 1977 by both Petitioner and Respondent and notarized documents

DECLASSIFIED

provided to and filed with the court, the court finds and orders that all previous statements signed by either Petitioner or Respondent or both authorizing one JOYCE TOSCHETZ, JIM JONES, or any other person to act as guardian of said minor child is hereby declared null and void.

Custody Case SCS 2 of 2

March 7, 1978

Dear Senator Schweiker:

Thank you for your inquiry of February 21 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several other Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State sympathize very much with Mr. and Mrs. Stoen in their efforts to regain custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. The Embassy has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. It is the Embassy's responsibility to seek to ensure that the judicial outcome of the dispute results from a fair and impartial determination of the merits of the case, and all of our efforts are so directed.

The Honorable
Richard S. Schweiker, United States Senate.

Following a hearing held on January 10, Mr. Stoen's attorney stated that he anticipated a favorable decision at the conclusion of the proceedings. Mr. Stoen himself was guardedly optimistic in conversations with officers at the Department of State on January 27.

The Department will keep you informed on the progress of the case. Should you require further information, please contact Miss Elizabeth A. Powers, in our Office of Special Consular Services, Telephone 202-632-3013.

"For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat:
I was thirsty
and ye gave me drink;
I was a stranger
and ye took me in;
Naked, and ye clothed me;
I was sick, and ye visited me;
I was in prison,
and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous
Answer him, saying,
When saw we thee an hungered
And fed thee?
Or thirsty,
And gave thee drink?
When saw we thee a stranger
And took thee in?
Or naked, and clothed thee
Or when saw we thee sick?
Or in prison,
And came unto thee?

Verily I say unto you,
Inasmuch as ye have done it
Unto one of the least of these...
...Ye have done it unto me"

TO ALL U. S. SENATORS AND MEMBERS OF CONGRESS:

We at Peoples Temple have been the subject of harassment by several agencies of the U.S. Government, and are rapidly reaching the point at which patience is exhausted. Radical Trotskyite elements which defected from our organization when we refused to follow their violent course have been orchestrating a campaign against us. Two of these, Michael Cartmell and Jim Cobb, were actually discovered making ammunition several years ago. These same two persons have boasted about knowing persons in the IRS and FCC and using them to get back at Peoples Temple. They also vowed recently to several witnesses that they would see to it that our group of over 1,000 U.S. citizens (currently conducting a highly successful agricultural project in Guyana) were starved out by having funds cut off from the U.S. To date, several agencies have been attempting various forms of harrassment. First was the Social Security, which tried to deny legitimate beneficiaries of their rights by cutting off all checks that were coming to Guyana. Through the intervention of various government officials, we were able to have this reinstated as it should have been.

Now, however, we see that the IRS and Treasury Dept. and even the Federal Communications Commission, are trying to initiate ways to cut off our lifelines. The FCC has suddenly decided to pursue a very minor complaint that was registered a year ago. It is clear that the intention is to disrupt our essential medium of communication, amateur radio. Each week we contact thousands of amateur radio operators; contacts and consultation with doctors in the U.S. have literally saved lives and have engendered tremendous goodwill in this part of the world. We consistently praise the U.S. over the airways and remain entirely supportive of U.S. policy in the Caribbean and around the world, especially with non-aligned nations. It seems utterly cruel to deprive such a large group of Americans of their only means of quick communication with the U.S. We cannot believe that you would want to see this, nor would you in any way condone such an organized effort to "starve out" hundreds of U.S. citizens, who are seeking to live in peace and be a credit to the U.S. elsewhere. These same agencies and elements in the press would seek to destroy any progressive thinking official.

Our cooperative project in Guyana has been cited by people the world over as an example of a new image for the U.S. This project and the efforts of Peoples Temple were recently praised in the magazine One World, a publication of the World Council of Churches. Even Russia's New Times magazine has praised this work and done so in spite of our strong support of Russian people of Jewish descent, an obvious disagreement. We receive letters weekly from Russia, as well as from people in other parts of the world who have heard of the project, offering advice and assistance. In fact, several overtures have been made from Russia, which sees our current harassment as a form of political persecution. We do not want to take assistance from any people nor do we want to become an international issue. We also do not intend to be starved out by having our legitimately earned income cut off through the efforts of Trotskyite people and embittered malcontents. We have no political aspirations whatsoever. Jim Jones has spent the last 8 months working to develop the project in Guyana. We wish to continue to do so unmolested and unhampered. This project has done a great deal of practical good for the U.S., not only in promoting a positive image in a place where many of the populace have more of a left leaning, but also in a very tangible way financially. The amount of tax dollars we have saved the U.S. by taking people off welfare and off SSI and steering some from inevitable lives of crime would total conservatively in the hundreds of thousands. More importantly than that, lives have been saved that would have been meant for destruction. It seems cruel that anyone would want to escalate this type of bureaucratic harrassment into an international issue, but it is equally evident that people cannot forever be continually harrassed and beleaguered by such tactics without seeking alternatives that have been presented. I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than to be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next. I hope you can look into this matter and protect the rights of over 1,000 people from the U.S. to live in peace.

Signed,
Jim Jones

Re: Commendation

Dear Mr. Vance:

My wife Grace and I would like to thank you and your people for your sympathetic concern about the welfare of our six-year old son, John Victor Stoen. Each of the individuals in the Department of State whom I have met has shown himself to be highly profassional and a real credit to State. These include Elizabeth Powers, Steven Dobranchuk, Michale Bova, Fred Hennake, Michelle Truitt, and Frank Tumminia.

Please thank them for us.

Dear Mr. Ryan:

As you have previously expressed concern in the John Victor Stoen custody case, I am pleased to forward this progress report.

On February 24, the American Consul in Georgetown, Guyana met with the new Guyanese Minister of Justice, Mohamed Shahabuddeen. Minister Shahabuddeen stated that child custody cases are civil disputes and therefore there is no legal requirement that hearings be scheduled within a specific time period. Furthet, the Minister indicated that a judge's written opinion may take four months to compose and release. Consequently, the delay to date in the Stoen case is not considered excessive under Guyanese legal procedures.

The Department shall continue to keep you informed of progress in this case. Should you require further information, please contact our Office of Special Consular Services, telephone 632-3015.

Sincerely,

Douglas J. Bennet, Jr.

Minister Shahabuddeen stated that child custody cases are civil disputes and therefore there is no legal requirement that hearings be scheduled within a specific time period. Further, the Minister indicated that a judge's written opinion may take four months to compose and release. Consequently, the delay to date in the Stoen case is not considered excessive under Guyanese legal procedures.

The Department shall continue to keep you informed of progress in this case. Should you require further information, please contact our Office of Special Consular Services, telephone 632-3015.

Custody Case 2 of 2 SC-5

558

March 2 1, 1978

6371

Dear Mr. McCloskey:

I am replying to your letter of March 2 and regret that you found the rationale of my reply of February 13 unsatisfactory.

I fully understand Mr. and Mrs. Steen's desire to regain physical custody of John Victor Steen. As I pointed out in my letter of February 13, however, the Department of State has no authority to enforce a custody decision of a California court in the country of Guyana. By international practice and tradition custody disputes must be settled in the court having jurisdiction over the child's place of residence, in this instance, Guyana.

With respect to your questions regarding the paternity of the child, the Department of State is unable to make any determination regarding the child's paternity. As far as we know, John Victor Steen's paternity is not an issue before the courts of Guyana. It is, of course, conceivable that the paternity issue will be raised during the course of the custody hearing. In this regard the Embassy at Georgetown has been informed that Guyanese law on paternity closely follows the Common Law tradition wherein the husband of a married woman is presumed to be the father of her children.

The Embassy has been informed that as child custody cases are basically civil disputes, there is no time limit established in Guyanese law during which such disputes must be settled. Therefore, it is possible that legal arguments presented by both parties and the press of other cases being heard by the same judge may delay a final decision on this case for a considerable time.

The Honorable
Paul N. McCloskey, Jr.,
House of Representatives.

Custody Case 2 of 2 SCS

P780042-1023

559

6377

March 21, 1978

Dear Mr. Young:

I am pleased to reply to your letter of February 27 concerning the case of John Victor Stoen, currently the subject of a custody dispute in Guyana. Similar expressions of interest have been received from several other Members of Congress.

While we in the Department of State fully understand Mr. and Mrs. Stoen's desire to regain physical custody of their son, regrettably there is little we can do to be of assistance. Neither the Department of State nor the courts of the State of California have the authority to enforce a U.S. court decision concerning the custody of John Victor as long as he is physically located outside of the United States. Child custody orders issued in the United States are normally not accepted for enforcement in another country on the basis of comity. While any American custody decision might be given evidentiary weight in the Guyanese proceeding, by no means will it be binding on that court.

Since the initiation of the custody suit last August, the Department of State and our Embassy in Guyana have been in close contact with the Stoens and their attorneys, both American and Guyanese. An Embassy officer has attended all court proceedings, when permitted to attend, and has assisted the Stoens in gaining access to Guyanese government officials. The Embassy has regularly had conversations with the opposing attorneys and has spoken with Mr. Jim Jones, the head of the People's Temple. As Mr. Jones is also an American citizen and entitled to the same rights and protection as Mr. and Mrs. Stoen, the Embassy has been careful to avoid prejudicing the outcome of the dispute. It is the Embassy's responsibility

The Honorable
D. W. Bill Young,
House of Representatives.

to seek to ensure that the judicial outcome of the dispute results from a fair and impartial determination of the merits of the case, and all of our efforts are so directed.

Following a hearing held on January 10, Mr. Stoen's attorney stated that he anticipated a favorable decision at the conclusion of the proceedings. Mr. Stoen himself was guardedly optimistic in conversations with officers at the Department of State on January 27.

On February 24, the American Consul in Georgetown, Guyana met with the new Guyanese Minister of Justice, Mohamed Shahabuddeen. Minister Shahabuddeen stated that child custody cases are civil disputes and therefore there is no legal requirement that hearings be scheduled within a specific time period. Further, the Minister indicated that a judge's written opinion may take four months to compose and release. Consequently, the delay to date in the Stoen case is not considered excessive under Guyanese legal procedures.

The Department shall continue to keep you informed of progress in this case. Should you require further information, please contact our Office of Special Consular Services, telephone 632-3015.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Haas:

I have been asked to reply to your letter of March 16 addressed to Assistant Secretary Douglas J. Bennet, Jr. I regret that you found our responses to congressional inquiries on the John Victor Stoen custody case unsatisfactory.

The attorney's favorable opinion expressed in these responses is that of Clarence Hughes, The Stoens' attorney in Guyana.

On February 24 the American Consul in Georgetown, Guyana met with the new Minister of Justice, Mohamed Shahabuddeen who stated that child custody cases are civil disputes and there is no legal requirement that hearings be scheduled within a specific time period. Further, the Minister indicated that a judge's written opinion may take at least four months to compose and release. Consequently, the delay to date in this case is not considered excessive.

The Department appreciates the Stoens' desire to be reunited with their son. Although the Department cannot intervene in this case, it will continue to take appropriate measures to ensure that the decision is reached fairly and in accordance with the laws of Guyana.

I am forwarding a copy of your letter to the Department's Office of the Legal Advisor for comment on the issue of the interpretation of international law. If you have further questions, please contact our Consular Services on 632-3015.

RE: John Victor Stoen

Dear Mr. Bennet:

As you may recall, I represent Ms. Grace Stoen in her effort to regain custody of her son, John Victor Stoen. In response to several congressional inquiries into this matter, you have both misstated an opinion which I have expressed as well as arrived at an inaccurate interpretation of international law. I wish to set the record straight on both these matters.

In early January of this year, I accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Stoen to Guyana to attend a hearing concerning several legal arguments raised by Ms. Joyce Touchette of the People's Temple. I am informed that the hearing was held over a period of a week. While the Stoens remained in Guyana for the entire period, I was present only the first day. I discussed the case at that stage with Mr. Richard McCoy, and informed him that the judge had decided in our favor on one of many points which were raised at that time. The precise reason that it was necessary to advise Mr. McCoy was because the judge had excluded him from the hearing.

My primary concern at that stage, which I discussed with Mr. McCoy was whether the United States Government would tolerate continued Guyanese governmental interference with the court process in that country. As you may recall, it was necessary for United States representatives in Guyana to write a Diplomatic Letter complaining of alleged governmental interference. I do not know at this stage whether the Government is applying political pressure, but I remain suspicious.

I met with Mr. Frank Tumminia, who is on the Guyanese desk of the Department of State, just prior to traveling to Guyana. At that time, I provided him with our research concerning the legal question of the United States Government's responsibility to insure Mr. and Mrs. Stoen of a just and expedient resolution in this matter. Enclosed please find copies of these materials.

Referring to the Digest on International Law, at page 698, it is clear that the United States owes diplomatic protection to its nationals where there has been a denial of justice. A denial of justice has been defined as an unwarranted delay or obstruction of access to the courts. The Habeas Corpus in this matter was brought within the Guyanese system in September of 1977. It is hornbook law that the Habeas Corpus proceeding, because of its intrinsic urgency, is entitled to top priority. It is nearly seven months since the motion was filed and we still have no court decision. In addition, our own representatives, as referenced above, have diplomatically noticed obstructive practices.

In conclusion, it seems clearly inconsistent that the State Department takes the position that there is little that can be done. Our system of justice, if it is to be respected, cannot tolerate this abuse. With the passage of time, your position in this matter becomes increasingly more irresponsible.

Very truly yours,

JEFFREY A. HAAS

In the Comment on the words "reasonably developed legal systems", employed in § 104 (2) and in § 105 (2) (b), the authors of the Restatement explain:

> "c. 'Reasonably developed legal systems.' Reference to the international standard of justice as the standard of 'civilized states' is customary in the literature of international law, and the Statute of the International Court of Justice lists among the sources of law to be applied by the Court those derived from 'the general principles of law recognized by civilized nations.' Art. 38(1)(c). However, comparison of the law of any state to the law of 'civilized nations' has recently been criticized as inappropriate in view of the demand of civilization in all parts of the world. It is believed that reference to 'states that have reasonably developed legal systems' more aptly identifies this source of law." Comment "c", ibid., pp. 393-394.

"Intervention, on the one hand, and diplomatic protection or interposition, on the other, are to be distinguished. American Republics continue to interpose diplomatically on behalf of their nationals, as against the United States, and the United States continues to extend diplomatic protection on behalf of its nationals, as against the American Republics, in appropriate cases. The right of diplomatic protection under international law has not been renounced or out-lawed. . . . The diplomatic protection of nationals who having suffered injury or loss in a foreign country and having exhausted such local remedies as may be available, have sustained a denial of justice, does not constitute 'intervention' in the affairs of the State where the case arises."

Assistant Legal Adviser Whiteman to the United States Mission to the United Nations (Silsbury), memorandum, Oct. 23, 1951, MS. Department of State, file 320.1122/10-2351.

Article 9 of the Harvard Research (1929) reads as follows:

"A state is responsible if an injury to an alien results from a denial of justice. Denial of justice exists where there is a denial, unwarranted delay or obstruction of access to courts, gross deficiency in the administration of judicial or remedial process, failure to provide those guaranties which are generally considered indispensable to the proper administration of justice, or a manifestly unjust judgment. An error of a national court which does not produce manifest injustice is not a denial of justice."

23 Am. J. Int'l L. Supp. (Special No.) (Apr. 1929) 173. And see, particularly, the "Comment" on article 9, ibid. 175-187.

In its Comment on the term "Denial of Justice", the American Law Institute states:

". . . 'Denial of justice.' It is frequently said that a state is responsible under international law for a 'denial of justice' to an alien. However, the term is used in a great variety of senses, including: (1) any treatment of an alien that violates international law, (2) treatment of an alien that departs from generally of legal proceedings, (5) failure to afford an alien an adequate remedy or protection in the administration of justice, (6) failure to prosecute the perpetrator of a crime causing injury to an alien, or (6) failure to provide an adequate domestic remedy for an injury to an alien for which the state has international responsibility. The rules in the Restatement of this Subject deal with these different types of injury to an alien but use the term 'denial of justice' only in the modified form, 'denial of procedural justice,' which is confined to the third and fourth meanings indicated above. . . ."

American Law Institute, Restatement of the Law, Second, Foreign Relations Law of the United States (1965), pt. IV, "Responsibility of States for Injuries to Aliens", pp. 502-503.

In 1947 the delegation of Panama submitted to the General Assembly of the United Nations a Draft Declaration on Rights and Duties of States, which together with observations on the draft was submitted to the International Law Commission for use as a basis of discussion in connection with preparation of its Draft Declaration on Rights and Duties of States. The second sentence of article 7 of the Panamanian Draft was in the form of a paragraph reading:

"Foreigners may not claim rights different from, or more extensive than, those enjoyed by nationals."

As to this sentence, the United Kingdom observed:

"The second sentence [supra] of this article is not in accord with existing international law, as His Majesty's Government apprehend it. There is much international authority for the existence of a minimum international standard, with which States are obliged to comply in their treatment of foreigners, whether or not they do so in the treatment of their nationals. If, and in so far as, international law develops so as to limit the domestic jurisdiction of States in the treatment of their nationals to such an extent that every treatment of a national, which falls below the international standard, is a breach of international law (and therefore a matter on which other States may intervene), then the existing principle of international law with regard to the 'international standard' will apply to both nationals and foreigners. Unless and until that position is reached, His Majesty's Government consider that the doctrine of the minimum international standard, with regard to the treatment of foreigners, remains part of international law and that agreement to abolish that doctrine will not be attained. In fact, this point was one on which the Hague Conference of 1930 with regard to the responsibility of States broke down. His Majesty's Government are very willing that the International Law Commission should devote most careful study to this question."

Preparatory Study Concerning a Draft Declaration on the Rights and Duties of States, Memorandum submitted by the Secretary-General of the Article 2 of the 1961 Harvard Draft Convention on the International Responsibility of States for Injuries to Aliens, and the accompanying Explanatory Note with respect thereto, are based on the principle of a State's obligation to extend a minimum standard of treatment to the alien within its jurisdiction. Article 2 and portions of the Explanatory Note read:

"1. The responsibility of a State under Article 1 is to be determined according to this Convention and international law, by application of the sources and subsidiary means set forth in paragraph 1 of Article 38 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice.

"2. A State cannot avoid international responsibility by invoking its municipal law.

"3. Nothing in this Convention shall adversely affect any right which an alien enjoys under the municipal law of the State against which the claim is made if that law is more favorable to him than this Convention.

"EXPLANATORY NOTE

"Paragraph 1: This paragraph provides that the treatment of aliens is to be governed by an international minimum standard. This standard is to be distinguished from the 'national treatment' standard, not infrequently relied upon by respondent States, according to which the alien can expect no better legal protection than that accorded by a respondent State to its own nationals. The acceptance of the view that international responsibility should be governed by the 'national treatment' standard would entail as a necessary consequence that a violation of international law as regards the treatment of an alien could be established only if the alien was in fact discriminated against in the application of national law.

"The 'national treatment' theory admittedly has a certain plausibility. Especially if an alien has been long resident on the soil of a foreign State, enjoying the advantages of life in that State and the protection of its government, there is some basis for maintaining that he should in corresponding degree become assimilated to a national of that State. . . .

"Quite aside from being objectionable on the grounds which have just been suggested, the principle that an alien should become subject to local law in proportion to the length of his residence in the respondent State and the strength of the bond of economic and other interests he has formed with that State would be difficult of application in individual cases. Is there a stage at which international protection ceases and the national standard is applied or should the diminution of international protection be a gradual one proportionate to the alien's involvement in the life of the country? The line between international and national protection is impossible to draw. . . ."

Draft Convention on the International Responsibility of States for Injuries to Aliens, Draft No. 12, Apr. 15, 1961, Reporters, Eagleton and Baxter, Harvard Law School, prepared at the suggestion of the Director of the Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat and Secretary, U.N. International Law Commission (Dr. Yuen-li Liang), pp. 57, 59-60. This draft Convention is printed in part in 55 Am. J. Int'l L. (1961) 545, 548 (art. 2), 547 (comment on art. 2).

"The special rapporteur, states . . . that the 'international standard of justice' has always suffered from 'vagueness and imprecision' and from a 'fundamental defect' in that it has never been fully defined. To the writer, this is not a defect. It is in the nature of legal concepts that they grow, and this is as it should be. The 'international standard of justice', in a case arising in 1930 may be different from that in a case arising in 1900. In our local jurisprudence, the term 'due process of law' employed in the Constitution of the United States is not defined in that instrument. It is a legal concept which grows with the times. It is foolish to attempt at one time to write down all of its possible meanings, for all time, in all situations. So with the 'international standard of justice'. It is impossible for any tribunal, or for the International Law Commission to define it with complete exactitude; it can only be defined as a broad concept."

Memorandum prepared by Marjorie M. Whiteman, Assistant Legal Adviser, Department of State, "Comments on Report on 'International Responsibility', by Garcia-Amador, Special Rapporteur, International Law Commission (A/CN.4/96, 20 January 1958)", Dec. 18, 1958, MS. Department of State, p. 24. See II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1958, pp. 178, 202.

In the 1961 "Revised draft on international responsibility of the State for injuries caused in its territory to the person or property of aliens", Dr. Garcia-Amador, Special Rapporteur on the subject for the International Law Commission, included the following text as article 1:

"1. For the purpose of the application of the provisions of this draft, aliens enjoy the same rights and the same legal guarantees as nationals, but these rights and guarantees shall in no case be less than the 'human rights and fundamental freedoms' recognized and defined in contemporary international instruments.

"2. The 'human rights and fundamental freedoms' referred to in the foregoing paragraph are those enumerated below:

"(a) The right to life, liberty and security of person;

"(b) The right to own property;

"(c) The right to apply to the courts of justice or to the competent organs of the State, by means of remedies and proceedings which offer adequate and effective redress for violations of the aforesaid rights and freedoms;

"(d) The right to a public hearing, with proper safeguards, by the competent organs of the State, in the substantiation of any criminal charge or in the determination of rights and obligations under civil law;

"(e) In criminal matters, the right of the accused to be presumed innocent until proved guilty; the right to be informed of the charge made against him in a language which he understands; the right to present his defence personally or to be defended by a counsel of his choice; the right not to be convicted of any punishable offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute an offence, under national or international law, at the time when it was committed; the right to be tried without delay or to be released.

"3. The enjoyment and exercise of the rights and freedoms specified in paragraph 2 (a) and (b) are subject to such limitations or restrictions as the law expressly prescribes for reasons of internal security, the economic well-being of the nation, public order, health and morality, or to secure respect for the rights and freedoms of others."

Article 1, "Revised draft on international responsibility of the State for injuries caused in its territory to the person or property of aliens", Doc. A/CN.4/31/Add.1, Dec. 11, 1961; II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1961, p. 46. In his commentary on this draft, the Special Rapporteur explained:

> "Article 1 of the revised draft replaces articles 5 and 6 of the original draft. Like them, article 1 lays down the principle that aliens enjoy the same rights and are entitled to the same legal guarantees as nationals, but that these rights and guarantees may in no case be less than the 'human rights and fundamental freedoms' recognized and defined in contemporary international instruments; nevertheless, the enjoyment and exercise of certain of these rights and freedoms are subject to the limitations or restrictions laid down expressly by law for any of the reasons mentioned in the article." Ibid., p. 50.

For articles 5 and 6 of the original draft, see Third Report on "International Responsibility", Doc. A/CN.4/111, Jan. 7, 1958; II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1958, p. 71.

The Special Rapporteur (García-Amador) had commented on the concept underlying what became articles 5 and 6 of his 1958 draft in his 1956 Report on "International Responsibility". See II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1956, pp. 173, 190, 203; First Report on "International Responsibility", Doc. A/CN.4/96, Jan. 20, 1956.

[illegible] the International Law Commission appointed [illegible] Special Rapporteur on the subject of "State responsibility". II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1956, p. 42. In his first report (in 1956) the Special Rapporteur dealt with the scope of the topic and proposed to treat first with the "responsibility of States for damage caused to the person or property of aliens". First Report, Doc. A/CN.4/96, Jan. 20, 1956; II Ibid. 1956, pp. 173 ff. His succeeding reports with draft articles and commentary on the subject indicated were: Second [illegible] Third Reternational responsibility of the State for injuries caused in its territory to the person or property of aliens", submitted by Special Rapporteur (García-Amador), International Law Commission, see Doc. A/CN.4/134/Add.1, Dec. 11, 1961; II Ybk. 1961, pp. 45 ff.

In 1962 the Commission decided to establish a Subcommittee composed of ten members on the general aspects of State responsibility. II Ybk. 1962, pp. 188-191. At its session in 1963, the Commission unanimously approved the report of the Subcommittee "on the main points to be considered as to the general aspects of the international responsibility of the State", and named Roberto Ago (Italy) as Special Rapporteur for the topic of "State responsibility". Report of the International Law Commission on the work of its fifteenth session 6 May-12 July 1963, U.N. Gen. Ass. Off. Rec. 18th Sess., Supp. No. 9, A/5509, pp. 30, 39; II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1963, p. 224. In 1964 the International Law Commission postponed consideration of the subject of State Responsibility, pending consideration of certain other topics. Report of the International Law Commission on the work of its sixteenth session 11 May-24 July 1964, U.N. Gen. Ass. Off. Rec. 19th Sess., Supp. No. 9, A/5809, p. 51; II Yearbook of the International Law Commission 1964, p. 229.

"Although the International Law Commission of the United Nations has had the subject of 'State responsibility' under study for nearly a decade, there has been a curious uncertainty about the subject matter of the codification. When Dr. F. V. García-Amador was appointed as Special Rapporteur for the subject, he laid bases of discussion [Int'l Law Comm'n Yb. 173, 219 (1956-II)] before the Commission in order to elicit a preliminary expression of views. He conceded that the whole topic of state responsibility was so broad that the entire subject could not be codified and proposed to deal first with the 'responsibility of States for damage caused to the person or property of aliens.' [Ibid.] The discussion in the Commission, which ranged over the notions of fault, of criminal responsibility, of the position of individuals in international law, and a variety of other topics, was inconclusive [Int'l Law Comm'n Yb. 223-45 (1956-I)], and the Special Rapporteur—quite properly under the circumstances—proceeded to formulate articles and commentary on the narrower subject of the international responsibility of states for injuries to aliens. Because the Commission was occupied with other subjects and because, one must suspect, it was not anxious to start work on a topic which gave every indication of being ideologically controversial, there was hardly any discussion of the Special Rapporteur's learned reports.

"After Dr. García-Amador had left the Commission, the General Assembly gently nudged the Commission with a recommendation that it 'continue' its work in the field of state responsibility. [Res. 1686 (XVI), Dec. 18, 1961, U.N. Gen. Ass. Off. Rec. 16th Sess., Supp. No. 17, at 62 (A/5100) (1962).] A general discussion in the Commission brought forth a variety of opinions. [International Law Comm'n, Report, U.N. Gen. Ass. Off. Rec. 17th Sess., Supp. No. 9, at 31-32 (A/5209) (1962).] Some favored codification of the work along the lines laid out by the Restatement of Foreign Relations Law. Rstmt 2, 1965 A.L.I.

4. The same official, without just cause, accuses Y, a national of B, of smuggling, but passes his goods through customs without substantial delay. The incident is not witnessed by any other person and thus causes no harm to Y's reputation, although it causes him acute distress. The incident does not give rise to international responsibility of A, since Y has not suffered an injury as defined in this Section.

Even if the damage constitutes injury, the state is responsible under international law only if the conduct causing the injury is wrongful under international law. See § 165, Comment g.

c. Unavailability of legal remedy against state under domestic law. If damage is of a kind for which private persons are required to make reparation under the principles of justice generally recognized by states that have reasonably developed legal systems, it is not excluded from the definition of "injury" in Subsection (2) by the fact that such principles permit a state to invoke the principle of sovereign immunity in suits brought against it in its own courts. As to the application of this principle in suits by aliens, see § 160 (2) and Comment b thereto.

§ 165. When Conduct Causing Injury to Alien is Wrongful under International Law

(1) Conduct attributable to a state and causing injury to an alien is wrongful under international law if it

(a) departs from the international standard of justice, or

(b) constitutes a violation of an international agreement.

(2) The international standard of justice specified in Subsection (1) is the standard required for the treatment of aliens by

(a) the applicable principles of international law as established by international customs, judicial and arbitral decisions, and other recognized sources or, in the absence of such applicable principles,

(b) analogous principles of justice generally recognized by states that have reasonably developed legal systems.

(3) The rules that follow as to specific types of conduct, attributable to a state and causing injury to an alien, that are wrongful under international law because they depart from the international standard, are illustrative, not exclusive. Conduct, attributable to a state and causing injury to an alien, that is not covered by any such rules may be, but is not necessarily, wrongful under international law as a departure from the international standard.

Comment:

a. National treatment and the international standard. Some states maintain that an alien is not entitled to a higher standard of justice than a national, and that consequently a state is not responsible under international law for any damage caused to an alien if he has received the same treatment that is accorded to nationals under domestic law. This Section follows the prevailing rule that such national treatment is not always sufficient, and that there is an international standard of justice that a state must observe in the treatment of aliens, even if the state does not observe it in the treatment of its own nationals, and even if the standard is inconsistent with its own law.

b. Basic human rights under international law. It has recently been suggested that states are bound by international law to respect certain basic human rights of all persons, whether aliens or nationals, and that responsibility for injuries to aliens is merely one aspect of such a general responsibility. However, the rule stated in this Section is based on the principle that states have certain obligations to aliens under international law that are independent of any obligations with respect to human rights generally. The question whether international law imposes any obligations with respect to the treatment by a state of its own nationals is beyond the scope of the Restatement of this Subject, except in the special case of a national in the service of an international organization under the rule stated in § 170. As to situations where a national has certain immunities from the exercise of jurisdiction by his state, see §§ 73(2), 92, and 93.

c. "Denial of justice." It is frequently said that a state is responsible under international law for a "denial of justice" to an alien. However, the term is used in a great variety of senses, including: (1) any treatment of an alien that violates international law, (2) treatment of an alien that departs from generally accepted standards of substantive law, (3) treatment of an alien that departs from generally accepted standards for the conduct of court proceedings, (4) failure to afford an alien an adequate remedy or protection in the administration of justice, (5) failure or (6) failure to provide an adequate domestic remedy for an injury to an alien for which the state has international responsibility. The rules in the Restatement of this Subject deal with these different types of injury to an alien. It uses the term "denial of justice" only in the modified form, "denial of procedural justice," which is confined to the third and fourth meanings indicated above. Rules with respect to the denial of justice in this sense are stated in §§ 178–182.

d. Meaning of "international standard." The test for determining whether conduct attributable to a state complies with the international standard is twofold. It must, in the first place, comply with the requirements specified by international law as established by the usual sources of such law, which are discussed in the Restatement of this Subject under the heading, "Sources of International Law," in § 1, Comment c. However, where authority from such sources is conflicting or absent, international law adopts, in this as in many other areas, analogous principles from reasonably developed legal systems. In other words, the conduct of a particular state towards an alien must comply with the standard recognized by such systems, although not required by its own law, and even though such compliance is inconsistent with its own law.

Illustration:

1. X, a national of state A, is prosecuted in state B for a criminal offense. He is required to submit to a lie detection test, specified by the law of B for all criminal trials, and is convicted on the basis of the evidence furnished by the test. After exhaustion of all available domestic remedies, A presents a claim on X's behalf to an international tribunal having jurisdiction of all disputes between the two states involving violations of international law. In the absence of precedents from the sources of international law as such, the tribunal, in determining whether the test violates the international standard, will consider the extent to which similar tests might be used in the administration of justice by other states that have reasonably developed legal systems.

e. "Reasonably developed legal systems." Reference to the international standard of justice as the standard of "civilized nations" is customary in the literature of international law, and the Statute of the International Court of Justice lists among the sources of law to be applied by the Court those derived from "the general principles of law recognized by civilized nations." Article of international agreement. Where conduct constitutes a violation of an international agreement, wrongfulness of the conduct under international law is established by violation of the agreement without reference to the international standard of justice. However, the consequences of such wrongfulness, to the extent not specified in the agreement, are determined by the rules stated in this Part.

Illustration:

3. An international agreement between states A and B provides that the nationals of each shall be permitted to engage in commercial activities in the territory of the other under the same circumstances as nationals of the territorial state. In violation of the agreement, A refuses to issue a commercial fishing license to X, a national of B. The conduct of A is wrongful under international law, even though reserving the exploitation of natural resources to nationals would not constitute discrimination under the rule stated in § 166. The assertion of A's claim for the injury is governed by the rules as to waiver and settlement stated in §§ 202-205 and exhaustion of domestic remedies in §§ 206-210.

Reporters' Notes:

1. The international standard of justice. The Permanent Court of International Justice recognized "the limits set by generally accepted principles of international law" in regard to the treatment of aliens, and stated that "the only measures prohibited are those which generally accepted international law does not sanction in respect of foreigners. . . ." Case Concerning certain German Interests in Polish Upper Silesia, P.C.I.J., ser. A, No. 7, at 22 (1926); see also Chorzow Factory Case, P.C.I.J., ser. A, No. 9 (1927); Case of the Treatment of Polish Nationals in Danzig, P.C.I.J., ser. A/B, No. 44, at 21-25 (1932).

A number of arbitral awards have recognized the duty of a state to conform to the international standard of justice although it may be in conflict with domestic law. In the Chevreau Claim for alleged illegal arrest and detention of an alien, the tribunal stated that, in order to satisfy international law, the arresting state must treat an alien "in a manner . . . which conforms to the standard habitually practiced among civilized nations." France v. Great Britain (1931), 27 Am. J. Int'l L. 153, 160 (1933). In the Roberts Claim, involving the arrest and detention of a national of the United States, the commission rejected the Mexican defense that the prisoner was treated no differently from any other prisoner, stating:

"Facts with respect to the equality of treatment of aliens and nationals may be important in determining the merits of a complaint of mistreatment of an alien. But such equality is not the ultimate test of the propriety of the acts of authorities in the light of international law. That test is, broadly speaking, whether aliens are treated in accordance with ordinary standards of civilization." Roberts Claim (United States v. Mexico), [1927] Opinions of the Commissioners 109, 105. See also Hopkins Claim (United States v. Mexico), id. at 42, 50–51; Neer Claim (United States v. Mexico), id. at 71, 73.

The United States has been a leading exponent of the international standard. Its position in this respect was summarized by Secretary of State Elihu Root:

> "There is a standard of justice, very simple, very fundamental, and of such general acceptance by all civilized countries as to form a part of the international law of the world. The condition upon which any country is entitled to withdraw the justice due from it to an alien by the justice which it accords to its own citizens is that its system of law and administration shall conform to this general standard. If any country's system of law and administration does not conform to that standard, although the people of the country may be content or compelled to live under it, no other country can be compelled to accept it as furnishing a satisfactory measure of treatment to its citizens. . . . ." The Basis of Protection of Citizens Residing Abroad, 4 Am. J. Int'l L. 513, 525–22 (1910).

The international standard has also been successfully invoked against the United States in the Permanent Court of Arbitration. Norway, v. United States, Proceedings of the Tribunal of Arbitration (1922), 17 Am. J. Int'l L. 362, 381–90 (1923), 1 U.N.R.I.A.A. 307, 330–39.

2. Responsibility of state for injury to own nationals. The suggestion referred to at the beginning of Comment b has been made by the Rapporteur of the International Law Commission. See State Responsibility, [1956] 2 Yb. Int'l L. Comm'n 198–203. The Charter of the United Nations includes, as one of the purposes of the Organization, "promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and for fundamental freedoms for all," Art. 1(3), but provides no sanctions to enforce such respect. The Council of Europe Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, on the other hand, establishes specific procedures to that end. Eur.T.S. No. 5 (1950), 213 U.N.T.S. 221.

3. International agreements as to treatment of aliens. Many bilateral treaties of friendship, commerce, and navigation entered into by the United States, especially since World War II, specify in considerable detail various obligations of each state with respect to treatment of nationals of the other, but such agreements usually do not specify remedies beyond conferring jurisdiction on the International Court of Justice. See Wilson, U. S. Commercial Treaties and International Law 327 (1960). A number of multilateral conventions have been proposed that would define with more precision the responsibility of states for injuries to aliens. The texts of several such conventions are reprinted in [1956] 2 Yb. Int'l L. Comm'n 221-240. Later proposals include a draft convention prepared by the Rapporteur of the International Law Commission, [1961] 2 Yb. Int'l L. Comm'n 45, The Harvard Convention on the International Responsibility of States for Injuries to Aliens, 55 Am. J. Int'l L. 545 (1961), and the Draft Convention on the Protection of Foreign Property, prepared by a committee of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development, O.E.C.D. No. 15537, Dec. 1962. In 1963 a new sub-committee on State Responsibility of the International Law Commission, headed by Roberto Ago of Italy, was formed to consider the problem. See its first report, Report of the Int'l L. Comm'n on the Work of its 15th Session, Annex 1, at 39 (1963) A 5509. For a summary of the developments concerning multilateral conventions in this field, see The Protection of Private Property Invested Abroad, a Report of the Committee on International Trade and Investment, Section of International and Comparative Law, American Bar Association 40 (1963). The most recent convention is that of The World Bank on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States (March, 1965). As of Sept. 1, 1965, this convention had not entered into force. See Hyoming, The World Bank's Plan for the Settlement of International Investment Disputes, 51 A.B.A.J. 529 (1965). Cf. § 175, Comment b.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

As indicated in § 165, conduct that is attributable to a state causes injury to an alien is wrongful under international if it departs from the international standard of justice. The stated in this Chapter, §§ 178–183, relate to applications of standard to the procedure followed by a state in the administ- n of justice, as distinct from the provisions of its substantive These rules, as indicated in § 165(3), are not exclusive. uct of a state in the administration of justice may depart the international standard even though it is not contrary y of the rules stated in this Chapter. See for example, , Illustration 1.

TOPIC 1. DENIAL OF PROCEDURAL JUSTICE

178. Denial of Procedural Justice Defined

As used in the Restatement of this Subject, "denial of procedural justice" means conduct, attributable to a state and causing injury to an alien, that departs from the international standard of justice specified in § 165 with respect to the procedure followed in enforcement of the state's law as it affects the alien in criminal, civil, or administrative proceedings, including the determination of his rights against, or obligations to, other persons.

Comment:

a. Cross references. The various meanings attached to the term "denial of justice" are discussed in § 165, Comment c. The rules stated in this Chapter (§§ 178–183) are subject to the exceptions stated in § 199 regarding emergencies that may justify conduct inconsistent with these rules. Conduct attributable to a state in the course of the administration of law may also be wrongful under international law because it constitutes a violation of an international agreement, as indicated in § 165(1) (b), or because it discriminates against an alien, as indicated in § 166.

b. Relation to earlier wrongful conduct. A denial of procedural justice under the rules stated in this Chapter may constitute the initial wrongful conduct giving rise to state responsibility, where the denial occurs in proceedings arising out of a cause not itself constituting a wrong under international law. A denial of procedural justice may also occur when the state fails to provide an appropriate remedy for previous conduct attributable to the state that is wrongful under international law.

Illustrations:

1. X, an alien enters into a contract for the sale of merchandise to Y, a national of state A. After accepting delivery, Y repudiates the contract without claim of justification and refuses to pay for the merchandise. X sues Y for the purchase price in a court of A. The court arbitrarily dismisses the suit without allowing X to introduce any evidence. The breach of the contract is not wrongful under international law. The dismissal of the suit is wrongful under the rule as to a fair trial stated in § 181.

2. State A enters into a contract with X, an alien, for the purchase of military supplies. After accepting the supplies, it repudiates the contract without claim of justification and refuses to pay for them. Under procedure provided by the law of A, X brings suit in a court of claims of A. The court arbitrarily dismisses the suit without allowing X to introduce any evidence. The breach of the contract is wrongful under the rule stated in § 193(1)(a). The dismissal of the suit is wrongful under the rule stated in § 181.

fidelity to the rights of aliens in this respect, but define the rights all persons including aliens.

181. Fairness of Trial or other Proceeding

In order to conform to the requirements of §§ 179(2)(c) and 180, a trial or other proceeding to determine the rights or liabilities of an alien must be fair. In determining whether the proceeding is fair, it is relevant to consider, among other factors, whether the alien has had the benefit of

(a) an impartial tribunal or administrative authority,

(b) adequate information with respect to the nature of the proceedings so as to permit the alien to present his claim or defense,

(c) adequate interpretation and translation into his own language at all stages of the proceeding,

(d) reasonable opportunity to contest evidence against him,

(e) reasonable opportunity to obtain and present witnesses and evidence in his own behalf,

(f) reasonable opportunity to communicate with a representative of his government with respect to the proceeding,

(g) reasonable opportunity to consult counsel and time to prepare for the proceeding, and

(h) reasonable dispatch by the tribunal or administrative authority in reaching a determination.

mment:

a. Relation to international standard. The rule stated in Section represents specific applications of the general international standard of justice with respect to the treatment of aliens stated in § 165. It is not intended to list all factors that may be to be considered in determining whether an alien has been orded a fair trial or hearing.

b. Relevance of different factors in different types of proceedings. Although most decisions of international tribunals holding that an alien has been denied a fair trial or other proceeding have involved several of the factors mentioned in this Section, the language of the opinions generally indicate that any one of the factors might have been determinative. On the other hand, it is clear that they are not all required in all types of proceedings. The extent to which the specific safeguards indicated in this Section may be requisite for a fair trial or other proceeding will depend primarily on (1) the seriousness of the consequences to the alien, and (2) the extent to which the exercise of administrative discretion is reasonably involved in the determination of the case. In a criminal trial involving a severe penalty or in a civil trial involving a substantial claim, each of the safeguards is normally essential. In an administrative proceeding to determine, for example, the issuance or revocation of a license to engage in a particular occupation, the specific safeguards may not all be necessary or practicable. Other examples of administrative proceedings in which the circumstances may not call for each of the specific safeguards are the granting or denying of a variance under a zoning ordinance, the granting and termination of parole to a convicted criminal, the exercise of executive clemency, the waiver or assessment of a penalty for overdue taxes, the granting of a permit to travel in a restricted area, and the granting of a public utility franchise.

c. Effect of favorable determination. In a proceeding in which an alien is denied a fair trial or hearing but receives a favorable determination, the denial is nevertheless wrongful under international law. Normally, however, the damage to the alien is nominal, and no claim is asserted.

§ 182. Unjust Determination

An adverse determination that is manifestly unjust in a proceeding determining criminal charges against an alien, or determining his rights and liabilities of a civil nature, is a denial of procedural justice.

Comment:

a. General. A decision is manifestly unjust within the meaning of the rule stated in this Section if it is so obviously wrong that it cannot have been made in good faith and with reasonable care, or if a serious miscarriage of justice is otherwise clear. Mere error in a decision, if not manifestly unjust, does not constitute a denial of procedural justice.

Protocols From September 14, 1949 to March 31, 1954, pp. 217-219, 230, 241-242. Article IV of the 1950 Convention provided that the American claims should be adjudicated by an agency established or designated by the United States. As to these claims see further post, pp. 1250–1252.

Failure to give effect to court decision

"The principle of international law that the failure of a state to give effect to the decisions of its own courts in favor of aliens, particularly judgments against the state, constitutes a denial of justice is so well settled as to require no citation of authority. In fact, it would be difficult to find circumstances constituting a more flagrant denial of justice. The fact that the delinquent state treats its own nationals in the same manner is wholly irrelevant, since that is a domestic matter and not governed by principles of international law as where aliens are involved."

Assistant Legal Adviser for International Claims (English) to the Division of Caribbean Affairs (Walker), memorandum concerning failure of the Cuban Government to satisfy judgments rendered against it by Cuban courts on behalf of American nationals, Nov. 21, 1947, MS. Department of State, 812.437/11-2147.

"After the International Court of Justice held [[1952] I.C.J. Reports 28, 46 A.J.I.L. 732 (1952); and [1953] I.C.J. Reports 10, 47 A.J.I.L. 708 (1953)] the United Kingdom under a duty to submit to arbitral decision the Ambatielos claim [based on an English court decision enforcing against Ambatielos a mortgage on ships purchased by Ambatielos from the United Kingdom Government], this case was heard by a special arbitral commission which found in favor of the defendant United Kingdom, rejecting the Greek claim. The International Court of Justice ruled that the United Kingdom was under a duty to arbitrate only insofar as the Anglo-Greek Treaty of 1886 gave rise to the claim.

Government withholding of evidence

". . . Greece . . . argued that the provision in Article 15 of the Anglo-Greek treaty promising freedom of access to the courts was violated when the British Government put forward before the British courts against Ambatielos a case 'contrary to documents in their possession,' withheld documents from the defendant Ambatielos, and did so in circumstances when they knew he lacked power to compel the government to disclose them.

"The Commission held that the 'free access to the courts' granted to Greek nationals in the United Kingdom by Article 15 of the 1886 Anglo-Greek treaty 'includes the right to use the Courts fully and to avail themselves of any procedural remedies or guarantees provided by the law of the land in order that justice may be administered on a footing of equality with nationals of the country.' The Commission found that:

> 'Hence, the essence of "free access" is adherence to and effectiveness of the principle of non-discrimination' against

THESE PEOPLE ARE TALKING ABOUT HIRING MERCENARIES TO KILL, AND YET T DARE TALK ABOUT REV JONES AND THE TEMPLE AS TRYING TO CONTROL LIVES. THE LIVES OF PEOPLE IN JONESTOWN ARE NOT CONTROLLED. JUST TWO WEEKS AGO, THERE WAS A NATIONAL CULTURAL SHOW TO WHICH OVER 100 TEMPLE MEMBERS TRAVELLED BY BOAT AND TRAIN TO ATTEND. THERE WAS EVEN A BLACKOUT, ONE LIKE IN NEW YORK, WHERE THE WHOLE CAPITOL CITY WAS DARK THE TEMPLE YOUNG PEOPLE BEHAVED SO WELL, THEY WERE SO MILD, WHICH SH NOW THESE YOUNG PEOPLE ARE REHABILITATED. SURELY IF PEOPLE WANTED TO LEAVE PEOPLE'S TEMPLE IN GUYANA THEY COULD HAVE GONE TO THE US EMBAS DURING THIS TIME. THE CULTURAL PROGRAM ITSELF WAS WRITTEN UP IN THE COUNTRYS LARGEST NEWSPAPER AS THE MOST EXCITING GUYANA HAS EVER SEEN. PARTICIPATION IN THIS PROGRAM DEMONSTRATED THE FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT, CREATIVITY, AND PRACTICAL CONCEPTS THE RESIDENTS OF JONESTOWN ENJOY.

EACH WEEK ABOUT 50 PEOPLE TRAVEL BACK AND FORTH TO THE PROJECT, SOME PEOPLE WITH VARIOUS SKILLS, SOME IN EDUCATION, SPECIALIZED AREAS IN MEDICINE, ORTHODONTISTS AND SOME COME JUST FOR ENTERTAINMENT. MARIE KATSARIS' FATHER CLAIMS SHE IS "CAPTIVE" OR "PROGRAMMED". BUT SHE FL

THE THREAT OF MERCENARIES TO DESTROY SUCH A BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE AND WORK IS UNTHINKABLE. YET THOSE WHO WOULD DESTROY FOR THE SAKE OF PERSONAL VENDETTAS ARE PLANNING TO DO JUST THAT.

PLEASE SEE THE CHARACTER THAT IT HAS TAKEN TO BUILD JONESTOWN. HOW CAN ANYONE MISS SEEING THE PERSONAL SACRIFICES REVEREND JONES HAS MADE TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE WELFARE OF SO MANY PEOPLE. (THERE ARE OVER 1,000 PEOPLE CURRENTLY LIVING IN THE PROJECT). WHY WOULD HE RISK REPUTATION AND STANDING AS A MINISTER TO PROTECT A CHILD THAT WERE NOT HIS? WHAT KIND OF LOVE IS IT THAT MAKES HIM WILLING TO SACRIFICE AT SUCH GREAT PERSONAL COST, TO SEE A CHILD SAVED FROM BEING USED AS A PAWN BY PEOPLE WHO HAVE NO INTEREST IN HIM? Re: "CONCERNED RELATIVES": ACCUSATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS COMMITTED BY REV. JAMES WARREN JONES AGAINST OUR CHILDREN AND RELATIVES AT THE PEOPLES TEMPLE JUNGLE ENCAMPMENT IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA

Dear Sir or Madam:

The documents you are about to read may strike you as simply incredible, but, sadly, they speak the truth. They were served on Peoples Temple officials in San Francisco on April 11, 1978. They prove, by sworn notarized affidavits, the unbelievable acts of Jim Jones which violate the laws and abuse the human rights of our family members. They quote the particular articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (adopted by the United Nations General Assembly in 1948), and of the Constitution of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, being violated.

As you read the affidavit of Steven Katsaris, ask yourself how you would react if Jones did to your daughter what he did to Maria Katsaris. As you read the Peoples Temple letter of March 14 about a "decision" to die, ask yourself how secure you would feel if your loved one was totally dependent on the mentality of its author. As you read Yulanda Crawford's affidavit about what Jones threatens to do to people who attempt to leave Jonestown, ask yourself if it is ethical not to act to stop such a man.

We are just beginning in this group effort to save our loved ones. Other relatives, previously terrified, are now joining us. We do not want to destroy Jim Jones or Peoples Temple. All we want is for our relatives to live in freedom, not a concentration camp. If you agree, won't you do what you can to intervene and help us?

depths of our hearts.

ACCUSATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS BY REV. JAMES WARREN JONES AGAINST OUR CHILDREN AND RELATIVES AT THE PEOPLES TEMPLE JUNGLE ENCAMPMENT IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA

TO: REV. JAMES WARREN JONES

From: Parents and relatives of children and adults under your control at "Jonestown", Northwest District, Cooperative Republic of Guyana

Date: April 11, 1978

I. INTRODUCTION

We, the undersigned, are the grief-stricken parents and relatives of the hereinafter-designated persons you arranged to be transported to Guyana, South America, at a jungle encampment you call "Jonestown". We are advised there are no telephones or exit roads from Jonestown, and that you now have more than 1,000 U.S. citizens living with you there.

We have allowed nine months to pass since you left the United States in June 1977. Although certain of us knew it would do no good to wait before making a group protest, others of us were willing to wait to see whether you would in fact respect the fundamental freedoms and dignity of our children and family members in Jonestown. Sadly, your conduct over the past year has shown such a flagrant and cruel disregard for human rights that we have no choice as responsible people but to make this public accusation and to demand the immediate elimination of these outrageous abuses.

DECLASSIFIED

II. SUMMARY OF VIOLATIONS

We hereby accuse you, Jim Jones, of the following acts violating the human rights of our family members:

1. Making the following threat calculated to cause alarm for the lives of our relatives: "I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than to be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next."

2. Employing physical intimidation and psychological coercion as part of a mind-programming campaign aimed at destroying family ties, discrediting belief in God, and causing contempt for the United States of America.

3. Prohibiting our relatives from leaving Guyana by confiscating their passports and money and by stationing guards around Jonestown to prevent anyone escaping.

4. Depriving them of their right to privacy, free speech, and freedom of association by:

   a. Prohibiting telephone calls;

   b. Prohibiting individual contacts with "outsiders";

   c. Censoring all incoming and outgoing mail;

   d. Extorting silence from relatives in the U.S. by threats to stop all communication;

   e. Preventing our children from seeing us when we travel to Guyana.

The aforesaid conduct by you is a violation of the human rights of our loved ones as guaranteed by Article 55 of the United Nations Charter, and as defined by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (adopted by the U. N. General Assembly on December 10, 1948). It is also a violation of their constitutional rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, and as guaranteed by the Constitution of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana (adopted May 26, 1966).

III. THREAT OF DECISION TO DIE

On March 14, 1978 you, Jim Jones, caused to be written on Peoples Temple stationery a letter "to all U.S. Senators and Members of Congress" complaining of alleged "bureaucratic harrassment" and ending with this chilling threat:

> "[I]t is equally evident that people cannot forever be continually harrassed and beleaguered by such tactics without seeking alternatives that have been presented. I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than to be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next."

A copy of your letter is attached as Exhibit A.

We know how exact you are in choosing your words, and there is little doubt that this letter was dictated by you personally since it has been your policy over the years to dictate all letters sent to governmental officials on Temple stationery. Your letter seeks to mask, by the use of irrelevant ideological rhetoric, its real purpose, which is to divert the attention of U.S. Governmental agencies towards your abuses of human rights by putting them on the defensive.

The "1,000 U.S. citizens" you claim to have brought to Guyana include our beloved relatives who are "devoted to a decision that it is better even to die." We frankly do not know if you have become so corrupted by power that you would actually allow a collective "decision" to die, or whether your letter is simply a bluff designed to deter investigations into your practices. There is supporting evidence for our concern in the affidavit of Yolanda Crawford, attached hereto as Exhibit B, which shows that you have publicly stated in Guyana that you would rather have your people dead than living in the United States, and that you have solicited people to lay down their lives for your cause. You certainly have been successful in making us fearful as to your intentions.

We hereby give you the opportunity now to publicly repudiate our interpretation of your threat. If you refuse to deny the apparent meaning of your letter, we demand that you immediately answer the following questions:

1. When you refer to "a decision that it is better even to die than to be constantly harrassed", has this "decision" already been made or is it to be made in the future? If made, when and where? Were our relatives consulted? Did anybody dissent? By what moral or legal justification could you possibly make such a decision on behalf of minor children?

2. When you say you are "devoted" to this decision, does that mean it is irreversible? If irreversible, at what point will the alleged "harrassment" have gotten so great as to make death "better"? Would it be an International Human Rights Commission investigation, or an on-premises investigation of your operations by the U. S. Government? Who besides you will decide when that point "to die" is reached?

We know your psychological coercion of the residents of Jonestown to be so "totalitarian" that nobody there, including adults, could possibly make such a decision to die freely and voluntarily. The evidence is that our relatives are in fact hostages, and we hereby serve notice that should any harm befall them, we will hold you and Peoples Temple church responsible and will employ every legal and diplomatic resource to bring you to justice.

DECLASSIFIED

IV. MIND-PROGRAMMING AND INTIMIDATION

The affidavit of Steven A. Katsaris, attached hereto as Exhibit C, is a personal account of his experiences in Guyana. It reveals the terrifying effect of your mind-programming on his daughter, a bright 24-year old, which has caused her to deny belief in God, to renounce family ties, and to manifest symptoms of sleep-deprivation and a serious personality change.

Yolanda Crawford's affidavit (Exhibit B) is an eye-witness account of your activities in Guyana by someone present with you. The affidavit shows that you, Jim Jones, preach there the following doctrines: a) that you are God and there is no other God, b) that the United States is the "most evil" nation in the world, c) that allegiance to your cause must replace family loyalty and that parents should be handled at a distance for the sole purposes of collecting inheritances for the cause and of getting them not to cause trouble.

The evidence also shows that you have instituted the following practices in Guyana: a) a centralized chain of command whereby all decisions of significance are to be made by you and once made, must be followed by Temple members under threat of punishment; b) the stationing of guards around Jonestown to prevent persons from escaping; and c) the use of degrading punishments (for example, eating hot peppers), sleep-deprivation, food-deprivation, hard labor, and other coercive techniques commonly used in mind-programming.

The evidence also shows that you, Jim Jones, confiscate the passports and monies of people upon their arrival in Guyana, prohibit individual contacts with "outsiders", censor incoming and outgoing mail, prohibit telephone calls by Temple members when in Georgetown, and require Temple members to travel in groups. Ms. Crawford's affidavit also shows that you have publicly threatened that anyone who tries to leave the "cause" will be killed.

The aforesaid conduct by you is a wanton violation of the human rights of our loved ones. It is also a violation of their constitutional rights. The physical intimidation is a violation of the penal codes of the United States and the Cooperative Republic of Guyana.

V. THE HUMAN RIGHTS BEING VIOLATED

We hereby bring to your attention, Jim Jones, the particular provisions which guarantee human rights and constitutional rights that you are violating:

1. Confiscation of Passports. Your systematic confiscation of passports and all of the monies of Temple members upon their arrival in Guyana is for the purpose of preventing them from leaving and returning to the United States. You are thereby violating Article 13, Section 2 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which reads:

> "Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country."

Your conduct is also a violation of Article 14 (1) of the Constitution of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, which reads:

> "No person shall be deprived of his freedom of movement, that is to say, the right to move freely throughout Guyana,...the right to leave Guyana... ."

2. Prohibiting Telephone Calls. You systematically tell all Temple members upon their arrival in Georgetown, Guyana that they are not permitted, under threat of punishment, to make any telephone calls to family members in the United States or elsewhere, your purpose being to prevent negative information being imparted to relatives in the U. S. Your additional purpose is to overcome the bonds of family which might induce a Temple member to wish to return to his home in the U. S. This conduct is a violation of Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which states:

> "Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."

This conduct is also a violation of Article 12 (1) of the Guyana Constitution, which reads:

> "Except with his own consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of his freedom of expression, that is to say, freedom to hold opinions without interference, freedom to communicate ideas and information without interference and freedom from interference with his correspondance."

3. Prohibiting Contacts With Outsiders. You systematically require that all Temple members, while in Georgetown, not communicate or visit with "outsiders" and not leave the communal headquarters (41 Lamaha Gardens) unless in association with other Temple members. You follow the same policy in Jonestown, enforcing your edicts with guards. Your purpose is to prevent anyone going to the U. S. Embassy and causing them to ask questions how you treat people. Your additional purpose is to discourage Temple members from being exposed to other religions or philosophies, and from viewing their lives independent of communal obligations. Your conduct is a violation of Article 20, Section 2 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which states:

> "No one may be compelled to belong to an association."

It is also a violation of Article 18 of the same Declaration, which states:

> "Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance."

Your conduct is also a violation of Article 13 (1) of the Guyana Constitution, which reads:

> "Except with his own consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of his freedom of assembly and association, that is to say, his right to assemble freely and associate with other persons."

4. Censoring Mail. You systematically require that all of the incoming mail and all of the outgoing mail of Temple members be censored by your staff. Your purpose is to discourage negative information being "leaked" to people in the U. S. and to prevent facts about the "outside" world reaching Temple members which are at variance with your "party line". This is shown by the affidavit of Ms. Crawford with respect to the Ku Klux Klan marching in the streets. Because mail is the only means of contact available to our loved ones once they are transported to Jonestown, you have thereby effectively cut off all free expression and correspondance. Your conduct is a violation of the right of our relatives to privacy, family, and correspondance under Article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which states:

> "No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home, or correspondance * * *. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference."

Your censoring of mail is also a violation of Article 12 (1) of the Guyana Constitution, which is quoted above.

5. Extorting Silence From Relatives. You systematically require that Temple members who write to their family members in the U. S. threaten in their letters that they will stop all further communication if any criticism is made of you or Peoples Temple. For example, Donna Ponts is a 15-year old girl taken to Guyana in July 1977 without her father's knowledge and in violation of a court order requiring her to remain in California unless he gave permission. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a letter from Donna to her grandmother which starts out saying: "Grandma, Hi! How are you doing? I hope you and everyone else are doing good". It ends as follows:

"I am sorry to hear that you called the radio station but since you did I will not be writing you any more."

Those of us who receive letters from our relatives in Jonestown find them standardized and unresponsive, as if written by machines. But since it is all we have, these letters are very precious to us. You have placed us in the agonizing dilemma of watching helplessly while the rights of our relatives are violated or losing all contact. We have chosen, however, not to yield to your extortion, which is a violation of Article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, quoted above, and of Article 13 (1) of the Guyana Constitution, also quoted above.

6. Prohibiting Our Children From Seeing Us. Five of the parents who have signed this accusation have travelled from San Francisco some 5,000 miles in order to see their children since you took them to Guyana. The evidence is clear that you have instituted a most pernicious campaign to discredit us in our children's eyes, as can be concluded from the following experiences:

a. Steven A. Katsaris. On September 26, 1977 Steven A. Katsaris arrived in Guyana and attempted to meet with his daughter, Maria. She was prohibited from meeting with him, duress being employed by you to force her to lie to the U. S. Embassy that she did not wish to see her father because "he had molested" her. Mr. Katsaris had with him a letter from Maria inviting him and saying, "I love you & miss you." On November 1, 1977 Mr. Katsaris returned to Guyana to see his daughter, after first obtaining a promise of assistance from the Guyanese Ambassador to the United States. After days of waiting, Maria was allowed to see her father but only in the presence of three other Temple members. Maria gave evidence of sleep deprivation and a behavior pattern extremely hostile and different from that ever manifested before. For the details of these two visits, refer to Exhibit C.

b. Howard and Beverly Oliver. On December 19, 1977 Howard and Beverly Oliver, together with their attorney Roger Holmes, arrived in Guyana in order to see their two sons, William S. Oliver (age 17) and Bruce Howard Oliver (age 20). In July 1977 both boys had told their parents they were going to Guyana "for two weeks." The Olivers had a court order from a California Superior Court for the return of William. They also had in their possession letters from each son saying "I love you". After spending eight days without success trying to see their sons, they were told that "Jim Jones had a council meeting" and the decision was that "it was best that we did not see or talk to our sons." Attached as Exhibit E is a handwritten account of Beverly E. Oliver, together with a copy of a letter from each son.

c. Timothy and Grace Stoen. On January 4, 1978 Timothy and Grace Stoen arrived in Guyana in connection with habeas corpus proceedings commenced the preceding August. Although they had a California Superior Court order which ordered you to deliver their six-year old child, John Victor Stoen, to them, you refused to let either parent even see their child. The evidence also shows that you have falsely accused Grace as being "unfit" (see Katsaris affidavit) and that on January 18, 1978 three Temple members surrounded Timothy at Timehri Airport in Guyana and threatened his and Grace's lives if they did not drop legal proceedings (see Crime Report made to Guyana Commissioner of Police Lloyd Barker on January 18, 1978).

The aforesaid conduct on your part constitutes a violation of Article 17 (1) of the Guyana Constitution, quoted above, and Article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which states as follows:

> "No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his...family... ."

VI. DEMANDS FOR RELIEF

We hereby demand that you, Jim Jones, immediately cease and desist from the aforesaid conduct and that you do the following additional acts immediately:

1. Publicly answer our questions regarding your threat of a collective "decision...to die", and publicly promise U. S. Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and Guyana Prime Minister Forbes Burnham that you will never encourage or solicit the death of any person at Jonestown, whether individually or collectively, for any reason whatsoever;

2. Remove all guards physically preventing our relatives from leaving Jonestown;

3. Return all passports and money taken from our relatives to them for their permanent possession;

4. Permit and encourage our relatives a one-week visit home, at our expense. (Because our relatives have been in Guyana for months (and some, for years), and because it is our belief that they do not know the full Peoples Temple story and have been prejudiced against their families, we demand you demonstrate in practice your contention that they are their own agents by permitting and encouraging our relatives to visit their families in the U. S. for one week, with our guarantee that we will provide them with round trip air fare and not interfere with their return at the end of the family visit should they so choose.)

5. Permit our relatives to write letters to whomever they wish, uncensored and in private.

6. Permit our relatives to read letters sent to them in private and without censorship.

7. Abide by the orders of the courts in the United States which you have heretofore ignored.

8. Notify us within three days on your radio-phone network of your full acceptance and compliance with these demands by contacting: Steven A. Katsaris, Trinity School, 915 West Church Street, Ukiah, California 95482; telephone (707) 462-8721.

OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

Jim Jones, Pastor

March 14, 1978

"For I am an hungered
and ye gave me meat:
I am thirsty
and ye gave me drink:
I am a stranger
and ye took me in:
Naked, and ye clothed me:
I was sick, and ye visited me:
I am in prison,
and ye came unto me.

Then shall the righteous
Answer him, saying,

When saw we thee an hungered
And fed thee?
Or thirsty,
And gave thee drink?
When saw we thee a stranger
And took thee in?
Or naked, and clothed thee?
Or when saw we thee sick
Or in prison,
And came unto thee?

Verily I say unto you,
Inasmuch as ye have done it
Unto one of the least of these...
...ye have done it unto me"

Matthew 25:35-40

TO ALL U.S. SENATORS AND MEMBERS OF CONGRESS:

We at Peoples Temple have been the subject of harassment by several agencies of the U.S. Government, and are rapidly reaching the point at which patience is exhausted. Radical Trotskyite elements which defected from our organization when we refused to follow their violent course have been orchestrating a campaign against us. Two of them, Michael Cartmell and Jim Cobb, were actually discovered mailing communication several years ago. These same two persons have boasted about knowing persons in the IRS and FCC and using them to get back at Peoples Temple. They also vowed recently to several witnesses that they would see to it that our group of over 1,000 U.S. citizens (currently conducting a highly successful agricultural project in Guyana) were starved out by having funds cut off from the U.S. To date, several agencies have been attempting various forms of harrassment: First was the Social Security, which tried to deny legitimate beneficiaries of their rights by cutting off all checks that were coming to Guyana. Through the intervention of various government officials, we were able to have this reinstated as it should have been.

Now, however, we see that the IRS and Treasury Dept. and even the Federal Communications Commission, are trying to initiate ways to cut off our lifelines. The FCC has suddenly decided to pursue a very minor complaint that was registered a year ago. It is clear that the intention is to disrupt our essential medium of communication, amateur radio. Each week we contact thousands of amateur radio operators; contacts and consultation with doctors in the U.S. have literally saved lives and have engendered tremendous goodwill in this part of the world. We consistently praise the U.S. over the airways and remain entirely supportive of U.S. policy in the Caribbean and around the world, especially with non-aligned nations. It seems utterly cruel to deprive such a large group of Americans of their only means of quick communication with the U.S. We cannot believe that you would want to see this, nor would you in any way condone such an organized effort to "starve out" hundreds of U.S. citizens, who are seeking to live in peace and be a credit to the U.S. elsewhere. These same agencies and elements in the press would seek to destroy any progressive thinking officials.

Our cooperative project in Guyana has been cited by people the world over as an example of a new image for the U.S. This project and the efforts of Peoples Temple were recently printed in the magazine One World, a publication of the World Council of Churches. Even Russia's New Times magazine has praised this work and done so in spite of our strong support of Russian people of Jewish descent, an obvious disagreement. We receive letters weekly from Russia, as well as from people in other parts of the world who have heard of the project, offering advice and assistance. In fact, several overtures have been made from Russia, which sees our current harassment as a form of political persecution. We do not want to take assistance from any people nor do we want to become an international issue. We also do not intend to be starved out by having our legitimately earned income cut off through the efforts of Trotskyite people and embittered malcontents. We have no political aspirations whatsoever. Jim Jones has spent the last 3 months working to develop the project in Guyana. We wish to continue to do so unmolested and unimpressed. This project has done a great deal of practical good for the U.S., not only in promoting a positive image in a place where many of the populace have more of a left leaning, but also in a very tangible way financially. The amount of tax dollars we have saved the U.S. by taking people off welfare and off SSI and rearing some from inevitable lives of crime would total conservatively in the hundreds of thousands. More importantly than that, lives have been saved that would have been meant for destruction. It seems great that anyone would want to continue this type of bureaucratic harrassment into an international issue, but it is equally evident that people cannot forever be continually harrassed and beleaguered by such action without seeking alternatives that have been presented. I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than to be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next. I hope you can look into this matter and protect the rights of over 1,000 people from the U.S. to live in peace

AFFIDAVIT OF YOLANDA D. A. CRAWFORD SHOWING THE TEACHINGS AND PRACTICES OF REV. JAMES WARREN JONES IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA

I, Yolanda D. A. Crawford, certify as follows:

1. I was in Guyana, South America as a member of Peoples Temple from April 1, 1977 until June 29, 1977. Rev. James Warren Jones ("Jim Jones"), the leader of Peoples Temple, was in Guyana most of April and during the latter part of June, at which times I witnessed the following statements and practices by him.

2. Jim Jones said that the United States is the "most evil" nation in the world, referring to its political and industrial leaders as "capitalistic pigs". He said he would rather have his people dead than live in the United States.

3. Jim Jones prior to June said that people would be coming to live in Guyana for a temporary period of time. In June Jim Jones stated that the people he brings over from the United States will be staying in Guyana "permanently".

4. Jim Jones said that nobody will be permitted to leave Jonestown and that he was going to keep guards stationed around Jonestown to keep anybody from leaving. He said that he had guns and that if anyone tries to leave they will be killed ("offed") and their bodies will be left in the jungle and "we can say that we don't know what happened to you." He also said, "I can get a hit man for fifty dollars. It's not hard for me to get a hit man anywhere."

5. While still in the United States, Jim Jones asked the Temple members to turn all their guns over to him. I also saw ammunition being packed in crates for shipment to Guyana addressed to Peoples Temple from San Francisco. I heard Jim Jones say, "If anyone tries to start anything, we are ready and prepared to die for our cause."

6. Jim Jones said that black people and their sympathizers were going to be destroyed in the United States, that "the Ku Klux Klan is marching in the streets of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and cities back east". There was "fighting in the streets, and the drought in California is so bad, Los Angeles is being deserted".

7. Jim Jones said that everyone should turn in their passports and all their money to him, that nobody is to visit any local Guyanese people unless on a "mission" and in the company of other Temple members, that nobody is to make any telephone calls to relatives, that nobody was to send any mail to the United States without first getting it "cleared". All incoming mail was first received by Temple secretaries and read before being shown to the person addressed.

8. Jim Jones said that "I will lay my body down for this cause" and asked others to make the same promise, which they did by a show of hands, and also asked them to commit themselves to kill anyone attempting to hurt him.

9. Jim Jones ordered all of us to break our ties with families. He said that our highest and only loyalty should be "the cause", and that the only reason for staying in touch with our families was to collect inheritances when "they died off" and to keep them pacified "so as not to make trouble for the cause".

DECLASSIFIED

10. Jim Jones ordered us to "report" on one another to prevent "treason". His technique was to have everyone report to him (or his two or three most trusted leaders) all suspicious talk or behavior of others.

11. Jim Jones ordered people punished when they broke his rules. The punishments included food-deprivation, sleep-deprivation, hard labor, and eating South American hot peppers. I saw a teenager, Tommy Bogue, being forced to eat hot peppers at a public meeting.

12. So far as I know, only one person (Leon Broshears) out of 850 or more residents has dared to leave Jonestown since my mother, husband and I left on June 29, 1977. Before Jim Jones allowed me to leave, I was forced to promise him I would never speak against the church, and that if I did I would lose his "protection" and be "stabbed in the back". Furthermore, Jim Jones ordered me to sign a number of self-incriminating papers, including a statement that I was against the government of Guyana, that I had plotted against that government, that I was part of the PPP (Peoples Progressive Party), which is the opposition party in Guyana, and that I had come to Guyana to help the PPP. Jim Jones said the reason for signing those papers was to discredit me if I ever decided to leave the movement "and talk". Also, before leaving for Guyana, I was ordered to fabricate a story and sign it stating that I killed someone and threw the body in the ocean. I was told that if I ever caused Jim Jones trouble, he would give that statement to the police. He further intimidated me and others in the congregation by saying, "I, (Jim Jones) have Mafia connections, and they will stand with me all the way."

13. I heard him state to the congregation in Guyana that Marshall Kilduff, who wrote the first articles exposing him, was dead. He said, "The angels have taken care of him". We all knew the "angels" were his people who would do you in if you crossed Jim Jones.

14. Jim Jones ordered all telephone calls to relatives in the United States to be made in the presence of Temple members and after coaching. When my mother tried to call her brother in the United States and get him to stop criticizing the Temple, Jim Jones stood by her side and told her everything she was to say and then faulted her for not being forceful enough. He ordered us to tell our relatives in the United States to stop criticizing him or we would not be allowed to return home.

15. On numerous occasions I was in the congregation when he told us "I am God" and "there is no other God, and religion is the opium of the people." He stated he used religion only to get to the masses.

16. I recall several instances of Jim Jones stating he could silence critics or defectors by accusing them of being homosexuals, child abusers, terrorists or sexual deviates.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at San Francisco, California on April 10, 1978.

AFFIDAVIT

AN ACCOUNT OF SOME OF MY EXPERIENCES WITH PEOPLE'S TEMPLE CHURCH WHEN I ATTEMPTED TO VISIT MY DAUGHTER IN GUYANA.

In July, 1977 my daughter Maria called me from San Francisco to tell me she would be going to the People's Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana and would be there several weeks. She also informed me that an article highly prejudicial to People's Temple Church was about to be published in the New West magazine and asked if I would send a telegram to the publisher in support of the Church's work. I did so stating in the telegram that I believed they were working with people that our social system had largely neglected. Shortly after the first article appeared in New West magazine my daughter called me from Georgetown to inform me that the article was untrue, politically motivated and that I should have no concern about her activities in the Church. She also told me that she wanted to stay several more weeks in Guyana if that was agreeable with me.

At that time a number of articles appeared in newspapers concerning the experiences of some members of the Church. I became increasingly concerned about my daughter when I read that members had been subjected to various types of psychological and physical coercion. In several phone calls with my daughter I was assured that she was well and told her that in several months I would be visiting Washington D.C. on personal business and was considering going on to Guyana afterward to see her. She appeared enthusiastic and receptive to this idea.

my daughter's letters continued to be positive mentioning that she missed me, was concerned about my health, and asked me to send down some mosquito netting and other things that she needed. Early in September 1977 I contacted the Church offices in San Francisco and asked them to inform Maria on their radio phone that I would be arriving in Georgetown on September 26. Several days passed and I received a telephone call from People's Temple Church telling me that radio communication had not been favorable and they were unable to contact my daughter. I told them to keep trying since there still was adequate time before I would be leaving for South America. Several days later at 3:00 in the morning I received a telephone call from an unidentified person who told me that she was part of the group of people who had left People's Temple Church. The purpose of her phone call was to discourage me from going to Guyana. She said it would probably put my daughter in a difficult position. The caller hung up before I could ask any questions. The following night again at approximately 3:00 A.M I received another phone call. Again the unidentified caller cautioned me about going to Guyana and in more forceful terms told me that it might not be safe for me to do so. The following night I received another telephone call at approximately 4:00 in the morning. This time the caller was a man who told me I should think carefully about my decision to go to Guyana and mentioned that since I lived alone on a ranch in an isolated area my home could be burned down.

The next night on September 14 I received a radio phone call from my daughter Maria. She told me she had learned of my plans to visit her in Guyana and asked that I delay my trip until December when a group of prominent clergy would be visiting their agricultural project. The radio phone call was prolonged with many pauses and interruptions but the essence of the conversation was a series of obstacles presented to me by my daughter to discourage me from visiting. After I told her that I did not wish to travel with a group of clergy in December and that I would be going down September 26 she told me that the government of Guyana discouraged visitors due to the "tremendous harrassment" that Jim Jones had been subjected to. She mentioned that he had been shot at in the jungle. I told my daughter that both she and Jim Jones knew that I would not harrass them, that I had supported her membership in the Church and that I would go to the Guyanese Embassy in Washington and ask for clearance to travel to Guyana. After a pause, Maria told me that it was the policy of the Church not to permit visitors to the project. This seemed extremely strange to me since I had letters from my daughter indicating that there were daily visitor to the project. (See attached copy.) I then offered to meet Maria in Georgetown. She told me she would not be in Guyana but would be in Venezuela during the time of my intended visit. I suggested meeting her in Venezuela but she said she could not see me there since she woul only be in that country several days and wanted to spend that time with her fiance. Her fiance's name reportedly was Larry who was the medical officer for the agricultural project. I have since learned that anothe parent Sherwin Harris has been told that his daughter in Guyana is married to the same doctor. I interpret this ploy as a rather crude attempt to assure parents that their children in the Church are well and married or about to be married to fine professional people. The radio phone call was extremely strange and caused me great anxiety because it did not sound like my daughter was free to speak for herself and certainly her choice of words did not appear natural. The long pauses in the conversation made me suspect she was being coached. When I finally told her that I was upset and frightened and that I would use every legal and diplomatic means to see her she replied that she would not see me even if I did come to Guyana.

The following day I sent a telegram to Rev. Jim Jones telling him of my concern and asking for his reply. (Copy attached.) No reply was ever forthcoming.

Shortly afterwards I left for Washington D.C. where I contacted John Mathony, Military Advisor to Vice President Mondale, and Frank Tuminia of the Guyanese Desk of the State Department. I told them of my concern and solicited their help. I also went to the Guyanese Embassy and was assured that I could travel to Guyana. When I arrived in Georgetown I first went to the United States Embassy and made contact with Mr. Richard McCoy. He showed me a handwritten transcript that was delivered to the Embassy by People's Temple Church member Paula Adams. The message claimed to be from my daughter and had been received in Georgetown via radio phone. It stated that Maria was happy, she was twenty-four years old, engaged to be married and had had a traumatic childhood and did not wish to see her father. Mr. McCoy stated that Paula Adams volunteered background information on me saying that I was a child molester and had sexually abused my daughter and offered that as a reason that Maria did not want to see me. After an unsuccessful attempt to make contact with my daughter in the interior I retur phone calls that I have received, this appeared to be a definite possibility. After speaking with Mr. Robert Chilamidos an investigator for the State of California, with Mr. James Hubert investigator for the United States Treasury Department, and Mrs. Jan Tespool an investigator for the Mendocino County Sheriff's Department I lived in constant anxiety for my daughter's safety. I was convinced that People's Temple Church was using their humanitarian efforts and social welfare activities to cover for their ultimate goal which is the establishment of world socialism (facism?) with Jim Jones as their leader and that the would stop at nothing including calumny, character assassination, blackmail, threats of violence and even murder to achieve their goal. In early November I made another trip to Washington D.C. where I convinced Guyanese Ambassador Lawrence Mann to arrange a meeting between my daughter and me. He went to Georgetown and while there called me and told me that Rev. Jones had agreed to the meeting and assured him that he wanted the members of his Church to have the closest possible relations with their families. I was told to come to Georgetown which I did the following day. Ambassador Mann met me at my hotel in Georgetown, to me that Maria would be in the following day and that he had arranged to take Maria, Mr. McCoy from the United States Embassy and me to dinner as his guests. After the dinner he and Mr. McCoy would depart and Maria and I could have the opportunity to speak privately. Maria did not arrive as planned and the Ambassador phoned me explaining that the Church was having difficulties getting her to Georgetown from the interior. The following day I was given the same story. And finally by Saturday of that week the Ambassador called and told me that Maria would be arriving at 4:00 p.m. At 6:00 p.m. that day the Ambassador again called, appeared somewhat irritated and said he had been informed by the Church's offices in Georgetown that Maria had arrived but was not feeling well and could not go to dinner. I immediately called the Church offices and asked to speak with my daughter. I was told to wait and after a considerable delay was told that Maria was not there and had gone out to dinner. I asked that she call me at my hotel when she returned and was assured that she would. I did not receive a telephone call on Saturday night. However, at 7:15 Sunday morning I was informed by a representative of People's Temple Church that Maria would meet with me in 45 minutes. Ambassador Mann and Mr. McCoy were at the meeting when Maria arrived with four other persons, two men -- one who identified himself as an attorney representing the Church -- and two women. Maria appeared agitated, could not look me in the eye, and did not return my embrace which appeared unusual and even ominous to me. She looked as if she had not slept well or had been deprived of sleep over a long period of time and her general attitude was one of suspicion, hositility and paranoia. She accused me of causing trouble for the Guyanese government and stated that because of my efforts Guyana had been black listed by the International Human Rights Commission. She stated further that the Church had been informed by the United States government that I was a member of a conspiracy against the Church and was associated with a right wing congressman who intended to destroy the Church. She accused me of lying to her about my health. When I pointed to Paula Adams, one of the women who accompanied her to the meeting, and asked if she knew that this woman had gone to Mr. McCoy and told him that I had abused my daughter sexually, Maria refused to discuss the subject. When I told her that I had information that she

she signed an undated suicide note, she demanded to know the source of my information I told her that was not the important issue and and that she could alleviate my anxiety by simply telling me it was not true. She replied that since I would not reveal the source of my information she would not discuss that subject. In the course of the conversation with Maria I told her that before leaving for Guyana I had spoken with Grace Stoen who wanted me to convey her love and concern to her son John. Maria told me that Grace was an unfit mother and she had abused her child and that Maria was now the mother for John. She also told me in a tone that I did not believe possible from my daughter that if Grace made any attempt to get her child back she would be sorry. My daughter's affect and the manner in which she spoke conveyed to me the tone of a serious threat. The entire meeting was extremely painful for me and depressing. I managed to tell my daughter that if she ever wanted to return home a ticket would be waiting for her at the Embassy. When I told her of my belief in God and that somehow things would work out, she and another woman from the Church were quick to point out to me that they do not believe in God.

After the meeting I went to the airport to catch a flight to New York City. At the airport I received a message to call Mr. McCoy. In our telephone conversation he told me that both he and Ambassador Mann were disturbed by the meeting and believed that something strange was happening since he could see no reason why the Church should take that attitude toward me. He told me that he would write to me, but to this date I have received no communication from him. After arriving in New York City I proceeded to Washington D.C. where I spent numerous days contacting as many people in the government as I thought would help me. Most were sympathetic but were quick to point out that since my daughter is 24 years of age and since it appears that she is in Guyana voluntarily there is little they could do to help me.

Since November I have received no communication from Maria and have not attempted to make contact with her since I believe this might be interpreted either as an attempt on my part to get her out of the Church or as a sign that Maria is waivering and is about to defect and might place her life in jeopardy.

Dear Pop,

How are you feeling? I really hope you are doing better. Has the Doctor told you anything else? Please let me know because I am worried about you.

Right now I am in the interior again. I came in by boat which takes about 23 hours coming down the Kaituma River is one of our most favorite things. It is hard to describe how beautiful it is. It is so peaceful. I like to sit at on the deck and watch all the scenery. All the animals and birds, plus all the different kinds of tropical plants. The little Amerindian children run out to meet at the boat.

The boat is called the Cudjoe it is one we have at the agricultural project.

I live in a very nice wooden cottage. Some of the chairs are made out of tuloo. It is a kind of plant, sort of like palm leaves, but not really. The Amerindians go out in the bush cut it down. They dry it out for a few days and then intertwine it on a wooden frame. It is absolutely waterproof & looks very nice. They are just as durable as the wooden ones.

so different things around here. I sort of help coordinate, but I also spend time in the medical clinic and in the school. Also I like to go out and work in the fields with the plants. One of the carpenters here is even showing me a few things. I love working with my hands. I can honestly say I have never been happier or healthier. There is something about this climate I guess. Also being able to work outside without all the tension and pressure of a city. I don't think you realize it until you get away from it.

I bet you would love it here since I know how much you like working outside & stuff. Some of the things going here are that you would be interested in are a huge piggery where we raised pigs. Also there are goats & cattle will be coming in soon. There are also about 10 to 15 large chicken houses. I don't know if you have ever heard of the Eggsaw which is a plant grown here. It is kind of like a potato. When it can be made into meals or sliced like any kind of potato. It syrup called cassareep which is a pepper for flavoring in the Caribbean can be made from it. It is sort of like soy sauce in the Chinese food. It looks like it only thicker + the taste is not similar. The leafy part is used for animal fod. All these things are processed in a large cassava mill. There are acres + acres of crops. I don't know all of them but some are: cocoa, coffee, pineapples, bananas, corn, okra, coffee, breadfruit, different citrus and vegetables.

The people here are working + developing new kinds of food. For example there is a large bean called a cutlass bean. They found it has a very high protein content and tryed different ways of using it. Anyway they came up with a way to fix it so it tastes just like sausage patties + even looks like it. Also it can be fixed into a meatloaf only we call it cutlass loaf. It is delicious. It is one of my favorite things + I wouldn't care if I never ate meat again if I had my cutlass patties. That is only one example of the things that have been developed here. The government is very impressed and has said that to the best model of agriculture in the nation. Some of the other things that are here are a saw mill, carpentry shop, school, medical clinic and other things which I'll tell you about next time. I guess I am really rambling on but I just want to share my enthusiasm with you for what is going on here. I know you would love it like I said. It is hard to describe all the beauty of the jungle and all that is going on at the project too.

Right before I came into the interior I helped put together an exhibit for all the government officials and the Parliament. It took a large room and we had different tables like for education, agriculture, vaccination, etc. We also had a long table where they could sample the new foods developed at the project with foods all native to Guyana. That was a real big hit. We had papaya fried fish, plantain chips and bean burgers. (Which I also love), a new kind of breakfast cereal from plantain & lots of other stuff. (I think you can tell very much kind of like the food here (ha ha) I think I might even get fat if I ate this up.) Then I came back to the exhibit... anyway back to the exhibit...

(I guess you have figured one reason why I never became a writer is because I don't keep my thoughts organized on paper — I just go around all over the place. Tell I was saying the exhibit was a big hit and they were very impressed.
Visitors come into the project daily as it has become a sort of model and is pretty unique. Today 63 teachers & educators came through. They liked the way the school is set up and intend to incorporate some the same ideas in a school the government is opening up Barra nearby.
Yesterday the ambassador to the U.N. came with his wife. They brought a little boy from Venezuela who had suffered from malnutrition — all his brothers & sisters had died from it. He is 4 yrs old but looks like he is only 2 from being so malnourished. But he is really cute and he is being adopted here at the mission. We have many children from the local area living here. One thing that has been done by the medical clinic is that gastroenteritis (if that's how you spell it - which I'm sure it's not) has been virtually wiped out in this area.

Anyways a better clip for now & I don't want you to have to read through a whole lot. But I do have a lot to tell you. Some features attractions. Upcoming letters include * more about what I do, * the school, * the bush, * the animals here, and much more. Oh! How could I forget to tell you! - I am now the proud mother of 3 baby armadillos! There mat was disturbed out in the fields which meant the mother would probably reject them. So now I am feeding them with an eye dropper. I hope they make it. It would be neat to have little armadillos running around!

One last thing - please, please, please do not get disturbed by the bad publicity the church has gotten. I am more convinced than ever of conspiratorial & political set-ups. It is absolutely incredible how the press can print such a sitting bunch of lies and are allowed to get by with it. They refuse to print what we have had to say or to show the truth. I guess the other makes for more sensational reading. I am not surprised though. A society that is base on economic inequality and classism is certainly not going to let and organization advocating economic & racial equality exist too easily. But no matter what they think, it will not succeed. This group has done too much good and helped too many people. What is unfortunate is that the mentality of many people is so objective when it comes to the media. Most people believe everything they hear on the news and read in the papers. Even mom said to me, "Well they wouldn't print it if it wasn't true." I love her very much & I think she is very intelligent but that is how she sees it too. If you happen to talk to her please tell her not to worry about it since there isn't a thing to even be worried about in the first place. What I very sad + sorry that such a thing has been allowed to happen. What is ironic is that we have always been the first to stand for freedom of the press + 5th admendment rights. I can certainly tell you I will have a hard time believing the papers anymore. At least I will look at what is being said with a very scrutinizing eye... Well that's also enough of that. If you want to know anything - just ask me. The folks would be rather hard pressed to look around this place which is just one aspect of our work - and continue with what they are saying - when hundreds of needy people are being clothed, housed + fed + given good medical care.

I am also writing Mom + if you send me Layd's address I will write her too. The mail will probably take about 2 wks to get to me in the interior - so hurry up + write! Sue of these times I will get some guy to set up a phone patch + will call you on the radio. Bye for now. I love you + miss you - write. Your daughter, Julia

P.S. THIS IS REALLY MY WRITING!!!

LETTER FROM 15-YEAR OLD DONNA PONTS TO HER GRANDMOTHER

Grandma,

Hi! How are you doing? I hope you & everyone else are doing good. I'm doing well & I'm really happy. I really like Guyanese life.

What have you been up to? I've mainly been going to school. I've made alot of friends & we really have alot of fun! I've been getting good grades so far.

There are a few different foods I have never heard of before. Like a fruit called the Sweetsop. It is hard to describe but all I know is that it's delicious. It is good to eat it fresh & also to mash it up & put it in the freezer - it tastes like sherbert. There is also the Granadilla. You use the pulp & make cobbler out of it. It tastes better than but something like peach cobbler.

I am sorry to hear that you called the radio station but since you did I will not be writing you any more. I don't know what you think - all I know is that I love it in Guyana & I truly am happy.

Yours Truly,
Donna

In July - 1977 my sons told me they wanted to go to Nigeria for two weeks. They had been several places with the church members & for five years we had agreed for them to go.

On July 26 1977 I & my husband and left for work, leaving both sons at home in bed asleep. When we got home, We did not know that both had left for Nigeria, We only were told & called me. We did talk to them by Telephone Monday, two or three times.

About three weeks after they left my Husband & I went to the Church (People Temple) & talked to Jonestown Peru, in the presence of Sierra Collier & Hewett Temple We asked for the return of our sons, they can get away, but Marceline was the most Collier & told him, that we want both sons home & we mean our sons.

He said we will talk to People Temple Church & talk to Jonestown & let you know, we want to see both sons home, We said we

Dear Mom & Dad

How is everything going? Everything with me is going just fine. Im here in Jonestown and all I get to say is that you have to see it to believe it, its the most beautiful place I've ever seen. Its called Jonestown because that what it is a small town. I spend half the morning working in the mill where they make bread the rest of the day trying watch watches and/or going swimming or workout. Now is the place I would want to spend the rest of my life so as of now im staying. I love you both and think of the both of you everyday. (not just mom but you too Dad). I often think of the things you taught me about being a man, you were right since I been here I feel like Im grown alot. I really appreciate the time you took with me even tho alot of the times I should get mad and walk away. I'm (can't really mean it). If I didnt

... life would be rough but instead it's sweet. The ... is one all nice and friendly. The only thing ... that would make it better is if you were here ... P.S. The beauty quoted is now doing more. Please write soon and stay in contact.

Love you always.
Bruce Alan

Dear Mom & Dad

How are you doing? Fine I hope. I'm doing fine here it's very very hectic, full days. The weather is the people here are very friendly/always willing to help you. The only sorrow I have is that you guys aren't here with me. Also make sure you tell Grandma Blanche very much I appreciate her too. Now I hope you will come here soon and share all the happiness I have with her. Once you're here all pressure & tension leaves. Tell Dad I wish him all the success in his business and I often find myself thinking about him. Well I have to go now. Till he writing again soon.

Love Ya

P.S. When tell Bonnie I missed her too. Did I get a letter from Bill yet.

Your son Bill

Temple Trouble

In the poor-black Fillmore district of San Francisco, the Rev. Jim Jones is revered as a good Samaritan with patrons in very high places. As pastor of the People's Temple, one of the largest interfaith churches in California, Jones not only claims God's power to heal the sick but also wields palpable clout among city and state political leaders. The governor, lieutenant governor, mayor, sheriff and district attorney have all visited the temple and, during the 1976 Presidential campaign, Jones himself shared a platform with Rosalynn Carter. Last December, the charismatic preacher who can muster black voters was named chairman of the San Francisco Housing Authority Commission by Mayor George Moscone. But now Jones stands accused by 30 former temple members of building his power through fear, fraud, physical beatings, the appropriation of parishioners' property and possible misuse of government funds.

The accusations were published in two August issues of New West magazine, which called for an investigation of the temple's financial and disciplinary practices. Church representatives promptly denied the charges. But in a pair of surprise moves last week, Jones resigned from the Housing Authority and District Attorney Joseph Freitas announced that he would look into the accusations.

Colony: No one has yet filed a formal complaint against Jones, who temple officials said was unreachable at the church's 27,000-acre South American farm colony in Guyana. The city's most powerful politicians still seem solidly behind the controversial minister. Mayor Moscone has said he saw no evidence that Jones had broken any laws and, in a recent Sunday-morning sermon at the temple, black state Assemblyman Willie Brown lauded the attacks "a measure of the church's effectiveness."

Jones preaches a religious socialism that he himself, it appears, is the first to practice. His church, which claims 20,000 members statewide, sponsors a drug-rehabilitation program, a free restaurant and medical clinic and a legal-aid service. More radically, Jones encourages his flock to give up their private property and live in low-rent apartments owned by the church from the city. Jones and his wife live modestly above the temple, where they are raising a multiracial family of seven adopted children and their own son. But the most active [illegible] is expressed as politics. mayor and district attorney. Jones's regimented followers were considered important to the winners.

According to some former church members, however, Jones's power is based as much on fear and fraud as on faith. His services are often held behind locked doors, and even then Jones is protected by bodyguards. The breakaway parishioners described ritual beatings and humiliating group encounters held at all-night sessions. A former secretary to Jones reported that the preacher faked healings by displaying chicken guts as tissue he had miraculously removed from cancer patients. Others said they had been persuaded into deeding over their homes to the church and had been talked into giving the temple government funds they received for running foster-care homes.

Jones (inset). Klan drama. 'That's why people turned over all they had'

When New West first announced investigating the People's Temple, the editors were harassed with pleas from politicians and businessmen to kill the story. When the editors persisted, some were harassed at home by anonymous callers. Meanwhile, other local newsmen reported similar coercion and only when word of the pressure campaign appeared in a local newspaper column did [illegible] temple [illegible] to tell of their experiences [illegible]

In separate interviews with NEWSWEEK, former followers of Jones corroborated [illegible]

Debate, 28, told how she and eleven other students slept in a crowded garage were given a weekly dole of $2 each members of a temple commune. T Oberte, who is white, said that Jones, part American Indian, told them "I ugly and horrible it was to be white," "not to have sex because we were latent homosexuals."

KKK: Laura Cornelius, 52, a black woman, said that Jones promised his follow a haven in Guyana when, as he predic Fascists took over the U.S. "He said t had a plan to exterminate blacks like t did the Jews," Cornelius recalled. also described a ritual by temple m bers that dramatized a Ku Klux K lynching. "That's why people turned over all they had," she said. "He tol the whites would take it."

Others reported threats against t lives if they dared talk to police and s that they had been made to sign fa confessions to crimes such as conspira against the government. "Jim alwa said he had an in with the police," s Deanna Mystle, 18. "So we thought go to the police would be suicide."

Church officials have issued state ments countercharging that some of t dissenters were terrorists and child n lesters. Throughout the controversy Jones has remained at the Guyana far which the church says it funds w $1 million annually. And some suggest that the Rev. Mr. Jones may be the fi to take up permanent residence in t Guyana haven.

Human Rights charges made

A petition charging People's Temple leader Rev. Jim Jones with violating the human rights of persons under his control at Jonestown, the Temple colony in Guyana, South America, was delivered yesterday to Temple representatives at 1305 Geary St.

Some 25 parents and concerned relatives are asking Jones to send family members back to the United States for one week at their expense to demonstrate that they are not being detained against their will.

Parents claimed Jones has confiscated passports and personal funds and that all incoming and outgoing mail and phone calls are censored. They said access to and from Jonestown is controlled by armed guards.

Petitioners included former deputy district attorney Timothy Stoen whose six-year-old son, John, remains in Jones' custody despite a U.S. court order for his return. Jones reportedly claims to be the boy's natural father.

Stoehn and other parents gave reporters copies of affidavits describing their unsuccessful efforts to make contact with their children despite court orders, trips to Guyana and petitions to American and Guyanese State Department officials.

They expressed concern about statements attributed to Jones wherein he allegedly exhorted followers to be ready to die for his cause.

A "collective decision to die" is not outside the realm of possibility in a completely totalitarian set-up where the leader in charge is no longer rational, Stoen said.

Steven Katsaris, a spokesman for the relatives, said the group is not out to break up the Temple cult. "I'm not attacking Jones," he said. "We just want to see our children."

Custody Case SCS 2/2 SCS

567

April 18, 1978

Dear Mr. Haas:

I have been asked to reply to your letter of March 16 addressed to Assistant Secretary Douglas J. Bennet, Jr. I regret that you found our responses to congressional inquiries on the John Victor Stoen custody case unsatisfactory.

The attorney's favorable opinion expressed in these responses is that of Clarence Hughes, the Stoens' attorney in Guyana.

On February 24 the American Consul in Georgetown, Guyana met with the new Minister of Justice, Mohamed Shahabuddeen who stated that child custody cases are civil disputes and there is no legal requirement that hearings be scheduled within a specific time period. Further, the Minister indicated that a judge's written opinion may take at least four months to compose and release. Consequently, the delay to date in this case is not considered excessive.

The Department appreciates the Stoens' desire to be reunited with their son. Although the Department cannot intervene in this case, it will continue to take appropriate measures to assure that the decision is reached fairly and in accordance with the laws of Guyana.

I am forwarding a copy of your letter to the Department's Office of the Legal Advisor for comment on the issue of the interpretation of international law. If you have further questions, please contact our Office of Special Consular Services on 632-3015.

Dear Dick,

Thanks for your letter of April 6 and the news about Maria. I have had no contact with her since our Georgetown meeting last November and am anxious that she be informed of my love for her and my hope she will come home soon. When possible please tell her of the ticket under the guidelines I mentioned. I will be greatly indebted to you.

The enclosed material will show you the course things have taken from this end. After presenting the accusation of human rights violations to Peoples Temple headquarters in San Francisco, their attorney called a press conference in which a number of Jonestown residents spoke via shortwave radio praising Jim Jones and denouncing their relatives. Maria said on the air that I had molested her. It frightens me that they could get her to say that. What else they can get her to do is ominous.

After consultation I decided to proceed against Peoples Temple Church with a law suit. It will be filed shortly. In preparation for the litigation I underwent a polygraph test. The results are shown on the enclosed report.

Most likely the case will never come to trial because my attorneys believe Peoples Temple Church could not afford to have any of their members give sworn testimony in court. However, I hope it will accomplish two things. First, to show that I am not intimidated into silence by their slander and lies, even if they can get my daughter to speak them. Second, that my actions will eventually get communicated to Maria and she will know that her family still cares and wants her to come home. (Please note the request for a visit home on page 13. I do not believe it unreasonable and can offer guarantees that Maria will be free to return to Guyana).

Sincerely,

Steven A. Katsaris

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT: May 3, 1978 No. P-9019

Mr. Timothy Oliver Stoen
Attorney At Law
120 Montgomery Street
San Francisco, California

On May 2, 1978, Steven A. Katsaris voluntarily came to this office for a polygraph examination. The main issue under consideration involved allegations of sexual molestation made against him by his daughter, Maria Katsaris. Maria is presently with the People's Temple Church in Guyana. During Mr. Katsaris' attempts to get his daughter away from this church, the allegations of sexual molestation were made by some of the officials of the People's Temple Church. No specific, public statements along this line were made by Maria Katsaris. Among other charges made against Katsaris by the People's Temple Church was the statement that he was involved with a right-wing congressman in a conspiracy to destroy People's Temple Church.

During Mr. Katsaris' pre-test interview, he maintained he has never made any sexual advances whatsoever toward his daughter, Maria. He also insisted that he has never been involved in any conspiracy with a congressman to destroy People's Temple Church.

There were no significant emotional disturbances indicative of deception reflected in Mr. Katsaris' polygraph charts when he answered "No" to the following test questions:

"Did you ever make any sexual advances toward Maria Katsaris?"

"Did you ever try to have sexual intercourse with your daughter, Maria?"

"Did you ever sexually fondle any part of Maria's body?"

"Did you ever plan with any congressmen to destroy People's Temple Church?"

It is the opinion of the examiner, based on Katsaris' polygraph charts, that he is telling the truth on the above-listed questions.

Yours very truly,

Hon. Cyrus Vance
Secretary of State
Main State Building
Washington, D.C.

Honorable Secretary Vance,

This letter will bring to your attention a new and alarming development in the events surrounding the 1500 or more Americans who are at the Peoples Temple Agricultural Mission in Guyana, South America.

A group of people here in the U.S. who have relatives overseas at the Agricultural Mission are being stirred up largely by the continued efforts of Mr. Timothy O. Stoen. Mr. Stoen, as you are aware, is pursuing a custody suit against Rev. Jim Jones for Rev. Jones' six year old son, John Victor.

The tactics being used by Mr. Stoen to attempt to disrupt and undermine the efforts of Rev. Jones and the 1500 people in Guyana are dangerous and illegal. We bring them to your attention for several reasons. First, they threaten the very lives of the Americans overseas, including men, women and children. Second, he is formulating plans to advance mercenary force, defying all U.S., Guyanese, and International laws. Finally, we feel it is our responsibility to inform you of these illegal activities and that it is your responsibility in turn to notify Mr. Stoen as to the rules and regulations which prohibit kidnapping, threatening violence, and hiring mercenaries, and that he is acting way out of line.

Mr. Stoen has been calling all over the state and nation to relatives of Temple members who are overseas making slanderous comments about Rev. Jones and telling vicious lies to alarm them about their relatives' well-being. There are a growing number of people calling the Temple and their loved ones here in the states to report these phone calls. Many have written affidavits and are submitting them to law enforcement agencies for protection from further harassment.

In one recent telephone patch conversation via radio, an elementary school principal overseas in Guyana asked her relatives here what Mr. Stoen had told them. They replied he bragged about having mercenaries to g , to Jonestown and take relatives by force: that he plans to hire helicopters to drop bombs on the project; and that he has guns and weapons to work with. These stories may sound like wild exaggerations, but we have heard the same stories repeatedly and from very credible and reliable sources. When the school principal incredulously asked her relatives to repeat what they had heard Mr. Stoen say about having guns, they responded: "Well, it's his business. They (the Temple congregation) ought to all be killed anyway."

Mr. Stoen is, in fact, working with an agency called the Eureka Resource Associates, an exploration company specializing in aerial photography and geographic research. This can be substantiated. It also is a fact that he is holding regular meetings in Los Angeles and San Francisco to organize people and plan tactics of harassment.

Another phone call incident was reported to the Temple just yesterday. The elderly mother and mother-in-law of a member of our church here in the States (who has a husband and two children overseas at the project) were both contacted by Mr. Stoen. They were told outlandish lies such as people there are "shot on the spot." They were also told by Mr. Stoen that he is working with "the Prime Minister of Guyana to do what has to be done," insinuating that the Temple is not on good terms with the government there. The fact is, Mr. Stoen has no credibility at all in Guyana and the Deputy Prime Minister refused, after enduring much harassment, to even see him at all. The elderly mothers of the Temple members who reported receiving the calls were so alarmed and upset by a series of defamatory statements that they had to have telephone patch conversations with their loved ones in Guyana to be reassured that they are well and happy and what Mr. Stoen had told them was lies.

The Guyanese Ambassador to the U.S. said that people in the appropriate positions have been notified of Mr. Stoen's threats. The plans for mercenaries will not be tolerated. He has cautioned Rev. Jones and the Temple members in Guyana to be very careful. This kind of image of the United States, which Mr. Stoen is projecting, is by no means favorable to the Department of State; we understand he is parading as though he has your support. We would feel much better if we had some verification that you and your staff are assuming your responsibility in this matter. Certainly the activities of Mr. Stoen should be looked into and he should be duly informed this kind of provocative and illegal behavior will not be tolerated.

Sincerely,

Jean F. Brown, Peoples Temple

Hon. Cyrus Vance
Secretary of State
Main State Building
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Vance:

Yesterday Timothy Stoen organized a demonstration at the Federal Building in San Francisco. He involved a handful of people who claimed they had relatives overseas in Jonestown, Guyana, who were being held there against their will. Many of the participants in fact had no relatives overseas, as they claimed. The small group made allegations that Jonestown is a concentration camp. They carried posters saying that you, as Secretary of State, Mr. Burnham as Prime Minster of Guyana, and Mr. McCoy as U.S. Ambassador, were all complicit in in holding their relatives "captive." They made their ridiculously false charges in front of the media, and the charges were carried across the Bay Area on several TV channels.

Several yards away, nearly a thousand members and supporters of Peoples Temple also made a demonstration. We had learned of Mr. Stoen's intentions beforehand and wanted to be sure that both sides of the story received media attention. Among the thousand supporters were hundreds of people whose mothers, fathers, sons and daughters are in Guyana at the Temple project and who are extremely happy that their relatives are there. Many have visited loved ones; all have received regular and cordial mail; and all were extremely supportive of Rev. Jones' work to build a model community and build better relations between the U.S. and the Caribbean. It is not surprising to us, however, that only the negating side received press coverage. The criticisms of Mr. Stoen against yourself and other government officials were carried in the news as highlights; the good works of the Temple and its mass of supporters were underplayed completely.

With representatives of the U.S. State Department having visited every one of the relatives in question, and having issued thorough reports in order to document their well-being and desire to stay happily where they are, the provocative and purely disruptive nature of Mr. Stoen's and the "Concerned Relatives'" activities is revealed conclusively.

Respectfully,

Jean F. Brown

Re: "Concerned Relatives"--Petitions in re Human Rights Abuses of United States Citizens

Dear Mr. Vance:

I have been asked by Concerned Relatives to forward to you the following documents dated May 10, 1978:

1. Petition Entreating Secretary of State Cyrus Vance to Protect the Human Rights of United States Citizens in "Jonestown", Guyana; and

2. Petition Entreating Prime Minister Forbes Burnham to Stop Rev. James Warren Jones From Further Violations of the Human Rights of Our Relatives in Guyana.

We are asking you to immediately transmit to Prime Minister Burnham the petition addressed to him. We are asking you, inter alia, to launch a continuing investigation of Jonestown by ordering Ambassador John Burke to station U. S. Embassy personnel on the premises around the clock so as to protect the legal rights of the U. S. citizens there.

I wish there were some way to convince you that the situation in Jonestown is desperate. Unlike Jones in his mass barrage of letters to you, we are not exaggerating in pointing out the particular acts he is guilty of. We cite article and section number of the laws being violated.

Please advise as to when you have transmitted the petition to Mr. Burnham and as to your response to our request for an investigation.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

PETITION ENTREATING SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS VANCE TO PROTECT THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF UNITED STATES CITIZENS IN "JONESTOWN", GUYANA

TO: HONORABLE CYRUS VANCE, SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

From: "Concerned Relatives": Parents and relatives of children and adults under the control of Rev. James Warren Jones at "Jonestown", Northwest District, Guyana, South America

Data: May 10, 1978

We, the undersigned 57 petitioners, are the grief-stricken parents and relatives of the hereinafter-designated U. S. citizens now residing in the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, South America. We respectfully entreat you to attend to the following facts:

1. More than 1,000 United States citizens, including our relatives, are now living in Guyana, South America at a jungle encampment named "Jonestown", whose leader is Jim Jones, also a citizen of the United States.

2. We have evidence that Jonestown has turned into a "concentration camp" in which the rights of its residents under the U. S. Constitution, the United Nations Charter, the Guyana Constitution, and the Guyana Penal Code are being seriously and systematically violated by Jim Jones. The facts supporting this said conclusion include the following:

a. The stationing of guards around Jonestown to prevent anyone leaving the encampment without Jones' permission;

b. The confiscation by Jones of all passports and monies to prevent anyone from buying an airline ticket home and from being cleared at Timehri International Airport to leave Guyana;

c. The requirement that no resident of Jonestown be permitted to leave the encampment except on business for Jones, and then only in the company of others required to spy and report back to Jones;

d. The prohibition of long distance telephone calls to the United States and all other forms of free communication;

e. The censoring of all incoming and outgoing mail;

f. The prohibition of anyone leaving Jones' organization, Peoples Temple, under threat of death.

These are facts, and they are documented by eye-witness accounts in the notarized affidavits of Yulanda Crawford and Steven A. Katsaris attached hereto. (In addition, we have recently been advised and believe, but need an investigation to verify, that Jones has installed barbed-wire fences and has also installed a closed-circuit television system for internal surveillance.)

4. On April 12, 1978 we served on Peoples Temple officials in San Francisco a document which cited, by Article and Section number, the particular provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (guaranteed by Article 55 of the United Nations Charter) and of the Guyana Constitution being violated. This document is entitled, "Accusation of Human Rights Violations by Rev. James Warren Jones Against Our Children and Relatives at the Peoples Temple Jungle Encampment in Guyana, South America."

DECLASSIFIED

5. On April 19, 1978 we sent a copy of the aforesaid Accusation to each of the following officials of the Department of State:

a. Hon. Cyrus Vance, Secretary of State;

b. Hon. Warren Christopher, Deputy Secretary of State;

c. Hon. Douglas Bennet, Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations;

d. Hon. Patricia Derian, Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights;

e. Hon. Hodding Carter III, Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs; and

f. Hon. Stephen Dobrenchuk, Chief of Emergency and Protection Services Division for Department of State.

6. We are herewith submitting today a document entitled, "PETITION ENTREATING PRIME MINISTER FORBES BURNHAM TO STOP REV. JAMES WARREN JONES FROM FURTHER VIOLATIONS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF OUR RELATIVES IN GUYANA." We ask that you read it carefully, particularly the quotations from Peoples Temple on a "decision" to die, and a "unanimous vote" to put "our lives on the line." We ask that you then transmit the same through official State Department channels to the Honorable Forbes Burnham.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE RESPECTFULLY ask that you, HONORABLE CYRUS VANCE, in your capacity as SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE UNITED STATES, take the following action to protect the human and legal rights of the United States citizens in Jonestown, Guyana, before it is too late:

1. Immediately transmit to the Honorable Forbes Burnham, Prime Minister of Guyana, the enclosed pecition dated May 10, 1978 addressed to him.

2. Immediately order the Honorable John R. Burke, United States Ambassador to Guyana, to launch a continuing investigation of Jonestown, including the placement of U. S. Embassy personnel in Jonestown to protect the legal rights of the U. S. citizens there.

3. Officially request on behalf of the United States Government that Prime Minister Burnham take the action requested in our aforesaid petition addressed to him.

4. Officially request all international agencies concerned with human rights to investigate and monitor the activities of Jim Jones which violate such rights, including the United Nations, the International Commission of Human Rights, the International Red Cross, Amnesty International, the International Commission of Jurists.

5. Notify our spokesman, Steven A. Katsaris, Trinity School, 915 West Church Street, Ukiah, California 95482 (telephone 707-462-8721) of your willingness to take the action herein requested.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

CONCERNED RELATIVES

PEOPLES TEMPLE

OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

Jim Jones, Pastor

March 14, 1978

"For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Romans 8:38-39

TO ALL U.S. SENATORS AND MEMBERS OF CONGRESS:

We at Peoples Temple have been the subject of harassment by several agencies of the U.S. Government, and are rapidly reaching the point at which patience is exhausted. Radical Trotskyite elements which defected from our organization when we refused to follow their violent course have been orchestrating a campaign against us. Two of them, Michael Cartmell and Jim Cobb, were casually discovered making ammunition several years ago. These same two persons have boasted about knowing persons in the IRS and FCC and using them to get back at Peoples Temple. They also vowed recently to several witnesses that they would see to it that our group of over 1,000 U.S. citizens (currently conducting a highly successful agricultural project in Guyana) were starved out by having funds cut off from the U.S. To date, several agencies have been attempting various forms of harrassment. First was the Social Security, which tried to deny legitimate beneficiaries of their rights by cutting off all checks that were coming to Guyana. Through the intervention of various government officials, we were able to have this reinstated as it should have been.

Now, however, we see that the U.S. and Treasury Dept. and even the Federal Communications Commission, are trying to initiate ways to cut off our lifelines. The FCC has suddenly decided to pursue a very [illegible] complaint that was registered over a year ago. It is clear that its intention is to disrupt our essential medium of communication, amateur radio. Each week we contact thousands of amateur radio operators; gustnous and consultation with doctors in the U.S. have literally saved lives and have engendered tremendous goodwill in this part of the world. We consistently praise the U.S. over the airways and remain entirely supportive of U.S. policy in the Caribbean and around the world, especially with non-aligned nations. It seems utterly cruel to deprive such a large group of Americans of their only means of quick communication with the U.S. We cannot believe that you would want to see this, nor would you in any way condone such an organized effort to "starve out" hundreds of U.S. citizens, who are seeking to live in peace and be a credit to the U.S. elsewhere. These same agencies and elements in the press would seek to destroy any progressive thinking official.

Our cooperative project in Guyana has been cited by people the world over as an example of a new image for the U.S. This project and the efforts of Peoples Temple were recently praised in the magazine One World, a publication of the World Council of Churches. Even Russia's New Times magazine has praised this work and does so in spite of our strong support of Russian people of Jewish descent, an obvious discrepancy. We receive letters weekly from Russia, as well as from people in other parts of the world who have heard of the project, offering advice and assistance. In fact, several overtures have been made from Russia, which see our current harassment as a form of political persecution. We do not want to take assistance from any people nor do we want to become an international issue. We also do not intend to be starved out by having our legitimately earned monies cut off through the efforts of Trotskyite people and embittered malcontents. We have no political aspirations whatsoever. Jim Jones has spent the last 8 months working to develop the project in Guyana. We wish to continue to do so unmolested and unhampered. This project has done a great deal of practical good for the U.S., not only in promoting a positive image in a place where many of the populace have more of a left leaning, but also in a very tangible way financially. The amount of tax dollars we have saved the U.S. by taking people off welfare and off SSI and rescuing some from inevitable lives of crime would total conservatively in the hundreds of thousands. More importantly than that, lives have been saved that would have been means for destruction. It seems cruel that anyone would want to escalate this type of bureaucratic harrassment into an international issue, but it is equally evident that people cannot forever be continually harrassed and belittled by such tactics without making alternatives that have been presented. I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than to be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next. I hope you can look into this matter and protect the right of over 1,000 people from the U.S. to live in peace.

Sincerely,

Jim Jones

EXHIBIT A

AFFIDAVIT OF YULANDA D. A. CRAWFORD SHOWING THE TEACHINGS AND PRACTICES OF REV. JAMES WARREN JONES IN GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA

I, Yulanda D. A. Crawford, certify as follows:

1. I was in Guyana, South America as a member of Peoples Temple from April 1, 1977 until June 29, 1977. Rev. James Warren Jones ("Jim Jones"), the leader of Peoples Temple, was in Guyana most of April and during the latter part of June, at which times I witnessed the following statements and practices by him.

2. Jim Jones stated that the United States is the "most evil" nation in the world, referring to its political and industrial leaders as "capitalistic pigs". He said he would rather have his people dead than live in the United States.

3. Jim Jones prior to June said that people would be coming to live in Guyana for a temporary period of time. In June Jim Jones stated that the people he brings over from the United States will be staying in Guyana "permanently".

4. Jim Jones said that nobody will be permitted to leave Jonestown and that he was going to keep guards stationed around Jonestown to keep anybody from leaving. He said that he had guns and that if anyone tries to leave they will be killed ("offed") and their bodies will be left in the jungle and "we can say that we don't know what happened to you." He also said, "I can get a hit man for fifty dollars. It's not hard for me to get a hit man anywhere."

EXHIBIT B

5. While still in the United States, Jim Jones asked the Temple members to turn all their guns over to him. I also saw ammunition being packed in crates for shipment to Guyana addressed to Peoples Temple from San Francisco. I heard Jim Jones say, "If anyone tries to start anything, we are ready and prepared to die for our cause."

6. Jim Jones said that black people and their sympathizers were going to be destroyed in the United States, that "the Ku Klux Klan is marching in the streets of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and cities back east". There was "fighting in the streets, and the drought in California is so bad, Los Angeles is being deserted".

7. Jim Jones said that everyone should turn in their passports and all their money to him, that nobody is to visit any local Guyanese people unless on a "mission" and in the company of other Temple members, that nobody is to make any telephone calls to relatives, that nobody was to send any mail to the United States without first getting it "cleared". All incoming mail was first received by Temple secretaries and read before being shown to the person addressed.

8. Jim Jones said that "I will lay my body down for this cause" and asked others to make the same promise, which they did by a show of hands, and also asked them to commit themselves to kill anyone attempting to hurt him.

9. Jim Jones ordered all of us to break our ties with families. He said that our highest and only loyalty should be "the cause", and that the only reason for staying in touch with our families was to collect inheritances when "they died off" and to keep them pacified "so as not to make trouble for the cause".

DECLASSIFIED

10. Jim Jones ordered us to "report" on one another to prevent "treason". His technique was to have everyone report to him (or his two or three most trusted leaders) all suspicious talk or behavior of others.

11. Jim Jones ordered people punished when they broke his rules. The punishments included food-deprivation, sleep-deprivation, hard labor, and eating South American hot peppers. I saw a teenager, Tommy Bogue, being forced to eat hot peppers at a public meeting.

12. So far as I know, only one person (Leon Broshears) out of 850 or more residents has dared to leave Jonestown since my mother, husband and I left on June 29, 1977. Before Jim Jones allowed me to leave, I was forced to promise him I would never speak against the church, and that if I did I would lose his "protection" and be "stabbed in the back". Furthermore, Jim Jones ordered me to sign a number of self-incriminating papers, including a statement that I was against the government of Guyana, that I had plotted against that government, that I was part of the PPP (Peoples Progressive Party), which is the opposition party in Guyana, and that I had come to Guyana to help the PPP. Jim Jones said the reason for signing those papers was to discredit me if I ever decided to leave the movement "and talk". Also, before leaving for Guyana, I was ordered to fabricate a story and sign it stating that I killed someone and threw the body in the ocean. I was told that if I ever caused Jim Jones trouble, he would give that statement to the police. He further intimidated me and others in the congregation by saying, "I, (Jim Jones) have Mafia connections, and they will stand with me all the way."

13. I heard him state to the congregation in Guyana that Marshall Kilduff, who wrote the first articles exposing him, was dead. He said, "The angels have taken care of him". We all knew the "angels" were his people who would do you in if you crossed Jim Jones.

14. Jim Jones ordered all telephone calls to relatives in the United States to be made in the presence of Temple members and after coaching. When my mother tried to call her brother in the United States and get him to stop criticizing the Temple, Jim Jones stood by her side and told her everything she was to say and then faulted her for not being forceful enough. He ordered us to tell our relatives in the United States to stop criticizing him or we would not be allowed to return home.

15. On numerous occasions I was in the congregation when he told us "I am God" and "there is no other God, and religion is the opium of the people." He stated he used religion only to get to the masses.

16. I recall several instances of Jim Jones stating he could silence critics or defectors by accusing them of being homosexuals, child abusers, terrorists or sexual deviates.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at San Francisco, California on April 10, 1978.

PETITION ENTREATING PRIME MINISTER FORBES BURNHAM TO STOP REV. JAMES WARREN JONES FROM FURTHER VIOLATIONS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF OUR RELATIVES IN GUYANA

TO: HONORABLE FORBES BURNHAM, PRIME MINISTER OF THE COOPERATIVE REPUBLIC OF GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA

From: "Concerned Relatives": Parents and relatives of children and adults under the control of Rev. James Warren Jones at "Jonestown", Northwest District, Guyana

Date: May 10, 1978

We, the undersigned 57 petitioners, are the grief-stricken parents and relatives of the hereinafter-designated persons now living in your country. We respectfully entreat you to attend to the following facts:

1. In June 1977 Rev. James Warren Jones ("Jim Jones") left the United States for Guyana as he was about to be exposed in the press for fraud, brutality to children, and taking properties by false pretenses. Jim Jones has never returned to the United States to answer these charges.

2. Since June 1977 Jim Jones has induced more than 1,000 United States citizens to become permanent residents of Guyana at his jungle encampment leased from your government. He calls this encampment "Jonestown".

3. Jim Jones at this moment is flagrantly and systematically carrying out the following acts and abuses on all Jonestown residents, including our relatives:

a. Stations guards around Jonestown and threatens the residents with death if they attempt to leave;

b. Confiscates their passports and money;

c. Employs physical intimidation and psychological coercion as part of a mind-programming campaign aimed at destroying family ties, discrediting belief in God, and causing contempt for the United States of America, as well as for all other nation states, including Guyana;

d. Deprives them of their rights to privacy, free speech, freedom of association, and freedom of movement by:

(1) Prohibiting telephone calls;

(2) Prohibiting individual contacts with all "outsiders", including Guyanese;

(3) Censoring all incoming and outgoing mail;

(4) Extorting silence from relatives in the U.S. by threats to stop all communication;

(5) Preventing our children from seeing us when we travel to Guyana (five of us have tried).

4. The foregoing acts are documented in the "Accusation of Human Rights Violations by Rev. James Warren Jones Against Our Children and Relatives at the Peoples Temple Jungle Encampment in Guyana, South America", a copy of which is attached. These acts of Jim Jones are a clear violation of the Guyanese Constitution and of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as quoted in the aforesaid Accusation. The physical intimidation is a violation of the penal code of Guyana.

5. On April 11, 1978 we served the aforesaid Accusation on Peoples Temple officials in San Francisco. The Accusation set forth a number of demands for relief, including a demand that Jones permit and encourage our relatives to return to the United States for a one-week visit home at our expense, return fare being guaranteed.

6. On April 12, 1978 we sent two copies of this Accusation to you as Prime Minister of Guyana. One copy was sent via the Guyanese Embassy in Washington, D. C., and the other directly to Georgetown, Guyana. In our cover letter we asked you, as "the one person in the world with power" over Jones, to take action to stop his violations of human rights. We have received no response from you.

7. On April 17, 1978 Jim Jones responded to our demands for relief by staging a press conference in the office of his attorney in San Francisco, wherein our relatives in Jonestown read scripts over a radio-phone network praising "the integrity, honesty, and bravery" of Jim Jones and falsely denouncing us as child molesters, sexual deviates, dope addicts, and terrorists, as well as manifesting other symptoms of mind-programming. (In order to show the falsity of these charges, Steven Katsaris on May 2, 1978 voluntarily submitted himself to a professional polygraph examination. The report, dated May 3 and attached hereto, concludes: "It is the opinion of the examiner, based on Katsaris' polygraph charts, that he is telling the truth.")

8. On April 18, 1978 Jones intimated once again a threat so chilling as to be incomprehensible to the average decent person. In our Accusation we had demanded Jones clarify the following sentence in a March 14, 1978 letter on Peoples Temple stationery addressed "to all U. S. Senators and Members of Congress":

> "I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next."

On April 18 Jones issued a Press Release on Peoples Temple stationery with the following "clarification" (page 4):

> "And we, likewise, affirm that before we will submit quietly to the interminable plotting and persecution of this politically motivated conspiracy, we will resist actively, putting our lives on the line, if it comes to that. This has been the unanimous vote of the collective community here in Guyana."

9. On April 26, 1978 we served an advance version of this Petition on the Honorable Joseph D'Oliveira, Honorary Consul for the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, Los Angeles, California.

10. We respectfully submit to you, Mr. Prime Minister, that the foregoing evidence shows that Jonestown, Guyana has taken on the characteristics of a "concentration camp", and that you, as the leader of Guyana, would do well to analyze the mentality of its leader so as to anticipate its potential for causing extreme damage to Guyana's reputation in the international community.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE RESPECTFULLY ask that you, HONORABLE FORBES BURNHAM, in your capacity as PRIME MINISTER OF GUYANA, take the following action to protect the human and legal rights of our relatives in Guyana before it is too late:

1. Immediately order the Minister of Home Affairs and the Commissioner of Police to launch an ongoing investigation into Jones' violations of the Guyanese Penal Code and Constitution.

2. Immediately order "Bishop Jim Jones" (as he presents himself to you) to cease and desist from the unlawful acts itemized in the attached Accusation, with particular orders for him to:

a. Remove all guards stationed around Jonestown;

b. Return to our relatives their passports and money;

c. Permit them to mix with the local Guyanese as individuals;

d. Permit them to make telephone calls to us in private at our expense when in Georgetown;

e. Permit them to receive all mail individually addressed to them, and to read the same in private;

f. Permit them to mail letters they write in private without being opened by Jones or his staff.

3. Immediately order Jones to permit and encourage our relatives to return to the United States for a one-week home visit at our expense, so as to test whether or not they are being held against their will, upon our guarantee of return fare should they choose to return.

4. Immediately order Jones to abide by the lawful orders of courts in the United States with respect to the custody of our relatives.

5. If Jim Jones refuses to abide by your orders, expel him from Guyana so that Jonestown can become a democratic society in accordance with the Guyana Constitution.

6. Notify our spokesman, Steven A. Katsaris, Trinity School, 915 West Church Street, Ukiah, California 95482 (telephone 707-462-8721) of your willingness to protect the human and legal rights of our relatives.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT: May 3, 1978 No. P-9019

Mr. Timothy Oliver Stoen
Attorney At Law
120 Montgomery Street
San Francisco, California

On May 2, 1978, Steven A. Katsaris voluntarily came to this office for a polygraph examination. The main issues under consideration involved allegations of sexual molestation made against him by his daughter, Maria Katsaris. Maria is presently with the People's Temple Church in Guyana. During Mr. Katsaris' attempts to get his daughter away from this church, the allegations of sexual molestation were made by some of the officials of the People's Temple Church. To specific, public statements along this line were made by Maria Katsaris. Many other charges made against Katsaris by the People's Temple Church was the statement that he was involved with a right-wing congressman in a conspiracy to destroy People's Temple Church.

During Mr. Katsaris' pre-test interview, he maintained he has never made any sexual advances whatsoever toward his daughter, Maria. He also insisted that he has never been involved in any conspiracy with a congressman to destroy People's Temple Church.

There were no significant emotional disturbances indicative of deception reflected in Mr. Katsaris' polygraph charts when he answered "No" to the following test questions:

"Did you ever make any sexual advances toward Maria Katsaris?"

"Did you ever try to have sexual intercourse with your daughter, Maria?"

"Did you ever sexually fondle any part of Maria's body?"

"Did you ever plan with any congressman to destroy People's Temple Church?"

It is the opinion of the examiner, based on Katsaris' polygraph charts, that he is telling the truth on the above-listed questions.

Yours very truly,

PETITION ENTREATING PRIME MINISTER FORBES BURNHAM TO STOP REV. JAMES WARREN JONES FROM FURTHER VIOLATIONS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF OUR RELATIVES IN GUYANA

TO: HONORABLE FORBES BURNHAM, PRIME MINISTER OF THE COOPERATIVE REPUBLIC OF GUYANA, SOUTH AMERICA

From: "Concerned Relatives": Parents and relatives of children and adults under the control of Rev. James Warren Jones at "Jonestown", Northwest District, Guyana

Date: May 10, 1978

We, the undersigned 57 petitioners, are the grief-stricken parents and relatives of the hereinafter-designated persons now living in your country. We respectfully entreat you to attend to the following facts:

1. In June 1977 Rev. James Warren Jones ("Jim Jones") left the United States for Guyana as he was about to be exposed in the press for fraud, brutality to children, and taking properties by false pretenses. Jim Jones has never returned to the United States to answer these charges.

2. Since June 1977 Jim Jones has induced more than 1,000 United States citizens to become permanent residents of Guyana at his jungle encampment leased from your government. He calls this encampment "Jonestown".

3. Jim Jones at this moment is flagrantly and systematically carrying out the following acts and abuses on all Jonestown residents, including our relatives:

a. Stations guards around Jonestown and threatens the residents with death if they attempt to leave;

b. Confiscates their passports and money;

c. Employs physical intimidation and psychological coercion as part of a mind-programming campaign aimed at destroying family ties, discrediting belief in God, and causing contempt for the United States of America, as well as for all other nation states, including Guyana;

d. Deprives them of their rights to privacy, free speech, freedom of associati[illegible] and freedom of movement by:

(1) Prohibiting telephone calls;

(2) Prohibiting individual contacts with all "outsiders", including Guyanese;

(3) Censoring all incoming and outgoing mail;

(4) Extorting silence from relatives in the U.S. by threats to stop all communication;

(5) Preventing our children from seeing us when we travel to Guyana (five of us have tried).

4. The foregoing acts are documented in the "Accusation of Human Rights Violations by Rev. James Warren Jones Against Our Children and Relatives at the Peoples Temple Jungle Encampment in Guyana, South America", a copy of which is attached. These acts of Jim Jones are a clear violation of the Guyanese Constitution and of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as quoted in the aforesaid Accusation. The physical intimidation is a violation of the penal code of Guyana.

5. On April 11, 1978 we served the aforesaid Accusation on Peoples Temple officials in San Francisco. The Accusation set forth a number of demands for relief, including a demand that Jones permit and encourage our relatives to return to the United States for a one-week visit home at our expense, return fare being guaranteed.

6. On April 12, 1978 we sent two copies of this Accusation to you as Prime Minister of Guyana. One copy was sent via the Guyanese Embassy in Washington, D. C., and the other directly to Georgetown, Guyana. In our cover letter we asked you, as "the one person in the world with power" over Jones, to take action to stop his violations of human rights. We have received no response from you.

7. On April 17, 1978 Jim Jones responded to our demands for relief by staging a press conference in the office of his attorney in San Francisco, wherein our relatives in Jonestown read scripts over a radio-phone network praising "the integrity, honesty, and bravery" of Jim Jones and falsely denouncing us as child molesters, sexual deviates, dope addicts, and terrorists, as well as manifesting other symptoms of mind-programming. (In order to show the falsity of these charges, Steven Katsaris on May 2, 1978 voluntarily submitted himself to a professional polygraph examination. The report, dated May 3 and attached hereto, concludes: "It is the opinion of the examiner, based on Katsaris' polygraph charts, that he is telling the truth.")

8. On April 18, 1978 Jones intimated once again a threat so chilling as to be incomprehensible to the average decent person. In our Accusation we had demanded Jones clarify the following sentence in a March 14, 1978 letter on Peoples Temple stationary addressed "to all U. S. Senators and Members of Congress":

> "I can say without hesitation that we are devoted to a decision that it is better even to die than be constantly harrassed from one continent to the next."

On April 18 Jones issued a Press Release on Peoples Temple stationery with the following "clarification" (page 4):

> "And we, likewise, affirm that before we will submit quietly to the interminable plotting and persecution of this politically motivated conspiracy, we will resist actively, putting our lives on the line, if it comes to that. This has been the unanimous vote of the collective community here in Guyana."

9. On April 25, 1978 we served an advance version of this Petition on the Honorable Joseph D'Oliveira, Honorary Consul for the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, Los Angeles, California.

10. We respectfully submit to you, Mr. Prime Minister, that the foregoing evidence shows that Jonestown, Guyana has taken on the characteristics of a "concentration camp", and that you, as the leader of Guyana, would do well to analyze the mentality of its leader so as to anticipate its potential for causing extreme damage to Guyana's reputation in the international community.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE RESPECTFULLY ask that you, HONORABLE FORBES BURNHAM, in your capacity as PRIME MINISTER OF GUYANA, take the following action to protect the human and legal rights of our relatives in Guyana before it is too late:

1. Immediately order the Minister of Home Affairs and the Commissioner of Police to launch an ongoing investigation into Jones' violations of the Guyanese Penal Code and Constitution.

2. Immediately order "Bishop Jim Jones" (as he presents himself to you) to cease and desist from the unlawful acts itemized in the attached Accusation, with particular orders for him to:

a. Remove all guards stationed around Jonestown;

b. Return to our relatives their passports and money;

c. Permit them to mix with the local Guyanese as individuals;

d. Permit them to make telephone calls to us in private at our expense when in Georgetown;

e. Permit them to receive all mail individually addressed to them, and to read the same in private;

f. Permit them to mail letters they write in private without being opened by Jones or his staff.

3. Immediately order Jones to permit and encourage our relatives to return to the United States for a one-week home visit at our expense, so as to test whether or not they are being held against their will, upon our guarantee of return fare should they choose to return.

4. Immediately order Jones to abide by the lawful orders of courts in the United States with respect to the custody of our relatives.

5. If Jim Jones refuses to abide by your orders, expel him from Guyana so that Jonestown can become a democratic society in accordance with the Guyana Constitution.

6. Notify our spokesman, Steven A. Katsaris, Trinity School, 915 West Church Street, Ukiah, California 95482 (telephone 707-462-8721) of your willingness to protect the human and legal rights of our relatives.

Q Well, Andy Young was implying that they were in the last year.

A I just don't have the information, Roy, that would allow me to answer that question.

Q Can you take that question?

A Yes.

Q And whether there were Zairians going in or Angolans going to Zaire who were fighting against the government?

A Again, I will do what I can. I don't promise that I'll be able to give you much information on it.

Q John, on South America?

A Did you have a question on Africa?

Q Yes. On the SWAPO rejection of the Western plan, do you have a response to that?

A I think first of all, it's been indicated in reports about SWAPO's intentions that they intend to reject the Western Five's proposal. I would first point out that this has not, in fact, happened, and we hope that it will not happen. And we hope that SWAPO will accept the Western Five's proposal which we believe provides the basis for a peaceful internationally acceptable transition to independence in Namibia.

I would just like to tack onto that the observation that that Western Five proposal provides for SWAPO to freely and fully participate in the political process in Namibia.

Q Where is Ambassador McHenry?

A I don't know.

Q Is he in Africa?

A I'll just have to find out. I don't know.

Q On South America?

A Yes.

Disciples of Christ clergyman named Jim Jones, the former head of the San Francisco housing authority who has met with several Democratic Party leaders, including Mrs. Carter, is mind-programming a thousand people, mainly children, in a jungle encampment called Johnstown. I was wondering, is the State Department aware of this?

A The State Department may be. I am not.

Q I'd like to follow that up if you could take this question because her husband, the editor, told the Los Angeles Times that the U.S. Consulate in Georgetown told him that his wife would get an armed guard to the airport, and he also said, "I can only conjecture that the government there and the State Department are concerned about avoiding an incident."

This is somewhat unusual because usually when you go to interview missionaries overseas you don't need armed guards. So I would be very grateful, John, if you could take this question. I've got the clip from the L.A. Times that somebody sent me here, and I've seen this man operate in San Francisco.

A I'll just have to find out what we know about it.

Q Thanks very much.

A I've just gotten a note here that goes back to the first topic of this briefing. The Department of Commerce has given preliminary approval of the sale of the Daedalus equipment to the Peoples Republic of China. This is subject to the review by the countries members of COCOM.

MR. CAMERON: European countries plus Japan.

MR. TRATTNER: Thank you, Jack.

Q NATO?

MR. CAMERON: Yes.

MR. TRATTNER: Anything else?

Q No. Thank you.
